FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1838.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day
of September 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, made with the advice of His Privy Council, and bearing date the twenty-third of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, after reciting, amongst other things, that it had been represented to His Majesty at the Council Board, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that they had given directions that His Majesty's troops serving in the several British colonies and possessions abroad, should, in certain cases, be paid in British silver and copper money, and that with a view of securing the circulation of such money in those colonies, it would be expedient that an Order in Council should be issued, declaring that in all those colonies where the Spanish dollar was then either by law, fact, or practice, considered as a legal tender for the discharge of debts; or where the duties to the Government were rated or collected, or the individuals had a right to be paid in that description of coin, that a tender and payment of British silver money, to the amount of four shillings and four pence, should be considered as equivalent to the tender or payment of one Spanish dollar, and so in proportion for any greater or less amount of debt; His said late Majesty was pleased to approve of what was proposed in the said representation.

And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Order in Council should be revoked, so far as respects Her Majesty's colonies and possessions in America and the West Indies, be it therefore, and it is hereby Ordered, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that so far as respects Her Majesty's colonies and possessions in America, and in the West Indies, the said recited Order shall be, and the same is hereby rescinded.

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greyville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day
of September 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, the draft of a Proclamation, regulating the rate at which certain foreign coins are to pass current in Her Majesty's West India colonies; Her Majesty, having taken the same into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Proclamation do take effect and come into force, in each of Her Majesty's said colonies, upon, and from and after, such day as shall be, for that purpose, limited by the Governor, or Officer administering the Government, of each of the said colonies respectively, by any Proclamations to be by them respectively, for that purpose, issued in each of such respective colonies:

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions for causing publication to be made hereof within Her Majesty's said colonies.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of September 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS since the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad, the marriage laws of the said colonies, plantations, and possessions have been found inappropriate to the altered condition thereof, and inadequate to the increased desire for lawful matrimony therein: and whereas it is expedient and necessary to amend the said marriage laws, and to adapt the same to the altered state and condition of society in the said colonies, plantations, and possessions, it is, therefore, hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, from and after the taking effect of this Order, it shall be lawful for any minister of the Christian religion, ordained or otherwise set apart to the ministry of the Christian religion, according to the usage of the persuasion to which he may belong, to publish, within the colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, St. Lucia, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius, or any of them, banns of marriage between persons desirous of being joined together in matrimony, and such publication shall be made in an audible manner some time during public divine service on a Sunday, in the face of the congregation before whom such minister shall officiate in the parish in which both or one of the parties to be married shall dwell, and shall contain the Christian and other name and surname and place of abode of each of the said parties, and shall be so published by some such minister for three Sundays preceding the solemnization of the marriage, during the morning service, if there be service in the morning, or if there shall be no morning service then during the evening service; and if the parties to be married shall dwell in different parishes the banns shall be published in like manner in both such parishes; and if the said parties shall be of different persuasions the banns shall be published in like manner before each of the congregations to which the said parties may respectively belong, whether both the said congregations shall assemble in the same parish or not. And where one or both of the parties shall dwell in any extra-parochial place, then if there be a congregation of the persuasion to which any such party shall belong assembling for public divine worship as aforesaid in such extra-parochial place, the banns of the party or parties dwelling in such extra-parochial place shall be published in manner aforesaid in such extra-parochial place; and if there shall be no such congregation in such extra-parochial place, then the banns of such of the parties to be married as shall dwell in such extra-parochial place shall be published in manner aforesaid in some parish next adjoining to such extra-parochial place; and in cases where the banns shall have been published in different places the officiating minister at either of the said places shall, on the request of both or either of the parties whose banns shall have been published as aforesaid, give to the party requiring the same a certificate of the banns having been duly published in the place of which he is an officiating minister, and on the production of such certificate to the officiating minister of the other place where the banns were published, or of such certificates to any other such minister as aforesaid in the parish or extra-parochial place to which one of the parties shall belong, it shall be lawful for such minister where the banns were published, on receiving such certificate from such other minister where the banns were published, or for such minister as aforesaid, to whom the certificates of such ministers of both places where the banns were published, on receipt of such certificate or certificates (as the case may be) to solemnize matrimony between the said parties according to such form and ceremony as shall be in use or be adopted by the persuasion to which the minister solemnizing such marriage shall belong; provided that whenever the form and ceremony used shall be other than that of the united church of England and Ireland, each of the parties shall, in some part of the ceremony, make the following declaration:

"I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D., here present."

And each of the parties shall say to the other?

"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A. B., do take thee, C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)."

And it is hereby further ordered, that no minister shall be obliged to publish banns between any persons whomsoever, unless the persons to be married shall, two days at the least before the time required for the first publication of such banns respectively, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to such minister, a notice of their true christian and other names and surnames, and a description of their place or respective places of abode, in such parish or extra-parochial place as aforesaid, and of the time during which they have dwelt in such place or places: and that it shall not be lawful for any minister to solemnize any marriage after three calendar months from the last publication of banns of such marriage; and in all cases where three calendar months shall have elapsed without the marriage having been solemnized, the publication of such banns shall be void: and before the said parties can be married by banns, it shall be necessary to republish banns anew, in manner and form aforesaid, as if no banns had ever been published between them.

And be it further enacted, that no such minister as aforesaid, who shall solemnize any marriage after due publication of banns as aforesaid, between persons, both or one of whom (not being a widow or widower) shall at the time of such marriage be under legal age, shall be answerable, or responsible, or liable to any pain, penalty, or proceeding, for having solemnized such marriage without the consent of the parents or guardians, or other person (if any) whose consent is required by law, unless such parents or guardians, or other person, or one of them shall forbid the marriage, and give notice thereof to such minister before he has solemnized the same; and in case such marriage shall be forbidden as aforesaid, and such notice shall be given as aforesaid, the publication of the banns for such marriage shall be absolutely void.

And it is hereby further ordered, that where by any law in force, or which may hereafter be in force, in any of the colonies to which this Order applies, by which licences for marriage, without the publication of banns, may be granted or issued in any such colony by the governor thereof, or any other civil authority therein, it shall be lawful for the parties intending marriage, or either of them, to require that such licence shall authorise the solemnization of the marriage, in respect of which such licence is applied for, in any place where, and by any minister by whom, such marriage could have been solemnized by virtue of this Act if banns thereof had been published as aforesaid.

"And whereas it may happen that in some of the colonies to which this Order applies, or in some parts thereof respectively, there may not be any such minister as aforesaid, or not a sufficient number of such ministers to afford convenient facilities for marriage, and it is expedient to provide for such cases:"

It is therefore further ordered, that in every such case, and whenever the same shall happen in any of the said colonies, it shall be lawful for the governor of such colony to appoint by writing, under his hand and official seal, one or more such fit and proper person or persons as he shall from time to time deem necessary or expedient, to be called the marriage officer, to solemnize marriages within such part or parts of the colony in which such appointment shall be made, as the governor shall from time to time direct: and it shall be lawful for the governor at any time, and from time to time, to revoke and cancel any such appointment or appointments, and to alter, vary, enlarge, or contract the district or districts in which any person so appointed shall have power or jurisdiction to celebrate marriage, for any cause which to him shall seem meet; and every such appointment shall specify the part or district within which the person thereby appointed shall have power and jurisdiction to celebrate marriage; and, until some law shall be made, passed, allowed, and promulgated for regulating marriages by persons so appointed, it shall be lawful for the governor, and he is hereby required to direct, declare, and promulgate the manner by which the intention of parties to marry before any such marriage officer shall be made public; provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any such marriage officer to solemnize marriage between persons, one or both of whom shall be under lawful age (unless in the case of a widow or widower), after such marriage shall be forbidden, and notice thereof given to him by any person having lawful authority to forbid the same: provided always, that in every marriage before any such marriage officer not celebrated according to the form of the united church of England and Ireland, the parties shall, in some part of the ceremony, respectively make the declarations hereinbefore set forth, as in the case of marriage by any such minister as aforesaid: provided also, that every such minister as aforesaid may nevertheless publish banns and celebrate marriage under and by virtue of this Order in any part or district within which any such marriage officer shall have power or jurisdiction to celebrate marriage, as fully as if no such marriage officer had ever been appointed.

“ And whereas it may happen that the parents or parent, guardians or guardian of one or both of the parties to be married may be non compos mentis, or absent from the colony, or otherwise incapable in law or in fact of consenting; or may be induced unreasonably and improperly to withhold his, her, or their consent to a proper marriage, or may be dead:”

It is therefore hereby ordered, that in case any such parent or guardian whose consent is necessary to a marriage, shall be non compos mentis, or absent from the colony, or otherwise incapable as aforesaid of consenting, or shall withhold his, her, or their consent to any marriage; or in case there shall be no person capable of consenting, it shall be lawful for any person desirous of marriage, to whose marriage such consent is necessary, but cannot be given, or is withheld, to apply, by petition, to the chief civil judge, or person officiating as such for the time being, of the colony, who is hereby empowered to proceed upon such petition in a summary way, and in case the marriage proposed shall, upon examination, appear to him to be proper, the said chief civil judge, or person officiating as such, shall judicially declare by his order, in writing, that such marriage is proper and may be solemnized forthwith; and every marriage duly solemnized in pursuance, or under the authority or direction of such order, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if such consent as aforesaid had been duly given thereto.

And it is hereby further ordered, that after the solemnization of any marriage under or by virtue of this Act, it shall not be necessary, in support of such marriage, or in any action, suit, or proceeding where the same may come into question, to give any proof of the actual dwelling of the parties married, or of either of them, before the marriage, or that the banns were published, or that the marriage was solemnized in the place, and by a person, where and by whom the same ought to have been published and solemnized respectively, nor shall any evidence be received to prove the contrary.

And it is hereby further ordered, that in no case whatsoever shall any suit or proceeding be had in any court or before any jurisdiction whatsoever, to compel the celebration of any marriage, by reason of any promise or marriage-contract entered into, or by reason of seduction, or of any cause whatsoever which shall arise after the taking effect of this Order, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any person aggrieved from suing for or recovering damages in any court, or by any proceeding wherein and whereby damages may be lawfully recovered for breach of promise of marriage, or for seduction, or other cause as aforesaid.

And in order to preserve evidence of marriages, and to make the proof thereof certain and easy, and for the direction of such ministers and marriage officers as aforesaid in the registration thereof, it is hereby further ordered, that from and after the passing and taking effect of this Order, all marriages (except marriages by special licence to marry at any time and place where such special licences can be lawfully granted), shall be solemnized with open doors, between the hours of (eight) in the forenoon and (four) in the afternoon, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, beside the minister or marriage officer who shall solemnize the same; and that immediately after the solemnization of every marriage, an entry thereof shall be made in a marriage-register book, to be kept for that purpose, by some such minister or marriage officer as aforesaid, or in some safe custody for the place in which marriages may be solemnized; and in every such entry in every such register it shall be expressed that the marriage was had by banns or licence; and if both or either of the parties married by licence be under age, and not a widow or widower, that it was had with the consent of the parents or guardians, or other person or persons having lawful authority to withhold consent to the marriage, or after such order of the chief civil judge, or other person officiating as such as aforesaid, and shall be signed by the minister or marriage officer, as the case may be, with his proper addition, and by the parties married, and shall be attested by such two witnesses; and every such entry shall be in the form or to the effect of the following specimen:

Examined with the Original Register, by me,

Which said duplicate original register shall be left in the hands of the minister or marriage officer by whom the marriage was solemnized; and every such duplicate original register shall, within one calendar month from the date thereof, be transmitted to the colonial secretary of the colony, if there be one, and all such duplicates shall be filed and safely preserved by him in his office; and every such original register, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of the minister or marriage officer who for the time being shall have the lawful custody of the original, to be a true copy, and every such duplicate original register, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of such colonial secretary to be a true copy, shall respectively be good evidence of the facts therein recorded, in pursuance of this Order, in and before all courts and proceedings whatsoever, in which it shall be necessary to give evidence of the marriage to which the same shall relate.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for all persons at all reasonable times in the day (except Sundays) to search the original register-book, and also the file of duplicate original registers, in the presence of the person for the time being having the care of the same respectively, or his deputy, and to have a true copy or true copies of any entries or entry therein, or filed as aforesaid, certified under the hand of the minister, marriage officer, or officer for the time being respectively having the custody of the original or duplicate original register as aforesaid (as the case may be), which true copies or copy such minister, marriage officer, or colonial secretary, is hereby required to make, examine, and certify under his hand to be a true copy, in the form of the duplicate original register, except that the same shall be headed "certified copy (or copies) of original (or duplicate original) marriage register" (as the case may be), and shall be dated on the day, month, and year, when the same shall be delivered.

And it is hereby further ordered, that in order to meet the expence, and as a remuneration for the trouble occasioned by the performance of any duty under this Order, the following fees shall be demandable and payable before the performance of the duty to which the same respectively relate, that is to say—

For solemnizing and registering a marriage, and transmitting the duplicate original to the Colonial Secretary, four shillings.

For every general search not directed to any particular entry, four shillings.

For every search for a particular entry, two shillings.

For every search for two or more particular entries, and not exceeding four entries, one shilling each.

For every search for any number of particular entries exceeding four, four shillings.

For every such certified copy as aforesaid, two shillings.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any clergyman of the established church of England and Ireland from receiving, for any duty performed by him under this Order, such fees or payments as have heretofore been customarily paid to such clergyman, according to the rules of the said church, for the performance of such duties respectively: provided always, that nothing in this Order contained shall authorise or require any clergyman of the established church aforesaid, to solemnize marriage in any other manner than is prescribed by the rubrick: provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Governor to authorise such marriage officers as aforesaid, to receive such further or other remuneration as he shall from time to time think the nature of their duties shall reasonably require.

And it is hereby further ordered, that if any person shall unlawfully, wilfully, and maliciously erase, obliterate, or destroy, or cause or procure to be erased, obliterated, or destroyed, any such original register or duplicate original register as aforesaid, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on being duly convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned in the common gaol in the jurisdiction in which he shall be tried and convicted thereof, for any term not less than three nor exceeding twelve calendar months; and if any person shall unlawfully and wilfully forge or alter, or falsely make or cause or procure, or permit to be forged or altered, or falsely made, any such original register, or duplicate original register, or any certified copy thereof respectively, or shall knowingly and wilfully deliver, offer, utter, or put off any such forged, false, or altered copy, he shall be liable for such his offence, on conviction thereof, to be imprisoned in such gaol as aforesaid, for any term not exceeding eighteen months, nor less than six months.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for the respective local legislatures of the said colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, Saint Lucia, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius, by any ordinance to be by them for that purpose made, to provide for the better adaptation of this present Order to the local circumstances of such colonies respectively, provided that such ordinance be not in contradiction or repugnant to any of the provisions of this Order; and that all such ordinances be made, confirmed, or disallowed, as the case may be, in the manner and according to the rules provided by law in reference to any other ordinances of the said respective local legislatures.

And whereas since the abolition of slavery in the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad, doubts have arisen and exist as to the validity of certain marriages contracted and solemnized previous to the abolition of slavery in the said colonies, plantations, and possessions, between slaves, and between parties one of whom was a slave, and also in some cases between free persons of colour, and, since the abolition of slavery, between apprentices and other persons of free condition, by ministers of the christian religion other than clergymen of the united church of England and Ireland; and it is expedient and necessary that all such doubts should be removed, and such marriages and reputed marriages should be ascertained and confirmed, and that all persons who may have solemnized any such marriages or reputed marriages, or who have in any manner assisted thereat, should be indemnified from and against all pains, penalties, forfeitures, and proceedings to which such persons, or any of them, may be liable therefor. It is, therefore, further ordered, that all marriages which at any time before the taking effect of this Order shall have been solemnized in any of the colonies to which this Order applies, by or before any such minister of the Christian religion as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, and to have been, from the time of the solemnization thereof respectively, good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, any law or usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all pains, penalties, forfeitures, and proceedings of whatsoever kind or description which any such Christian minister may have incurred or become liable to before the taking effect of this Order, by reason of his having solemnized or assisted at any marriage whatsoever, or in anywise in relation thereto, is

And whereas in the colonies in which marriages have been celebrated as aforesaid, registers thereof have been duly made and kept by such ministers as aforesaid, who officiated thereat, it is therefore further ordered, that all such registers and all copies thereof respectively, certified under the hand of the person for the time being having the lawful care of the same to be true copies, shall be, and are hereby declared to be, good evidence of such marriages as aforesaid, respectively, as fully as if such registers had been made and kept, and such certified copies had been made respectively by persons appointed by law to make and keep the same, and shall be received in evidence in all courts, and before all judges and magistrates.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the better to preserve evidence of marriages so registered, and to facilitate the proof thereof, every person in whose custody any register lawfully is or shall be at the time, shall, within six months after the promulgation of this Order, to which the same extends, respectively make, or cause to be made, a fair and correct copy of every such register, and of every entry therein contained. And it shall be lawful for any such christian minister as aforesaid, to examine, verify, and correct (if and where found incorrect) by the original, any such copy of a register kept by the persuasion to which he belongs, and to take the same before any magistrate, and make and sign the following declaration, which any magistrate to whom the same shall be tendered, is hereby authorised and required to receive, and to certify, in manner following, that is to say:

I, A. B. [describe the persuasion to which he belongs], do hereby solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare, that I have carefully examined this copy, beginning the day of [month and year], and ending on the day of [month and year], and containing pages, and entries of marriage, with the original register, and I believe the same to be throughout a true and faithful copy of the original register, of which it purports to be a copy. (Signed) A. B.

The said A. B. appeared this day of , before me, C. D., one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for , and made and signed the above declaration in my presence. (Signed) C. D.

Which declaration and magistrate's certificate thereof shall be entered and signed at the end of the copy to which it relates, and the copy shall be then securely sealed up and forthwith sent to the colonial secretary as aforesaid, to be by him kept with the registers of marriages in his office, where the same may be searched and every copy of any entry therein certified under his hand to be a true copy, shall be of the same force and effect as any certified copy whatsoever made by him, is or can be, and which certified copies he is hereby required to make, and may receive payment for as in other cases.

And if any such minister as aforesaid shall wilfully make and sign any such declaration, knowing the same to be false, he shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury are liable.

And whereas, in consequence of imperfect instruction in the Christian religion, and from other causes, many marriages, de facto, have taken place between persons, one or both of whom were in the condition of slavery, but which marriages, de facto, have never been sanctioned by any public ceremony, or formally registered; and in many such cases the parties have had offspring of such last-mentioned marriages; and it is expedient that provision should be forthwith made for enabling such persons to confer upon their children the benefit of children born in lawful wedlock: it is therefore further ordered, that it shall be lawful for all persons having contracted marriage as last aforesaid at any time within one year after the coming into operation of this Order, duly to solemnize the marriage ceremony before any clergyman of the established church, or in any other manner authorized by this Order; and every person so recognizing a previous marriage, de facto, shall at the same time make and sign the following declaration, which shall also be attested by the witnesses present, and signed by the minister or marriage officer before whom the ceremony is performed.

We, A. B. and C. D., do hereby severally, solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare, that on the day of _____, in the year _____, or thereabout, at _____, we, the said A. B. and C. D., intermarried with each other, and that we have had issue of the said marriage _____ children, and no more, namely:—[Here state the names and ages of the children, and if any be dead state the fact.]

(Signed) A. B.

X. Y.

C. D.

And such marriage ceremony shall have relation back to the time of the marriage, de facto, and all such children shall be deemed and taken to have been born in holy wedlock, and shall possess and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and advantages of persons born in lawful wedlock; and to preserve evidence thereof a duplicate original declaration shall then and there, before the parties depart, be made, signed, and attested in the same manner, and the original declaration shall be appended to and kept with the original register; and the duplicate original declaration shall be appended to, sent, and kept with the duplicate original register, and shall, for all purposes of evidence, be deemed part thereof respectively: provided always, and it is hereby declared, that such last-mentioned ceremony and declaration may be performed and made without the previous publication of banns or a licence.

And it is hereby further ordered, that where, in any colony to which this Order applies, any other language than English shall be commonly used, the governor shall cause a true and faithful translation of this Order, and particularly of the several forms and declarations herein contained to be made, expressing the true intent and meaning thereof; and such translation, when promulgated by the governor, may be lawfully used by all persons speaking such language; and everything done under this Order, by means of such translation, shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been done in the original language of this Order, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the word "governor" in this Order shall be taken to mean the governor or other officer lawfully administering the government of such colony; and the word "parish," in colonies divided into parishes, shall be taken in its ordinary sense, and in colonies not divided into parishes shall be taken to mean such other districts or divisions as for civil purposes are equivalent to parishes; and the term "extra-parochial place" shall be taken to mean any place not included in any such parish, district, or division; and if in any case there be no such district or division, or if it be uncertain to what kind of district or division the word "parish" is hereby intended to apply, the same shall be determined and officially declared by the governor.

And it is further ordered, that this Order shall take effect and come into operation, in the colony of Mauritius, on the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine; in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, on the said first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine; and in all other colonies to which it applies or extends, on the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

And it is further ordered and declared, that within the meaning and for the purposes of this Order, all islands and territories dependent upon any of the colonies to which this Order applies or extends, and constituting parts of the same colonial government, shall respectively be taken to be parts of such respective colonies.

And the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of September 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS so much of the Act made in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves as relates to the apprenticeship of such manumitted slaves, hath ceased or may shortly be expected to cease to be in force, in the colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, St. Lucia, and Mauritius; and whereas it is expedient that provision be made by law for regulating within the said colonies, respectively, the relative rights and duties of masters and servants; it is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that within each of the said colonies of British Guiana, Trinidad, St. Lucia, and Mauritius, the various rules and regulations hereunto subjoined and comprised in the following chapters shall henceforth be observed, and shall have the force and effect of law.

And it is further ordered, that all laws, statutes, and ordinances in force in the said colonies, or any of them which are or shall be in anywise repugnant the age of sixteen years, may be apprenticed by their fathers, or, in the case of fatherless children, by their mothers, or, in the case of orphans, by their guardians, to any trade in the practice of which any peculiar art or skill is requisite.

2. No child may be apprenticed as a labourer in husbandry, or in the manufacture of colonial produce.

3. The apprenticeship of such children may be for any time not exceeding five years.

4. Any person of the full age of sixteen years, or upwards, may, by his or her consent, be apprenticed to any trade, in the practice of which any peculiar art or skill is required, for any term not exceeding five years.

5. The law respecting apprentices in England shall, as far as may be practicable, be applied to the case of such apprenticeships as aforesaid; but there shall be no apprenticeship of any kind, or under any circumstances, of persons as labourers in husbandry, or in the manufacture of colonial produce. All engagements for those purposes must be made in pursuance of the rules contained in the second chapter of these regulations.

6. Provided that the powers which in England are vested in the justices of the peace for enforcing or dissolving contracts of apprenticeship, and for authorizing the making of such contracts, shall, in the said colonies, be vested in the stipendiary magistrates thereof respectively.

CAP. IV.

On the enforcement of Contracts of Service.

Sec. 1. The stipendiary magistrates shall have an exclusive jurisdiction for the enforcement of all contracts of service, and for imposing all penalties for the breach, neglect, or non-performance thereof.

2. This jurisdiction shall be exercised in a summary manner.

3. For ensuring regularity and method in the exercise of this summary jurisdiction, the governor of each colony shall prepare forms of proceeding to be observed on lodging complaints, in issuing summonses, in the citation of witnesses, in the pronouncing awards and sentences, in issuing warrants or orders for the execution of such awards or sentences, and generally for the complete carrying of the powers of the stipendiary magistrates into execution; which forms shall be submitted by such governor to the chief civil judge of each such colony respectively; and, being approved by such judge, the same shall be observed in all proceedings before the said stipendiary magistrates.

4. All such forms of proceeding shall, from time to time, be revised, repealed, or amended, by the authority, and in the manner aforesaid, as occasion may require.

5. No sentence, award, or order made by any stipendiary magistrate in the execution of the jurisdiction so vested in him, shall be liable to be reversed, set aside, appealed from, or questioned, by any court of justice in any of the said colonies, except on the ground of an unlawful assumption of power, or other illegality on the part of such stipendiary magistrate; but the same, when consistent with law, shall, to all intents and purposes, be binding, final, and conclusive.

6. For all acts done by any stipendiary magistrate in the exercise of the jurisdiction hereby vested in him, such magistrate shall have, and be entitled to, the same protection and indemnity as by any law in force in the colony any magistrate is entitled to claim, or to have, in respect of any act by him done in execution of the powers vested by law in him.

7. On complaint preferred, and proof made before any stipendiary magistrate, that any servant has neglected to perform his stipulated work, or that he has performed it negligently or improperly, or that by negligence or other improper conduct he has injured the property of his master entrusted to his care, the magistrate may, in his discretion, adjudge the servant to any one or more of the following penalties; that is to say, a pecuniary penalty for the benefit of the master, not exceeding one month's wages, or the commitment of the servant to prison, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding fourteen days, or the dissolution of the contract of service.

8. On complaint preferred and proof made by a servant before any stipendiary magistrate that his master has not paid the servant's wages, or delivered to him the articles stipulated for, or that the articles so delivered were not of the prescribed amount and quality, or that by the negligence, or other improper conduct of the master, the contract of service has not been faithfully performed, or that the master has ill used the servant, the stipendiary magistrate may make order for the payment of the wages in arrear, or for the delivery of the stipulated articles, or for compensation to be made to the servant for any injury by him sustained by such negligence or improper conduct of the master, or by his non-fulfilment of the contract, or by his ill usage of the servant; and if such order be not complied with according to the exigency and tenor thereof, the magistrate shall and may issue a warrant for the seizure and sale of the goods of the master, or so much thereof as may be requisite for making such compensation; and failing any sufficient distress, the magistrate shall and may make order for the commitment of the master to prison, for any time not exceeding one month, unless compensation be sooner made. The magistrate may also in any of the cases aforesaid, if he shall see fit, order the contract of service to be cancelled, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any such order as aforesaid.

9. Nothing herein contained shall prevent, or be construed to prevent, any proceeding before the ordinary tribunals of the colony for any ill usage of a servant by his master, or of a master by his servant, if the stipendiary magistrate shall decline to entertain any such case, and shall see fit to refer the same to the ordinary course of law.

10. If any question shall arise between a master and a servant respecting the meaning of their contract, or the rights of either party under the same, or the obligation imposed on either party thereby, it shall be lawful for the stipendiary magistrate, on the application of either party, to arbitrate between them; and his award, on all such questions so brought before him, shall be conclusive without appeal.

CAP. V.

On the Subordination of the Stipendiary Magistrates to the Governor, and of the Police to the Stipendiary Magistrates.

Sec. 1. Every stipendiary magistrate shall hold his office during Her Majesty's pleasure, and shall be liable to be suspended therefrom by the governor of the colony, until Her Majesty's pleasure shall be known.

2. Every such magistrate shall act for such district or districts as shall from time to time be assigned for that purpose by the governor. Every such magistrate shall be obedient to the lawful commands of the governor in all things relating to the duties of the office of such magistrate. Every such stipendiary magistrate shall be bound to make to the governor such general or special reports of his proceedings in the discharge of such his duty as the governor shall from time to time require of him.

3. The stipendiary magistrates shall from time to time, as occasion may appear to them to require, or where they shall be so directed by the governor, meet together in petty sessions, at which sessions not less than two such stipendiary magistrates shall ever be present; and it shall be lawful for such stipendiary magistrates, in petty sessions assembled, to associate with themselves one ordinary justice of the peace, and no more; and such stipendiary magistrates and justice, or the majority of them may, in such petty sessions assembled, exercise any of the powers hereby vested in the stipendiary magistrate separately, provided that no such petty sessions be convened except by the previous sanction of the governor of the colony, which sanction may be given either for holding such sessions periodically, at some times and places to be appointed by him, or for holding the same for any special occasion at any particular time and place.

4. All constables and other officers of police in the said colonies, respectively, shall obey and carry into execution all lawful orders and warrants of the respective stipendiary magistrates or of any such petty sessions as aforesaid.

CAP. VI.

Respecting the Combination of Masters and Workmen.

Sec. 1. The Act of the British Parliament passed in the sixth year of the reign of George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relative to the Combination of Workmen, and for other purposes therein mentioned," shall be in force in the said colonies, and applied in the administration of the law therein, so far as it may be practicable to apply the same; but the powers thereby vested in the justices of the peace in England shall in the said colonies be vested in the said stipendiary magistrate, and the power thereby vested in any court of general or quarter sessions shall in the said colonies be vested in the said before-mentioned court of petty sessions, and the power thereby vested in Her Majesty's superior courts of Westminster shall in the said colonies respectively be vested in the superior courts of civil and criminal justice thereof; and for the better adaptation of the said Act of Parliament, to the circumstances of the said respective colonies, such analogous forms of proceeding shall be prescribed, in manner aforesaid, by the governor of each such colony respectively, with the sanction of the chief judge of the same.
