THE Next of Kin of the late Reverend Robert Heysham Cumyns, Minister of All Saints, in the parish of Portsea, Hants, is requested to address himself or herself to Captain Whylock, Royal Marines, Portsmouth, Hants.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Jolly v. Forshaw, before William Shawe, Esq., Registrar of the said Court, at Nickson's Hotel, in Blackpool, in the county of Lancaster, on Tuesday the 30th day of October 1838, at four o'clock in the afternoon, in nineteen several lots, or in such other lots as shall be then agreed upon, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

Divers messuages or dwelling-houses, cottages, shops, billiard-room, baths, lands, and hereditaments, situate at or near Blackpool, and in the township of Layton with Warbreck, in the said county of Lancaster.

And also one undivided moiety of a messuage or dwelling-house, called the Gyn, pleasantly situated upon the seacoast, about a mile to the north of Blackpool, with the outbuildings, garden, and several closes of land thereto belonging.

And also a close of land and several allotments of valuable turbary ground on Layton Hawes, near Blackpool aforesaid.

The respective tenants, or Mr. John Cumming, of Blackpool, will shew the premises; and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's office, in Preston; and for further information application may be made to Mr. Haydock, Solicitor, Preston; or Messrs. Liddell and Whiteside, Solicitors, Poulton-le Fylde, Lancashire.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bradby versus Cook, with the approbation of William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-rooms of the said Court, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on Wednesday the 7th day of November 1838, at one o'clock in the afternoon;

The share and interest of the late Charles Frederick Cook, deceased, of and in a capital brick messuage, garden, and offices, adjoining the High-street, with other premises, in Colchester, in the county of Essex, producing a clear annual rent of about £250. The interest of the said Charles Frederick Cook is £20 a year out of these rents, and an equal fourth part of the residue of the said rents, amounting on the average to £77 10s. per annum, or thereabouts, until the property shall be sold, when the share of the said Charles Frederick Cook in the net proceeds of the sale is £500, and one equal fourth part of the remainder; but, upon the happening of the contingency mentioned in the particulars of sale hereinafter referred to, the said Charles Frederick Cook will be entitled, in lieu of the said share and interest, to £500 sterling, part of £7,272 14s. 4d. 3 per cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, and a fourth part of the residue of such stock.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings; of Messrs. Tilson, Squance, and Tilson, Solicitors, 23, Coleman-street, London; of Messrs. Randall and Aldridge, Solicitors, Southampton; and of Messrs. Masons, Keeling, and Howard, Solicitors, Colchester; and at the principal Inns in the neighbourhood.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the trust estates of the parish of Saint Antholin, in the city of London, and in the matter of the Act of 1st William the Fourth, cap. 60. it was, amongst other things, ordered, that John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, should cause two successive advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in one or more of the newspapers, giving notice that the representative or representatives of the last survivor of the trustees named in the indenture of the 19th of June 1754, in the petition in the said Order mentioned, should, within twenty-eight days, appear and give notice, respectively, of his or their title, before the said Master, and prove his or their pedigree or other title as trustees; therefore, the representative or representatives of the last survivor of the trustees named in the said indenture, is or are, within twenty-eight days, to appear and give notice of his or their said title, to the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove his or their pedigree or other title as such representative or representatives, or in default thereof he or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.
 2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient, if given one clear day before the day of hearing.
 3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.
- N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.
4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, of the Act, 5 Geo. 6, c. 11, as the case may be.
