By order of the Board,

Henry Hill, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and enclosing the several heaths, commonable lands, commons, and waste grounds within the manor or township of Totley, in the parish of Dronfield, in the county of Derby;

in which Bill provision is intended to be made for raising money for defraying the expenses of the said enclosure, by a rate upon the proprietors of the lands to be enclosed, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Bill.—Dated this 10th day of October 1838.

Henry Waterfall, Solicitor.
Sheffield.

Elkins, Solicitor, Cook's-court, Lincoln's-inn, Agent.

Clun Borough Enclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and enclosing the common and waste lands within the borough or township of Clun, in the parish of Clun, in the county of Salop.—Dated this 1st day of October 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term and amend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the roads between the house, commonly called the Horseshoe-house, in the parish of Stoke Goldington, in the county of Buckingham and the town of Northampton, and from the north bridge of Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham, to the said Horseshoe-house;" also of an Act, passed in the fifty eighth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads between the Horseshoe-house, in Stoke Goldington, in the county of Buckingham and the town of Northampton, and from the north bridge of Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham, to the said Horseshoe-house;" or to repeal the said Acts, and grant more effectual powers instead thereof.

And in which Bill provision is intended to be made to alter or increase the tolls at present authorized to be collected, and to grant to the trustees to be appointed by the said Bill, powers of levying tolls upon the whole line of the said roads.—Dated this 10th day of October 1838.

Geo. Abbey, Clerk to the Trustees.

North Midland Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Leeds to Derby, to be called the North Midland Railway;" and the other passed in the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, and intituled

"An Act to enable the North Midland Railway Company to alter the line of the said railway, and the Act relating thereto, and also to make a branch to communicate with the same;" and it is intended to apply for power by the said intended Act, to alter and vary so much of the line of the said railway, as at present authorised to be made, as lies between the present commencement thereof, in the parish and township of Leeds, in the county of York, and a certain field or close, in the township and parish of Rothwell, in the said county of York, numbered 115 on the plan of the said railway deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, and to abandon such portion of the line; and to make and maintain a railway or railways with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith in lieu thereof, commencing in the said parish and township of Leeds, in the county of York, at or near a certain parcel of land, the property and in the possession of Robert Arthington, near a certain street, or intended street, called, or to be called, Junction-street, on the south side of the street or lane called Hunslet-lane, in the said parish and township of Leeds; passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Leeds, Hunslet, and Rothwell, or some of them, in the said west riding of the said county of York, and terminating at or near the said field or close in the said parish and township of Rothwell.

And it is also intended to apply for power, by the said intended Act, to purchase land and buildings within the said several townships of Leeds and Hunslet, in the said parish of Leeds, for the purpose of making proper depots and stations at or near the commencement of the said railway, and for forming approaches thereto; and also to extend, for a further period of two years, the time limited by the said recited acts, or one of them, for the purchase and taking of lands and buildings, for the purposes of the said railway, within the several parishes, townships, and places of Leeds, Hunslet, Rothwell, Woodlesford, Oulton-cum Woodlesford, and Metherley, in the county of York.

And it is further intended to apply for power, in and by the said intended Act, to deviate in the construction of the said intended new or altered line of railway, to any extent, not exceeding one hundred yards, in open lands, and to any extent, not exceeding fifty yards, in lands covered with houses, on either side of such line, as the same will be delineated on the plans thereof to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, where the property lying within such distances respectively shall be numbered on the said plans and described in the books of reference to be deposited therewith; and also for power to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the said new or altered line.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the 30th day of November, in this present year, plans, sections, and books of reference of the said proposed alteration or deviation of the said railway, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said west-riding of the county of York, in Wakefield, in the said riding, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Leeds, in Leeds aforesaid; and, on or before the 31st day of December in this present year, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish in or through which such new or altered line is intended to be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of the said parishes respectively, for the inspection of all parties concerned.—Dated this 12th day of October 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for continuing the term and amending the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the roads from Epsom through Ewell to Tooting, and from Ewell to Kingston-upon-Thames and Thames-Ditton, in the county of Surrey;" also of an Act, passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road from Epsom through Ewell to Tooting, and from Ewell to Kingston-upon-Thames and Thames-Ditton, in the county of Surrey, and for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road from the turnpike-road at Ewell across Ewell Common Fields to the Ryegate Turnpike-road, on Borough Heath, in the said county;" also of an Act, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term and enlarging and enlarging the powers of two Acts passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and the twentieth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the roads from Epsom through Ewell to Tooting, and from Ewell to Kingston-upon-Thames and Thames-Ditton, in the county of Surrey, and for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road from the turnpike-road at Ewell across Ewell Common Fields to the Ryegate Turnpike-road, on Borough Heath, in the said county;" also of an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of several Acts of His late and present Majesty for repairing the roads from Epsom through Ewell to Tooting, and from Ewell to Kingston-upon-Thames, and Thames-Ditton, and across Ewell Common Fields to the Ryegate Turnpike-road on Borough Heath, all in the county of Surrey;" or for repealing the said several Acts, and granting more effectual powers in and thereof; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made to alter or increase the tolls at present authorised to be collected, and to levy new and additional tolls upon the said roads.—Dated this 4th day of October 1838.

Wm. Everest, Clerk to the Trustees.

In the Matter of a Patent for the Invention, by Cornelius Whitehouse, of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, Whitesmith, of certain Improvements in Manufacturing Tubes for Gas, and other purposes, assigned by indenture, dated the 9th day of April 1825, to James Russell, then of Bescott-hall, in the parish of Walsall, in the said county of Stafford, but now of Handsworth, in the same county, Gas Tube Manufacturer.

THE above-named James Russell hereby gives notice, that he intends to apply forthwith by petition to Her Majesty in Council, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions, for the prolongation of the term of sole vending and using such invention granted to the said Cornelius Whitehouse by letters patent for England, dated the 26th day of February 1825; for Scotland, dated the 25th day of May 1825, and for Ireland, dated the 6th day of August 1825; and assigned to him, the said James Russell, as aforesaid; and the said James Russell further gives notice, that on the 14th day of November next, and which will be in the year of our Lord 1838, or as soon after as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council shall hold a sitting, he intends to apply to the said Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his said petition; and any person intending to enter a caveat against such prolongation of the said term as aforesaid, must enter the same at the Council Office, on or before the said 14th day of November next.—Dated this 29th day of September 1838.

James Russell.

WHEREAS by the fifty-fifth clause of the Act 1st and 2d Vict. cap. 43, intituled "An Act for regulating the opening and working of mines and quarries in the Forest of Dean and hundred of Saint Briavels, in the county of Gloucester," it is enacted "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners thereby appointed, at any time before they shall make their award, to make such temporary rules and regulations for the mode of working the said mines, minerals, and quarries, or any of them, or any gales, pits, levels, or works respectively, or for the stopping the working of any gale, pit, level, work, or quarry, as to them shall seem fit; and the same, when subscribed by the said Commissioners, under their hands and seals, shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and also in some one or more newspaper or newspapers usually published or circulated in the said county of Gloucester; and such temporary rules and regulations may be enforced by the injunction of the Court of Exchequer, on petition or summary application for that purpose made to the said Court, by or on behalf of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the time being, or any other parties interested in the premises, or in such other manner as to the said Court may seem fit; provided always, that all such temporary rules and regulations shall be made after due investigation, and in manner aforesaid." And whereas complaints have been laid before us the undersigned, as the Commissioners appointed by the said in part recited Act, against James Meek and Joseph Burraston, as the managers or agents for a company called the Cheltenham Dean Forest Mining Company, for commencing and still continuing to work two water pits, situate at Ruerdean Woodside Green, at a place called Newam Bottom, alleged to be to the detriment and injury of other persons claiming an interest in the coal which would be obtained by the said two pits; and whereas we have duly investigated the matter of the said complaints; now we do, in pursuance of the power vested in us by the said in part recited Act, order that, from and after the date hereof, all working at the two pits at Newam Bottom, opened by or on behalf of the said Cheltenham Dean Forest Mining Company, known by the names or descriptions of the Cheltenham Company's Deep Pit, and the Cheltenham Company's Land Pit, be absolutely stopped.

Given under our hands and seals, this 10th day of October 1838.

WHEREAS by the fifty-fifth clause of the Act 1st and 2d Vict. cap. 43, intituled "An Act for regulating the opening and working of mines and quarries in the Forest of Dean and hundred of St. Briavels, in the county of Gloucester," it is enacted "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners thereby appointed, at any time before they shall make their award, to make such temporary rules and regulations for the mode of working the said mines, minerals, and quarries, or any of them, or any gales, pits, levels, or works respectively, or for the stopping the working of any gale, pit, level, work, or quarry, as to them shall seem fit; and the same, when subscribed by the said Commissioners, under their hands and seals, shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and also in some one or more newspaper or newspapers usually published or circulated in the said county of Gloucester; and such temporary rules and regulations may be enforced by the injunction of the Court of Exchequer, on petition or summary application for that purpose made to the said Court, by or on behalf of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the time being, or any other parties interested in the premises, or in such other manner as to the said Court may seem fit; provided always, that all such temporary rules and regulations shall be made after due investigation, and in manner aforesaid." And whereas complaint has been made before us the undersigned, as the Commissioners appointed by the said in part recited Act, alleging that the Proprietor of Pluckpenny Level has commenced a water pit, situate at the north side of Ruerdean-hill, to the detriment and injury of other persons claiming an interest in the coal which would be obtained by the said pit; and whereas we have made due investigation into the matter of the said complaint; now we do, in pursuance of the power vested in us by the said in part recited Act, order that, from and after the date hereof, all working at the said pit, opened by or on behalf of the proprietor or proprietors of Pluckpenny Level, at the north side of Ruerdean-hill, be absolutely stopped and discontinued.

Given under our hands and seals, this 10th day of October 1838.

WHEREAS by the fifty-fifth clause of the Act 1st and 2d Vic. cap. 43, intituled "An Act for regulating the opening and working of mines and quarries in the Forest of Dean and hundred of Saint Briavel's, in the county of Gloucester," it is enacted "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners thereby appointed, at any time before they shall make their award, to make such temporary rules and regulations for the mode of working the said mines, minerals, and quarries, or any of them, or any gales, pits, levels, or works respectively, or for the stopping the working of any gale, pit, level, work, or quarry, as to them shall seem fit; and the same, when subscribed by the said Commissioners, under their hands and seals, shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and also in some one or more newspaper or newspapers usually published or circulated in the said county of Gloucester; and such temporary rules and regulations may be enforced by the injunction of the Court of Exchequer on petition or summary application for that purpose made to the said Court, by or on behalf of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the time being, or any other parties interested in the premises, or in such other manner as to the said Court may seem fit; provided always, that all such temporary rules and regulations shall be made after due investigation, and in manner aforesaid." And whereas a complaint has been made before us the undersigned, as the Commissioners appointed by the said in part recited Act, against Mr James Bennett, for having improperly commenced to sink a pit at Serridge Green, by virtue of an alleged old gale, called the Lower Deep Rocky, or the Nook in the Bank Pit; and whereas we have made due investigation into the matter of the said complaint; now we do, in pursuance of the power vested in us by the said in part recited Act, order that, from and after the date hereof, all further working or sinking at the said pit, opened by or on behalf of the said James Bennett, known by the name or description of the Lower Deep Rocky Pit, or the Nook in the Bank, be absolutely stopped and discontinued.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of Joseph Wilson, formerly of Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex, Barrister at Law (who died on or about the 1st of June 1820, being then confined as a prisoner for debt in the King's Bench Prison), will apply either personally or by letter (post paid), to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, at the Treasury-chambers, Whitehall, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Milne v. Vaughan, with the approbation of Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

The ground rents issuing out of valuable freehold property (land-tax redeemed), consisting of wharfs, warehouses, manufactories, workshops, stables, and other buildings, abutting upon and adjoining to the Wenlock Basin, near the City-road, in the county of Middlesex, leased to tenants, who hold for terms for the most part between 50 and 60 years unexpired, at clear yearly rents, which leave a present nett income of £453 per annum; and also the reversion in fee of the above hereditaments.

And, at the same time, the improved yearly rents issuing out of valuable leasehold wharfs, warehouses, dwelling-houses, manufactories, workshops, stables, and other buildings, also abutting upon and lying contiguous to the Wenlock Basin aforesaid, held for terms of 99 years each, of which 85 years will be unexpired at Christmas 1838, underlet to tenants, who hold for terms between 47 and 50 years unexpired, at rents which, after deducting the reserved ground rents, leave a present nett income of £397 15s. per annum; also the reversion expectant on the determination of the existing under leases.

The property of the late John Edwards Vaughan, Esq.

Due notice will be given of the time and place of sale, and particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Messrs. Pemberton, Crawley, and Gardiner, Solicitors, Whitehall-place, Westminster; of Messrs. Lyon, Barnes, and Ellis, Solicitors, Spring-gardens, Westminster; and of Mr. Hoggart, Auctioneer, 62, Old Broad-street, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Milne versus Vaughan, with the approbation of Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

The improved yearly rents issuing out of desirable leasehold property, situate in James street and Prospect-terrace, Wellington-square, held for a term of 92 years, of which 63 years will be unexpired at Christmas 1838; and in Sidmouth-street, Gray's-inn-lane-road, held for a term of 99 years, of which 71 years will be unexpired at Christmas 1838; and a house in Doughty-street, held for a term of 98 years, of which 70 years will be unexpired at Christmas 1838; respectively under-leased to respectable tenants, at rents producing, after payment of the reserved ground rent, the clear annual sum of £193 15s.

The property of the late John Edwards Vaughan, Esq. forming a very desirable investment.
