FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1838.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of September 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that when any spiritual person should be desirous of obtaining a licence or dispensation for holding together any two benefices, such spiritual person should, previously to applying for the grant of such licence or dispensation, deliver to the bishop of the diocese, where both benefices are situate in the same diocese, or to the bishops of the two dioceses where such benefices are situate in different dioceses, a statement in writing, according to a form or forms to be promulgated from time to time by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and approved by the Queen in Council, in which statement such spiritual person should set forth the several matters and things in the said Act in that behalf mentioned:

And whereas at this present Council, the Archbishop of Canterbury has laid before Her Majesty a form of statement to be promulgated by him, pursuant to the said Act, in case the said form should be approved by Her Majesty in Council; and such form or statement is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

Form of Statement above referred to.

To the Right Reverend Lord Bishop of . . .

I, A. B. clerk [here insert description], being desirous to obtain a licence or dispensation from his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, to enable me to hold together the [rectory, vicarage, or other benefice, as the case may be], of C , in the county of , and diocese of , and the [rectory, vicarage, or other benefice, as the case may be], of D , in the county of , and diocese of , do, in pursuance of the Act 1 and 2 Victoria, cap. 106, make to your lordship the following statement in writing under my hand, wherein I have set forth, according to the best of my belief, the yearly income arising from each of the said benefices separately, on an average of three years ending on the 29th day of September next before the date of this statement, and the sources from which such income is derived, and also the yearly amount on an average of the same period of three years, of all taxes, rates, tenths, dues, and other permanent charges and outgoings to which the same benefices are respectively subject; and also the amount of the population of each of the said benefices, computed according to the latest returns made under the authority of Parliament, and also the distance between the said two benefices, computed according to the directions of the said Act, as follows; (to wit,)

Firstly. That the average yearly income arising from the said of C, for the three years ending on the 29th day of September now last past, derived from the several sources hereinafter specified, is as follows:

[Here specify accurately and clearly, in separate items, the several sources of income of the of C, and the average yearly amount of each item, and add such average yearly amounts together.]

That the average yearly amount of taxes, rates, tenths, dues, and other permanent charges and outgoings [the incumbent must be careful not to include any stipend or stipends to any stipendiary curate or curates, nor such taxes or rates in respect of the house of residence, or of the glebe land belonging thereto, as are usually paid by tenants or occupiers, nor moneys expended in the repair or improvement of the house of residence and buildings and fences belonging thereto], for the same three years, to which the said of C was subject, according to the specification thereof hereinafter contained, is as follows:

[Here specify accurately and clearly, in separate items, as to the of C, the several taxes, rates, tenths, dues, and other permanent charges and outgoings (not including stipend, &c. as before directed), and the average yearly amount of each item, and add such average yearly amounts together, and deduct the total average amount from the total sum of the average yearly income.]

That the amount of the population of the said of C, according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament, is

Secondly. That the average yearly income arising from the said of D (the benefice which A. B. proposes to take and hold with the of C), for the three years ending on the 29th day of September now last past, derived from the several sources hereinafter specified, is as follows:

[Here specify accurately and clearly, in separate items, the several sources of income of the of D, and the average yearly amount of each item, and add such average yearly amounts together.]

That the average yearly amount of taxes, rates, tenths, dues, and other permanent charges and outgoings (not including any stipend or stipends, &c. as before directed), for the same three years, to which the said of D was subject, according to the specification thereof hereinafter contained, is as follows:

[Here specify accurately and clearly, in separate items, as to the of D, the several taxes, rates, tenths, dues, and other permanent charges and outgoings (not including stipend, &c. as before directed), and the average yearly amount of each item, and add such average yearly amounts together, and deduct the total average amount from the total sum of the average yearly income.]

That the amount of the population of the said of D, according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament, is

Thirdly. That the distance between the said of C and the said of D, from the church of one to the church of the other, by the nearest road, footway, or by an accustomed ferry [state which, as the case may be], is less than ten statute miles, such distance being statute miles, or thereabouts.

[Should the distance exceed nine statute miles specify the excess in yards, or should there be any thing special in any case with respect to computing the distance, for instance, if there be two churches or no church on one of the benefices, the directions contained in the 129th section of the before-mentioned Act must be observed in that respect.]

Witness my hand this day of one thousand eight hundred and

(Signature of A. B.)

Signed in the presence of

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having considered the said form of statement, is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve the same, and the same is hereby approved accordingly.

November 2, 1838.

By Authority of Parliament,

HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to amend, alter, and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the second and third year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for establishing a general cemetery for the interment of the dead in the neighbourhood of the metropolis."

C. B. Bowman, Solicitor and Clerk of the General Cemetery Company, 95, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for constituting, establishing, and maintaining a Court in the town of Wirksworth, in the county of Derby, for the recovery of Small Debts within the said town, and within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Wirksworth, Alfreton, Ashbourn, Ashover, Bakewell, Bradbourn, Brassington, Blackwell, Bon-sall, Bradley, Bentley, Carsington, Cubley, Crich, Codnor Park, and Park Liberty, Darley, Duffield, Eyam, Edensor, Edlaston, Hognaston, Heanor, Heage, Kirk Ireton, Kniveton, Longford, Matlock, Morton, Mappleton, Northwingfield, Norbury, Osmaston, Pentrich, Pinxton, Parwich, Shirland, Shirley, Snelston, Stoney Middleton, Southwingfield, South Normanton, Tibshelf, Tissington, Thorpe, and Youghreave, in the county of Derby; and of Blöre, Ilam, and Mayfield, in the county of Stafford; and within the several townships, hamlets, and places in the same parishes respectively; and to fix and regulate the rates or fees, to be taken by the officers of the said Court.—Dated this 16th day of October 1838.

Philip Hubbersty, Solicitor, Wirksworth.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for enlarging the Town Quay of the borough of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, and for extending the same from the south part thereof along the eastern shore of a certain part of the harbour of Portsmouth, called the Camber, to a certain Bastion called the Camber Bastion; and also for constructing and maintaining Docks for the reception of ships, barges, lighters, steam, and other vessels; and for repairing, loading, and unloading the same; and also to provide proper wharfs, quays, inclined planes, slips, jetties, piers, bridges, locks, sluices, drains, channels, archways, embankments, approaches, roads, warehouses, and other works, erections, and conveniences connected therewith, or adjoining thereto, extending from a certain wharf commonly called by the name of Lindegren's Wharf, to the eastward in a line with the channel of the Camber aforesaid, to the east end of East-street, and from thence to the bridge commonly called the Point Bridge; and from thence along the southern and eastern shores of the said Camber, to the said Bastion called the Camber Bastion, with powers to deepen the said Camber, and the channel belonging thereto; and also to erect and maintain gates, and a swivel-bridge from the said Town Quay, across the said Camber, to the west side thereof, all being, or reputed to be, within the parish of Portsmouth, in the said borough.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county, situate at Winchester; and also at the office of the clerk of the peace for the borough of Portsmouth, situate in the town of Portsmouth, on or before the 30th day of November next; and that on or before the 31st day of December next, a copy of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Portsmouth.

And it is also proposed to obtain power by the said Bill, to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough, to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the said undertaking; and to alter the tolls now payable for wharfage and harbour dues to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and to provide more effectual remedies for the recovery thereof, and also to raise money by mortgage or otherwise, for effecting the purposes aforesaid.—Dated the 25th day of October 1838.

John Howard, Town Clerk.

Maiden Newton Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term, and to alter and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, turning, altering, and keeping in repair the roads from Whistle Bridge, in the parish of Barwick, in the county of Somerset, to the turnpike-road in the parish of Charminster, in the county of Dorset; and from the cross in the town of Maiden Newton, to a stream of water in the parish of South Perrott, in the county of Dorset; and from a place called Furze Moor Gate, in the parish of Broadwinsor, to Lenham's Water, in the parish of Beaminster; and from Bugler's corner, in the town of Beaminster, to the Dorsetshire Inn, in the parish of Woolcombe; and from Up Sydling Ewe Leaze, to the town of Cerne Abbas; and from the town of Frampton, to join the western turnpike-road near Steepleton, in the said county of Dorset." And of another Act, passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and alter the powers of an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads from Whistle Bridge, in the parish of Barwick, in the county of Somerset, to the turnpike-road in the parish of Charminster, in the county of Dorset, from the cross in the town of Maiden Newton, to a stream of water in the parish of South Perrott, in the county of Dorset; from Furze Moor Gate, in the parish of Broadwinsor, to Lenham's Water, in the parish of Beaminster; from Bugler's Corner, in the town of Beaminster, to the Dorsetshire Inn, in the parish of Woolcombe; and from the town of Frampton, to the western turnpike-road near Steepleton, in the said county of Dorset;" and of another Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue the term, and enlarge the powers of two Acts, passed in the eighteenth and thirty-eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, for repairing several roads leading from the town of Maiden Newton, in the county of Dorset, and other roads communicating therewith, in the counties of Somerset and Dorset;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to obtain further and other provisions in lieu thereof:—By which Bill it is intended to increase or alter the tolls authorised by the said last-mentioned Act, to be taken on the roads therein mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill, to make certain deviations, or new lines of road from the present line or course of the said roads, and to take tolls thereon or in respect thereof; such deviations to commence, the one diverging from the present turnpike-road leading from Maiden Newton to Dorchester, at or near a certain close called Round Close, near to the western entrance of the village of Charminster, through a certain meadow called Ward Meadow, to a lane or road leading from Bradford Peverell to Dorchester, at the northwest corner of the Dorchester Barracks, thence along the said last-mentioned lane or road, until the same joins the turnpike-road from Bridport to Dorchester, near to the western entrance to the said town of Dorchester; the other to diverge from the said proposed new road at or near a certain meadow called Large Mead, now in the occupation of Barnard Cox, and to unite with the turnpike-road leading from Charminster aforesaid to Cerne Abbas, at or near to a certain cottage now in the tenure or occupation of Robert Tizard, Matthew Bishop, and Joseph How, situate on the west side of the said last-mentioned turnpike-road; and both which said deviations or new lines of road will be made and maintained from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Charminster, Fordington, Stintford, Winterbourne Waste, otherwise Winterbourne Monkton, Winterbourne Saint Martin, otherwise Martin's Town, the Holy Trinity Dorchester, Winterbourne Steepleton, Bradford Peverell, and Winterbourne Came, or some of them, all in the county of Dorset.

And that duplicate plans and sections of such proposed deviations, or new lines of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Dorset, at his office at Sherborne, on or before the 30th day of November next; and copies of so much of the said plan and section as relates to each of the said parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively, on or before the 31st day of December next, for the inspection of all parties concerned.—Dated this 13th day of October 1838.

Joseph Crew Jennings, Solicitor for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill, for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, watering, and improving the streets, lanes, and other public passages and places in the town and suburbs of the town of Bradford, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of Wilts; and for power to be granted by the said Bill, for raising and levying rates for that purpose.

John Bush, Solicitor for the Bill.

Manchester, 1st October 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge and repeal certain of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Manchester to join the Grand Junction Railway, in the parish of Chebsey, in the county of Stafford, to be called the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, with certain branches therefrom"; and to authorize the company thereby incorporated to make certain variations from the line of the said railway from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them, namely:—

Alderley, Nether Alderley, Prestbury, Chelford, Capesthorpe, Old Withington, Siddington, Marton, Somerford Booths, Hulme Walfield, Astbury, Congleton, Newbold Astbury, Moreton, Moretoncum-Alcumlow, Odd Rode, and Church Lawton, in the county of Chester; Checkley, Audley, Talk, Talk o' th' Hill, Talk on the Hill, Wolstanton, Tnn-stall, Brieryhurst, Chatterley, Ranscliff otherwise Ravenscliff, Clough Hall, Burslem, Rushton Grange, Longport, Stoke-upon-Trent, Shelton, Etruria, Penkhull with Boothen, Fenton Culvert, Fenton Vivian, Longton, Trentham, and Blurton, in the county of Stafford. And to deviate from the level of the said railway, as referred to the common datum line described on the section approved of by Parliament, between certain points of the said line of railway as the same is authorized and intended to be made, in certain parts of the several parishes and places following, to which the said several variations from the line of the said railway to be included in the said intended Bill do not apply, namely, Gorton, Newton, Levenshulme, Rusholme, Manchester, Heaton Norris, or some of them, in the county of Lancaster; Cheadle Moseley, Stockport, Cheadle Bulkeley, Alderley, Nether Alderley, Chelford, Prestbury, Capesthorpe, Old Withington, Siddington, Marton, Somerford Booths, Hulme Walfield, Congleton, and Astbury, or some of them, in the county of Chester.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed variations, with books of reference thereto, containing a list of the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same variations are respectively intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester, and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford.

And that, on or before the 31st of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended variations respectively are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk for each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament for power to deviate in the construction of the proposed new works (save as hereinafter mentioned), to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, where the same line is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and (save also as after mentioned) in all other parts of the line to an extent, on either side thereof, not exceeding one hundred yards, save and except where the property situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plan, or if numbered on the said plan, shall not be contained and described in the said book of reference, and save and except where it shall be denoted on the said plan that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And it is further intended to apply for all proper and necessary powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the proposed new works; and power to alter and divert, for the purpose of the said new works, the Macclesfield Canal, in the townships of Odd Rode and Church Lawton, in the parishes of Church Lawton and Newbold Astbury, or one of them, in the county of Chester; and also the road leading from Congleton to Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the same townships and parishes.

And it is also proposed to apply for power in and by the said intended Act, to make and maintain another navigable cut or canal, commencing from and out of the said Middlewich branch of the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, at or near to a certain lock, called Cross-Banks Lock otherwise Cholmondeston Lock, in the township of Cholmondeston, in the parish of Acton and county of Chester, passing thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Acton, Cholmondeston, Cholmondestone, Stoke, Poole, Aston, Acton, Aston-juxta-Mondrum, Acton-juxta-Mondrum, Hurleston, and Hurleston, or some of them, in the said county, and terminating by a junction with the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, at or near to certain locks called Hurleston Locks, in the said township of Hurleston.

And also another navigable cut or canal branching from and out of the said Middlewich branch of the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, at or near to a certain bridge in the parish and township of Church Minshull, in the county of Chester, whereby the public road from Nantwich to Church Minshull aforesaid, is carried over the said last mentioned branch canal, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Church Minshull, Minshull, Middlewich, Cholmondeston, Cholmondestone, Acton, Aston, Acton-juxta-Mondrum, Aston-juxta-Mondrum, Leighton, Nantwich, Worleston, Worlestone, Poole, Nantwich, Willaston, Mondrum, Acton, Hurleston, Hurlestone, Rees Heath, and Henbull, or some of them, in the said county, and terminating by a junction with the Ellesmere and Chester and Birmingham and Liverpool Junction Canals, or one of them, at or near to the point of junction of the said last mentioned canals, in the said township of Henbull, and parish of Acton.

And it is further proposed to apply for power, in and by the said intended Act, to deviate, in the construction of the said intended cuts or canals, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line or lines thereof laid down, or intended to be laid down, on the plans to be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned, except where the property within the said distance shall not be numbered on the said plans, or referred to in the books of reference to be deposited therewith.

And it is further proposed to apply for power or otherwise, to empower the Trent and Mersey Canal Company to alter the levels of the Trent and Mersey Canal, and the banks, towing paths, and other works connected therewith, within the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Middlewich, Newton, Neaton, Warrinicham, Warrinicham, and Tetton, some or one of them, in the county aforesaid, that is to say; from a certain lock on the said canal, called King's Lock, in the said township of Newton, to a certain other lock on the said canal, called Davis Lock, in the parishes of Middlewich and Warrinicham, or one of them, in the said county.

And it is further proposed to apply for power to divert into and for the purposes of the said intended cuts or canals, or some or one of them, a portion of the waters which either directly or derivatively flow or proceed into the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, and the Middlewich branch, or branch from Wardle Green to Middlewich of the said last mentioned canal—the Trent and Mersey Canal, the Duke of Bridgewater's Canal, the River Mersey, the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, the River Weaver, and the River Weaver Navigation, or some of them.

Also power to make and maintain all such reservoirs, aqueducts, basins, feeders, wharfs, warehouses, locks, and other works and conveniences, within the several parishes, townships, and places before mentioned, as may be requisite for the purposes of the said intended cuts or canals, or either of them, or the traffic passing along the same.

And also power to levy and raise rates, tolls, or duties, in respect of the said traffic, and for the use of the said cuts and canals, and the conveniences connected therewith, or any of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended cuts or canals, and the brooks and streams to be directly diverted into the same; and also the said intended alteration in the levels of the Trent and Mersey Canal, and the towing paths and works connected therewith, together with books of reference to the said plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November 1838, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, at his office in the city of Chester; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes, in or through which the said intended cuts or canals, and other works hereinbefore mentioned, are proposed to be made under the powers of the said intended Act, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 31st day of December next, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.
