And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act respecting such free ports to the port of George Town, in Prince Edward's Island:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of George Town, in Prince Edward's Island; and that, from and after the said eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of George Town, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions hereon accordingly.

VICE CHANCELLOR.—Friday the 2d day of November, in the second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1838, between Joseph Richardson, Plaintiff; Thomas Haskens, Wilcox Lawrence, and Charles Edmonds, Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Mr. Hall, of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged that the plaintiff on the 10th day of January 1837, filed his bill in this Court against the defendants (as by the Six Clerks' certificate now read appears), and took out process of subpoena requiring them to appear to and answer the same, but the defendant Wilcox Lawrence has not appeared thereto; that upon inquiry at the usual place of abode of the said defendant Wilcox Lawrence, he cannot be found so as to be served with such process, and there is just ground to believe that the said defendant is gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconds, to avoid being served with the process of this Court, as by affidavit appears; that the said defendant Wilcox Lawrence has been in England within two years next before issuing of the said subpoena, as by affidavit also appears:—It is therefore ordered, that the said defendant Wilcox Lawrence do appear to the plaintiff's bill within one calendar month from the date of this Order.
