

WHEREAS the Commissioners acting in the prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Bell, of Cockermonth, in the county of Cumberland, Hat-Manufacturer, have certified to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, that the said James Bell hath in all things conformed himself according to the directions of the Acts of Parliament made and now in force concerning bankrupts; this is to give notice, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts;" and also of an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled "An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy," the Certificate of the said James Bell will be allowed and confirmed by the Court of Review, established by the said last-mentioned Act, unless cause be shewn to the said Court to the contrary on or before the 11th day of December 1838.

Edinburgh, November 15, 1838.

INTIMATION is hereby given, that Thomas Spears, Distiller, Yardheads, Leith, with the concurrence of the trustee on his sequestrated estate, and four-fifths of his creditors in number and value, has applied, by petition to the Court of Session, for a discharge of all debts owing by him prior to the date of his sequestration.

Notice to the creditors of Messrs. Taylor and Gentle, late Merchants, in Perth.

14, Charlotte-street Perth,
November 13, 1838.

JAMES MORISON, Accountant, in Perth, trustee for said creditors, hereby intimates, that the whole trust funds having now been realised, and his accounts audited by the committee of creditors appointed for that purpose, a second and final dividend will be paid by him at his chambers, on or after the 2d January next, to the creditors who have proved their claims upon the estate.

Notice to the creditors of James Rolland, sometime Merchant in Dunfermline.

Edinburgh, November 16, 1838.

UPON an application presented to the Court of Session, in terms of the 71st sec. of the Bankrupt Act, their Lordships (First Division) of this date appointed the creditors of the said James Rolland to meet within the Spire Inn, Dunfermline, on Tuesday the 4th December next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing a Trustee or Trustees in succession on his sequestrated estate, in place of John Stenhouse, Esq. of South Fod, now deceased.—Of which intimation is hereby given to all concerned.

Notice to the creditors of James Mackenzie, Confectioner in Inverness.

Inverness, November 14, 1838.

AT a meeting of the creditors of the said James Mackenzie held on the 13th instant, an offer of composition was made by the bankrupt, which the meeting resolved to entertain as just and reasonable, under a certain reservation made by them; and the trustee was directed to advertise the said offer, and call another meeting to decide upon the same, and finally dispose thereof. Archibald Hill Rennie, Merchant in Inverness, trustee upon the said James Mackenzie's sequestrated estate, accordingly intimates, that another meeting of the said creditors will be held within his counting-room, in Inverness, on Monday the 17th day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer, with or without amendment, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the creditors of James Nelson, Small-Ware Merchant in Glasgow, one of the Partners of the Company of Nelson and Sutherland, sometime carrying on business as Small-Ware Merchants, there.

Glasgow, November 15, 1838.

ALEXANDER BLACK, Accountant in Glasgow, trustee for the creditors of the said James Nelson, under trust-disposition executed by him on the 6th day of June 1838, hereby requires the creditors of the said James Nelson to lodge their claims against him, with declarations to the verity thereof, in the hands of Black and Lorimer, Accountants, No. 4, Argyle-street, Glasgow, before the 31st day of December next, at which date a scheme of division of the whole trust-funds among the creditors, who shall have previously lodged and proved their claims, will be prepared, which will thereafter lie, along with trustee's accounts, at the office of the said Black and Lorimer, for inspection of the creditors, until the 11th day of January 1839, when a dividend will be paid. Of all which intimation is hereby given, with certification, that all parties failing to lodge their claims, as above required, will be excluded from any share of the trust estate.
