

both or either of them for the purposes of the reception, departure, loading and unloading of steam ships or vessels, and other vessels and craft, and the embarking and landing of passengers, goods and merchandizes therefrom and thereat, and for the reception, warehousing, stowing, and hoising of goods and merchandizes therein, with two or more entrances and communications with the river Thames, in the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul, Deptford, both or either of them; and also for lighting the said dock or docks, and the entrances thereof, and other works and premises with gas or otherwise; and for the purposes of the said dock or docks, and other works, to alter, divert, or stop up a certain public road or highway commencing at the east end of a street known as Union-street, and terminating at the Deptford Creek-bridge, or western bank or shore of the river Ravensborne, formerly or now known as the Copperas-bank, and forming part of a certain road, highway, street, or way known as and forming part of the Deptford Creek-bridge-road, in the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul Deptford, both or either of them; and for making and constructing a new road or way instead thereof, leading to the said bridge, commencing at the west end of a place, street, or lane, called Flagon-row, and terminating at the said Deptford Creek-bridge aforesaid, and for constructing, building, and maintaining one or more swivel or other bridges across the said public road, highway, or new intended road or way; and, for the purposes of feeding, cleansing, and scouring the said dock or docks, basins, and channels and other works, to make, construct, and maintain all proper and necessary sluices, resevoirs, or other works, for the letting, using, and taking in of the water from the river Ravensborne. And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill to enlarge, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a Pier, and other works at Deptford, in the county of Kent," and also an Act passed in the sixth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the London and Greenwich Railway to the Deptford Pier, to be called 'The Deptford Pier Junction Railway,'" and to enable the said Companies to treat for, sell, and convey their respective rights, properties, and interest, both or either of them, and for powers in and by the said intended Bill to purchase, hold, and take the same, both or either of them, or to consolidate or incorporate the said two companies together, or both or either of them, with the said intended Bill; and in that case to alter, enlarge, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts, both or either of them. And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to take power to levy, collect, and take certain tolls, rates, and duties for the purposes of the said Act, and to alter the tolls, rates, or duties now authorized to be taken by the before-mentioned Acts, both or either of them. And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said dock or docks, and other works, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November, with the clerk of the peace for the western division of the said county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone, in the said county of Kent; and, on before the thirty-first day of December next, in the office of the Clerk of the Parliament in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes of saint Nicholas and Saint Paul Deptford, will also be deposited for public inspection, on or before the said thirty-first day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—

Dated this second day of November 1838.

Henry Hill, Solicitor for the said Bill,
No. 4, New London-street, Crutched-friars, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better paving and Sewerage of the Town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for settling the boundaries between the said town and township of Kirkdale, and parts of the townships of Everton and West Derby," and that it is intended by such Act to alter the day for the choosing of Commissioners, and to fix the rate at which water shall be supplied by the water companies now existing, or hereafter to be established, within the limits of the said Act, to the tanks or other depositories of the commissioners, to be used in case of fire, and for watering the streets of the said town, and for other purposes. And that power will also be taken by such Act to apply to the purposes of the said recited Act, or of the said intended Act, all penalties which may be levied and recovered under the authority thereof, or of either of them, in the same manner as the same were, or would have been, applicable before the passing of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," whereby such penalties are directed to be paid, and applied in aid of the borough fund; and further, that it is intended to take power to assess property, which may have become ratable to the relief of the poor, subsequently to the time of the parish rate being laid, and also property which has been brought within the limits of the borough, by the extension of the boundaries thereof, under the provisions of the said first recited Act; and also power to continue the sewerage rate of four pence in the pound, part of the sum of one shilling in the pound, in the said first recited Act mentioned, until the sewerage of the said town shall be completed.

Edward Guy Deane, Solicitor, and Clerk to the Commissioners.
