John Gilberd Pearse, Clerk to the Trustees of the Southmolton Turnpike,

The Deptford Pier Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, continue and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the London and Greenwich Railway to the Deptford Pier, to be called the Deptford Pier Junction Railway." And to revive and continue for a further period the power granted by the said Act, to take lands, tenements and hereditaments for the purposes thereof; and to extend the period thereby limited for finishing and completing the said works.—Dated this tenth day of November 1838.

John Atkins, Solicitor for the Company, Broadway, Deptford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for enclosing certain meadow ground called the West-croft in the parish of Saint Mary, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, bounded on the north by the Haling Path of the Nottingham canal, on the west by the station of the Midland Counties Railway, on the south by the adjoining meadow called Sweet Leys, and on the east by the Turnpike-road, called the Flood-road; and so much (in addition) of the said adjoining meadow ground called Sweet Leys between the northern arch of the Seven-arch Bridge on the said Flood-road and the south end of the Meadow Foot-bridge lying next west of the same as will form into a straight line the south boundary of that part of the land so intended to be enclosed, and which additional land is also situate in the parish and town and county aforesaid, and will contain one acre, more or less.

And also for enclosing so much of a certain piece or parcel of land or ground called Burton Leys, situate in the parish aforesaid, in the town and county aforesaid, as lies between the public street called North-street, the turnpike-road leading from the said town of Nottingham to Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham; an occupation road leading from the said turnpike-road to the common fields of the said town of Nottingham, and lands of Thomas Dickenson Hall, Esquire, and Benjamin Beeley.

And, for the purpose of improving the said meadow grounds and the approach thereto from the said town of Nottingham, provision is intended to be made in the said Bill or Bills, to form and carry a canal from a point of the Nottingham canal, east of Carrington-street, in the parish of St. Mary aforesaid, under the said Flood-road, to a point in the said
