FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1838.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the fourth day of December next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said fourth day of December next, to Tuesday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Tuesday the fifth day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Tuesday the fifth day of February next, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Buckingham-Palace, November 29, 1838.

This day had audience of Her Majesty:

His Excellency Sarim Effendi, Ambassador from the Sublime Porte, to deliver his letter of recall; and His Excellency Rechid Pacha, in the same character, to deliver his credentials;

Also Count Mandelsloh, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Wurttemberg, upon his return from a temporary leave of absence;

And Monsieur Garro, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Mexican Republic, to deliver his credentials:

To which audiences they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, November 28, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Charles William Doyle, Knt. a Lieutenant-General in the Army, Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the grand cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, the insignia of the Royal French Order of the Legion of Honour, and the supernumerary cross of the Royal and Distinguished Spanish Order of Charles the Third, which have been conferred upon the said Sir Charles William Doyle, in consideration of his distinguished services in the field of battle, and during the Peninsular war; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 28, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Thomas Stephen Sorell, Knt. Her Majesty's Consul-General for the Austrian States in Italy, and Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Military Order of St. Bento d'Avis, which the Queen of Portugal hath been pleased to confer upon him, in consideration of services rendered to the cause of Her Most Faithful Majesty during the siege of Oporto; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 26, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Charles-Trelawny Collins, of Ham, in the tything of Pennycross otherwise Weston Peverell, in the county of Devon, Clerk, Master of Arts, Rector of Timsbury, in the county of Somerset, only surviving son and heir of George Collins, late of Ham aforesaid, Esq. deceased, by Mary, his wife, only child and heir of Samuel-Pollexfen Trelawny, of the same place, Esq. also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a wish expressed in the last will and testament of his late mother, the said Mary Collins, and in testimony of his grateful and affectionate respect for her memory, henceforth take and use the surname of Trelawny, in addition to and after that of Collins, and that he and they may bear the arms of Trelawny; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 29, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Sale Sparrow, an Under Graduate of Trinity College, in the University of Oxford, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with the earnest wish and anxious desire of his maternal grandfather, the Reverend Thomas Pennington, Clerk, Master of Arts, formerly Fellow of Clare-hall, in the University of Cambridge, and now Patron and Rector of Kingsdown, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the county of Kent, and Rector of Thorley, in the county of Hertford, henceforth take and use the surname of Pennington, instead of that of Sparrow:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, for power for the trustees of the Liverpool Docks to make a Dock, together with basins, piers, wharfs, quays, river wall and other works on the west side of the Salthouse Dock, all which together with all docks, basins, piers, quays, wharfs, strand, lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereinafter mentioned are within the town and parish of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster; and to extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the Salthouse Dock, and widen, or otherwise alter the quays thereof. And also a power for the trustees to purchase, and for the devisees in trust, or representatives of the late Most Noble Francis Duke of Bridgewater, to sell, and convey to the trustees at such prices, or by way of exchange or otherwise as may be agreed upon between the parties, so much of the land and hereditaments of the said devisees as may be necessary for enabling the trustees to make the passage or passages after mentioned. And a power for the trustees thereupon to make a passage or passages from the south end of the Salthouse Dock to the Duke's Dock, and thence to the north end of the King's Dock so as to form a communication from the Salthouse Dock through the Duke's Dock to the King's Dock. And a power for the trustees to purchase, and for the council of the borough of Liverpool to sell, and convey to the trustees graving docks belonging to the corporation of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough, with the quays and appendages to the same, at prices to be fixed or at valuations to be made by juries or otherwise. And a power for the trustees to charge and receive rates and dues for the use and accommodation of the said graving docks, with the like powers for levying the same as are contained in the present Acts relating to the Liverpool Docks. And a power for the trustees to make one or more wet dock or docks, and one or more graving dock or docks, with basins, piers, wharfs, quays, river wall, and other works to the northward of the Clarence Dock for the use of large steam and other vessels. And also power for the trustees to purchase and for the council of the borough of Liverpool to sell and convey to the trustees at prices to be fixed or at valuations to be made by juries or otherwise any land and strand of the river or other lands, tenements and hereditaments belonging to the mayor, aldermen and burgesses, which may be required for any of the purposes aforesaid. And power for the trustees to purchase, and for any persons interested, to sell, and convey to the trustees their several and respective estates and interests in the same, or any other lands, tenements and hereditaments, which may be required for any of the said purposes. And also power for the trustees to erect warehouses on the west quay of the Prince's Dock and land adjacent thereto within the dock walls, and to provide proper officers and others to manage such warehouses, or to let or demise the same when built to any person or persons, joint stock or other company or companies, or to let or demise the land (subject to reservations as to quay room and other conveniences) to any person or persons, joint stock or other company or companies, for the purpose of building warehouses thereon, and to fix rates or other charges for goods warehoused or deposited in the warehouses, and for work done to or on account of goods so warehoused, or deposited, or landed at the said dock, and to enforce the payment thereof. And to use the warehouses or any of them, either as free or bonded warehouses, and to enter into the necessary bonds for that purpose. And also to make bye-laws for regulating the use of the warehouses, and what goods shall be or shall not be received therein, and the times of opening and shutting the same. And also for regulating the admission and use of fire and light therein, and for the regulation of porters and others employed therein, and of carts and carriages resorting thereto, and the carters and others attending the same. And the like powers and authorities to either the trustees, or the mayor, aldermen and burgesses with respect to erecting, managing, letting or demising warehouses on the wharfs or quays of the said intended wet docks and land adjacent thereto, not extending beyond dock walls or letting or demising the land for warehouses (subject to reservations) fixing rates and charges on goods warehoused, or deposited, or landed at the said docks or any of them, and using the warehouses for bonded warehouses, and for making bye-laws as are before specified in relation to the west quay of the Prince's Dock and land adjacent thereto, and warehouses thereon. And powers for authorizing all such reservations and exceptions in any sales of land and hereditaments by the mayor, aldermen and burgesses to the trustees, and such sales by the trustees to the mayor, aldermen and burgesses of land and hereditaments, to be purchased under the powers to be given by the Act or Acts, to be applied for as may be necessary for carrying the powers aforesaid as to warehouses or any of them into effect. And also for such conformation of title, and such settlement of divisions and boundaries relating to the respective estates of the trustees, and the mayor, aldermen and burgesses as may be proper and advisable.

And also a power for the trustees to build and provide sheds, either open or closed, and locked up, on any of the quays of the present or intended docks of the trustees. And power for the trustees to make, or authorize the making of, tramroads on any of the quays or wharfs of the present or intended docks or basins of the trustees, and across or along the streets, or highways, upon such quays or wharfs. And also to empower the trustees to raise a further sum or sums of money, for the purposes herein mentioned, so far as they may have to carry the same into effect. And also a power for the trustees to adopt a new mode of admeasurement of vessels navigated by steam, and using any of the present or intended docks or basins of the trustees, or landing or shipping, or causing to be landed or shipped, goods or merchandize, on or from any of the quays thereof, in order to obtain a just and adequate compensation for the dock accommodation afforded. And to make provision for fixing, and power to levy, a rate on steam vessels, and other craft or boats, plying on the river Mersey, for the time of any such vessel, craft, or boats, lying in any of the present or intended docks or basins of the trustees, and also an extra rate or duty on any vessel, lying in any present or intended dock or basin of the trustees, for any time exceeding two calendar months. And provision to prevent the shipment in any vessel in the port of oil of vitriol, or other dangerous article, without the contents of the package containing the same being duly specified. And also power for the trustees to make bye-laws, relative to the admission and use of fire and light on board of steam vessels in the present or intended docks or basins of the trustees. And also to make bye-laws for the good government of the present and intended docks, basins, piers, wharfs, quays, and works of the trustees, and for the regulation of steam and other vessels resorting thereto. And for authorizing and regulating the permanent payment of a fair and rateable proportion of the expenses, from time to time, attending the maintenance of the dock police, and the police of the borough of Liverpool, as now united and maintained, and for confirming and permanently establishing the union thereof, as the general constabulary force of the borough, port, and harbour, under the appointment, regulation, and government of the watch committee of the borough. And also provision for making the expense of maintaining prisoners, summarily convicted and committed to the gaol of the borough, for offences against any Act relating to the Liverpool Docks, a charge upon the borough fund, in like manner as the maintenance of other prisoners now is. And such further powers as may be necessary for placing the said intended wet docks, graving docks, piers, wharfs, quays, river wall, works and warehouses, within and subject to the regulation, management, and government, and jurisdiction and correction of offences (except as before specified), now belonging or applicable to the present docks and works of the said trustees, as if the same were part thereof, and were comprised in the several Acts next hereinafter mentioned. And for the better effecting all or any of the purposes aforesaid, to amend, extend, enlarge, alter, and explain, the powers and provisions contained in an Act, passed in the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, "An Act for making a convenient dock or basin at Liverpoole, for the security of all ships trading to and from the said port of Liverpoole." And an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the First, intituled, "An Act for enlarging the time granted by an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, 'An Act for making a convenient dock or bason at Liverpoole, for security of all shipp's trading to and from the said Port of Liverpoole.'" And an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled, "An Act for enlarging the time granted by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George, intituled, 'An Act for enlarging the time granted by an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled 'An Act for making a convenient dock or bason at Liverpool, for the security of all ships trading to and from the said port of Liverpool, and for enlarging the same, by making an additional dock, and building a pier in the open harbour there, and for enlightening the said dock :'" and an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the term and powers granted by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, for continuing several Acts relating to the harbour of Liverpool, and for enlarging the said harbour by making an additional dock, and building a pier in the open harbour there, and for enlightening the said dock, and for making another dock, with proper piers, in the said harbour, and for erecting light-houses, and other proper lights, in or near the port of Liverpool ;" and an Act passed in the 25th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the term and powers of several Acts relating to the harbour of Liverpool, and for making two additional docks and piers, in or near the port of Liverpool ;" and an Act passed in the 39th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to enlarge the term and alter and enlarge the powers of several Acts relating to the harbour of Liverpool, and for making two additional wet docks and piers in or near the port of Liverpool, and for rendering more safe and commodious the said port and docks ;" and an Act passed in the 51st year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for the improvement of, the port and town of Liverpool, and amending the several Acts relating to the docks, quays, and other works belonging to the said port ;" and an Act passed in the 53rd year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to authorise the advancement of a certain sum of money for carrying into effect the several Acts for the improvement of the port and town of Liverpool, and to amend the said Acts ;" and an Act passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for improving the lighthouse on the Isle of Anglesea, belonging to the trustees of the Liverpool Docks, and for further amending the Acts relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool ;" and an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the further improvement of the port, harbour, and town of Liverpool, and for altering, extending, and amending the several Acts relating thereto ;" and an Act passed in the 9th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the trustees of the Liverpool Docks to raise a further sum of money ;" and an Act passed in the 9th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two Acts of the 51st year of His late Majesty, and the 6th year of His present Majesty, for the improvement of the port, harbour, and town of Liverpool, and to authorise the trustees of the Liverpool Docks to pay for certain lands and hereditaments, purchased under the said Acts ;" and an Act passed in the 11th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for extending and amending the several Acts relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool."

And notice is further given, that the required plans and sections, with books of reference, will be deposited in the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at Preston, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of November instant, and copies of the same plans, sections, and books of reference, will be also deposited for the inspection of the public, with the clerks of the said parish of Liverpool, at Liverpool aforesaid, at their respective places of abode in the said parish, on or before the 31st day of December next ensuing.

John Geo. Vandenhoff, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation and Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, repeal, and render more effectual some of the powers and provisions of the four several Acts relating to the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal, Navigation, and Railway; the first Act passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Canal Navigation, from Manchester to Bolton, and to Bury, to make and maintain a railway, from Manchester to Bolton, and to Bury, in the county palatine of Lancaster, upon or near the line of the said canal navigation, and to make and maintain a collateral branch to communicate therewith;" the second, passed in the second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation, and Railway, to alter some parts of the said canal navigation, to alter, and amend the line of the said railway, to make further collateral branches thereto, and for amending the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the said Canal and Railway;" the third passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation, and Railway, and to make a branch railway to Bolton, and to enable the said Company to raise a further sum of money;" and the fourth passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation, and Railway, to raise more money, and for amending the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating thereto;" and also to extend and enlarge the line of the said Manchester, Bolton, and Bury railway, by means of a railway or railways, not exceeding one mile in length, (with proper works and conveniences connected therewith,) first, from the said Manchester Bolton, and Bury railway, at or near to a certain mill, called the Hope Town Mill, in the township of Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and extending from thence in a westerly direction to the Liverpool and Manchester railway, at or near the point where Cross-lane, crosses the said last-mentioned railway, in the said township of Salford, and secondly, from, or from near the termination of the said Manchester, Bolton, and Bury railway, (near the New Bailey, in the said township,) and thence in an easterly direction, to, and to communicate with the projected extension, enlargement, or new line of the Manchester and Leeds railway, on the north-easterly side of the river Irwell, in the township and parish of Manchester, in the said county, and terminating in or near to a piece of land near to a place there called Hunt's-bank, lying between Great Ducie-street there and a dwelling-house lately occupied by Mr. Edward Norris; the said new line or lines of railway, passing from, through, or into the several parishes, or parochial chapelries, townships, hamlets, or places of Salford, Cheetham, and Manchester, or some, or one of them.

And further notice is hereby given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act or Acts to deviate (to an extent not exceeding thirty yards on each side,) from the line of the said intended railway or railways, as the same will be defined in the plan or plans thereof, to be deposited pursuant to the Standing Orders of Parliament, but only into such properties as may be numbered on the said plans, and mentioned in the books of reference thereto; and also power to stop up such streets, roads, or highways, crossing the line of the said proposed extension or enlargement of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury railway, as in the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, shall be shown as intended to be so stopped up. And also power to divert, and carry along, or near to the side of the same railway, to some convenient place of crossing the same such streets, roads or highways, as in the same plans shall be shown as intended to be so diverted.

And further notice is hereby given, that it is intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls, or duties for, or in respect of all persons, goods, articles, matters, and things passing upon, or along, or using the said new railway or railways.

And further notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, plans and sections, of the said intended new railway or railways, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the said county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and that, on or before the said thirtieth day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to the parish of Manchester, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, at his place of abode.—
Dated, Liverpool, the 13th day of November 1838.

W. S. Miller, Law Clerk of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation, and Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act to make and maintain a Turnpike Road, to commence at or near the town of Faversham, in the parish of Faversham, in the county of Kent, to pass from thence from, along, across, through, or into certain portions of the said parish of Faversham, and the parishes or townships of Luddenham, Goodnestone, Graveney, Hearn Hill, Boughton-under-Dlean, Seasalter, Whitstable, Saint Stephens otherwise Hackington, Swalecliffe, Herne, Herne Bay, Reculver, Chisle, Ville of Sarre, Saint Nicholas at Wade, and Birchington, and to terminate at or near the turnpike bar, on the Canterbury and Margate turnpike road, in the village and parish of Birchington aforesaid, all which said parishes or townships are situate in the county of Kent, and that powers will be taken in and by the said Act to raise, collect, levy, and receive certain rates, tolls, or duties, to be therein enumerated for the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that a duplicate map or plan and section of the said intended turnpike-road, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Kent, at his office, at or in Maidstone, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said map or plan and section as relates to each parish, and of the book of reference thereto, will likewise be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December now next ensuing.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicates of the said map or plan and section, and of the book of reference thereto, will likewise be deposited with the clerk of the Parliament of the House of Lords, and in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, on or before the said thirtieth day of December now next ensuing.—Dated the eighth day of November 1838.

William Andrews, 10, Lombard-street, London, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a Turnpike road to commence at or near to a certain stone finger post, near the entrance gate to a mansion house, called Morville Hall, in the township of Morville, in the parish of Morville in the county of Salop, thence to pass from in, through or into the several parishes, townships and other places of Morville, Aston Eyres, Monk Hopton, Weston and Oxenbold, Skimblescott, Holgate, Stanton Long and Shipton, or some of them, all in the said county of Salop, and to terminate at or near to a certain close belonging to Thomas Mytton, Esquire, and in the occupation of Samuel Massey, called the Edenolds; in the township of Shipton, in the parish of Shipton aforesaid; by there joining the turnpike road from Ludlow to Much Wenlock, both in the said county of Salop. And also to make and maintain a branch road from and out of the said intended turnpike road, to commence at a certain place, called Weston, in the said township of Weston and Oxenbold in the said parish of Monk Hopton, near to a farm house in the holding of William Edwards, and thence to pass from in, through, or into the several parishes, townships and other places of Weston and Oxenbold, Shipton, Stanton Long and Brockton, all in the said county of Salop, and to terminate at or near to the bridge on the said turnpike road leading from Ludlow to Much Wenlock, in the township and village of Brockton in the said parish of Stanton Long. And also to make and maintain a branch road from and out of the said turnpike road leading from Ludlow to Much Wenlock aforesaid, to commence at the said last mentioned bridge in the village of Brockton, thence to pass from, in, through or into the several parishes, townships and other places of Brockton, Stanton Long and Easthope all in the said county of Salop, and to terminate by joining the turnpike road leading from Church Stretton in the said county of Salop to Much Wenlock aforesaid, at the corner of a field in the occupation of Mr. Henry Wadlow, adjoining to an entrance gate to Lutwyche Hall, and near to a certain place, called Easthopes Cross, in the township and parish of Easthope aforesaid. And it is intended, for the purposes of the said intended new road, or branches, or one of them, to divert, widen, maintain, improve, and make turnpike a certain highway leading from Morville aforesaid, to Shipton aforesaid, and also a certain other highway leading from Weston aforesaid to Brockton aforesaid. And also a certain other highway leading from Brockton aforesaid to Easthopes Cross aforesaid, and to stop up and discontinue all such parts of the said highways respectively as shall become unnecessary in consequence of the diversion of the said several highways, and the formation of the said intended road and branches.

And further notice is hereby given, that power will be applied for in the said intended Act to deviate to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line of the said intended road and branches respectively, as defined upon the plans thereof, which will be deposited as hereinafter mentioned. And it is also intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls or duties, for or in respect of all persons, goods, articles, matters or things, cattle, animals and carriages passing upon or along the said intended turnpike road or branches or any part thereof respectively.

And further notice is hereby given, that on or before the thirtieth day of this present month of November, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended turnpike road, highways, and branch roads respectively, together with books of reference thereto will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Salop, at his office at Shrewsbury, and that on or before the thirty-first day of December next a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the several parishes of Morville, Aston Eyres, Much Hopton, Stanton Long, Shipton and Easthope, together with books of reference thereto will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of the said parishes at the residence of such parish clerks respectively.—Dated this twelfth day of November 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for making and maintaining a dock, with suitable piers, walls, locks, sluices, drains, cuts, channels, gates, bridges, arches, landing-places, avenues, approaches, wharfs, depôts, warehouses, buildings, engines, staiths, reservoirs, and other works and conveniences at and near to Jarrow Stake, upon or within the river Tyne, and the lands adjoining the same, situate within the parishes of Jarrow, in the county of Durham, and Saint Nicholas, in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or one of them, and within the several townships, hamlets, or places of South Shields, Westoe, and Jarrow, all in the said county of Durham, or some or one of them; and for deepening and improving the channel of the river Tyne, at or near to the proposed entrance to the said dock, and for incorporating a company for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is intended by the said Act, to take powers for purchasing lands, buildings, and other hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid; and also powers for diverting the course of streams, brooks, and rivulets on the line or site of, and near to, the said dock and other works; and also powers to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by the creation of shares, or by some other mode to be authorized and provided for in and by such intended Act; and in the said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting and taking certain tolls, dues, and duties, for the use of the said dock, depôts, warehouses, buildings, and premises.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said dock and other works, describing the line or situation thereof, and the lands in or upon which the same shall be made, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited at the offices of the several clerks of the peace for the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the county of Durham, on Friday the thirtieth day of November instant, and with the several parish clerks of the said parishes of Jarrow and Saint Nicholas, at their respective residences, and in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, and in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on Monday the thirty-first day of December next. —Dated this third day of November 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a Company, for making and maintaining one or more Dock or Docks, on the east side of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, in and through lands lying in a certain extra-parochial place, heretofore part of the land belonging to the Military Works, of His late Majesty King George the Third, at Kingston-upon-Hull, within the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and county of the same borough, and in and through land in the parish of Drypool, in the same borough and county, or in and through one of them, and for making and constructing all proper and necessary roads, approaches, locks, basins, cuts, bridges, embankments, wharfs, quays, and other works, for carrying the purposes aforesaid into execution, and for levying tolls, rates, or duties, in respect thereof; and in the said Bill powers will be contained for altering and amending the provisions of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs, at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations, within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull;" and also the provisions of several Acts past respectively in the nineteenth, twenty-third, forty-second, and forty-fifth years of the reign of His said late Majesty; and in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for amending the said first-mentioned Act, and particularly powers will be contained in the said Bill for repealing so much of the said first-mentioned Act, and of any of the said subsequent Acts, as would impose any rates or duties in respect of ships or vessels coming into or going out of the said intended dock or docks, or unloading, or putting on shore, or lading, or taking on board any of their cargoes, or any goods, wares, or merchandizes therein.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed dock or docks, and other works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited for public inspection, with the clerk of the peace for the said borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office, in Bishop-lane, in the said borough, and with the clerk of the peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley, in the said county of York, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Drypool, and copies will also be deposited with the parish clerks of the several parishes of the Holy Trinity, and of Saint Mary, in the said borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and of the parish of Sutton, partly in the same borough, and partly in the county of York, which parishes, as also the said parish of Drypool, adjoin, or approximate the extra-parochial place hereinbefore mentioned.

Thomas Hblden, Solicitor for the said intended Bill.

Hull, 1st November 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for making, constructing, and maintaining a Harbour or Basin, or one or more Pier or Piers, Jetty or Jetties, with all necessary wharfs, depôts, warehouses, works and conveniences thereto, at or near Portishead Bay, in the parishes of Portishead otherwise Possett, and Portbury, or one of them, in the county of Somerset, and for otherwise improving the said bay and the approaches thereto, and the more complete, perfect, and safe use and enjoyment of the same. And also for the making and maintaining all such turnpike or other roads, and communications to and from the said harbour or basin, and pier, as may be necessary or expedient, and particularly a Turnpike Road, commencing at or near the said harbour, basin, and pier, in the said parishes of Portishead otherwise Possett, and Portbury, or one of them, and to proceed from thence from, along, across, through, or into the said parishes, or one of them, and also from, along, across, through, or into the parish of Wraxall, in the said county of Somerset, to join the existing road leading to the city of Bristol, at or near a place or house called Failand's-lodge, in the said parish of Wraxall; and that powers will be taken in and by the said Act to raise, collect, levy, and receive certain rates, tolls, dues, duties, or sums of money to be therein enumerated, and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, and hereditaments, within the said several parishes for the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that a duplicate map or plan and section of the said intended harbour, basin, or pier, roads, and works, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Somerset; and a copy of so much of the said map or plan and section, as relates to each parish, and of the book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

And notice is hereby likewise given, that it is intended to apply for powers to be granted in and by the said Act or Acts, to divert, or alter all such road or roads as may be necessary to be diverted, or altered, in the construction of the said harbour, basin or pier, roads and other works, and also to divert such rivers, canals, streams, or running waters, as may be required to be diverted, for the construction or formation of such harbour, basin, or pier, roads, and other works as aforesaid; and that it is intended to relinquish so much of the present rivers, canals, streams, or running waters as shall or may be rendered unnecessary or useless by reason of such diversion or diversions as aforesaid.—Dated the eighth day of November 1838.

W. H. Buckenfield,
John Franklyn, } Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge, the provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for the better regulation and encouragement of Pilots, for the conducting of ships and vessels into and out of the Port of Liverpool." And also to increase and decrease, and to alter and modify, in certain cases, the rates of pilotage in the said Act mentioned. And to give new and additional powers to the commissioners, by the said Act authorized and empowered. And also to assimilate the liability of owners of vessels, and pilots, to the liabilities created by the General Pilot Act, and in other respects to assimilate the laws and regulations, for the good government of the pilots of the port of Liverpool, to those established under the General Pilot Act. Dated this 13th day of November 1838.

Lowndes and Robinson, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to consolidate, enlarge, and amend the several Local Acts relating to the parish of Birmingham, and the hamlets of Deritend and Bordesley, and Duddeston and Nechells, in the county of Warwick, set forth in the following schedule; and to extend the trusts, powers, and provisions of all, or any of the said several Acts, to the whole limits of the borough of Birmingham, as settled under, and by virtue of an Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament;" and as referred to and described in the Charter of Incorporation, granted to the said borough of Birmingham, by Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, and dated at Westminster the thirty-first day of October, in the second year of Her said Majesty's reign; and to transfer and vest all such trusts, powers, and provisions, in the body corporate of the said borough of Birmingham, constituted under and by virtue of the charter aforesaid.—Dated the tenth day of November 1838.

Wm. Andrews, 10, Lombard-street, London, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for better supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford, within the several townships of Bradford, Horton, Bowling, and Manningham; all in the parish of Bradford, in the west riding of the county of York; and for that purpose it is intended by such Bill and Act, to obtain powers to make, construct, and maintain reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, upon or near to the several streams or rivulets, called Thornton Beck, Allerton Beck, Hole Bottom Beck, Lidgett Beck, otherwise Clayton Beck, Hewenden Beck, Harden Beck, the Beck flowing from Swaine Royd Lane Bottom, unto and into the Bradford Beck, and the Bradford Beck, and the several springs, streams, and feeders flowing thereto, and to make, construct, and maintain a reservoir, or reservoirs, at or near to Whetley hill; and to take and use the waters of the said several becks, springs, streams, and feeders, or some of them, and to make, erect, provide, lay, place, construct, and maintain, proper cuts, channels, conduits, aqueducts, drains, sluices, weirs, shafts, mains, pipes, and other works and conveniences for supplying the said reservoirs with water, and for conveying and distributing the same to the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; which said reservoirs, cuts, channels, conduits, aqueducts, drains, sluices, weirs, shafts, mains, pipes, and other works and conveniences, are intended to be made, erected, laid, placed, constructed, and maintained, within and to pass from, through, or into, the several townships or places of Haworth, Wilsden, Harden, Cullingworth, Cottingley, Bingley, Thornton, Allerton, Manningham, Heaton, Clayton, Horton, Bowling, Bradford, Bolton, Idle, and Shipley, or some of them, in the several parishes of Bingley, Calverley, and Bradford, in the said west riding of the county of York.

And also for making, constructing and maintaining, upon or near to the several streams or rivulets aforesaid, and the several streams and feeders flowing thereto, or some of them, compensating reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences, for collecting, penning up, and impounding water for the use of the several mills, engines, and other works, situated upon or near to the said several streams between such reservoirs and the river Aire in dry seasons; in lieu of the water to be taken and used for the supplying of the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; which said reservoirs, works, and conveniences, are intended to be made, constructed, set up, and maintained within, and to pass from, through, or into, the several townships, places, and parishes aforesaid.

And also for making, constructing, and maintaining upon, or near to, the several streams or rivulets aforesaid, and the several streams and feeders flowing thereto, and upon or near to the several other streams and feeders which flow and run into the Bradford beck, before it passes through the town of Bradford aforesaid, reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences for collecting, penning up, and impounding the flood waters which flow into and along the said several becks, streams, and feeders; and for making, constructing, and maintaining new courses, channels, viaducts, conduits, sluices, and other proper works and conveniences for conveying the said flood-waters from the said reservoirs to and into the said beck called the Bradford Beck, below or after it has passed through the town of Bradford aforesaid; all which said reservoirs, new courses, channels, viaducts, conduits, sluices, and other works and conveniences, are intended to be made, constructed, set up, and maintained within, and to pass from, in, through, or into, the several townships, places and parishes aforesaid.

And also for incorporating certain persons as a company for carrying the purposes aforesaid into effect, with power to take and use lands for the same, and also for the sites of mills and other manufactories, requiring the use of water, upon, or near to the new courses or channels for conveying the flood waters from the reservoirs to the Bradford beck, below the town of Bradford aforesaid, and upon or near to the respective works, streams, and feeders aforesaid, within the several townships, places, and parishes aforesaid.

And also for applying the flood waters to be collected, penned up, and impounded in the aforesaid reservoirs, or part thereof, as a power for giving motion to machinery, in mills or other manufactories, to be erected upon or near to the before-mentioned new courses or channels, and upon or near to the aforesaid brooks, streams, and feeders, and for other manufacturing purposes, within the several townships, places, and parishes aforesaid.

And also that it is intended to obtain powers by such Bill and Act to regulate the amount of water rents or sums of money to be paid by the inhabitants of all houses and other tenements, and the occupiers thereof for the time being, taking or using the said water for domestic or other purposes, in the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and also for levying rates or assessments upon all mills, and other manufactories, to be erected upon or near to the before-mentioned new courses or channels for the flood waters, or upon or near to the respective becks, streams, or feeders aforesaid, and the occupiers thereof for the time being, using such water, either as power or for other purposes; and also upon the respective mills and other manufactories now erected, or which may hereafter be erected, upon the several brooks, streams, and feeders aforesaid, or by whatsoever other name or names the same may be called, between the reservoirs from whence water is supplied, and the confluences of the said brooks, streams, and feeders with the river Aire, or upon the occupiers, for the time being, of such mills, manufactories, and other works, which shall receive or derive any benefit or advantage from the using of the water flowing from the said reservoirs.

And it is also intended by the said Bill and Act to obtain powers for enabling the company of proprietors of the Bradford Water-works, incorporated by an Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for preserving the works made for supplying the town of Bradford, in the county of York, and part of the township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid with water, for the more easy recovery of the rents for the said water, and to enable the proprietors thereof to borrow money for the improving of such works," to sell and dispose of, and to transfer, convey, assign, and assure the water-works, lands, and premises, and water rents now belonging to, or vested in them under such Act, to the company intended to be incorporated by the said intended Bill and Act; and, if necessary, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act of the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and to alter or increase the water rents thereby authorised to be taken, or to repeal the same Act, and dissolve the said company, called "The Company of Proprietors of the Bradford Water works;" and it is also intended by the said Bill and Act, to obtain power to enable the said intended company to use, apply, convert, and appropriate the water-works, lands and premises, or any part thereof, now belonging to the said company of proprietors of the Bradford Water-works, in and for the aforesaid objects and purposes of the said intended Bill and Act, as may be thought necessary or expedient, and to take and receive the present water-rents, or increased or altered water-rents, in respect of supplying water by the same; and all which said present water-works, lands and premises lie in the townships of Horton and Bradford aforesaid, within the parish of Bradford aforesaid.

And notice is also hereby given, that a plan of the said intended works, together with sections, and a book of reference, will be deposited for public inspection, and a duplicate of the same, at the office of the clerk of the peace, at Wakefield, in the said west riding, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a duplicate of the said plan, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited in the private Bill office of the Honourable the House of Commons, and another duplicate thereof in the office of the clerk of the Parliaments; and also that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plan, sections, and book of reference as relates to the said parish of Bingley, a copy of so much of the said plan, sections, and book of reference as relates to the said parish of Calverley, and a copy of so much of the said plan, sections, and book of reference as relates to the said parish of Bradford, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said parishes of Bingley, Calverley, and Bradford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the establishment and incorporation of a company for navigating steam and other vessels, to and from the ports of London, Liverpool or other ports in Great Britain, and the Brazils and River Platé and intermediate ports. And in which Bill, powers will be taken for enabling the said company to sue and be sued in their corporate name, or by one or more of their proprietors or officers, and for otherwise carrying the intentions and designs of such company into full effect.—Dated the fifteenth day of November 1838.

White and Borrett, Solicitors, 1, Frederick's-place, Old Jury.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining one or more pier or piers, jetty or jetties, with convenient approaches, roads, and other works connected therewith; which said pier or piers, jetty or jetties, approaches and roads, leading thereto or connected therewith, are intended to be made, built, or constructed on the shores of Catwater, in the port of Plymouth, at or near a place commonly known as the Bear's Head; and which said pier or piers, jetty or jetties, approaches, roads, and other works, will be situated in the parish of Charles, in the borough of Plymouth and county of Devon.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the said county of Devon, at his office in the castle of Exeter, in the said county; and at the office of the clerk of the peace for the borough of Plymouth, at his office at Plymouth, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of the said plan and sections will be deposited with the clerk of the parish of Charles as aforesaid, on or before the thirtieth day of December next.

And notice is hereby given, that it is the intention of the party or parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill, to levy tolls, rates, or duties in respect of the said pier or piers, jetty or jetties, and approaches and other works, and generally to raise money for the purposes of the said Bill.—Dated this fourteenth day of November 1838.

W. H. Evens.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, erecting, regulating and maintaining a pier and landing-place on the south side of the river Thames, at a certain place called the Royal Terrace Gardens, situate in or near the parish of Milton next Gravesend, in the county of Kent, or in or near a certain extra parochial place there, heretofore called the Blockhouse Fort, for the embarking and disembarking of passengers, goods, and merchandize on and from steam packets and other ships, boats, and vessels resorting there and using the same pier and landing place, and for making suitable and necessary approaches thereto, in the said parish or extra parochial place; and also that it is intended by the said Bill, to obtain authority to make and levy tolls, rates, and duties on passengers using the said pier and landing place, and on goods and merchandize landed or embarked thereat or therefrom.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said pier or landing place and approaches, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Kent, at Maidstone, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of such plans, sections, and books of reference, with the parish clerk of Milton next Gravesend, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1838.

J. Matthews, Solicitor for the Bill, Gravesend.

Manchester and Birmingham Extension Railway.

WHEREAS notice has been given, according to the standing orders of both Houses of Parliament, of an intention to apply to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to make and maintain a railway, commencing by a junction with the line of the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, in the township of Meaford, in the parish of Stone, in the county of Stafford, and terminating by a junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Rugby, and county of Warwick; and also to make and maintain a branch railway, from and out of the said intended railway, commencing in the parish of Armitage, otherwise Armitage and Hansacre, in the county of Stafford, and terminating by a junction with the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, in the township of Wichnor, in the parish of Tatenhill, in the county of Stafford; plans and sections whereof, with books of reference thereto, have been, and will be duly deposited, as directed by the said standing orders.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended to make the several deviations hereinafter mentioned, not exceeding one mile each in length, from the lines of the said proposed railway and branch railway respectively, that is to say:

On the main line, a deviation in the township of Great Aston, Burston and Stoke, in the parish of Stone, in the county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field numbered 176 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field numbered 207 on the said plans: a deviation in the parishes of Mavesyn Ridware, and Armitage, and Hansacre, in the said county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field in the said parish of Armitage and Hansacre, numbered 10 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field in the same parish, numbered 43 on the said plans: a deviation in the township of Streethay, in the parish of Saint Michael Lichfield, and in the extra-parochial place of Fulfin, in the said county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field in the said township of Streethay, numbered 10 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field, in the said extra-parochial place of Fulfin, numbered 1 on the said plans: a deviation in the parishes of Whittington, and Saint Michael Lichfield, in the said county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field, in the said parish of Whittington, numbered 85, 86 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field, in the said parishes of Whittington and Saint Michael Lichfield, numbered 133 on the said plans: a deviation in the extra-parochial place of Tamhorn, in the said county of Stafford, and in that part of the parish of Tamworth, which is in the said county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field, in the said extra-parochial place of Tamhorn, numbered 147a on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field in the said parish of Tamworth, numbered 9 on the said plans: a deviation within the parish of Tamworth, in the said counties of Stafford and Warwick, commencing at or near to a certain Moor, in that part of the said parish of Tamworth which is in the said county of Stafford, called Staffordshire Moor, and numbered 56 and 59 on the said plans and terminating at or near a certain field, in that part of the same parish which is in the said county of Warwick, numbered 146 on the said plans:—a deviation at Alvecote, in the township and parish of Shuttington, and in the township and parish of Polesworth, in the said county of Warwick, commencing at or near a certain field in the said township and parish of Shuttington, numbered 5 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field in the said township and parish of Polesworth, numbered 5 on the said plans. And one deviation on the line of the proposed branch railway above referred to, in the township and parish of Alrewas, in the said county of Stafford, and in the township of Wichnor, in the parish of Tatenhill, in the said county of Stafford, commencing at or near a certain field in the said township and parish of Alrewas, numbered 62 on the said plans, and terminating at or near a certain field in the said township of Wichnor, numbered 3 on the said plans.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections, of the several proposed deviations hereinbefore respectively mentioned or referred to, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers, of the lands through which the said deviations are respectively intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford; with the clerk of the peace for the county of Warwick, at his office at Stratford-upon-Avon; with the clerk of the peace for the county of the city of Lichfield, at his office at Lichfield; and with the clerk of the peace for the county of the city of Coventry, at his office at Coventry.

And that a plan and section of the said proposed deviation, so far as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the said 30th day of November instant, with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power to deviate in the construction of the said several proposed deviations (save as after mentioned), to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the lines laid down on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, where such lines respectively are intended to pass through land covered with houses, and (save also as after mentioned) in all other parts of the line, to an extent, on either side thereof, not exceeding one hundred yards, save and except where the property, situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards, respectively or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said last mentioned plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be described and contained in the said books of reference, and save and except where it shall be denoted on the same plans that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And it is further intended, to apply for all proper and necessary powers to levy tolls, rates, or duties, on or in respect of the said proposed deviation lines.

Wheeler, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better paving and Sewerage of the Town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for settling the boundaries between the said town and township of Kirkdale, and parts of the townships of Everton and West Derby," and that it is intended by such Act to alter the day for the choosing of Commissioners, and to fix the rate at which water shall be supplied by the water companies now existing, or hereafter to be established, within the limits of the said Act, to the tanks or other depositories of the commissioners, to be used in case of fire, and for watering the streets of the said town, and for other purposes. And that power will also be taken by such Act to apply to the purposes of the said recited Act, or of the said intended Act, all penalties which may be levied and recovered under the authority thereof, or of either of them, in the same manner as the same were, or would have been, applicable before the passing of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," whereby such penalties are directed to be paid, and applied in aid of the borough fund; and further, that it is intended to take power to assess property, which may have become ratable to the relief of the poor, subsequently to the time of the parish rate being laid, and also property which has been brought within the limits of the borough, by the extension of the boundaries thereof, under the provisions of the said first recited Act; and also power to continue the sewerage rate of four pence in the pound, part of the sum of one shilling in the pound, in the said first recited Act mentioned, until the sewerage of the said town shall be completed.

Edward Guy Deane, Solicitor, and Clerk to the Commissioners.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making, forming, inclosing, and maintaining a port or asylum harbour, to be called Port William, between and near to the two rocks commonly called and known by the names of the Salt Scar Rock, and the East Scar Rock, respectively lying in the bay of the German Ocean, called the Tees Bay, and opposite to the towns or villages of Redcar and East Coatham, in the north riding of the county of York; with proper and convenient breakwaters, piers, jetties, lighthouses, and other works, for the safe and convenient passage of ships and other vessels into and out of the said port or harbour; and also for erecting and maintaining proper quays, wharfs, staiths, landing-places, houses, warehouses, offices, and all other works necessary and convenient for the loading and unloading of ships and other vessels in or alongside, adjoining, or near to the said port or harbour; all of which said works are intended to be made in the said bay of the German Ocean, called the Tees Bay, and in the several townships, hamlets, or places of Redcar, Upleatham, Kirk Leatham, and East Coatham, or some or one of them; and in the several parishes of Marsk, Upleatham, and Kirkleatham, or some or one of them, all in the north riding of the county of York; and also for authorising the depositing of ballast and other materials on the sea shore, between high and low water marks, in the said several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places, or some or one of them; and also for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls, rates, and duties upon all ships and other vessels passing the lights or light-houses of the said port or harbour, and which shall clear out of, or deliver their cargoes at, any British port; and certain other tolls, rates, and duties upon all ships and other vessels entering into, or using the said port or harbour, or the works connected therewith; and also for levying, collecting, and taking certain other tolls, rates, and duties, for using the said quays, wharfs, staiths, landing-places, houses, warehouses, offices, and other works.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed harbour and works, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and hereditaments upon or through which the said works are to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of this present month of November, with the clerk of the peace for the north riding of the county of York, at his office at Middleham, in Yorkshire; and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the said parishes, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of each such parish; on or before the thirty-first day of December next. — Dated this nineteenth day of November 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Ball, of the city of Gloucester, Victualler, hath duly executed an indenture, bearing date the 3d day of October last, whereby the said William Ball conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto Thomas Vernon and George Banaster, both of Tewkesbury, in the county of Gloucester, Wine and Spirit Merchants and Copartners, as trustees, for themselves and all other the creditors of the said William Ball who should execute the said indenture, within two months from the date thereof; and whereby it was declared, that such of the creditors of the said William Ball who should not execute such indenture within the time aforesaid, would be excluded from all benefit arising under the same. And notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture was executed by the said William Ball, and each of the said trustees, in the presence of Mr. Amos Slead, of the city of Gloucester, Solicitor; and that the same now lies at the office of the said Amos Slead, for the other creditors of the said William Ball to execute the same.

WHEREAS Andrew Wharton, of Bardsey, in the county of York, Joiner and Cabinet-Maker, hath by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 12th day of November instant, assigned over all his personal estate and effects unto John Snowden, of Leeds, in the said county of York, Timber-Merchant, and William Fieldhouse, of the same place, Iron-monger, in trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all the other creditors of the said Andrew Wharton; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that the said indenture of assignment was executed by him, the said Andrew Wharton, on the said 12th day of November instant, and by the said John Snowden on the 14th day of November instant, and by the said William Fieldhouse on the 24th day of November instant; and the execution thereof by all the said several parties is witnessed by John Shackleton, and Edward Maud, both of Leeds aforesaid, Clerks to William Hargreaves, of the same place, Solicitor.

THE creditors of Thomas Chantler, late of Hartford, in the county of Chester, Banker and Money-Scrivener, are requested to meet the assignee of his estate and effects, at the office of John Barker, of Northwich, in the said county, Solicitor, on Saturday the 22d day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to take into consideration a debt of large amount, due to the said bankrupt's estate from a fund in Court, in a suit pending in the High Court of Chancery, in which cause the said assignee is a party; and for the purpose of authorising the said assignee to settle the amount thereof as to interest thereon, or otherwise by compounding for the same, or submitting it to arbitration; and on other affairs affecting the said bankrupt's estate.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Francis M'Callum and Adolphus Frederick Bell, of Regent-street, in the county of Middlesex, Tobaccoists and Snuff-Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Monday the 24th day of December next, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising a certain suit in equity, wherein the said bankrupt, Francis M'Callum, is the plaintiff, and Reginald James Blewitt, William Lawrence Bicknell, Charles M'Callum, and Margaretta, his wife, and their three children, are defendants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees effecting a sale of the interest of the assignees in a mortgage granted by the said Charles M'Callum to the said bankrupt Francis M'Callum; and also a sale of a policy of insurance on the life of the said defendant Charles M'Callum, a debtor to the said bankrupts' estate; and for the purpose of taking and adopting the necessary and best measures for carrying the views of the said creditors, in respect of the matters aforesaid, into effect; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Holroyd and Robert Stanfield Holroyd, of Swallees Mill,

In Soyland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, Cotton-Spinners, Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Co-partners (trading under the firm of John Holroyd), are requested to meet on the 21st day of December next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Magistrates' office, in Halifax aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees chosen and appointed under the said fiat selling and disposing of all or any part of the real estate of the said bankrupts, by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, and either in one or more lot or lots; and also to the said assignees buying in the said estate, or any part thereof, at any auction and reselling the same at any other public auction, or by private contract, without being liable for any loss or diminution in price on such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to each or either of the said bankrupts, at a valuation or otherwise, his own separate household furniture, plate, linen, books, pictures, and china, or any part thereof, and also the whole or any part of the machinery, stock, implements of trade, and other personal effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, to the said bankrupts, or any other person or persons, in manner aforesaid or otherwise, and giving such time or credit for the price thereof, with or without security, and upon such terms as to the said assignees shall appear proper, and at the risk of the creditors of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the said bankrupts' trade or business, and buying cotton, and spinning, manufacturing, and selling the same for the benefit and at the risk of their estate, for such time as may be decided upon at the said meeting, and for that purpose to employ the said bankrupts, or either of them, or any other person or persons, in conducting the said trade, or in any other way, for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, and to their paying and allowing to the said bankrupts, or such other person or persons, out of the moneys to be received by such assignees belonging to the said bankrupts' estate and effects, such wages and compensations for his or their services therein as to them may seem proper and reasonable; and also to paying and discharging all such rent, taxes, wages, and other outgoings now due and payable from the said bankrupts' estate, and to become due and payable during such period of time as the said assignees may continue in the possession of the said bankrupts' premises, and an advantageous disposition can be fairly affected, but so as that the said assignees shall not in anywise be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage which may arise or happen by reason of such continuance, or of their actings or doings therein, and proceedings which may be adopted by the said assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupts and assist them in preparing their accounts, previous to their last examination; and to the assignees making to such person or persons compensation for his or their trouble as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying the equity of redemption of all or any parts of the said bankrupts' real estate, or to concurring with such mortgagee or mortgagees, or other persons interested in the said real estates, in the sale and conveyance of such real estate, or any part thereof, to any purchaser or purchasers, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable, or upon any other and what conditions and terms; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the costs, incurred previous to the issuing of the said fiat, of preparing a certain deed of assignment to trustees therein named, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts, and the costs incurred in attempting to make an arrangement with the creditors of the said bankrupts, or incident thereto, and in defending certain actions brought against the said bankrupts by certain creditors, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, and particularly a suit instituted, previous to the issuing of the said fiat, by George Biuns and Francis Roper, creditors of John Holroyd, deceased, the father of the said bankrupts, against the said bankrupts and other the persons interested in his real estate, and in which suit a supplemental bill hath already been filed against the said assignees, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy for defending, recovering, or concerning the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and to ratify and confirm all the acts and deeds of the said assignees, and also of the provisional assignee chosen under the said fiat, in carrying on the said bankrupts' trade; and otherwise generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupts in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 30th day of November 1838, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by GEORGE GRAY, of Brunswick-street, Stamford-street, Blackfriars-road, in the county of Surrey, Livery-Stable-Keeper and Riding-Master, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 31st of October 1838, was awarded and issued forth against George Hall, late of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, but now of Rideswell, in the county of Derby, Banker, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 26th day of November 1838, and which said order has been duly confirmed by the Lord High Chancellor, rescinded and annulled.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

In the Matter of Richard Brown, an Insolvent Debtor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of the said insolvent will be held at the Lamb Inn, Wallingford, in the county of Berks, on Monday the 17th day of December next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, for the purpose of determining the manner and place in and at which the real estate of the said insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and of taking into consideration other matters which will be brought forward at such meeting.

Insolvent Debtor's Dividend.—No. 31,608 C.

THE creditors of Robert Turpin, late of the borough of Plymouth, Builder, whose debts, on examination by the Auditing Officer, appear proveable, are hereby informed, that a Dividend of fifteen shillings and six pence in the pound will be paid them on application to Mr. John Edmonds, Solicitor, of No. 8, Parade, Plymouth, on Saturday the 15th day of December next, on satisfaction being given concerning the respective amounts of such debts.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of John Bateson, of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 44,383, has caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at No. 42, Friday-street, Cheapside, in the city of London, on the 31st day of December next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the assignee of the estate and effects of Richard Matland, of No. 67, Seymour-place, Bryanston-square, at the same time having an Office at No. 87, Chancery-lane, also of Bruton-street, Bond-street, after that of Weymouth-terrace, Hackney, and late of St. Paul's-terrace, Ball's-Pond, Islington, all in Middlesex, Attorney at Law, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 44,963, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at the office of Mr. Thomas David Taylor, No. 12, North-buildings, Finsbury-circus, in the city of London, on the 1st day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, when and where the said assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had or the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

All Letters must be post paid.
