Witness my hand this 17th day of January 1839,
Thos. Hearn, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields and common in the township of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and for draining the same and certain inclosed lands within the said township," that application is intended to be made by us, the undersigned, George Skipworth, of Moorton-hill, in the parish of South Kelsey, in the said county, Esq. and James Brown, of Althorpe aforesaid, farmer, two of the owners and proprietors of lands in the said township of Althorpe, at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the division of Lindsey, in the said county of Lincoln, in the first week after the 31st day of March now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for inquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, or by such ways and means as they shall think equitable and proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln for the twenty-one years then last past, in order to the reascertainment of the yearly tithe rents payable to the Rector of the parish of Althorpe aforesaid, under the provisions of the said Act of Parliament.—Dated this 17th day of January 1839.

Geo. Skipworth.
James Brown.

BY virtue and in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to divide, improve, allot, and inclose the open fields, meadows, commons, heath grounds, and other open and uninclosed lands, in the parish of Skillington, in the county of Lincoln, and also certain parts of a common or heath ground, called the Inter-common, within or adjoining to the same," we, the Right Worshipful George Gordon, Doctor in Divinity, Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Lincoln; and the Reverend Richard Pretyman, Master of Arts, Precentor; the Reverend George Thomas Pretyman, Bachelor of Laws, Chancellor; and the Reverend Thomas Manners Sutton, Master of Arts, Sub-Dean, being also the Chapter of the same Church; and the Right Honourable Sir Lionel William John Talmash, Bart. commonly called Lord Huntingtower, as lessee of the said Dean and Chapter of Lincoln (being the owners and occupier of all or part of the lands out of which a certain corn rent is issuing and payable by virtue of the said Act); do hereby give notice, by this writing under our respective hands, that we intend to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, to have three persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be arbitrators or referees for inquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, in case the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable of proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in order that such steps may be taken for reascertaining the corn rent payable to the Vicar of Skillington and his successors, out of the lands and estates belonging to the said Dean and Chapter and their lessee, within the said parish of Skillington, by virtue of the said Act as thereby authorised.

In witness whereof the said Dean and Chapter have hereunto subscribed and set their respective hands, and have also affixed their common seal; and the said Lionel William John Lord Huntingtower has hereunto subscribed and set his hand, this 16th day of January 1839.

Geo. Gordon, Dean of Lincoln.

R. Pretyman, Precentor of Lincoln.

G. T. Pretyman, Chancellor of Lincoln.

T. Manners Sutton, Sub-Dean of Lincoln.

Huntingtower.
