Count Tilley, but the Christians recovering themfeives beat back the Turks pursuing them to the The Elector of Bavaria's Walls of the Town. attacks are advanced to the Tower of the Castle; The Count de Starenberg has not left the Army as was reported; and a good correspondence is reestablished between the Duke of Lorrain and him; The Communication between the Town and the River is now wholly cut off; and we have great hopes the belieged cannot hold out much longer. Besides the Bavarian Horse three Imperial R giments are arrived in the Camp before Buda. Turks of Sigeth have fallen upon a Party of Imperial Dragoons that were foraging, and killed be-tween 30 and 40 of them. We have advice that General Schultz has entirely routed Count Teckeley, taken i is Boggage and Cannon, and that he himself very narrowly escaped. There that he himself very narrowly escaped. is a report that 500 Turks got on the 22. past into Buda.

Bruffels, Olober 10. On Sunday last the Truce was published here. The like we hear hath been done in all the confiderable Places of the Franch Monsieur de Boufflers having caus. d Conqu ft. the Truce to be published on Wednesday list in his Camp near Gaure, marched the next day, to re tire out of the Spanish Territories. Monsieur de Monbron is at Courtray to demolish the Fortifications, and the same will be done at Diamusde, in order to the restoring those Places to the Spiniards. The three Regiments that came hi her from Luxemburg, marched yesterday from hence to Louvaine, 1 he Letters where th-y are to remain in Garifon. from Liege of the 7th Instant tell us, that great Preparations were making there for the reception of the Elector of Cologne their Prince; and that in the mean time a Perition was preparing in the name of the City, and Deputies were appointed by the feveral Parithes to joyn with the Magistrates ib presenting it, which is full of Submission, ex prefling the great joy which his Electoral Highness's Presence gives them; And begging his Pardon for their past Miscarriages, and that he will grant them a general Amnistic. The German Post, that should have arrived this day, not being yet come in, by reason of the bad Ways, we have no Letters from Vienna fince those of the 24th past, which we gave an account of in our laft.

Paris, October 11. The Court is still at Chambor, and will it's faid continue there till the 16th or 18th of this We are told that Orders have been lent to Monfieur du Quesne to return home with the Fleet under his command. The last Letters from Germany tell us 4500 Foot of the Troops of the Circle of Stabia were passed Vienna in their way to Hungary to joyn the Army before Buda; that the Serasquere Balla had posted himself near Alba Regalis; That the Christians in the mean time pushed on their attacks with all possible vigor, and were advanced so far, as to have al-shost ruined the Tower of the Calile, by which means the besieged lye in a manner open on that side; but to secure themselves they have made several retrenchments behind the Breaches and hitherto appear resolved to defend themselves
