AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of February 1839.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that if, in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it should be deemed expedient to make the alteration required in any case by the subtraction or addition of any reates, such real estates should be transferred accordingly; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect ; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for further carrying into effect part of the provisions of the said Act relating to the see of Ripon.

Whereas Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence, of Studley Royal, in the parish of Ripon, in the west riding of the county of York, spinster, being, by virtue of a lease to her granted by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, on the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty, possessed of the messuages, lands, and tenements described in the schedule hereunto annexed, situate near the town of Ripon, in the same county, for the term of twenty-one years thence next following, at the yearly rent of four pounds; and being satisfied that the said messuages, lands, and tenements may be advantageously held by the Bishop of Ripon for the time being, hath signified to us her wish to assign the said messuages, lands, and tenements to the Right Reverend Charles Thomas now Bishop of Ripon, and his successors, on condition that the interest of the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors, in the said messuages, lands, and tenements be transferred to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors, for ever:

And whereas we are satisfied that by reason of the vicinity of the said messuages, lands, and tenements to the site of the house of residence intended for the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors, and approved by an Order made by your Majesty in Council, on the eleventh day of December last, it is desirable that the same should belong to the see of Ripon, and that the same may be transferred from the said see of York to the said see of Ripon, consistently with the provisions of the said Act, and of the recommendations therein contained:

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he hath signed and sealed this scheme), that as soon as the said Elizabeth Sophia Lawrence shall have assigned the said messuages, lands, and tenements described in the said schedule (which we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors, for the residue of her interest therein, the said messuages, lands, and tenements shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors in the said see of Ripon, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the said see of Ripon for ever:

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said sees of York and Ripon, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, the nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Kidderminster.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the profoundest veneration and respect, to offer our most humble but hearty congratulations upon the occasion of your Majesty's Coronation, when your Majesty engaged, by a most solemn compact with your people, to uphold inviolate those invaluable institutions for the preservation and continuance of which the House of Brunswick was providentially seated on the Throne of these Realms.

Convinced that these institutions (at once the safeguard and pride of free-born Britons) are not only the support of our hereditary monarchy, but best calculated to secure the substantial enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, we shall at all times, to the utmost of our power, cherish those constitutional principles which would promote all salutary and well considered reforms, tending to strengthen and improve these valued institutions.

With these sentiments indelibly impressed on our hearts, we humbly but most heartily pray that Almighty God, by whom Kings and Queens reign, may bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous reign over a truly and united affectionate and loyal people.
