The Queen has been pleased to ordain and declare that Charles-Pelham Villiers, Esq. one of the representatives in Parliament for the borough of Wolverhampton; Edward-Ernest Villiers, Esq.; Henry Montague Villiers, Clerk, Vicar of Kenilworth, in the county of Warwick; Augustus-Algernon Villiers, Esq. Lieutenant in the Royal Navy, and Knight of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic, of Spain; and Maria Theresa, the wife of Thomas Henry Lister, Esq. the younger brothers and sister of the Right Honourable George William Frederick Earl of Clarendon, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Her Catholic Majesty, may henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence which would have been due to them respectively if their late father, George Villiers, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable George Villiers), had survived his elder brother, the Right Honourable John-Charles late Earl of Clarendon, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Earl of Clarendon:

And Her Majesty has also been pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 11, 1839.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto James-Michael Hankin, of Stanstead Abbots, in the county of Herts, Esq. Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Turvin, in addition to and after that of Hankin, and that he and they may bear the arms of Turvin quarterly, in the first quarter, with those of his own family, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of Frances Conyers, late of Queen Ann-street, in the county of Middlesex, widow, deceased, bearing date the 25th day of July 1826; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And Her Majesty has also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
