Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1839.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 26, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 6th day of March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 4th of March, and before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 26, 1839.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and that, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

Foreign-Office, March 5, 1839.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Thomas Colley Grattan, Esq. to be Her Majesty's Consul for the State of Massachusetts.

Penrith and Carlisle Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act for making and maintaining a railway or railways to be called the Penrith and Carlisle Railway, for the conveyance of goods, merchandize, coal, lime, stone, slate, and other materials, and also passengers in waggons, carts, and other carriages properly constructed, to be drawn or propelled by horses or by steam, or other locomotive power, with all proper and necessary warehouses, quays, docks, wharfs, landing places, stations, bridges, culverts, embankments, buildings, and other works and conveniences connected therewith; which said railway or railways is or are intended to commence at and from a certain close of land situate and being in the parish of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, called and known by the name of Canny Croft, the property of His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, and now in the occupation of Mr. George Sheffield, and to terminate by a junction with the Newcastle and Carlisle Railway, at and near to a certain field or close of land called by the name of Pearson's Close, the property of Mr. John Studholme, and now in the occupation of James Atkinson, and which said close or field is situate in the township of Botchergate, in the parish of Saint Cuthbert, Carlisle, in the said county; and which said railway or railways so intended to be made as aforesaid, will go or pass into and through the several and respective parishes, townships, chapelries and places following, that is to say, the parish of Penrith, the township and chapelry of Plumpton Wall, in the parish of Lazonby, Plumpton-street, Calthwaite, and Petterel Crooks, in the parish of Hesket, the township and chapelry of Wreay, in the parish of Saint Cuthbert without the city of Carlisle, and the townships of Brisco, Upperby, and Botchergate, in the parish of Saint Cuthbert, without the city of Carlisle, or some or one of them, all in the county of Cumberland.

And notice is hereby further given, that the several plans and sections and books of reference thereto required by the Standing Orders of Parliament, will be deposited, in pursuance of such standing orders, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Cumberland, situate in the city of Carlisle, in the said county, on or before the first day of March next; and also that copies of the plans and sections and books of reference of the said undertaking, will be deposited in the private Bill-office of the Commons House of Parliament, on or before the first day of April next; and that on or before the said first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, township, and chapelry in or through which the said intended railway or railways is or are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the parish and chapel of each such parish and chapelry, for the inspection of all parties concerned.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted by the said Bill, to authorize the taking of such fares, tolls, dues, rates, and sums of money as shall be mentioned in the said Bill, and for purchasing and holding lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said several parishes, townships, chapelries and places, or elsewhere, for the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted by the said intended Act, to deviate from the line or lines of the said intended railway or railways, as the same will be defined by the said intended application to Parliament, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards in open lands, and to any extent not exceeding ten yards where the same line or lines is or are intended to pass through lands covered with houses, on either side of such line or lines. — Dated this thirteenth day of February 1839.

Thomas Dixon, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the London and Birmingham railway, near Birmingham, to Derby, to be called the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, with a branch;" and of another Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway;" and to empower the Company incorporated by the said first mentioned Act, to alter or divert so much of the main line of railway thereby authorised as lies between the commencement thereof, in the parish of Yardley, in the county of Worcester, at the junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, and a certain field on the said line, in the parish of Shustoke, in the county of Warwick, numbered thirteen on the plan thereof, referred to in the said first-mentioned Act, as deposited with the clerks of the peace of the counties of Warwick, Worcester, Stafford, Derby, and the borough of Derby; and to abandon the formation of and relinquish that portion of the said line lying within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places of Yardley and Church-End, in the county of Worcester, Aston juxta Birmingham, Little Bromwich, Castle Bromwich, Coleshill, Shustoke, and Blythe otherwise Blythe-End, in the said county of Warwick, or some of them, which, by reason of the alteration or diversion before-mentioned, will be rendered useless and unnecessary; and that it is also intended to obtain powers for the said company to make and maintain, in lieu of the line so to be relinquished, a railway or railways in a new or altered line, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing on the eastern side of Lawley-street, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, near to the point where the same street is intersected by the London and Birmingham Railway, and between the points where it is intersected by the lines of the London and Birmingham and Grand Junction Railways, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Aston juxta Birmingham, Birmingham, Bordesley, Deritend, Deritend and Bordesley, Duddeston, Duddeston and Nechells, Nechells, Saltley, Washwood, Saltley and Washwood, Little Bromwich, Ward-end, Bromford, Erdington, Castle Bromwich, Water Orton, Curdworth, Berwood, Minworth, Sutton, Sutton Coldfield, Wigginsbill, Coleshill, Merevale, Ouston otherwise Ousthirne, Shustoke, Blythe otherwise Blythe-end, Lea Marston, Marston otherwise Merstore, Lea, and Nether Whitacre, or some of them, all in the said county of Warwick, and terminating at or near the said field, on the present line of the said Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, numbered 13, in the said parish of Shustoke, where it is intended to form a junction with such main line; and it is intended by the said Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, to take a power of deviating in the construction of the said altered or new railway or railways, on either side of the line thereof, which will be laid down on the plans of such new railway or railways to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of such line where the same is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line on all other parts thereof, save and except where the property so situated within the said respective distances of ten yards, and one hundred yards, or either of them, shall not be delineated upon the said plans, or if delineated upon the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the books of reference thereto, or where it shall be denoted on the said plans that the power of deviation in respect thereof is not intended to be applied for.

And it is intended also to apply for powers by the said last-mentioned Act to make certain alterations in the levels of the said Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, as at present authorised to be made or described in the section referred to in the said first-mentioned Act, within the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Shustoke, Blythe otherwise Blythe End, Merevale, Ouston otherwise Ousthirne, Lea Marston, Lea, and Nether Whitacre, or some of them, all in the said county of Warwick; and further to levy and raise tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things, carried and conveyed upon and along, or using the said new or altered line of railway or railways and works hereinbefore referred to; and to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties granted by the said recited Acts, or either of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended new or altered line of Railway or Railways and Works, and the Lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with Books of Reference to such Plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively will be, or have been, deposited on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester, at his office in Worcester; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office in Stafford; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at his office in Chesterfield; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Derby, at his office in Derby. And that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said Plans and Sections respectively as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said proposed altered or new line of Railway or Railways and Works, and the said intended alterations in the levels of the present line of the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway hereinbefore referred to is or are intended to be made, with Books of Reference thereto, will be deposited with the Parish Clerks of each of those parishes, at their respective places of abode.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended also to take powers by the Act so to be applied for in the next Session to enable the said Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway Company by the necessary works, conveniences, and approaches to be erected and made for that purpose at or near the commencement of the said Railway or Railways at Lawley-street, aforesaid, to effect Junctions with the London and Birmingham Railway, the Grand Junction Railway, and the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, and the Works thereof, or any or either of them.

Dated this 14th day of February, 1839.

Corrie and Carter, Solicitors,
Birmingham.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the city of Chester, to join the Grand Junction Railway, near Crewe Hall, in the county of Chester, to be called the Chester and Crewe Railway;" and also to enable the Chester and Crewe Railway Company, to make an extension of their present line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from or near a certain field, in the township of Monks Coppenhall, in the parish of Coppenhall otherwise Church Coppenhall, in the county Chester, numbered forty-six on the plan of the said Chester and Crewe Railway, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Coppenhall otherwise Church Coppenhall, Barthomley, Lawton otherwise Church Lawton, Monks Coppenhall, Crewe, Haslington, and Alsager, or some of them, in the county of Chester, and Audley, and Talk 'Oth'Hill, or one of them, in the county of Stafford, and terminating by a junction with the line of the proposed Manchester and Birmingham Railway, in or near a certain field in the said township of Talk 'Oth'Hill, and parish of Audley, numbered twelve on the plan of the said last mentioned railway, deposited in the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Stafford; and also to make and maintain a branch railway, from and out of the said first mentioned intended railway, commencing in the township of Monks Coppenhall, in the said parish of Coppenhall otherwise Church Coppenhall, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Monks Coppenhall, and Church Coppenhall aforesaid; and terminating by a junction with the Grand Junction Railway, in the said township of Monks Coppenhall aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended also by the said Act or Acts, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to enable the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company, to make another extension of their present line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from, or near the present termination of the said railway, on the North west side of Brook-street, in the parish of Saint Oswald, in the city of Chester, and county of the same city, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Saint Oswald, and the Holy and Undivided Trinity, both in the said city and county, and terminating on the Eastern bank of the river Dee, in the said parish of the said Holy and Undivided Trinity, near to a dwelling-house and cheese-warehouse, in the occupation of Mr. Peter Evans.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is also proposed, in and by the said Act or Acts, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to enable the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company to make and maintain one or more wet dock or docks, with proper sluice gates, basins, piers, wharfs, warehouses, shipping and landing places, and other requisite works and conveniences thereto, in, or on part of certain fields, now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Green, situate in the said parishes of Saint Oswald, and the Holy and Undivided Trinity, or one or both of them, and near to the said intended termination of the said Chester and Crewe Railway; and it is intended further to apply for power by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for and in respect of the said extended Railways, docks, and works, and also to deviate in the construction of the said proposed extended railways, docks and works, to any extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line or lines, or situations thereof, where the same are intended to be made upon, or through land covered with houses, and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line or lines, or situations in all other parts thereof, as the same will be delineated on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, save where the property lying within such distances respectively, shall not be numbered on the said plans and described in the books of reference, to be deposited therewith, and save also where it may be otherwise expressed on the said plans.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that, on or before the first day of March, in the present year, plans and sections, describing the line or lines, and levels of the said proposed extensions of the Chester and Crewe Railway, and the situations of the said intended dock or docks, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof respectively, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be or will have been deposited with the clerk of the peace, for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester, with the clerk of the peace for the city of Chester, and county of the same city, at his office in Chester, and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Stafford, at his office in Stafford, and on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish, in or through which the said proposed extensions of the said Chester and Crewe Railway, and the said dock or docks, and works are intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each of such parishes.—Dated this 14th February 1839.

Henry Kelsall, Solicitor, Chester:

Stockton and Hartlepool Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the making and maintaining of a railway, with all proper works and conveniences attached thereto or connected therewith; such railway to commence at or near the three and a quarter mile post placed by the side of the Clarence Railway, and there to communicate with the said Clarence Railway, in the township and parish of Billingham, and to terminate either by a junction with the Hartlepool Railway or the dock belonging to the said Hartlepool Railway, in the parishes of Stranton and Hart, or one of them; and which railway is intended to be made in, and to pass from, in, through, or into the several townships, hamlets, or places of Billingham, Wolviston, Coopen Bewley, Newton Bewley, Greatham Hospital (which is extra-parochial), Greatham, Seaton Carew, Stranton, Hart, Throston, and Hartlepool, and from, in, through, or into the parishes of Billingham, Greatham, Stranton, and Hart, all in the county of Durham; and that it is intended to take powers to deviate one hundred yards on either side of the said railway and works, on such lands only as are numbered on the plan hereinafter referred to, and to divert roads and highways within the said several parishes and places, and to make others in lieu thereof; and it is intended to take powers by the said Act to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said railway and works.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said railway, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Durham, at his office at Durham, on or before the first day of March next; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans as relates to each of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.—Dated this twelfth day of February 1839.

*Jackson and Skinner, Stockton-on-Tees;
Bell and Steward, 59, Lincoln's-inn-fields.*

The Northern Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act, for making and maintaining a railway or railways, with proper warehouses, wharfs, quays, landing places, bridges, and other works and conveniences adjoining thereto, or connected therewith, and also carriages properly constructed, to be propelled thereon by locomotive steam-engines, or other sufficient power, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, horses, cattle, and passengers; a portion of which said railway or railways will commence at or upon the line of the Durham or Coxhoe branch of the Clarence Railway, in the township of Ferry Hill, in the parish of Merrington, in the county of Durham, at or near to the point where the Thrislington Branch Railway unites with the said Clarence Railway, and will terminate at or upon the line of the Durham Junction Railway, in a grass field adjoining, and to the north of a lane called Houghton-lane, and situate in the township of Houghton-le-Spring, in the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the said county of Durham, and will be made, carried, and maintained, into, through, and out of, or within the several parishes of Merrington, Bishop Middleham, Kelloe, Saint Oswald, Pittington otherwise Pittington Hall Garth, Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate, and Houghton-le-Spring, all in the said county of Durham, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, and also into, through, and out of, or within the several townships, hamlets, extra-parochial, or other places following, that is to say:—Ferry Hill, Thrislington, Cornforth, Hett, Cas-op, Quarrington, Bishop Middleham, Sunderland-bridge, Croxdale, Shincliffe, Whitwell Grange, Sherburn House, Sherburn, Pittington otherwise Pittington Hall Garth, Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate, Moorhouse, West Rainton, East Rainton, Morton, and Houghton-le-Spring, all in the said county of Durham, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof.

Another portion of the said railway or railways will commence at or upon the line of the Durham Junction Railway, in a certain arable field now or late belonging to Joseph Crew Boulcott, Esquire, and numbered nineteen on the plan of the said Durham Junction Railway, deposited in the office of the clerk of the peace for the said county of Durham, and situate within the township of North Biddick, in the parish of Washington, in the said county of Durham, and will terminate at or upon the line of the Brandling Junction Railway, at or near to the point where the same crosses a certain waggon way called Ouston Waggonway, in the township of Heworth otherwise Nether Heworth, in the parish of Jarrow, in the said county of Durham, and will be made, carried, and maintained into, through, and out of, or within the several parishes of Washington, Boldon, and Jarrow, all in the said county of Durham, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof; and also into, through, and out of, or within the several townships, hamlets, extra-parochial, or other places of North Biddick, Barmston, Washington, Little Usworth, Great Usworth, East Boldon, West Boldon, Hedworth, and Heworth otherwise Nether

Heworth, all in the said county of Durham, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof.

And another portion of the said railway or railways will commence at or upon the line of the Brandling Junction Railway, in a certain field called or known by the name of Green's Field, situate in the township of Gateshead, in the parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and will terminate at or upon the site of a shop and dwelling-house, now or late in the occupation of John Davison and others, adjoining, and on the south side of a street or place called Forth street, and situate in the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and will be made, carried, and maintained into, through, and out of, or within the said several parishes of Gateshead, Saint Nicholas, and Saint John, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, and the several townships of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and Saint Nicholas and Saint John, in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof.

And that it is further intended to obtain powers by the said Act to make and maintain two branch railways from and out of the said portion of railway firstly above described, with all necessary and suitable works and conveniences, the one of the said branch railways commencing at or upon the line of the said first described portion of railway at or near the point where the same crosses the boundaries of the said townships of Cassop and Cornforth, situate within the said parishes of Kelloe and Bishop Middleham, in the said county of Durham, and terminating at or upon the line of the Great North of England Railway, in a grass field now or late in the occupation of Richard Parker, situate in the said township of Ferry Hill, in the said parish of Merrington, in the county of Durham, and extending through, or into, or made within, the said several parishes of Kelloe, Bishop Middleham, and Merrington, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, and extending through, or into, or made within, the said several townships, hamlets, or places of Cassop, Hett, Cornforth, Thrislington, and Ferry Hill, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof; and the other of the said branch railways commencing at or upon the line of the said first described portion of railway in a field, now or late in the occupation of John Dunn, Esq. situate in the said township of Moorhouse, in the said parish of Houghton-le-Spring, and intended to be marked one on the plans hereinafter referred to, and terminating in or near to a garth or garden now or late in the occupation of John Steel, situate within the precincts of the borough of Durham, and on the north side of, and near to a certain street called Saint Giles Gate otherwise Gilligate, and extending through, or into, or made within, the several parishes of Houghton-le-Spring and Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate, in the said county of Durham; and the several townships, hamlets, or places following, that is to say, Moor House, Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate, and Saint Mary Magdalene Close otherwise Magdalene Close otherwise Maudline Close (which last-mentioned place is extra-parochial, or reputed so to be.

And that it is also intended to make provisions in the said Act, for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls, rates, or duties, for passage along the said intended railway or railways; and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, quays, landing places, works, and conveniences; and for incorporating a company for the purposes aforesaid; and for raising money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by the creation of shares, or some other mode, to be by the said Act authorised and provided for; and powers will also be obtained for diverting the course of the several streams, brooks, rivulets, or rivers in the lines of the said intended railway or railways as may be found necessary; and powers will also be applied for to deviate from the lines of the said intended railway or railways, as defined by the plans thereof, to be deposited pursuant to the standing orders of Parliament, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on each or either side of the said railway or railways, or any part or parts thereof, save and except in situations within the said parishes of Gateshead, and of Saint Nicholas and Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, where the same railway or railways shall pass through or over ground covered with houses, in which situations the said proposed power of deviation shall be limited to ten yards on each or either side of the said railway or railways; and also save and except that in places where any property situate within the proposed limits of deviation above defined, or any of them, shall not have been numbered on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, or shall not be thereon marked or laid down pursuant to the standing orders of Parliament, the said proposed powers of deviation shall in such places be confined to the property within the limits aforesaid, which shall be numbered and marked or laid down on the said maps or plans pursuant to the said standing orders.

And notice is hereby also given, that maps or plans and sections, and duplicates thereof, respectively describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended railway or railways, and the lands in or upon which the same shall be made, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands respectively, will be deposited at the offices of the several clerks of the peace for the county of Durham, and for the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, respectively situate in the city of Durham, and in the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on Friday the first day of March next; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans and sections, so to be deposited as aforesaid, as relates to each parish through which the said railway or railways is or are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before Monday the first day of April next, with the several parish clerks of the said parishes of Merrington, Bishop Middleham, Kelloe, Saint Oswald, Pitlington otherwise Pitlington Hall Garth, Saint Giles otherwise Gilligate, Sherburn House, Houghton-le-Spring, Washington, Boldon, Jarrow, Gateshead, and with the clerk of the chapelry of Heworth otherwise Nether Heworth, all in the county of Durham, and with the parish clerks of the parish of Saint Nicholas, and of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, at their respective residences.—Dated this sixteenth day of February 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto, to commence at or near to a certain piece of vacant land or ground, being part of certain closes called the Parks and Monk Pits, situate adjoining to Wellington-road or street, in the township of Leeds, in the parish of Leeds, belonging or reputed to belong to the surviving trustee, for sale, of part of the estates devised by the will of Christopher, late Lord Bishop of Bristol, deceased, Christopher Wilson, Esq., John Jones, and the devisees in trust of Thomas Teale, deceased, or some of them, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, extra-parochial, and other places of Leeds, Hunslet, Holbeck, Wortley, Armley, Bramley, Withier, Headingley otherwise Headingley-cum-Burley, Kirkstall, Kirkstall Forge, Hawksworth, New Laiths, Horsforth, Rawden otherwise Rawdon, Woodhouse-grove, Yeadon, Guiseley, Calverley, Rodley, Farsley, Calverley-with-Farsley, Apperley-bridge, Idle, Windhill, Shipley, Heaton, Frisinghall, Manningham, Bokon, Undercliffe, and Bradford, or some of them, and to terminate at or near to a certain close or quarry, called the Gardens' Quarry, belonging to and in the occupation of Messrs. Joseph Thackray and Samuel Mann Cousen, situate in or near to School-street and Mill-street, in the township of Bradford, in the parish of Bradford, all in the west riding of the county of York.

And also to make and maintain a branch railway, or branch railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto, to commence from and out of the said last-mentioned railway or railways, at or near to a certain field called the Ings, adjoining to the Leeds and Homefield-lane-end district of road, in the township of Wortley, in the parish of Leeds, belonging or reputed to belong to John Charnock and Henry Teal, or one of them, and in the occupation of Joseph Archer, and thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, extra-parochial, and other places of Leeds, Wortley, Holbeck, and Hunslet aforesaid, or some of them, and to terminate at or near to a certain field now partly used as a brick-yard, in the township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds aforesaid, belonging or reputed to belong to William Wilson and Richard Wilson, or one of them, and in the occupation of Messrs. George Oakes and Joseph Longley, and to form a junction there with the projected line of the North Midland Railway.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the first day of March next, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands from, in, through, or into which the said railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, is and are intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the said west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield, and with the clerk of the peace for the borough of Leeds, at his office in Leeds; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons, and in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and that, on or before the said first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, as relates to the several parishes of Leeds, Guiseley, Calverley, and Bradford, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.

And it is proposed to apply for powers in the said Act, to deviate in the construction of the said railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, from the lines thereof, as the same will be laid down on the plans so to be deposited as hereinbefore mentioned, to an extent not exceeding thirty yards on either side of such lines, where the same are intended to pass through land covered with houses, and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such lines, in all other parts thereof, save and except where the property situate within the said respective distances of thirty yards, and one hundred yards, or either of them, shall not be numbered upon the said plan, or if numbered on the said plan, shall not be contained and described in the said book of reference; or where it shall be denoted on the said plan that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And it is also proposed to apply for power in the said intended Act, to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all persons, animals, goods, articles, matters, or things, passing upon or along, or using the said intended railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, or any of the works or conveniences respectively connected therewith.

And it is further proposed to apply for power in the said intended Act, to alter and divert for the purposes of the said intended railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, and works (in such manner, and to such extent, as will be shewn upon the said plans so to be deposited as hereinbefore mentioned), the several turnpike-roads, canals and rivers following, or some of them, that is to say,—the road leading from Leeds to Dewsbury, in the township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Leeds to Huddersfield, in the township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds; the old road leading from Leeds to Beeston, in the township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Leeds to Whitehall, in the township of Holbeck, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Leeds to Homefield-Jane-end, in the township of Wortley, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Leeds to Birstal, in the township of Wortley, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Wortley to Stanningley, in the township of Wortley, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Leeds to Bradford, in the townships of Headingley-cum-Burley and Bramley, in the parish of Leeds; the old road leading from Leeds to Bradford, in the township of Bramley, in the parish of Leeds; the road leading from Dudley-hill to Killinghall, in the townships of Rawden and Yeadon, or one of them, in the parish of Guiseley; the road leading from Shipley to Bramley, in the township of Idle, in the parish of Calverley; the old road leading from Shipley to Bradford, in the township of Shipley, in the parish of Bradford, and the old road leading from Shipley to Bradford, in the township of Heaton, in the parish of Bradford; the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, in the several townships of Holbeck and Armley, in the parish of Leeds, and Idle, in the parish of Calverley; the Bradford Canal, in the township of Idle, in the parish of Calverley; the river Aire, in the several parishes, townships, hamlets, extra-parochial and other places of Leeds and Holbeck, or one of them, at Beanning, Headingley-cum-Burley, and Bramley, or one of them, at or near Kirkstall, Headingley-cum-Burley, and Bramley, or one of them, at or near Kirkstall Forge, Horsforth, and Bramley, or one of them, at or near New Laiths, Horsforth, and Calverley with Farsley, or one of them, westward of New Laiths, Grange, Rawden, and Calverley with Farsley, or one of them, at or near Rawden Low Mill, Rawden, and Calverley with Farsley, or one of them, at or near Craggwood and Yeadon, and Idle, or one of them, north westward from Apperley-bridge.

And it is further proposed to apply for power in the said intended Act, to divert or alter such roads, highways, tramroads, paths, passages, rivers, brooks, streams, waters, and water courses, as may be required to be diverted or altered for the construction of such railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, and for the use of the works or conveniences connected therewith.—Dated this fourteenth day of February 1839.

Edward J. Teale.

Harwich Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the proposed Eastern Counties Railway, at or near to a certain place abutting upon the high road between the North-bridge, Colchester, and the village of Mile-end, being about three furlongs north of the former place, in the parishes of Lexden and Saint Michael Mile-end, or one of them, in the county of Essex, and to terminate at or near to a certain quay and wharf, now in the possession and occupation of Thomas Cobbold, Esq. in the parish of Saint Nicholas Harwich, and borough of Harwich, and county of Essex; which said railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Lexden, Saint Michael Mile-end, Saint Botolph, All Saints, Saint James, Grenstead or Greensted, Ardleigh, Elmstead, Great Bromley, Little Bromley, Mistley, Bradfield, Wix, Wicks, Wickes, or Weeks, Wrabness, Ramsey, Dover Court, and Saint Nicholas Harwich, and the borough of Harwich, or some of them, all in the county of Essex.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended to apply for leave to incorporate a company for the purposes aforesaid, with power to levy tolls, rates, and duties for and in respect of the said railway and works, and also to deviate in the construction of the proposed line of railway and works, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side thereof, as the same will be delineated on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, save where the property lying within such distance shall not be numbered on the said plans, and described in the books of reference to be deposited therewith, and save also where it may be otherwise expressed on the said plans.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the first day of March in this present year, plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be, or will have been, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Essex, at his office in Chelmsford; and also that, on or before the first day of April in this present year, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish in or through which such intended railway and works is or are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parishes.—Dated this sixteenth day of February 1839.

within the said several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them.—Dated this 14th day of February 1839.

*William Wybergh How,
Richard Ford, Shrewsbury,
Solicitors for the said Bill.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, repeal, and render more effectual some of the powers and provisions of seven several Acts relating to the Liverpool and Manchester Railway, the first passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for making and maintaining a railway or tramroad from the town of Liverpool to the town of Manchester, with certain branches therefrom, all in the county of Lancaster;" the second passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act relating to the Liverpool and Manchester Railway;" the third passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the company of proprietors of the Liverpool and Manchester Railway to alter the line of the said railway, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating thereto;" the fourth passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Liverpool and Manchester Railway Company to make an alteration in the line of the said railway, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating thereto;" the fifth passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Liverpool and Manchester Railway;" the sixth passed in the second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for enabling the Liverpool and Manchester Railway Company to make a branch railway, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to such railway;" and the seventh passed in the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Liverpool and Manchester Railway Company to raise more money, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the said railway." And also to make and maintain a railway or railways (with proper works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto) to commence by a junction with the said Liverpool and Manchester Railway, in the township of Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster (at or near Cross-lane, in the said township,) in an easterly direction to the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Railway, in the said township, and then from or out of the said last-mentioned railway, (at or near to Ordsall-lane, in the said township) to, and to communicate with, the projected extension, enlargement, or new line of the Manchester and Leeds Railway, on the north-easterly side of the river Irwell, in the township and parish of Manchester, in the said county, in a piece of land near to a place there called Hunt's Bank, lying between Great Ducie-street and a dwelling-house lately occupied by Mr. Edward Norris, and there, or thereabouts terminating; the said new line or lines of railway passing in, from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Salford, Cheetham, and Manchester, all in the said county of Lancaster, or some or one of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the first day of March next, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land from, in, through, or into, which the said railway is intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, as relates to the parish of Manchester, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.

And it is also proposed to apply for power in the said Act, to deviate in the construction of the said intended railway from the line thereof, as the same will be laid down on the plans so to be deposited as hereinbefore mentioned, to an extent not exceeding fifty yards on either side of such line, where the same is intended to pass through land covered with houses; and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line in all other parts thereof, save and except where the property, situate within the said respective distances of fifty yards, and one hundred yards, or either of them, shall not be delineated upon the said plans, or if delineated upon the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said books of reference, or where it shall be denoted on the said plans that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And it is further proposed to apply for powers in the said Act, to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things, carried and conveyed upon and along, or using the said intended railway and works; and also to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties granted by or referred to in the said recited Acts; or some of them.

And it is further proposed to apply for power in the said intended Act, to stop up such streets, roads, or highways, crossing the line of the said extension or enlargement of the Liverpool and Manchester Railway (in such manner, and to such extent, as will be shewn upon the said plans so to be deposited as hereinbefore mentioned); and also power to divert and carry along or near to the side of the same railway, to some convenient place of crossing the same, such streets, roads, or highways, as in the same plans shall be shewn as intended to be so diverted.—Dated the sixteenth day of February 1839.

Clay and Swift, Liverpool, Solicitors for the Bill.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Tunstall versus Brayfield, the creditors of Joseph Greatorex, late of Shottle, in the parish of Duffield, in the county of Derby, Yeoman (who died in the month of January 1835), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Representatives of STAFFORD JAMES and JOHN EGINTON.

IN pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of William Alport's Charity, the representative or representatives of the last surviving of Stafford James and John Eginton, who were both trustees of this charity, and appointed such under the will of William Alport, formerly of Stewkley, in the county of Buckingham, Clerk, deceased, bearing date the 21st day of December 1720, are, within twenty eight days from the date hereof, to come in before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and give notice of his title to the said Master, and prove his pedigree or other title as such trustee, and in default thereof the Master will proceed to the appointment of other persons to be trustees for such charity, as the said Order in that case requires.

In the will of the said William Alport, the said Stafford James is described as of Kiverston, in the parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, and designated as the testator's kinsman; and the said John Eginton is described as of Robinson nigh Penkridge, in the same county, Gentleman. It is unknown which of these two persons survived the other, but it is believed that the said John Eginton died in the month of March 1728, and the said Stafford James some time previous to 1753.—Dated the 20th day of February 1839.

Representatives of WILLIAM HATHERSICH (or HADDERSICH), THOMAS WILLINGTON, and WALTER BIRCH.

IN pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of Eleanor Alport's Charity, the representative or representatives of the last surviving of William Hathersich, Thomas Willington, and William Birch, who were all trustees of the said charity, and appointed such under the will of Eleanor Alport, formerly of Cannock, in the county of Stafford, Spinster, deceased, bearing date the 29th day of June 1727, are, within twenty-eight days from the date hereof, to come in before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and give notice of his title to the said Master, and prove his pedigree or other title as such trustee, and in default thereof the Master will proceed to the appointment of other persons to be trustees for such charity, as the said Order in that case requires.

In the will of the said Eleanor Alport, the said William Hathersich (or Haddersich) is described as of Penkridge, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, and the said Thomas Willington as of Leacroft, in the parish of Cannock, in the same county, Gentleman, and the said Walter Birch as of Leacroft aforesaid, Gentleman. It is unknown which of these three persons survived the others, but it is believed that the said William Hathersich (or Haddersich) died in the month of January 1742, and the said Thomas Willington and Walter Birch about the year 1744 or 1745.—Dated this 20th day of February 1839.

THIS is to give notice, that by an indenture, bearing date the 30th day of January 1839, John Marsh, of Newington Causeway, in the county of Surrey, Upholsterer, hath conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to William Smea the younger, of the Pavement, in the borough of Finsbury, Upholsterer, and Septimus Hodgson, of Walcot-place, Lambeth, Cabinet-Maker, upon trust, for the benefit of all the creditors of the said John Marsh; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said John Marsh and William Smea the younger, on the said 30th day of January last, which executions were witnessed by Mr. Henry William Sole, of No. 68, Aldermanbury, in the city of London, Solicitor, and by the said Septimus Hodgson on the 31st day of the said month of January, which execution was witnessed by William Charles Sole, of No. 68, Aldermanbury aforesaid, Solicitor.

Mr. JOSEPH BEESON's Assignment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Joseph Beeson, of Great Ponton, in the county of Lincoln, Miller and Farmer, surviving partner of the firm of Joseph and Thomas Beeson, of Great Ponton aforesaid, Millers and Farmers, did by indenture, bearing date the 27th day of this instant February, assign all his personal estate and effects unto Edmund Fillingham King, of Barrowby, in the said county of Lincoln, Banker, Thomas Blankley, of Culverthorpe, in the said county of Lincoln, Farmer, and John Pogson, of Long Clawson, in the county of Leicester, Farmer, as trustees, for the equal benefit of all the creditors of the said Joseph Beeson and Thomas Beeson, deceased, who, by themselves or their agents, should execute the said assignment, on or before the 27th day of April next; and the said deed was duly executed by the said Joseph Beeson on the said 27th day of February, in the presence of, and his execution of the said deed is attested by, Henry Thompson, of Grantham, in the said county of Lincoln, Solicitor, and John Green, Clerk to the said Henry Thompson; and the said deed was duly executed by the said Edmund Fillingham King, Thomas Blankley, and John Pogson, on the said 27th day of February, in the presence of, and their execution of the said deed is attested by, George Kewney, of Grantham aforesaid, Solicitor; and notice is hereby further given, that the said deed of assignment now lies at the office of the said George Kewney for the perusal and signature of such of the creditors of the said Joseph Beeson, and Thomas Beeson, deceased, as have not already signed the same.—All such creditors as shall not execute the same, or signify their consent thereto by the time and in manner above mentioned, will be excluded the benefit thereof.—Grantham, February 28, 1839.

In WILLIAM JOHNSON's Assignment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Johnson, of Bridlington, in the county of York, Grocer, hath by indentures of lease, and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 10th and 11th days of February 1839, conveyed and assigned over all his real and personal estate and effects unto Edmund Ridsdale Harding, of Bridlington aforesaid, Gentleman, John Vickerman, of Bridlington aforesaid, Draper, and Richard Fox, of Bridlington aforesaid, Farmer, in trust, for the equal benefit of such of the creditors of the said William Johnson as shall, by themselves or their agents duly authorised, execute the same deed of assignment; and that the said indentures of lease, and release and assignment, were severally and respectively executed by the said William Johnson, Edward Ridsdale Harding, John Vickerman, and Richard Fox on the said 11th day of February; and the execution of the same deeds by the said William Johnson, Edward Ridsdale Harding, John Vickerman, and Richard Fox, were at the same time severally and respectively attested by Bryan Taylor Harland, of Bridlington aforesaid, Solicitor, and William Campbell, of the same place, his Clerk, as witnesses thereto. Notice is also further given, that the said indenture of assignment is lodged at the office of Mr. Bryan Taylor Harland, Solicitor, in Bridlington aforesaid, for the inspection and signature of the creditors of the said William Johnson; and such of the creditors as shall not have executed the same deed, or undertaken, in writing, so to do, will be excluded the benefit arising therefrom.

TO be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against James Hodges, of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, at the King's Head Inn, in Cirencester aforesaid, on Wednesday the 10th day of April 1839, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon, subject to conditions;

One moiety of the above (viz. £133 10s.) is guaranteed by two respectable persons.

A promissory note, dated June 16, 1838, for £80, from Henry Grimstone Willis and Edward Bullock, payable on demand.

For further particulars inquire of Messrs. Currie and Woodgate, 3, New-square, Lincoln's-inn; or to Mr. Thomas Lediard, Solicitor, Cirencester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Mr. Booth will, on Friday the 22d day of March instant, sell, at his offices No. 24, Queen-street, Cheapside, in the city of London, by order of Sir Charles Frederick Williams, Knt. the Commissioner acting in prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded against Thomas Benjamin Atkinson, of Baker-street, Lloyd-square, in the county of Middlesex, Jeweller, Dealer and Chapman, with the consent of the mortgagee;

Such interest as the bankrupt may be entitled to, in right of his wife, in case both of them survive a lady aged about seventy, of and in one sixth part or share of the sum of £1815, New 3½ per Cent. Bank Annuities; and also of and in one sixth part or share of the proceeds to arise from the sale of a certain freehold dwelling house and premises, situate at Ash, in the county of Kent, such interest being subject to a prior mortgage for £200 and interest, of which a balance of £40, or thereabouts, remains unpaid.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Hodges, of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 10th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the King's Head Inn, in Cirencester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding or arranging a claim made on the estate of the said bankrupt by a party, who will be named at such meeting, by admitting the proof for some sum then to be fixed and agreed on between the parties; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees opposing the claim of the said party in the Court of Review, or to direct the said assignees in what other manner to proceed with respect to the said claim; and also to direct the said assignees how to proceed in consequence of a proof having been allowed upon the estate of the said bankrupt by a party, who will be named at such meeting, for a sum of £500, on a promissory note signed by the said bankrupt with another person, the whole of the said £500 being raised for the benefit of, and being paid to, such other person; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing an action at law for the recovery of £100, or some other sum alleged to have been paid by or with the moneys of the said bankrupt, after the date and issuing forth of the said Fiat, for the purpose of meeting or taking up a promissory note or bill of exchange to which the said bankrupt is stated to have made himself liable; and generally to direct the said assignees how to proceed with respect to the last-mentioned payment; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Ambrose Robertshaw, of Ripponden, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, Surgeon and Apothecary, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 27th day of March instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. W. F. Holroyde, Solicitor, in Halifax aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of all or any of the real or personal estate of the said bankrupt, or any part, share, or interest of the said bankrupt therein, by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or appraisement, or otherwise, to be paid for at the time of sale or at some future day, and with or without security; and also to assent to or dissent from the confirmation of any sale or sales already made, or to be made before the said day of meeting, of any of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying certain costs, charges, and expenses, to be specified at the said meeting, incurred, prior to the opening of the said Fiat, with a view of arranging the affairs of the said bankrupt, and for the presumed benefit of the general body of creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing and paying one or more person or persons for the purpose of collecting and getting in the debts, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to take such measures and make such arrangements in and about the selling, disposing, and settling the estate and effects of the said bankrupt as to the said assignee may seem expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Yates, of Welch Pool, in the county of Montgomery, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet Thomas Bowen, Esq. the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 28th day of March instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Oak Inn, in Welch Pool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, settling, and adjusting certain debts due to the estate of the said bankrupt (a schedule whereof will be produced at such meeting); and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee submitting to arbitration any dispute or controversy touching certain of the said debts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of certain portions of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt still remaining undisposed of, by private contract, or otherwise, as he shall think proper; and on other special affairs connected with the said bankruptcy.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Willis, of Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Carpet-Warehouseman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 28th day of March instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any actions at law, or suits in equity, against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of certain debts or sums of money due from them to the said Henry Willis before he became bankrupt, but which debts or sums of money are alleged to have been legally assigned, together with other property, by the said Henry Willis, before he became bankrupt, by indenture, dated the 21st day of February 1835, to the party therein named, in consideration of the sum of £615 17s. 6d. then due and owing by the said Henry Willis to the party, in the said indenture named, and which said debts or sums of money are now claimed by the executor of the last will and testament of Joseph Willis, as due and belonging to the said testator's estate; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, or adjusting with the executor of the said Joseph Willis the claim so made by him in respect of the debts or sums of money so alleged to be assigned to the said Joseph Willis, deceased, as aforesaid, and to enter into such terms of compromise with the said executor as the said assignees shall in their discretion think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Staffell, of Strood, in the county of Kent, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 28th day of March instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit or suits in equity, or taking such other proceedings as may be then and there agreed to, against the executors and trustees of the will of George Staffell, deceased, the late father of the said bankrupt, and such other parties as may be necessary and as counsel may advise, for the purpose of ascertaining the rights and interests of the said bankrupt under the said will, and for recovery of of the same, for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees being empowered to compound, settle, adjust, or to refer to arbitration, or to arbitration and umpirage, or otherwise to arrange the claims of the said assignees, in right of the said bankrupt, upon the said testator's estate, and to their being authorised to accept less than the whole in full satisfaction and discharge of such claims; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wilson, late of No. 12, Montague-street, Portman-square, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Barnard's-inn, Holborn, in the said county of Middlesex, Money-Scriver, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 7th day of March instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the assignees compounding a certain claim for expenditure made by the said bankrupt as trustee for Mr. William Ware, now the subject of a suit in the Court of Chancery, by accepting a sum, to be named at the said meeting, in full thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing any action or actions for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's estate; or to their referring to arbitration any matters in dispute; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Richard Philp, late of Linfield, in the county of Sussex, and now of Peele's Coffee-house, Fleet-street, in the city of London, and of Judd's-place, Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Maltster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 28th day of March instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London (instead of Tuesday the 18th, at one o'clock, as formerly advertised), to consider and determine upon a proposition for compromising a certain claim upon Mrs. Jane Gostling, on certain terms to be proposed at the meeting; and to authorise the assignees to carry such proposition into effect.
