Brussels, October 19. On Friday last the Marquis de Castel Monaco Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain to the States General of the United-Provinces, arriv'd here with his whole Family from the Hague, intending to remain in this place till he receive farther Orders from the Court at Madrid. The Prince de Chimay, the late Governor of Luxemburg is upon his departure for Spain. The great Subject of Peoples discourse here is the news from Hungary which at present is very various, for there are Letters which say the Turks have only put 500 Spahces into the place without any provisions; while others tell us that besides the Spahces 4 or 500 Janisaries go in with a great many bags filled with Meal and Rice, and that besides the Enemy took a large Boat laden with Bread and other Provisions for the Imperial Army. The Duke of Lorraine had been in pursuit of the Seraskier Bassa, who was retires'd under the Cannon of Alba Regalu, having in his retreat divided his Army into two Bodies, for the greater conveniency of their march; and when the last Letters came away the Duke of Lorraine was not yet returned to the Camp. The Elector of Bavaria carried on his attacks with good success, resolving to overcome all difficulties, and not to stir till the Town was taken; And the Troops of Suabia, being above 4000 Men, were hourly expected in the Camp. They write from Liege of the 14th Instant, that Monsieur de Choiseul, General of the Elector of Cologne's Forces parted from thence the day before in order to his return to Paris, having been present'd by his Electoral Highness with a Sword richly set with Diamonds; and by the Magistrates with two large gilded Basons.

Paris, Octob. 18. The Court returned from Chambor on Thursday last, and is now at Fontainebleau, where the King intends to stay about a month, and then to remove to St Germain. It's said here that the Republick of Genova hearing the Truce was concluded, have resolv'd not to Ratifie the Defensive Alliance between the Crown of Spain and them, and that they are endeavouring with the Assistance of the Pope to accommodate Matters with this Court.

His Majesty hath been Graciously pleas'd by His New Charter, to Grant to the Town and Corporation of Tornes in the County of Devon, an Additional general Market for all manner of Cattle and other Wares and Commodities, to be held at Tornes aforesaid on every Tuesday.

These are to give notice, That there are lately taken, and now in the Custody of the Keeper of His Majesties Goal of Newgate London, One called by the name of Captain Williams, alias Watts, 'twixt twenty and thirty years of Age, a middle stature'd Man, well set, of a swarthy Complexion, his own hair black, and pretty long, wears a fair long Perriwig, a luff Coat lined with striped silk, his Preeches of the same Silk. Another who goes by the name of Captain Brnewell, alias Berne, a tall slender Man, thin faced, of a Tawny Complexion, the hair of his Eyebrows and Beard reddish, the hair of his Head dark brown, and cut close, he wears a long brown Periwig, his Cloaths black, and a brown Campana Coat. Another called Bryan Onorocke, of a middle stature, slender Body, whiter Complexion, thin faced, his own hair a dark brown, short and curls, about one and twenty years of Age, in a white luff Campana Coat. They are vehemently suspected to be some of those who have committed many Robberies lately in Oxfordshire and Bucks. There was taken with them a bay Nag about thirteen hands high, with Saddle spots on the near side, and one spot on the far side, of a full Age, all his paces and griled in the Flank. An Iron gray Gelding, about fourteen hands high, cloudy faced; a white heal on the near foot behind, and a white spot on the far side, trots all. A black Nag fourteen hands high, a Star in his forehead, about six years old, the near foot behind white, a little white on the far hind foot, all his paces a black Hogskin Saddle, with private Holsters. A bay Gelding, fifteen hands high, six years old, with a Star in his forehead, a snip on his Nose, two white feet behind, with Saddle spots, all his paces, a Tann'd Hogskin Saddle studded with Silver, a dapple gray Gelding, 'twixt fifteen and sixteen hands high, fleabitten about the head.

There was likewise taken with them and suspected to be taken from some people on the High-way, a smooth pick Case of Black wood, tipped on both ends, and at the opening with Silver and engraved on one end with a Cypher and a Viscounts Coronet, a small Leather Purse with a Key at the end of it, a pair of Amber beads, three pair of Silver Buckles for Shoes, one pair of them with Stones set in them, a brass tooth pick Case, with two Coals of Arms at each end, an Old Silver Watch made by one Hubert at Roven, a horn Tobacco Box, the Lid tipped with Silver, Scalloped, a small oval silver Snuff Box.

If any have been robbed by the Persons above-named either of the Horses or Goods above-mentioned, let them repair to the Keeper of Newgate where they may see the Men, horses and goods, and what is challenged restored prosecuting the Offenders according to Law. There are Two more of their Gang who are fled from Justice, and are thus described, One George Baker a notorious High-way Robber, a Tully Man, Hump shouldred, pretty tall, of a fair Complexion, wears sometimes a flaxen and sometimes a brown Wig, and a Coat with Plate Buttons: And one Plunker a short wolf face man, thick shouldred; his own hair black but wears a brown Wig of a Yellow Complexion, a large sharp Nose, about thirty six years of Age.

It is desired they may be apprehended, and notice given to the Keeper of Newgate:
