JAMES CHILD, Esq. in 1818 of Luckipon, in Bengal, one of the Executors named in the will of Dr. John Major Wilson, H. C. S. if living, or, if dead, his representative, would greatly oblige the daughters of Dr. Wilson by communicating with Mr. Curtis, No. 29, Bucklersbury, City.

IF William Shields Morgan, who, in the year 1818, was residing at Kingston, in Jamaica, and has not since been heard of, will apply to Mr. Pott, Proctor, No. 13, Godliman-street, Doctors'-commons, London, he will hear of something to his advantage; but in case of his death, previous to the 26th of February, 1839, five pounds reward will be given for legal proof thereof.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Godson versus Auther, the creditors of Francis Auther, of the parish of Saint John, in Bedwardine, in the county of Worcester, Gentleman (who died 8th of September 1836), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 18th day of May 1839, to come in and prove their debts before Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Staples versus Browne, the creditors of the Reverend W. Frederick Browne, late of Launton, in the county of Oxford, D. D. (who died in the month of November 1837), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of June 1839, to come in and prove their debts before Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

To the creditors of John M^r Turk, of Penryn, Cornwall.

THE deed of assignment for the benefit of the creditors of the said John M^r Turk, dated 3d October 1837, now lies for signature at the house of Messrs. Pasmore and Savery, Exeter. A first annual dividend will be made on the estate on the 1st of May next, payable at the same place. All parties claiming under the assignment are, therefore, informed, they must execute the deed, by themselves or persons authorised to do so, before the said 1st of May, or they will be excluded the benefit thereof.—Dated, Exeter, 13th April 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Green, of Boston, in the county of Lincoln, Merchant, and of New Bolingbroke, in the said county, Maltster, Brewer, and Brick-Maker, hath by deed, dated the 20th day of February 1839, assigned all his estate and effects to Andrew Wilson, Gentleman, and James Dawes Stainbank, Accountant, both of Boston aforesaid, upon trust, for the benefit of all the creditors of the said Thomas Green; and that the said deed was executed by the said Thomas Green and the said Andrew Wilson respectively on the day of the date thereof, and by the said James Dawes Stainbank on the day next after, in the presence of Henry Marshal, of Boston aforesaid, Attorney at Law, who has attested the execution thereof, and with whom the said deed is now lodged for the inspection and signature of the said creditors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 12th day of April 1839, James Barrack, of the Union Hotel, Cockspur-street, and the Trafalgar Hotel, Spring-gardens, in the county of Middlesex; hath assigned all his household furniture, plate, linen, china, stock in trade, goods, chattels, wares, merchandises, bills, bonds, notes, and other securities for money, and all other property, estate, and effects whatsoever of him the said James Barrack unto, and to the use of, William Cawthorn the younger, of the Haymarket, in the county of Middlesex, Wine-Merchant, Sturman Latimer, of Old-square, Lincoln's inn, in the said county, Gentleman, and John Newell, of Panton-street, in the said county, Butcher, upon certain trusts, for the benefit of all the creditors of the said James Barrack who shall execute such deed of assignment; which deed is dated the said 12th day of April 1839, and was, on that day, duly executed by the said James Barrack, William Cawthorn the younger, Sturman Latimer, and John Newell, whose respective places of abode are as before described; and the same is attested, as to the execution thereof by the said James Barrack, William Cawthorn the younger, Sturman Latimer, and John Newell, by John Lawrence, of No. 25, Old Fish-street, Doctors'-commons, London, Solicitor, and John Watson, of Trafalgar-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Solicitor.—Dated this 13th day of April 1839.

Alexander, Genn, and Pooley, Solicitors, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; of Messrs. Turner and Hensman, Basing-lane, London, Solicitors for the assignee; and of the Auctioneer, Totnes, Devon.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Walters, of the parish of St. Mary, in the town and county of Haverfordwest, Cattle-Dealer, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 8th day of May next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. William Rees, Solicitor, situate in Bridge-street, in the parish of St. Martin, in the said town and county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee instituting proceedings at law against the different persons, purchasers, at certain sales, of goods of which the said bankrupt was auctioneer, and to whom, by the conditions of such sales, the purchase moneys were made payable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee resisting any proceedings at law or in equity that shall or may be brought against him by the parties to whom the said goods belonged, in respect of the receipt of such purchase moneys; and also to assent to or dissent from giving or executing a sufficient indemnity to the said assignee in respect of any costs, charges, damages, and expences to which he shall or may be subject or liable, or which he shall or may incur, pay, or sustain by reason or in consequence of any such proceedings to be brought by or against him as aforesaid; or to assent to or dissent from such other manner, mode, or proceeding, for the recovery of such moneys, or resisting such proceedings, or giving such indemnity as aforesaid, as shall be then and there proposed for that purpose.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Alexander Lee, Edward Holt, Thomas Bell, and William Bookless, all of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Iron-founders, Engineers, Millwrights, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of their estate and effects, on the 8th day of May next, at eleven in the forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Crump and Hassall, Solicitors, No. 3, Old Church-yard, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the trade or business of the said bankrupts as ironfounders, engineers, and millwrights, and buying iron, steel, and other articles, and manufacturing and selling the same, for the benefit and at the risk of the estate, for such time as may be decided upon at the said meeting, and for that purpose employing the said bankrupts John Alexander Lee, Thomas Bell, and William Bookless, or any of them, or any other person or persons, in conducting the said trade, or in any other way, for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignees paying and allowing to the said bankrupts, John Alexander Lee, Thomas Bell, and William Bookless, or any of them, or to such other person or persons, out of the moneys to be received by such assignees belonging to the said bankrupts' estate and effects, such wages and compensation for their or his services as to them may seem reasonable and proper; also to their paying and discharging all such rent, taxes, wages, and other out-goings now due and payable from the said bankrupts' estate, and to become due and payable during such period of time as the said assignees may continue in possession of the said bankrupts' premises, but so that the said assignees shall not in anywise be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage which may arise or happen by reason of such continuance in possession, or any proceedings connected therewith, which may be adopted by the said assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees forthwith selling, or postponing the sale, of the whole or any part of the machinery, stock, and implements of trade, without being liable to any loss or diminution in price or value to be occasioned thereby, and to ratify and confirm all the acts and deeds of the provisional assignee appointed under the said Fiat, and also the acts and deeds of the said assignees in carrying on the said bankrupts' trade; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting and carrying into effect certain contracts entered into by the said bankrupts with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain debts due to the said bankrupts' estate from certain persons, and upon certain terms, to be named and specified at the said meeting; and to the said assignees commencing an action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of, or touching or relating to, certain parts of the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to the said assignees submitting to arbitration certain matters in difference subsisting between the said bankrupts or the said assignees and certain other persons, to be named at the said meeting; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures and make such arrangements, touching the said bankrupts' estate and effects, as they shall consider most beneficial and advantageous to and for the creditors of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Cotter and John Cotter, both of Toxteth-park, in the county of Lancaster, Joiners and Builders, Dealers and Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 8th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Thompson, Solicitor, No. 6, Newington, in Liverpool, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the bankrupt James Cotter's interest under the will of his father John Cotter, late of Toxteth-park aforesaid, Plasterer, deceased, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation or appraisal, or otherwise, and either for ready money or upon credit, and either to the bankrupt James Cotter or any other person or persons whomsoever, and taking such personal security (if any) for the purchase money for the same, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the bankrupt James Cotter's interest under the will of his said father unto a certain person, to be named at the said intended meeting, for such price, and upon such terms, as will be then proposed; and generally to empower the said assignees to make sale and dispose of the bankrupt James Cotter's interest under the said will, in such manner as they may deem expedient; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if:

" any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements. " the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 10th day of April 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM JUBB COUPE, of Doncaster, in the county of York, Grocer and Tea-Dealer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 13th day of April 1839, by JOHN MOSSMAN, of Maulden, near Amptill, in the county of Bedford, Sheep-Jobber, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
