

and at what place or places, the real estate of the said insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and notice is also hereby given, that at the above mentioned meeting the said assignees of the said John George Hounsfield, will submit to the consideration of the creditors thereat assembled, the nature of the estate and interest of the said insolvent of and in certain personal estate, and the said creditors so assembled will be requested to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place, the same shall be sold and disposed of by the said assignees.

THE creditors of John George Hounsfield, late of Wadsley-House, in the parish of Ecclesfield, in the county of York, Clerk, an insolvent debtor, who is now in Her Majesty's Gaol in the Castle of York, in the county of York, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first and second year of the reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for abolishing arrest on mesne process in civil actions, except in certain cases; for extending the remedies of creditors against the property of debtors; and amending the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," are desired to meet the assignees of the said insolvent's estate, on Saturday the 11th day of May next, at half past twelve o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the office of Mr. Copeland, in the Hartishead, in Sheffield, Yorkshire, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees presenting or compromising, or otherwise disposing of and arranging, the several suits in equity already commenced by the said insolvent, the one against a certain person to be named at the meeting, to compel the specific performance of an agreement for sale of an advowson and glebe land, at Lidesleigh, in the county of Devon, made with the said insolvent, and the other against other persons to be also named at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending, comprising, or otherwise arranging and disposing of, a certain suit in equity commenced by John Copeland the elder and John Copeland the younger against the said insolvent, to compel the specific performance of an agreement made and entered into by the said insolvent, for a mortgage of certain real estate of the said insolvent; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to adopt such measures with regard to the insolvent's affairs as they may deem advisable and expedient, but with the approbation and under the direction of Her Majesty's Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

All Letters must be post paid.

Printed at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE, of the same place, and published, at the Office aforesaid, by FRANCIS WATTS, of No. 40, Vincent-Square, Westminster.

Friday, April 26, 1839.

Price Two Shillings.