ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of April 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Ely should be increased by the counties of Huntingdon and Bedford; and that all parishes, which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that the limits of the existing deanries and archdeaconries should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra parochial place should be within a rural deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry should extend beyond the limits of one diocese:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports " of the Commissioners appointed to consider the " state of the Established Church in England and " Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and " revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal " dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pur" suance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for further carrying into effect part of the provisions of the said Act relating to the dioceses of Lincoln and Ely.

Whereas on the twelfth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, we did, in pursuance of the said Act, prepare and lay before His said Majesty in Council a scheme whereby we recommended and proposed, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lincoln (amongst other things), that so much of the archdeaconry of Huntingdon as was included in and co-extensive with the county of Huntingdon, then forming part of the said diocese of Lincoln, should be detached and dis severed from the same diocese and should be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Ely, which scheme was approved and ratified by an Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of the same month of April, and which has since been duly registered and gazetted, according to the said Act, but by reason that the parishes of Buckden, Brampton, Spaldwick, Long Stow with Little Catworth, Barham, Easton, and Leighton Bromswold, in the said county of Huntingdon, were not at the time of making the said Order subject to the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Huntingdon, doubts have arisen whether the said parishes were, by the said Order in Council, effectually annexed and united to the said diocese of Ely, and whether any archidiaconal jurisdiction can be exercised therein; now, therefore, for the removal of such doubts, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said parishes of Buckden, Brampton, Spaldwick, Long Stow with Little Catworth, Barham, Easton, and Leighton Bromswold, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese of Lincoln, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Ely, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said archdeaconry of Huntingdon, and shall be in the deanery of Leightonstone, and that the whole clergy, and all other your Majesty's subjects, within the said parishes, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the present and every future bishop of Lincoln, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Right Reverend Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors bishops of Ely, and of the Archdeacon of Huntingdon, for the time being, to all intents and purposes.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased thereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln and Ely.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's-Palace, April 24, 1839.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty at the Levee, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Colonists of Mauritius, who have hereto subscribed their names, humbly approach the Throne with their condolence on the demise of your Majesty's Royal Uncle. At the same time they accomplish a duty dear to every British citizen, in laying at your Majesty's feet the tribute of their homage and love, on the Accession of their youthful Sovereign to the hereditary Crown of Great Britain.

Deprived of the exercise of most of the political rights conferred by the laws of the kingdom on British citizens, the undersigned behold with pain the unavoidable delay which has occurred in transmitting to your most gracious Majesty the faithful testimony of their loyalty and attachment, but if their firmest hopes are not deceptive, the sum of freedom will arise to cheer them under the glorious reign that Providence reserves for your Majesty.

When the Parliament abolished slavery in the colonies, the undersigned hailed with respectful submission this grandest of all acts of British philanthropy, and truly might they boast, that in no colony has the Act of Parliament been more faithfully executed than in Mauritius. They humbly hope that this circumstance will be an additional motive to your most gracious Majesty to requite twenty-eight years of proved fidelity, by conferring upon them the rights enjoyed by all the other subjects of the British Crown, and they will ever pray God to grant your Majesty a long, happy, and glorious reign.
