WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of King William the Fourth, chap. 60, "for amending the laws respecting conveyances and transfers of estates and funds vested in trustees and mortgages, and for enabling Courts of Equity to give effect to their Decrees and Orders in certain cases," and in the matter of the Market-house, Market-sted, and premises, at Barking, in the county of Essex, it was ordered that it should be referred to Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to cause two successive advertisements to be published in the London Gazette, and in one or more newspapers circulated in the county of Essex, giving notice, that the representative of the last surviving trustee named in the indenture of the 8th day of August 1679, in the said Order mentioned, should appear or give notice of his title, within twenty-eight days, before the said Master, and prove his pedigree or other title as trustee; and if no person should appear or give such notice within such twenty-eight days, or if the person who might appear or give such notice should not, within thirty-one days after such appearance or notice, prove his title to the satisfaction of the said Master, then it was ordered that it should be referred to the said Master to appoint ten fit and proper persons to act as new trustees of the market house, land, and premises in the petition mentioned: and whereas the names and descriptions of the trustees named in the said indenture of the 8th day of August 1679, are as follows, that is to say, Sir Henry Cambell, of Clay-hall, in the county of Essex, Baronet, Robert Sheffield, of Clay-hall aforesaid, Esquire, William Fanshaw and John Fanshaw, of Barking aforesaid, Gentlemen, John Fanshaw the younger, of Parsloes, in the said parish of Barking, Gentleman, Richard Uphill, Thomas Bateman, Blackburn Poulton, and Thomas Goddard, of Barking aforesaid, Gentlemen, and George Taylor, of Ilford, in the said parish of Barking, Gentleman; and whereas it appears from the Register Book of Burials for Barking, that Sir Henry Cambell was buried on the 26th May 1699, William Fanshaw on the 23d June 1708, John Fanshaw on the 15th April 1689, John Fanshaw the younger on the 22d December 1699, Thomas Bateman on the 1st September 1719, Blackburn Poulton on the 27th January 1708, Thomas Goddard on the 15th September 1701, and that the said Richard Uphill was buried in the adjoining parish of Dagenham, on the 28th February 1717; but it cannot be discovered when Robert Sheffield and George Taylor died, or where they were buried, nor which of the said trustees was the survivor: therefore, the representative of the last surviving trustee named in the said indenture of the 8th day of August 1679, is, within twenty-eight days, to appear or give notice of his title before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove his pedigree or other title as such trustee; and if no person shall appear or give such notice within such twenty-eight days, or if the person who may appear or give such notice shall not, within thirty-one days after such appearance or notice, prove his title to the satisfaction of the said Master, then the said Master will appoint ten new trustees of the said market-house, land, and premises, pursuant to such Order.
