

WHEREAS the Commissioner acting in the prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Chapman, of Sion-hill, Isleworth, in the county of Middlesex, Market Gardener, Dealer and Chapman, hath certified to the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, that the said John Chapman hath in all things conformed himself according to the directions of the Acts of Parliament made and now in force concerning bankrupts; this is to give notice, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts;" and also of an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy," the Certificate of the said John Chapman will be allowed and confirmed by the Court of Review, established by the said last-mentioned Act, unless cause be shewn to the said Court to the contrary on or before the 21st day of June 1839.

In the Gazette of the 14th instant, page 1002, col. 1, in the Declaration of Insolvency of James Macbrane Henderson, for Macbrane, read Macbraire.

Notice to the creditors of George Small, Musical Instrument-Maker and Music-Seller, in Edinburgh, Partner of the Firm of Small, Bruce, and Company, Musical Instrument-Makers and Music-Sellers, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, May 28, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at the general meeting of the creditors of the said George Small, to be held within the Old Signet-hall, Royal Exchange, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 12th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, being the meeting held immediately after the second examination of the bankrupt, an offer of composition will be made by the said George Small.

Notice to the creditors of Peter Watt, Accountant and Glass-Manufacturer, Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, May 22, 1839.

DONALD SMITH PEDDIE, Accountant, Edinburgh, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Peter Watt, hereby intimates, that, at a meeting of the creditors held here this day, an offer of composition was made by the said Peter Watt, which the meeting unanimously entertained, and directed the trustee to call another meeting for the purpose of deciding on the same. Another meeting of the creditors will, therefore, be held within the Old Signet-hall, Royal Exchange, Edinburgh, on Monday the 1st day of July next, at two o'clock P.M. for the purpose of finally deciding on said offer, with or without amendment, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the creditors of David Thomson, of Orkie, Writer to the Signet and Coal and Lime-Merchant.

Edinburgh, May 31, 1839.

THE trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said David Thomson hereby intimates, that having now realised the whole estate and effects, with the exception of the bankrupt's furniture, and some trifling outstanding and irrecoverable accounts, he is prepared to make a final division among the creditors; and requests they will meet in his chambers, No. 17, Nelson-street, on Wednesday the 3d of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to give directions thereanent.

A report of the situation of the sequestrated estate is annexed, and a full state of the trustee's accounts will be laid before the meeting, preparatory to the final division, and to an application by the trustee to the Court for his discharge and exoneration. The report and state will, in the meantime, lie in the trustee's hands, for the inspection of all concerned.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors who have claimed on the sequestrated estates of William Milson, formerly Haberdasher, in Princes-street, Edinburgh, and now residing in Castle-street, Edinburgh, against whose estate and effects a sequestration was issued on the 28th day of February 1834, by the Lords of Council and Session, in Edinburgh aforesaid, in terms of the Act, passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rendering the payment of creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland," will be holden at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall street, in the city of London, on the 22d day of June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the sale to the said William Milson by John Hay, Accountant, in Edinburgh aforesaid, the trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said William Milson, of all estate, right, share, benefit and interest to which, on the decease of Thomas Milson, the late brother of the said William Milson, he, the said William Milson, became seized, interested, or entitled, either as heir at law or as one of the next of kin of the said Thomas Milson, or in any other character, of and in the real and personal estate and effects of the said Thomas Milson, deceased, of what nature or kind soever, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, or otherwise, subject to all burdens and incumbrances thereon, and of all estate, right, share, benefit, and interest which may arise or accrue to the said William Milson upon the death of his mother, or to which (subject to her life interest) he may be interested or entitled, under or by virtue or means of the will of his late father, Charles Milson, deceased, in any property, real or personal, or of whatever nature the same may be, at or for the price or sum of £55; the said William Milson to be authorised and empowered to act and transact all matters relative to his late brother's property, and the property which may arise to him upon the death of his mother, and to sell and dispose thereof, and convey, assign, and make over the same at his pleasure; and on other special affairs.
