TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1839.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 21, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 5th of June next, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 22, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, June 20th, at two o'clock.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 20th of June, being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of June 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Charles Shaw Lefevre, Speaker of the House of Commons, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for holding the assizes in England and Wales," Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the authority thereby vested in Her Majesty in that behalf, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order and direct, that from henceforth the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Suffolk shall be holden as follows, that is to say, in the Summer, in the town of Ipswich, and in the Spring, in the town of Bury St. Edmunds, in the said county.

And the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Bedford, in quarter sessions assembled, on the ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that the town of Dunstable may be a polling place for the said county :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Dunstable shall be a polling place for the said county; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for

"rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places, for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Suffolk, at the general quarter session holden, by adjournment, at Bury Saint Edmunds, on the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Clare may be a polling place for the said western division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Clare shall be a polling place for the said western division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place in the said division.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Office of Ordnance, May 8, 1839.

THOSE persons who may be desirous of contracting with the Principal Officers of the Ordnance to furnish, from the 1st July next to the 30th June 1840, such quantities of

Coals and Candles,

as may from time to time be required for barracks and ordnance stations in the counties in Great Britain, can receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of ten and four.

Tenders for supplying either coals or candles, must be sealed up and marked "Tender for Coals," or "Tender for Candles," and will be received at this Office, addressed to the Secretary to the Board, until eleven o'clock on Tuesday the 11th of June; but no proposal, either for coals or candles, will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposals, from two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Tenders to be made for the several barracks and stations, as specified in the particulars of contracts.

N. B. The practice of allowing letters, to and from Contractors and their Agents, to pass free of postage is discontinued; but the official correspondence between the Contractors and Regimental and other Officers will be forwarded as usual. The Board of Ordnance and their Officers will not, however, be responsible for any letters, money, or orders for money, which may be so forwarded.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.

Mr. WILLIAM CLARK's Residuary Legatees.

WHEREAS William Clark, formerly of Smockington, in the county of Leicester, and afterwards of Great Claybrook, in the said county, Gentleman, died on the 15th day of March last, having by his will, bearing date the 3d day of October 1837, directed that his trustees and executors should, out of the moneys arising from the sale of his real and personal estate, pay all his debts, funeral and testamentary expences, and legacies, and, after payment thereof, should pay and divide the residue of the said moneys, and all other his personal estate which consisted of money at the time of his decease, unto and amongst all such of his first cousins and their children as should be living at the time of his decease, and the children of such of his first cousins as should be then dead, in the shares and proportions following, namely, to each of his said first cousins double the amount of each of the children of his first cousins, it being his will and desire that his said first cousins should have twice as much as any of the children of a first cousin; and the said testator declared his mind and will to be, that if any legatee or person entitled to a legacy under his said will should have left his or her last known place of abode in England, and should not have been heard of for seven years previous to his decease by his nearest relation, or in case such legatee or person entitled as aforesaid, should not, within one year after the said testator's decease and due notice of his death, and of his or her claim under his said will, published in manner therein mentioned, make out and substantiate his or her claim under his said will to the satisfaction of his said trustees and executors, of which he declared they should be the sole judges, without being responsible to any person whomsoever, then and in such case the said testator revoked and made void the legacy and bequest given to or in favour of such legatee or person entitled as aforesaid, and directed that the same should sink into his personal estate, and go and be applied accordingly. Notice is hereby given to the said legatees, and they are hereby requested to send to me forthwith the nature of their respective claims under the said will to the shares of the residue of the said moneys, or in default thereof they will be excluded all benefit under the said will.

By order of the said Trustees and Executors,

R. W. FOX, their Solicitor.

Lutterworth, June 1, 1839.

TRINIDAD.—In the Court of First Instance of Civil Jurisdiction.

In the Matter of Finlay M'Martin, ceding his property for the benefit of his Creditors.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons to whom Finlay M'Martin, of this island of Trinidad, formerly trading as F. M'Martin and Co. stands indebted, that the said F. Martin has tendered a cession of property for the benefit of his creditors; and all such creditors are hereby required to appear before me, by themselves or their sufficient Attornies, within six months at furthest from date hereof, and establish the nature and amount of their demands, and that in default thereof they will be deprived of the benefit of any order of distribution to be made in the proceedings.

JOHN COCKERTON, Judicial Referee.
