Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1839.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 14, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, June 20th, at two o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 20th of June, being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 20th of June, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. In taking up, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, and to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court, those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1839.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, to direct that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Montgomery, should henceforth be holden at Welchpool in the Spring, and at Newtown in the Summer, in every year ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. C. Gréville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1839.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition might be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An “ Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of “ Members to serve in Parliament,” should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, on the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Allendale Town may be a polling place for the said division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His said late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Allendale Town shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His said late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of June 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for the “ general regulation of the Customs,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that goods, of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter, shall be imported into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council, to be fit and proper for such importation; and whereas the port of Dundee has been approved of by the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for that purpose;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Dundee is a port fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for the appointment of convenient places “ for holding the assizes in England and Wales,” Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the authority thereby vested in Her Majesty in that behalf, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order and direct, that from henceforth the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Suffolk shall be holden as follows, that is to say, in the Summer, in the town of Ipswich, and in the Spring, in the town of Bury St. Edmunds, in the said county.

And the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Bedford, in quarter sessions assembled, on the ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that the town of Dunstable may be a polling place for the said county:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Dunstable shall be a polling place for the said county; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places, for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Suffolk, at the general quarter session holden, by adjournment, at Bury Saint Edmunds, on the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Clare may be a polling place for the said western division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Clare shall be a polling place for the said western division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place in the said division.

The very desirable leasehold premises, many years established in the trade of a Butcher, being No. 77, on the west side of Goswell-road, and the corner of Owen's-row.

The premises comprise a capital family dwelling-house, and conspicuous corner double-fronted shop, where an extensive established trade has been conducted up to a recent period for upwards of twenty years.

The house is four stories high from the basement, and contains, on the upper floor, two commodious airy attic rooms; on the second floor, three convenient bed-rooms; on the first floor, an appropriate large front dining or sitting room, with iron balconies to the windows, and a back bed-room; on the ground floor, a capital shop, with commanding display frontage to Goswell-road and Owen's-row, and fitted up with glazed sashes, a back parlour adjoining, and private entrance door from Owen's-row; on the basement, a convenient front kitchen, with paved area, and three coal vaults, and a back ditto with area and paved yard.

The whole held for an unexpired term of fifteen years, from Lady-day last, at the low and inadequate nett rent of fifty guineas per annum, payable quarterly.

The fixtures, of which a schedule will be produced at the time of sale, to be taken by the purchaser at a low recent valuation of £30. Lessee to insure for £400; and not to assign or underlet without licence.

Immediate possession may be had on payment of the purchase-money.

The property may be viewed till the sale.

Printed particulars may be had on the premises; also at the place of sale; of P. H. Abbott, Esq. Official Assignee to the Fiat, No. 10, King's Arms-yard, Coleman-street; of Messrs. Richardson and Talbot, the Solicitors appointed by the Commissioner to conduct this sale, No. 47, Bedford-row; of Mr. Bircham, Solicitor for the Mortgagees, No. 15, Bedford-row, at whose office the lease may be inspected; at the inns of the principal meat markets in the Metropolis; and of Messrs. Peyton and Aiken, Auctioneers and Estate Agents, No. 10, Cook's-court, Lincoln's-inn.
