PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, to direct that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Montgomery, should henceforth be holden at Welchpool in the Spring, and at Newtown in the Summer, in every year;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition might be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, on the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Allendale Town may be a polling place for the said division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His said late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Allendale Town shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His said late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.
