THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of an ecclesiastical district to St. Thomas's Chapel, in the parish of Radcliffe, in the county of Lancaster, under the 21st section of the 58th Geo. 3, cap. 45:

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3d day of May 1839, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is, by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;' and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'' further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas, the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, your Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Radcliffe, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 3,904 persons.

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation for 700 persons, there is one chapel in the said parish, called St. Thomas's Church, which affords accommodation for 800 persons, including 74 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor.

"That the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the said chapel, called St. Thomas's Church, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving the said chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to the said chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named the St. Thomas's District, with boundaries as follows:

The boundary commences at a point about three chains on the north easterly side of the bridge called Radcliffe-bridge, and goes from thence in a westerly direction along the centre of the River Irwell, which divides the parish of Radcliffe and the parish of Prestwich-cum-Oldham, to where the parish of Radcliffe joins the township of Little Lever, in the parish of Bolton; from thence along the fence which divides the parish of Radcliffe and the township of Little Lever, in the parish of Bolton, to a turnpike road or highway which leads from Bolton to Radcliffe-bridge; from thence in a north easterly direction along the fence which divides the parish of Radcliffe and the township of Ainsworth, in the parish of Middleton, to a turnpike road or highway which leads from the Bolton and Bury New turnpike road to Radcliffe-bridge; from thence in a southerly direction, leaving the township of Ainsworth, and going along the centre of this turnpike road or highway (which is in the parish of Radcliffe), crossing the canal to the junction of this road with a turnpike road or highway called Spring-lane, and going from the junction of these roads in a north easterly direction along the centre of Spring-lane, about eight chains, to a point near the Parsonage-house; and from thence in a straight line in a south easterly direction (including the Parsonage-house and Saint Thomas's church) to the point in the centre of the River Irwell, about three chains from the bridge, as the same is more particularly described in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured Pink.

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord Bishop hath signed and sealed this present instrument.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and humbly to pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty's royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
