AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of July 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except-

And it was thereby also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned, should be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed should be, for all the purposes expressed

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia :

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia ; and that, from and after the said eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said ports of Digby and Arichat as fully and effectually as if such ports had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act :

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia, hereinbefore appointed free ports as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act :
