TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1839.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of July 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that fit residences should be provided for the bishops of Lincoln, Llandaff, Rochester, Manchester, and Ripon:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively; and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports "of the Commissioners appointed to consider the "state of the Established Church in England and "Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and "revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal "dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, towards carrying into effect the recommendation in the said Act contained, with respect to providing a fit residence for the bishops of Ripon.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that out of such monies as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively for the purposes of the said Act, there shall be paid by us, to such persons, at such times, and in such manner as we shall deem expedient, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of ten thousand pounds, as may from time to time be necessary for and towards erecting and completing a certain house, offices, and out-buildings, in the township of North Stainley, in the parish and diocese of Ripon, which we have, under the authority of the said Act, lately caused to be commenced, and which are now in the course of erection; and that the said house, offices, and out-buildings shall, so soon as they shall be erected and completed, become and be the episcopal residence of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, to be by them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

“ And we humbly recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishopric of Ripon, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

“ All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

“ In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, the nineteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of July 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it was thereby further enacted, that if any goods should be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions, contrary to the said Act, such goods should be forfeited; and it was thereby provided, that, if His Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And it was thereby also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned, should be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed should be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia; and that, from and after the said eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said ports of Digby and Arichat as fully and effectually as if such ports had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia, herein-before appointed free ports as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, July 19, 1839.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

for the amount of such sales, and at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from any loss, which may arise from bad debts or otherwise, being paid and borne by the said bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said provisional and creditors' assignee, respectively, being indemnified and saved harmless, by and out of the said bankrupt's estate, for all that they, or either of them, have or hath done, or may do, in respect of all or any of the matters aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, in one or more lot or lots, and at one time and place or several times and places, the household furniture, fixtures, implements, utensils of trade, and machinery, stock, goods, chattels, and effects, of what kind soever, of the said bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, with or without, in either case, taking any security for the purchase money, and without the said assignee being answerable or liable for any loss of purchase money if sold on credit; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to act for the benefit of the said bankrupt's creditors in such manner as shall seem to him most beneficial; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee joining or concurring with any legal or equitable mortgagee or mortgagees, or any other person or persons interested therein, in selling and disposing of, by public auction or private contract, together or in parcels, all and every the estate and interest of the said bankrupt in any lands or buildings, or freehold or leasehold estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, instituting, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or such other proceedings as may be advisable, for the recovery or protection of any property or effects belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compromising, compounding, or entering into any arrangement for referring to arbitration any action or suit, right, title, or claim relating to or affecting the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Richardson Gorst, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Coach and Harness Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees elect of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Laces, Clay, and Myers, Solicitors, Union-court, Castle-street, Liverpool, in order to receive a report of what has been done by the provisional assignee and the assignees elect in carrying on the business of the bankrupt, and otherwise exercise their respective trusts, and, if approved, to allow and confirm the same; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect paying or allowing, out of the bankrupt's estate, the expences incurred, before the issuing of the said Fiat, with a view to securing the bankrupt's effects for the general benefit of his creditors, and a proper remuneration to the provisional assignee; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect continuing to carry on the bankrupt's business, for the benefit and at the risk of his estate, for such period as they shall think expedient, and with such powers as may be necessary for that purpose; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the bankrupt, or any other person, to superintend and conduct the carrying on of the said business, and paying or allowing to the bankrupt, or other person aforesaid, out of the bankrupt's estate, such wages or compensation for his trouble therein as to the said assignees elect may seem proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect adopting or rejecting a contract entered into by the bankrupt, on the 27th day of October last, with a person, to be named at the meeting, for the purchase of a leasehold messuage in Great Charlotte-street, in Liverpool, at such price (no part of which has yet been paid), and on such terms as are mentioned in the said contract, the particulars of which will be submitted to the meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect adopting or rejecting a certain other contract entered into by the bankrupt, before his bankruptcy, with certain other persons, to be named at the meeting, for the purchase of certain premises in Great Charlotte-street aforesaid, at such price (part of which has been paid), and on such terms as are mentioned in the last mentioned contract, the particulars of which will also be submitted to the meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect adopting or rejecting the lease to the bankrupt of the premises in Great Charlotte-street aforesaid, where his business has been hitherto carried on, and electing whether or not they will become the absolute purchasers of the estate or interest of the landlord of the said last mentioned premises, at the price, and upon the terms in such lease, or some contract or writing relating thereto, expressed; and, in case the said contracts, lease, and right of pre-emption, or any of them, shall be adopted, then to authorise the said assignees elect to pay the purchase money, or balance of purchase money as the case may be, out of the bankrupt's estate, and to perform the terms mentioned in such contracts, lease, or writing, and to take proper assignments, conveyances, or other assurances of the premises therein mentioned; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees authorising the continuance of a certain action of ejectment instituted, at the request and on the indemnity of the bankrupt, against a certain person, to be named at the meeting, with a view to recovering the possession of the said first mentioned leasehold messuage in Great Charlotte-street, and paying the costs of such action, and indemnifying the lessor of the plaintiff therefrom; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect adopting and completing, or selling and disposing, or compromising and agreeing, all or any of certain contracts entered into by the bankrupt, before his bankruptcy, with the several persons to be named at the meeting, for the supplying or letting to hire by the bankrupt of carriages and other vehicles in consideration of certain annual or other payments to be made by such persons; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect selling and disposing, or joining with any mortgagee or mortgagees in the sale and disposal, of all or any part of the bankrupt's freehold or leasehold estates (including the premises hereinbefore particularly mentioned, in case the said contracts, lease, and right of pre-emption shall be adopted), stock in trade, household furniture, and other the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation, and either together or in lots, and to the bankrupt or any other person or persons, and for ready money or on credit, and upon such terms, and with or without security, as the said assignees elect may think proper; and, in case of any offer to sell by public auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect buying in, at the risk of the bankrupt's estate, all or any part of the premises which shall be so offered for sale, at such price or prices as the said assignees may think proper, and again to offer for sale, in manner before mentioned, and to resell without being liable for any deficiency in such resale; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect employing an accountant to investigate and make up the books and accounts of the bankrupt, and to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and paying such accountant such allowance for his services, out of the bankrupt's estate, as the said assignees elect shall think proper; and to authorise the said assignees elect to commence and prosecute any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, for the discovery and recovery of all or any debts or debt due to the bankrupt's estate, or other estate and effects of the said bankrupt; or to compound, submit to arbitration, or otherwise settle the same, a list of which debtors will be submitted to the meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees elect defending any action, suit, or other proceeding which may be instituted against them in their capacity of assignees; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Taylor, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Wine and Spirit Dealer, one of the Proprietors of, and a Shareholder in, the Central Bank of Liverpool, and as a trader indebted jointly with the Company of Proprietors of the said Central Bank, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, at one of the clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Holden and Clarke, Solicitors, High-street, Exchange, Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling, by public auction or private contract, or partly by either mode, in one or more lots, at such time and place as he may think fit, all or any part of the real and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, or the equity of redemption of him the said bankrupt in such real and leasehold estates, or any part thereof, and to fix such reserved bidding or biddings as he the said assignee shall determine, and if the price or prices offered do not reach such reserved bidding or biddings, then to authorise him to buy in the said estates, or any part thereof respectively, and in such case to empower the said assignee to let the same, or any part thereof, and receive the rents thereof, and pay off, from time to time, the interest of all moneys secured thereon by mortgage, and again to offer for sale the said real or leasehold estates so remaining unsold, and to sell the same at such price and at what time and in such manner as the said assignee may consider most advisable; and in case any part of the said real and leasehold estates shall not sell for more than the sum or sums of money secured thereon, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignee releasing and conveying the equity of redemption of all or any part of the bankrupt's real or leasehold estates to any mortgagee or mortgagees in satisfaction of the principal, interest, lien, or other costs and charges due thereon, or any part thereof, or making any other settlement or arrangement with such mortgagee or mortgagees, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignee shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing any accountant or other person to investigate and arrange the books, accounts, and transactions of the said bankrupt, and to make such compensation for his trouble, out of the said bankrupt's estate, as he shall consider reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling the stock in trade, book debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any other person or persons, by public auction or private sale, or partly by either mode, for ready money or on credit, and with or without any security, at discretion; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in at any auction and reselling by auction or private sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit at law or in equity, for the recovery, defence, or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate or effects; or compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling and arranging any debts, matters, or things relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate in such manner as he shall, from time to time, consider reasonable or beneficial for the creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles James Adams, of the city of Oxford, Auctioneer Upholsterer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 14th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. William Branner, Solicitor, No. 2, St. Aldate's-street, in the said city of Oxford, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up to some members of the bankrupt's family, who will be named at the meeting, certain articles of furniture or effects taken under the said Fiat, but claimed to be the property of the parties who will be then named; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making a compensation to the bankrupt for his services since the issuing the said Fiat; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting any measures with regard to a certain estate, said to be settled to the private use of the wife of the said bankrupt, as will be fully explained at the said meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disposing of certain effects taken by them under the said Fiat, by private contract; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain claims made upon the estate by persons, who will also be named at the meeting, or submitting such claims to arbitration, in the usual manner; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of, or touching or concerning, the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Philip Clement Nicolle, of the town of Southampton, Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 17th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Deacon and Long, Solicitors, in the town of Southampton, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real estate of the said bankrupt, or the equity of redemption thereof, by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, and either in one or more lot or lots, and all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, furniture, book and other debts, and all other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, in manner aforesaid, or by tender, appraisement, or valuation, at such time and place, price and prices, and upon such terms as to them shall appear reasonable, unto any person or persons who shall be willing to treat for the same; and to give such credits and take such security for the purchase money thereof respectively as the said assignees, in their discretion, shall think proper; and, in case of such sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the same, in manner aforesaid, and at the risk and expence of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or submitting to arbitration, or compounding, compromising, or settling any suits, actions, accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes, relative to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt, in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Hobson, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Hosier and Draper, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Messrs. Littledale and Bardswell, Royal Bank-buildings, in Liverpool, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the household furniture, stock in trade, and fixtures of the said bankrupt, either in the whole or in lots, by public auction or private contract, to any person or persons whomsoever, for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking security for the same, or any part thereof, and without the said assignee being answerable or liable for any loss of the purchase money if sold on credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee superintending, managing, and disposing of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and employing proper persons for that purpose, or to sell and dispose thereof to the said bankrupt, on certain terms and conditions, to be named at the said meeting, without being afterwards answerable or liable for any loss which may arise by any sale or disposition thereof to the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or such other proceedings as may be deemed advisable, for the recovery or protection of any property or effects belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compromising, compounding, or entering into any arrangement for referring to arbitration any action or suit, right, title, or claim relating to or affecting the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and generally to consider the propriety of and authorise and empower the said assignee to take such other measures respecting the affairs of the said bankrupt as shall appear most advantageous to the creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements. the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue

thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 22d day of July 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
