TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1839.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of July 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it was thereby further enacted, that if any goods should be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions, contrary to the said Act, such goods should be forfeited; and it was thereby provided, that, if His Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And it was thereby also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned, should be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed should be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia; and that, from and after the said eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said ports of Digby and Arichat as fully and effectually as if such ports had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the ports of Digby and Arichat, in the province of Nova Scotia, hereinbefore appointed free ports as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Buckingham-Palace, August 10, 1839.

This day had audience of Her Majesty:

The Hereditary Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, to take leave;

Reched Pacha, Ambassador from the Sublime Porte, to deliver a letter, notifying the accession of the Sultan;

M. Dedel, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Netherlands, on return from a leave of absence;

And the Count de Pollon, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sardinia and the Duke of Lucca, to take leave pro tempore:

To which audiences they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Downing-Street, August 12, 1839.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to nominate and appoint Lieutenant-General Sir John Keane, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the said Order.

Whitehall, August 12, 1839.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John Grey, Esq. Major-General in the Army, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, and of a Knight Commander of that of St. Bento d'Avis, which have been conferred upon that Officer, in approbation of his conduct during the Peninsular war, especially in the action of El Bodon, on the 25th of September 1811; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 12, 1839.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Conway, Esq. Captain in the 53d Regiment Native Infantry, on the Bengal Establishment, Her royal licence and authority, that he may henceforth assume and use the surname of Gordon, in addition to and after that of Conway:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Treasury-Chambers, August 5, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the last session of Parliament, for improving the harbour of Fishguard, in the county of Pembroke," the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have by their warrant, dated the 18th day of July last, authorized and directed the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, from the 12th day of August instant, to levy and collect the sum of five thousand eight hundred and sixty-six pounds eight shillings and nine pence, by means of the tolls and duties following, that is to say, on all vessels passing and repassing the port of Fishguard, otherwise Abergwain, up or down Saint George's Channel, between Strumble Head on the Welsh coast, and Wexford on the Irish coast:

Vessels of foreign bottoms, per ton, three pence.
 Vessels of British bottoms, trading foreign, per ton, two pence.
 British coasting vessels, one penny per ton.
 Pleasure boats or yachts, per ton, yearly, two pence.

The said Lords Commissioners having, in pursuance of the said Act, ascertained and determined, that the sum or sums expended by the Company, called the Fishguard Harbour Company, or which they have become liable to pay, and also the costs, charges, and expences incidental to and attending the applying for, obtaining, and passing the said Act of Parliament, and of the opposition thereto, amount to the said sum of five thousand eight hundred and sixty-six pounds eight shillings and nine pence.

F. BARING.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named St. John's-green Meeting-house, situated at St. John's-green, in the parish of St. Giles, in the borough of Colchester, in the county of Essex, in the Colchester Union district, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of August 1839, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

CONTRACT FOR CLEANSING AND REPAIRING BEDDING, &c.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 9, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Cleansing and repairing Flock Beds and Bolsters, and Blankets, and for cleansing Hammocks and Cots.

The articles to be taken by the Contractor from Her Majesty's Yard at Deptford, and to be returned by him into Store at the said Yard, when cleansed and repaired.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for cleansing and repairing Bedding," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 5, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 9000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 17,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulhowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1840, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS FOR CANDLES FOR DEPTFORD AND WOOLWICH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 6, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 15th August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for

Supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, and into the Royal Marine Barracks at Woolwich, all such quantities of

as shall, from time to time, be demanded for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months warning.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office, and also for Woolwich at the Office of the Barrack Master.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Candles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

Office of Ordnance, July 31, 1839.

THE Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that a quantity of Bread Waggon with Covers, Wheels, Park Pickets, Mens' Harness, Junk, Tinned Copper, old Serge and Paper Cartridges, Saddles and various Horse Appointments, Bedding, Cuttings of Leather, Straps, Oars, Helves, Tire and Tire Nails, Elevating Screws, Trucks, Chairs, Lamps, Brushes, Brooms, Tools, &c. and Firewood, will be sold by public auction, in the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, on Thursday the 15th August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

May be viewed, from ten to four o'clock, a week previous to the day of sale.

Catalogues may be had at the Ordnance-Office, Pall-Mall; Tower of London; and Royal Arsenal, Woolwich.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.

The Reversionary Interest Society, 17, King's Arms-Yard, Coleman-Street, London, August 12, 1839.

THE Proprietors are requested to take notice, that an Extraordinary General Court of the Society will be held at this Office, on Friday the 6th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, for the purpose of electing a Director; and that Richard Norman, Esq. has declared himself a Candidate for that office.

By order of the Board,

C. G. Christmas, Secretary.

Hungerford and Lambeth Suspension Foot Bridge Company.

August 13, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Half-yearly General Meeting of the Company of Proprietors will be holden at their Offices, No. 9, Villiers-street, Strand, on Thursday the 29th instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to receive the report from the Directors, to elect three Directors in the place of those who retire by rotation, but who are eligible to be re-elected, and other business.

Devon, Chairman.

London, August 10, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers and company of Her Majesty's sloop Sappho, Thomas Fraser, Esq. Commander, who were actually on board, on the 5th day of December 1837, at the capture of the Portuguese schooner Isabelita, that they will be paid their respective proportions of the bounty-money granted for 159 slaves, on Wednesday the 28th instant, at No. 1, James-street, Adelphi; and the shares not then demanded will be recalled at the same place every Wednesday and Friday for three months, pursuant to Act of Parliament.

Atkinson, Birch, and Saunders, Solicitors, No. 3, in Norfolk-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, by private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, as to them shall seem most beneficial and advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate, and to any person or persons they may think proper, the steam engines, boilers, mill gearing, machinery, millwright work, household goods and furniture, stock in trade on hand and in process of manufacture, and all other the estate, goods, and effects whatsoever of the said bankrupt; or either of them, in one or more lot or lots, and at one time or at several times, and either wholly or partly upon credit, for such length of time as they may think proper, and without taking security for the purchase money, or any part thereof, and without the assignees being answerable or liable for any loss which may arise or occur in consequence of such sales upon credit; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and without being liable to make good any depreciation in price or value which may occur, buying in and reselling, either by auction or private contract as aforesaid, all or any part of the goods, machinery, and effects of the said bankrupt which may be offered for sale by auction, in case they shall think it expedient so to buy in; also to assent to or dissent from, and to ratify, confirm, and allow, or dissent from, the purchases, sales, receipts, and payments made by, and to and the acts and proceedings of, the provisional assignee, and also of the creditors' assignees, under the said Fiat, in working the cotton mills and machinery of the said bankrupt, and purchasing cotton and other materials, and employing work people for the purpose, up to the choice of assignees, and from thence to the time of the meeting, and reimbursing him and them; out of the estate, his and their payments and liabilities in respect of such workings; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing the working the said mills and machinery until the machinery is sold and disposed of, and to their paying for the cotton and other materials to be used, and the wages of the work people employed, out of the said bankrupt's estate, and selling and disposing of the yarn produced in the regular course of trade, and upon the usual terms of credit, without being answerable or liable for any bad debt which may be made; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt to manage such business, and paying him for his services, out of the estate; also to the assignees employing an accountant to investigate and arrange the affairs and accounts of the said bankrupt, collect and dispose of the property, and act in the superintendence and management of the bankrupt's affairs, and paying such accountant such allowance or remuneration for his time, trouble, and services, both past and future, as to the said assignees shall seem proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making and entering into such arrangement and settlement with the landlord of the said bankrupt's mills as the assignees may think proper, both as respects the rents now due, and the future occupation of the said mills; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing actions at law against debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, for the recovery of such debts, and discontinuing such actions, upon such terms as the assignees may think fit; and to their compounding and taking less than the whole in full satisfaction and discharge of any dubious, doubtful, or bad debt owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and referring and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, agreeing, and arranging any dispute or difference arising between the said assignees and any other person or persons, respecting all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any claim upon the same, or any part thereof, or otherwise relating to or concerning the same in anywise howsoever; and to the said assignees giving their consent to any creditor of the bankrupt who may hold bills of exchange, or other securities, upon which other parties than the said bankrupt are liable, accepting compositions from, and releasing any such parties from such bills, or other securities, and executing any deeds of assignment by such parties, for the benefit of creditors, and any deed of inspection, licence, or arrangement between such parties and their creditors, without prejudice to such creditors' right of proof against the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, taking, prosecuting, defending, or opposing all such proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, in respect of the said bankrupt's estate as they may think proper or be advised, for the recovery, protection, and getting in the same, or any part thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees executing any assignment for the benefit of creditors by any debtor to the estate, and any deed of inspection, licence, or arrangement between any such debtor and his creditors as the assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making and entering into any settlement, compromise, or arrangement they may think proper, with any persons, either before or after actions being brought, respecting any goods of which any such persons have possessed themselves, and which are claimed to belong to the said bankrupt's estate; and to the assignees paying and allowing, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain purchases, payments, costs, and expences which will be particularised at the meeting, made and incurred, prior to the Fiat, by several creditors, in an investigation of the said bankrupt's affairs, and for the purpose of continuing the working of his mill, in expectation of an arrangement of his affairs being effected, and certain acts and proceedings done and taken under the directions of such creditors, for the benefit of the whole; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements,

" the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an " authority for inserting the said Declaration in
 " the Gazette, and that every such Declaration
 " shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore-
 " said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by
 " such Trader at the time when such Declaration
 " was filed, but that no Commission shall issue
 " thereupon unless it be sued out within two
 " calendar months next after the insertion of such
 " advertisement, unless such advertisement shall " have been inserted within eight days after such
 " Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed
 " and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of " Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days
 " next after such insertion in case such Commis" sion is to be executed in London, or before the " expiration of eight days next after such inser-
 " tion in case such Commission is to be executed
 " in the Country :"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 12th day of August
