CONTRACT FOR CLEANSING AND REPAIRING BEDDING, &c.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 9, 1839

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Cleansing and repairing Flock Beds and Bolsters, and Blankets, and for cleansing Hammocks and Coats.

The articles to be taken by the Contractor from Her Majesty's Yard at Deptford, and to be returned by him into Store at the said Yard, when cleansed and repaired.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for cleansing and repairing Bedding," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 5, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 9000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 17,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in burrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed - one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1840, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

Wimborne Minster, Dorset, and Marine Villas at Bournemouth.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the Commissioners under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against John Dine, of Wimborne Minster aforesaid, Builder and Carpenter, a bankrupt, at the London Tavern Inn, in Poole, on Tuesday the 10th day of September 1839, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the following property, in lots, as may be agreed upon at the time of sale, unless previously disposed of by private contract, of which due notice will be given;

Four newly erected freehold dwelling-houses and premises, called Brunswick-place, situate at Eastbrook, in Wimborne Minster, one of which fronts the Poole road, and contains an excellent parlour, breakfast-room, study, kitchen, and pantry, with a drawing-room, six bed-rooms, and a water-closet, and a good stable attached; each of the other three houses contains a parlour, hall, kitchen, and pantry, with a drawing-room and four bed-rooms.

Two newly erected villas, Nos. 11 and 12, at Bournemouth, well finished and fit for immediate occupation, each held by lease from Sir G. W. T. Gerris, Bart. for a term of eighty-eight years, commencing September 29th, 1838, under a yearly ground rent of £2.

The villas, which adjoin each other, present a handsome and picturesque elevation, and command extensive views of the sea and the opposite Purbeck coast, &c., each house contains on the basement a large underground cellar, on the ground floor a dining-room 24 feet 6 inches by 15 feet 3 inches, and two other sitting-rooms 15 feet by 14 feet, and 14 feet by 12 feet 9 inches, kitchen and offices on the first floor, a drawing-room 18 feet by 15 feet 6 inches, six bed-rooms, and water-closet; attached to each house is a three-stalled stable, saddle-room, and coach-house, and a small walled garden and pleasure ground.

Extensive public baths and other buildings are now in progress, which, combined with the natural advantages of the spot, bid fair to render Bournemouth one of the most attractive and frequented watering places in the south of England. It is situated midway between Christchurch and Poole, being distant about five miles from each place; coaches pass daily to and from Southampton, Lymington, Poole, Weymouth, &c.

The several houses may be viewed at any time previous to the sale; and for further particulars apply (if by letter, post paid) to Messrs. Edward and Charles Castleman, Solicitors, Wimborne.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Clark, of the Fox Public-house, Oxford-street, in the county of Middlesex, Licenced Victualler, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 10th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, settling, and adjusting, a certain debt or certain debts due to the said bankrupt from divers persons, the particulars whereof will be mentioned at such meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Sarah Luce, of the town of Pontypool, in the county of Monmouth, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, and William Richard Luce, of the same place, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, Co-partners in trade, under the name or firm of Sarah Luce and Son, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 11th day of September next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. N. G. Pridaux, in the Albion-chambers, Bristol, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees selling or disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or of either of them, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or by private contract, or partly in the one mode and partly in the other, and either in one lot or in several lots, to such person or persons, either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security, or otherwise as to the assignees may seem expedient; and also of assenting to and confirming or dissenting from any sale or sales which shall have been already made, the particulars whereof shall be produced at the said meeting; and also of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees retaining or employing any agent, accountant or accountants or other fit or proper person or persons, to investigate, arrange, and manage the books and accounts of the said bankrupts, and for the purpose of receiving, collecting in, and giving discharges and receipts for the outstanding debts due to the joint estate of the said bankrupts, and to the separate estate of each or either of them, and making such agent, accountant or accountants, or other person or persons, such compensation for his or their services as to the said assignees shall seem fit and proper; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them; or to the compounding or compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any bad or doubtful debt or debts due to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or of either of them, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignees paying all or any part of certain bills of charges, to be then and there produced, incurred in the investigation of the affairs of the said Sarah Luce and William Richard Luce, and for the assignment made and executed by the said Sarah Luce and William Richard Luce, for the benefit of their creditors, previous to the issuing of the said Fiat against them; and also for certain costs incurred relative to the insolvency of the said Sarah Luce and William Richard Luce, and in taking an account of their stock in trade, or otherwise, for the benefit of, or in relation to, the estate of them, the said Sarah Luce and William Richard Luce, and of each or either of them; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Henry Browne, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Stone and Flag-Merchant, Coal-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 11th day of September next, at the office of Mr. Hitchcock, Solicitor, No. 8, in Brown-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts and proceedings of the petitioning creditor, provisional assignee, and the assignees, in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, either with the concurrence of certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, to whom the said bankrupt hath executed mortgages of his freehold and leasehold estate, or who hold the title deeds belonging to the same, or some part thereof, or to whom the said bankrupt hath pledged or mortgaged any shares in certain building societies, and other public companies, or who claim to have a lien on the said estates, and share, or some part or parts thereof, the particulars whereof will be stated at the meeting, or without the concurrence of such person or persons, or any of them, and, at the discretion of the said assignees, selling and disposing, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate, all or any part, or the equity of redemption, or the estate, rights, and interests of the said assignees and in several freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, situate and being at Ardwick, Harpurhey, and Hulme, all in the said county of Lancaster, and also of and in all or any shares or other interests in any building societies or other public companies, and all other property, real and personal, of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in such lots, at such times and places, and in such manner, and either to the said bankrupt, or to any other person or persons, for such prices, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous for the benefit of the said estate, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if the latter with or without such security for payment of the purchase money, as the said assignees may think proper, and without their being personally answerable for any loss or damages or expences which may be sustained thereby; and, in case of any sale or sales by auction, either with or without the concurrence of such mortgagee, to authorise and empower the said assignees, from time to time, as often as they may think fit, to buy in and resell the same, or concur in reselling the same, at any future auction, with the like power to buy in the same, or by private contract, without being accountable for or liable to pay any difference in amount or value or diminution in price bid at such sales, respectively, or otherwise in relation thereto; and, in case the said real and leasehold estates and shares respectively shall not be sold by auction, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making such arrangements as they may think fit with any person or persons claiming to be a mortgagee or mortgagees as aforesaid, and to concur with him, her, or them, in effecting a sale thereof, in such manner, and upon such terms, as the said assignees shall deem advisable or expedient; or to the said assignees releasing and relinquishing all their right, estate, and interest in the said real and leasehold estates and shares to the said mortgagees, upon such terms as they may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing an action at law, or suit in equity, against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, in respect of a distress for rent made upon the property of the said bankrupt, on a certain wharf and premises, in which he lately carried on business, at Manchester aforesaid, or in respect of any estate or interest which the said bankrupt, or the said assignees, may have in certain buildings erected on part of the said wharf, or to the said assignees relinquishing all claim thereto or interest therein as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing an action at law, or suit in equity, against a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, claiming to be a trustee of certain household furniture, or abandoning and relinquishing all claim thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing, at the expence of the estate, an accountant, or other person, to investigate and wind up the bankrupt's affairs, and collect the debts thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and carrying on any action, suit, or other proceeding, at law or in equity, against any person or persons indebted to the said bankrupt; and to the said assignees settling and compromising such actions when commenced, and for obtaining full and perfect accounts of all the affairs, dealings, and transactions of the said bankrupt; and also the said assignees signing any bankrupt's certificate, executing any deed of composition, or assignment, to be made by any person indebted to the bankrupt, or to the assignees compounding with any debtor to the estate, and taking less than the whole that is due from any such debtor, and generally to act as they may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration, or the decision of counsel, in any way they may think proper, any questions, matter, or thing relating to the bankrupt's estate; and to prefer or defend any petition to the Court of Review, or file any bill in equity; and to commence or defend any action at law relating to all or any matter aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 19th day of August 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
