NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of Susannah Hedges, Widow (who died on or about the 20th day of February 1838), will apply, either personally or by letter (post paid) to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, at the Treasury-chambers, Whitehall, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

Mrs. Hedges' maiden name was Shepherd, and she formerly resided at 18, Crown-court, Russell-street, Covent-garden, afterwards at 77, Drury-lane, then in the Hampstead-road, and, at the time of her decease, at No. 8, Compton-street, Brunswick-square.

WHEREAS by indenture of lease, bearing date on or about the 20th day of March 1711, John Lyons demised to Benjamin Bennett all that and those two small tenements and gardens, situate, lying and being in the manor of Saint John's, in the town of Athy, and county of Kildare, containing in front to the street, thirty-eight feet, being formerly part of John Wilcock's holding for three lives, with a covenant for the perpetual renewal of the same, subject to the yearly rent of £3 10s., and a renewal fine of £1 15s. on the fall of each life:—and whereas the term of said lease was last renewed on or about the 19th day of October, in the year 1752;—and whereas all the right, title, and interest of the said John Lyons is now vested in his Grace Augustus Frederick Duke of Leinster:—and whereas the lives named in the last renewal of said premises are long since dead, and no renewal has been obtained thereof, and there is now a large sum of money due for renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest on said premises:—and whereas the said Duke of Leinster has not been able to discover the assignee, or owner of the interest of the said Benjamin Bennett in the said demised premises, and has, under the provisions of the 19th and 20th George Third, chap. 30, made, or caused to be made on the 11th day of June last, a demand of the said fines and interest upon James Wright, of Athy, upon the said tenements and premises, he being then the principal occupier of the same. Now I, as the lawfully authorised agent of the said Duke of Leinster, and on his behalf, do hereby, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Statute, give notice to all such persons as it may concern, that unless the person or persons entitled to the interest in the said premises, under the said lease, shall come forward and renew the interest therein, and pay the said fines and interest within a reasonable time after the making of the said demand, they and every of them will forfeit all right and benefit of renewal under the said lease, and the covenant for perpetual renewal contained therein.

JOHN HAMILTON, 13, Dominick-street, Dublin.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes of Vaughan versus the Marquess of Headfort, and Cockburn, Bart. versus the Marquess of Headfort, the creditors of Margaret Vaughan, late of Lower Berkeley-street, Manchester-square, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster (who died in or about the year 1836), are, on or before the 25th day of November 1839, to come in and prove their debts before Sir William Horne, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Matthew Wood, of the town of Nottingham, Painter, hath by indenture, bearing date the 16th day of September 1839, granted, bargained, sold, and assigned all his estate and effects unto John Pountain, of Nottingham aforesaid, Agent to Messrs. Cox, Brothers, and Company, of the same place, Lead-Merchants, and William Williams, of the same place, Druggist, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, in trust, for the equal benefit of all the creditors of the said Matthew Wood who shall execute the same, on or before the 1st day of January next; and that such indenture was duly executed by the said Matthew Wood, John Pountain, and William Williams, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and is attested by, Hugh Bruce Campbell, of Nottingham aforesaid, Solicitor; and that such indenture now lies at the office of Messrs. Cursham and Campbell, Solicitors, Nottingham, for execution by those creditors of the said Matthew Wood who have not already executed the same.—Dated this 17th day of September 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 26th day of August 1839, John Upchurch Martin, of East Dereham, in the county of Norfolk, Professor of Music, assigned all and singular his household goods and furniture, plate, linen, china, horses, carriages, and all other his goods, chattels, and effects, debts, and sums of money to which he might in any manner be entitled, whether then due and owing or vested in him by virtue of the last will and testament of William Collison, Esq. deceased, or other-
