The Garifon of Newbeufel make frequent excursions to fetch in Provisions; but one of their Parties was surprized the la' week by the Imperialis of Gran, and 140 of them killed.

Vienna, Oltober 26. Our last Letters from the Camp before Buda, give an account, that the Scrasquier Balla finding his defign of putting Provifions into the place by the River, had miscarried, and that the belieged were reduced to the laft extremity, had refolved once more to attempt their relief, and was accordingly on his march towards Buda, and that the Duke of Lorrain, having notice thereof, was gone with the Imperial and Bavarian Horle and Dragoons to meet him; but we are here of opinion that the Scraiquier not daring to hazard a Battle, is retired again, and that confequently the belieged will be forced to Capitulate, being allured that they have spent all their Provifions, for which reason the general Assault is deferred; however the Christians continue to advance their Attacks, and to prepare feveral Mines, though they are much hindred therein as well by the weather as the obflinate refiftance of the be-A great many Boats have been fent from ficged. hence this week with Oats, Hay, and Straw for the subfifience of the Imperial Cavalry. On Monday last arrived here an Officer from Upper Hungary, being fent by General Schultz, to give the Emperor an account, that he had taken the firong Caffie of Makowitz; That he was marching to attack Dunavitz; That the Count de Barozzi had defeat 800 Rebels; and that Captain Molner had defeat another Party of 300, and had taken Prifi it the Famous Colonel Subeida, who made the wit Year feveral Incurfions into Silefia, and that he was fending him hither. Gefieral Lessie continucd according to our laft advices, encamped at Turannovitz on the Drave, expecting a firong reinforcement of the Nobility of Croatia and Stiria. who are summoned into the Field upon pain of Configution of their Eflates. Our Letters from Poland tell us, that that King upon notice that a great Body of Tartars were fallen into Podolia, had cauled his Troops to repais the Niefler to take care of his own Territories, whereby the Hofpodar of Moldavia, who had declared for the Poles, and was ready to have juyned them with 16000 Men, is left at the Mercy of the Turks, who it's faid have got a very confiderable Army together near Czecora.

Ratisbonne, November 2. We have Letters from the Camp before Buda of the 16th of the laft Month, which tell us the B-fieged, (though the Garison, it's faid, is reduced to 4000 Men, and that they are in great want of Provisions) continued to make a very refolute defence; That on the 13th they made a Sally, but were beaten in again with little loss on the fide of the Christians; That on the 14th they came out again, and forced the Ba-varians to quit their Works, but other Troops coming to their affistance, the Christi na recovered th ir Pofts, having loft 200 Men in this action; That on the 15th the Turks made another Sally with 600 Men, and took away and carried inrothe Town the Dial Boards which the Chriflians made use of in working their Mines; That at the fame time the befieged did countermine the Works of the Christians. That the Serasquier Balla lay within five miles of Budz, and hindred the Imperialiss from Foraging, fo that the Cavalry luffered very much ; That there had fallen much Rain; Aid that a great many Officers as well as soldi rs were fick in the Christian Camp; That the Regiments of Hoife of Savoy, Magni, and Heufler, Forty chillings reward.

were reduced to 30 and 40 Men; and that the Infantry was likewife very much weakened. Letters from the Camp of the 20th palt, fay the Mines of the Imperialifis were finithed, and that they were going to charge them; but that the Bavarians had been forced to alter theirs, their Mines having met with a Spring of Water; That all things were ready for a General Alfault, which was however deferred for that all the Frifoners and D:ferters agreed in their report of the great difirefs the Befieged were in, and that they could not hold out a weck longer.

Bruffels, Novemb. 7. The Marquis de Grane is preparing to leave this Government, and we expect to hear by the next Poft from Madrid, that his Succeffor is named. The French have demolifhed the Fortifications of Courtray and Dixmuyde in order to the reitoring those places to the King of Spain in purfumce of the Truce.
