NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts for making, constructing, and maintaining a harbour, with all necessary works and conveniences, by a sea wall or breakwater, from the Great Ormes' Head, in Llandudno Bay, in the parish of Llandudno, in the county of Caernarvon; also for making, constructing, and maintaining a railway, with all necessary works and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, to commence at or near to the Great Ormes' Head, in the said parish of Llandudno, and thence passing from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, liberties, or places of Llandudno, Llanrhos, Llangwystynnin, Llysfaen, Is-y-iffordd, Pant, Isalt, Penmaen, and Rhwng-y-ddwyffordd, or some of them, in the said county of Caernarvon; Llandrillo-ryhos, Llanddulas, and Abergele, or some of them, in the county of Denbigh; Rhyl, Rhyddlan, Dyserth, Prestatyn, Meliden, Llanasa, Grohant, Gwespyr, Pictou, Whitfield, Bychton, Eden Owen, Mostyn, Holywell, Greenfield, Bagillt, Coleshill, Cilcen, Flint, Northop, Kelsterton, Wepre, Golftyn, Leadbrook Major, Leadbrook Minor, Hawarden, Sealand, Shotton, Aston, and Saltney, or some of them, in the county of Flint; Saint Mary's-on-the-Hill, Handbridge, Saint Bridget otherwise Saint Brides, Saint John the Baptist, Saint Oswald otherwise Saint Werburgh, and Great Boughton, in the city and county of the city of Chester; Hoole, Little Boughton, Huntington, Great Boughton, Littleton, Christleton, Rowton, or some of them, in the county of Chester; and terminating at or near the line of, and uniting with, the railway from Chester to Crewe, in or near a certain field, in the township of Rowton, and parish of Christleton, numbered thirty in the plan of the said railway.

And also to take power in the said Act or Acts, to deviate from the line of the said railway and branch, as the same is intended to be laid out on the plans thereof, to be hereafter deposited with the several clerks of the peace of the said counties, not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the said line, save and except where the same is intended to pass through towns or lands covered with houses, and, in such case, to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said line.

And it is likewise intended to take power in the said Act or Acts, to impose such rates, dues, or tolls, as shall be particularly specified in the said Act or Acts.

Wood and Ellis, Solicitors for the Bill,
Corbet-court, Gracechurch-street, London.

Midland Grand Union Railway.

Mr. Holmes's Line.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, constructing, and maintaining a railway, with all suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Midland Counties' Railway, between the King's Meadows and the carriage road which crosses west of, and near, the King's Meadows, in the parish of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham; and which said railway, with the warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, archways, viaducts, culverts, embankments, bridges, stations, erections, water-works, gas-works, lime-works, and other works, communications, approaches, and conveniences material or necessary to be attached thereto or connected therewith, or for the more complete use and enjoyment thereof, will pass or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, Lenton, Radford, Wollaton, Basford, Bilborough, Nuttall, Greasley, Bulwell, Hucknall-torkard, Linby, Newstead, Annesley, Kirkby-in-Ashfield, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Skegby, and Teversal, all in the county of Nottingham.

And it is also intended to apply for power to authorise the deviating from the line of the said intended railway, as laid down in the plans intended to be deposited in pursuance of the Standing Orders of Parliament, to the extent of one hundred yards on either side of the said line, where the plans and books of reference comprise, include, or relate to such extent.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, showing or describing the line or situation of the intended railway, and other works, and the lands, parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places, in, to, or through which the same is intended to be made, with duplicate sections, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and describing the situation of such lands, was, on or before the 1st day of March 1839, deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Nottingham, at his office at Newark, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, was deposited, on or before the 1st day of April 1839, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon, or in respect of, passengers and goods, and also upon, and in respect of, carriages passing along, through, or over the same railway, and other works. And in the said Bill powers will also be inserted to alter, vary, and divert certain highways, roads, railways, paths passages, rivers, streams, brooks, drains, canals, and water courses, within the said several parishes, townships, extra parochial, and other places aforesaid, or some of them.—Dated this 17th of October 1839.

Winchester Cemetery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a Company for making, establishing, and maintaining a cemetery or burial ground, in the parish of Saint Faith, within the city and borough of Winchester, and county of Southampton, upon certain pieces of land now or late belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Winchester, and their lessee, William Simonds, Esquire, and the London and South Western Railway Company, containing together six acres and three roods, or thereabouts, and bounded on the north by Saint James's-lane, on the east by land belonging to the said London and South Western Railway Company, and on the south and west by land in the occupation of the said William Simonds, held by lease of the said Dean and Chapter of Winchester; and in the said Bill powers will be contained enabling the said company to levy rates, duties, or fees in respect of the said cemetery or burial ground.—Dated this ninth day of October 1839.

Macclesfield and Congleton Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for extending the term and altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering, widening, improving, and keeping in repair the road leading from Macclesfield by Broken Cross to Congleton, all in the county palatine of Chester; and also of an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for altering the road from Macclesfield to Congleton, in the county of Chester," or for repealing the said Acts, and granting further and other powers in lieu thereof; and also for making and maintaining the following deviations or new lines of road, that is to say, a deviation from the said present turnpike road commencing at a field in the occupation of Joseph Warrington, near the Harrington Arms Public-house, in the parish of Gawsworth, and ending at or near a cottage, in the same parish of Gawsworth, in the occupation of William Bailey; and for straightening and widening the present turnpike road along two fields, in the same parish of Gawsworth, in the occupation of John Cheetham, and along another field, in the same parish of Gawsworth, in the occupation of Jasper Holland; also a deviation commencing near a farm house in the occupation of Jasper Holland, in the same parish of Gawsworth, and ending at a certain field, in the township of North Rode, in the parish of Prestbury, in the occupation of John Holland; another deviation commencing at a field in the occupation of Peter Ford, in the said township of North Rode, and ending at a field in the occupation of Enoch Lomas, in the township of Eaton, in the parish of Astbury; and for straightening and widening the present turnpike road along a certain field, in the said township of Eaton, in the occupation of Daniel Heath; and along a certain other field, in the same township of Eaton, in the occupation of James Hobson; and also another deviation commencing at a field, in the said township of Eaton, in the occupation of Daniel Heath, and proceeding through the same township of Eaton into the borough and township of Congleton, in the said parish of Astbury, and ending at a bridge, in the said borough and township of Congleton, called the Dane bridge; all which deviations or new lines of road are intended to be made in or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Gawsorth, North Rode, Prestbury, Eaton, Astbury, and Congleton, in the said county of Chester; and by which said Bill it is intended to increase or alter the existing tolls authorised by the aforesaid Acts to be collected, and to levy tolls upon or in respect of the several deviations or new lines of road so proposed to be made as aforesaid.

Duplicate plans and sections of which several deviations or new lines of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore-mentioned, in or through which any part of the said roads are intended to be made or varied, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his respective place of abode.—Dated this tenth day of October 1839.

Parrott, Colville, and May, Solicitors, Macclesfield, Cheshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of three several Acts, one passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston upon Hull, for making a basin or dock with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money, out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and also for making additional basins or docks, at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the River Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works;" another passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs, at Kingston upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money, out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull; and also for making additional basins or docks, at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the River Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works;" and another, passed in the forty fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull," or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant further and other powers instead thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended: to apply for power in the said Bill to make and maintain a dock or docks, with two or more piers extending into the River Humber; and also a cut or canal, or cuts or canals, from and out of such dock or docks, to communicate with the haven or harbour of the said town of Kingston-upon-Hull, with proper communications, works, and conveniences connected with the same respectively; which said dock or docks, piers, cut or canal, or cuts or canals, and other works will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the extra-parochial place called, the Garrison Side, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull; the several townships of Drypool and Southcoates, in the parish of Drypool, in the county of the said town; and the parish of Holy Trinity, in the county of the said town.

And it is also intended to apply for power to take wharfage rates for goods, wares, and merchandize loaded or delivered from any of the quays or wharfs erected by virtue of such Acts; and also for power to take tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the proposed new docks and other intended new works

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed new works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office at Kingston-upon-Hull, on or before the 30th day of November next; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Drypool and Holy Trinity, on or before the 31st day of December next. Dated this 7th day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the enlightening the streets, lanes, and passages within the town and county of the town of Nottingham;" and also of an Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act, of the second year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the enlightening the streets, lanes, and passages within the town and county of the town of Nottingham;'" or to repeal the said recited Acts, and to grant further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And that it is also proposed and intended to take powers by the said Act to raise money for paying off the debts occasioned by the insufficiency of the existing rates and assessments authorised by the said recited Acts for the purposes of the said Acts, and to alter such existing rates and assessments; and otherwise to make provisions for raising money sufficient for the purposes aforesaid, and for fully and efficiently lighting the streets, lanes, and passages, within the town and county of the town of Nottingham aforesaid. —Dated this 10th day of October 1839.
