London and Blackwall Railway.

WHEREAS the London and Blackwall Railway Company, under their Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Minories to Blackwall, with branches, to be called 'The Commercial Railway;' and of another Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the line of the railway between London and Blackwall, called the Commercial Railway, and for amending the Acts relating thereto," are authorised and required to contract for and to sell such superfluous lands as might be purchased by the said Company, or any estate or interest in such lands, first offering to sell the same to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises shall immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, by notice, to be inserted twice in the London Gazette, and twice in two London newspapers; now the said Company do hereby give notice, that they propose immediately to sell and dispose of the superfluous lands mentioned in the schedule hereto, and more particularly described in a plan, which may be seen at the office of the Company, at No. 62, Moorgate-street, London; and they do therefore hereby first offer to sell the same lands to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, for such price or prices as may be agreed upon between such person or persons, and the Company, or (in case of disagreement as to price) as shall be ascertained by a jury in the manner directed by the said first mentioned Act; and that unless such person or persons shall be desirous of purchasing such lands so proposed to be sold, and shall signify such his or their desire and intention in that behalf to the said Company, within thirty days after this offer of sale, the said Company will proceed to sell and dispose of such lands to any other person or persons, in such manner as they shall think fit, and are or shall be authorised by their said Acts of Parliament, or otherwise, to do.—Dated this 25th day of October 1839.

The Schedule above referred to.

Premises.

Dwelling-house and shop, with the timber-yard, garden, counting-house, buildings, sheds, lofts, saw-pits, and appurtenances thereto belonging and adjoining, except such parts of the same premises as the piers of the railway now stand upon, and subject to the right to carry and maintain the railway across the said premises, and to all necessary powers of entry for erecting and repairing the same.

Where situate.

No. 3, New-road, in the parish of Saint George, otherwise Saint George in the East, in the county of Middlesex, in the occupation of Edmund Sheffield.

William Routh, Chairman.

Guildhall, October 31, 1839.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £456, a further part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 14th of April 1831, and numbered 8; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £11,400, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £456, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sum of £456 will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sum of £11,400, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £456, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sum of £456 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

Midland Grand Union Railway.

Mr. Holmes's Line.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, constructing, and maintaining a railway, with all suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Midland Counties' Railway, between the King's Meadows and the carriage road which crosses west of, and near, the King's Meadows, in the parish of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham; and which said railway, with the warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, archways, viaducts, culverts, embankments, bridges, stations, erections, water-works, gas-works, lime-works, and other works, communications, approaches, and conveniences material or necessary to be attached thereto or connected therewith, or for the more complete use and enjoyment thereof, will pass or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, Lenton, Radford, Wollaton, Basford, Bilborough, Nuttall, Greasley, Bulwell, Hucknall-torkard, Linby, Newstead, Annesley, Kirkby-in-Ashfield, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Skegby, and Teversal, all in the county of Nottingham.

And it is also intended to apply for power to authorise the deviating from the line of the said intended railway, as laid down in the plans intended to be deposited in pursuance of the Standing Orders of Parliament, to the extent of one hundred yards on either side of the said line, where the plans and books of reference comprise, include, or relate to such extent.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, showing or describing the line or situation of the intended railway, and other works, and the lands, parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places, in, to, or through which the same is intended to be made, with duplicate sections, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and describing the situation of such lands, was, on or before the 1st day of March 1839, deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Nottingham, at his office at Newark, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, was deposited, on or before the 1st day of April 1839, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon, or in respect of, passengers and goods, and also upon, and in respect of, carriages passing along, through, or over the same railway, and other works. And in the said Bill powers will also be inserted to alter, vary, and divert certain highways, roads, railways, paths, passages, rivers, streams, brooks, drains, canals, and water courses, within the said several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places aforesaid, or some of them.—Dated this 17th of October 1839.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for defraying the expences of the said inclosure by a rate upon the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill.

Nash, Wedd, and Thurnall, Royston.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing all the open and common fields, meadows, pastures, commonable lands, commons, and waste lands and grounds, within the township of Great Milton, in the parish of Great Milton, in the county of Oxford.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for defraying the expences of the said inclosure by a rate on the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill.—Dated this 10th day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the town of Lancaster to the town of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster," and to authorise the raising of a further sum of money—upon the credit of the rates, tolls, and duties now or hereafter authorised to be received under the said Act; or by the creation of additional shares or capital, or in part by each of those means, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill,—for the purpose of providing such additional stations, engine houses, and other conveniences as may be requisite for the reception and due accommodation of the increased traffic to be expected from the communication with other main lines of railway, and for the completion of the said railway and works, and the general purposes of the undertaking.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for power by the said Bill to pay off the money which the said company were authorised to borrow under the said Act, or part thereof, by the creation of additional shares or capital.—Lancaster, seventeenth October 1839.

S. Edwd. Bolden, Clerk of the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act for inclosing, dividing, exchanging, allotting, and otherwise improving all the open and common, arable, meadow, and pasture lands and fields, and all other the commonable waste and intermixed lands and grounds within the parish of Medbourne, in the county of Leicester.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for defraying the expences of the said inclosure, by a rate or rates upon all the proprietors of the lands and grounds to be inclosed, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill.—Dated this twelfth day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal, to connect the Rochdale Canal and the River Irwell, in the township of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster;" and to enable the Company thereby incorporated to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said Undertaking.

Slater and Heelis, Solicitors.

Dronfield Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the several commons and waste grounds within the manor of Dronfield, in the parish of Dronfield, in the county of Derby; and that it is intended to make provision in the said Act for defraying the expences of the said inclosure by sale of a portion of the said commons and waste grounds; and in case the monies, to be raised by such sale, shall not be sufficient to defray the said expences, then by a rate on the proprietors or persons entitled to allotments of the said commons and waste grounds for such deficiency, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Act.—Dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1839.

John Charge, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to enable the London and Greenwich Railway Company, the London and Croydon Railway Company, the London and Brighton Railway Company, and the South Eastern Railway Company, or some or one of them, to widen and enlarge the present line and works of the London and Greenwich Railway, or to make a new line or lines of railway and works immediately adjoining thereto, within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, and Saint John Horselydown, in the borough of Southwark, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Rotherhithe, or some of them, in the county of Surrey, from or near the terminus of the said London and Greenwich Railway, in the said parish of Saint Olave, to or near the point where the said last-mentioned railway unites with the London and Croydon Railway, in the said parish of Saint Mary Rotherhithe; or otherwise to compel the London and Greenwich Railway Company to widen and enlarge the line of their railway and works, or to make a new line or lines of railway, and works adjoining thereto, within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them; or to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company, and the London and Brighton and South Eastern Railway Companies, or some or one of them, or a new company, or commissioners to be incorporated or appointed for the purpose, to widen and enlarge the said London and Greenwich Railway and works, or to make such new line or lines of railway and works within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, either at their own expence or at the expence of the said London and Greenwich Railway Company, under such terms and restrictions as to Parliament may seem meet; and to vest in the said companies or company, or commissioners, as the case may be, all powers now held or enjoyed by the London and Greenwich Railway Company with regard to the purchase or holding of lands, and to extend and enlarge such powers, and also to authorise or compel such exchanges of depôts, stations, and offices between the said London and Greenwich Railway Company and the said London and Croydon, London and Brighton, and South Eastern Railway Companies, or the company or commissioners to be incorporated or appointed by the said intended Act or Acts, as may appear to Parliament necessary or expedient for the safe and convenient conduct of the traffic appertaining to the said respective railways, and the prevention of danger to the public.

And it is further intended by the said Act or Acts, so to be applied for, to enable the said London and Greenwich Railway Company, and the said London and Croydon Railway Company, the said London and Brighton Railway Company, and the said South Eastern Railway Company, or the company or commissioners to be thereby incorporated or appointed, or some or one of them, to levy and raise rates and tolls upon or in respect of the use of the said proposed enlarged or new line or lines of railway, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, and to compel or enable the said respective company or companies, and commissioners, as the case may be, to enter into such arrangements or agreements between themselves as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the due construction, maintenance, and use of the said proposed enlarged or new line or lines of railway, and the necessary stations, works, and conveniences to be connected therewith.

And it is further intended, for the purposes aforesaid, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the said London and Greenwich Railway, or some of them, passed in the third and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the first and the second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, respectively; the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the London and Croydon Railway, passed in the fifth and the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the first and the second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, respectively; the London and Brighton Railway Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty; and the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the said South Eastern Railway, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the first and the second years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said proposed enlarged or new line or lines of railway and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office in Lambeth; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, and Saint John Horselydown, in the borough of Southwark, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Rotherhithe, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this first day of November 1839.

Liverpool, November 1, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session for an Act or Acts of Parliament to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, and repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, or some or one of them, that is to say, an Act made and passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the Warrington and Newton Railway at Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, to Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, to be called the Grand Junction Railway." Another Act made and passed in the fourth year of his said late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable the Grand Junction Railway Company to alter and extend the line of such Railway, and to make a branch therefrom to Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and for other purposes relating thereto." Another Act made and passed in the fifth year of His said late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable the Grand Junction Railway Company to alter the line of such Railway, and to make two branches therefrom in the county of Stafford, and for other purposes relating thereto." Another Act made and passed in the said fifth year of His said late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for incorporating the Warrington and Newton Railway with the Grand Junction Railway, and for extending to the said first-mentioned Railway the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said last mentioned Railway, and for other purposes relating thereto." Another Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the city of Chester to join the Grand Junction Railway, near Crewe Hall, in the county of Chester, to be called the Chester and Crewe Railway." And another Act made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Grand Junction Railway, and for other purposes connected therewith."

And further notice is hereby given, that it is intended to obtain, by the said Act or Acts, so to be applied for, powers to enable the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company to demise and lease, and to sell, and absolutely make over to the said Grand Junction Railway Company, the said Chester and Crewe Railway, and the works, matters and things connected therewith, and all the powers, rights, and property of, or possessed, or acquired, or which may be possessed or acquired, by the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company; and also to enable the said Grand Junction Railway Company to accept and take the said demise and lease, and to make the aforesaid purchase, and to hold exercise and enjoy the said powers, rights, and property accordingly, and to complete the said Chester and Crewe Railway and works, and for the purposes aforesaid; and also for the general purposes of their own undertaking, to create new and additional shares, and to raise further capital; and also to enable the said respective companies to do, perform and execute all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessary or advisable for carrying the aforesaid arrangements into full and complete effect; and also to consolidate and amalgamate the said Grand Junction Railway Company, and the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company, and their respective Railways, and the works and properties connected therewith, and to disincorporate and dissolve the said Chester and Crewe Railway Company; and also to extend the time by the said Chester and Crewe Railway Act, limited for the purchase and taking of lands for the purposes of that undertaking, and to vest in the said Grand Junction Railway Company new and extended powers for that purpose; and also to extend and make applicable to the said Chester and Crewe Railway, and the works, matters and things connected therewith, the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said Grand Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for the better paving, lighting and improving the city of Norwich, and the several parishes, hamlets, liberties, precincts and places within the county of the said city; and it is intended by the said Act, either partially or wholly, to repeal the existing Acts relating to the improvement of the city of Norwich, that is to say, an Act of the forty-sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, and otherwise improving the city of Norwich." And an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging an Act of His late Majesty for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, and otherwise improving the city of Norwich." And it is further intended by the Act so to be applied for, to appoint commissioners for carrying the same into execution, with powers for that purpose to borrow money and levy rates on the owners and occupiers of houses, lands, tenements and hereditaments within the said city and county, or certain parts thereof, and with powers also to purchase and take houses and lands for the purpose of widening and improving Brigg's-street, Theatre-street, and London-street, in the said city; and of opening a carriage-way through the back of the Inns from London-street aforesaid, to White Lion-street, in the same city, and for effecting other improvements within the limits of the said Act; and also to vest in the said commissioners the management of the several turnpike roads and highways situate within the said city and county.—Dated the sixth day of November 1839.

Chas. S. Gilman, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to widen, alter and improve certain streets or thoroughfares called Spurriergate, Coney-street, and Jubbergate, situate in the respective parishes of St. Michael Spurriergate, Saint Martin Coney Street, and St. Peter the Little, in the city of York; and that it is intended, for the purposes aforesaid, to obtain powers by the said Act to take and purchase such houses, buildings, land, and other hereditaments on the line and sides of the said streets or thoroughfares respectively, as may be deemed requisite or advisable. And notice is hereby given, that it is also intended, to obtain powers by the said Act to raise and apply by and out of the corporate funds and estates belonging to the said city, or by rates to be made and levied on the several owners and occupiers of houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said city, or by both or either of the same ways or means, such sum or sums of money as may be required for the purposes of the said Act. Dated the twenty-sixth day of October, 1839.

Robert Davies, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making turnpike, and for varying, widening, and improving a certain road or highway, commencing at or near the west end of Thrapston-bridge, in the parish of Islip, in the county of Northampton, passing from thence from, through, or into the several parishes of Islip, Aldwinckle, All Saints, Lowick, Sudborough, Brigstock, and Stanion, in the said county, and terminating in the said parish of Stanion, in the turnpike road leading from Kettering to Stamford.

And in which Bill provision is intended to be made for levying tolls upon the said intended turnpike road.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans shewing the line or course of such intended turnpike road, together with sections and books of reference thereto, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northampton, at Northampton, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to the several parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this first day of November 1839.

Jno. Archbould, Thrapston.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the streets, squares, roads, lanes, and other public places within the town of St. Ives and neighbourhood thereof, within the several parishes of Hemingford Grey and Fenstanton, in the county of Huntingdon; and for widening the present streets, and making and opening new streets, ways, and communications in, to, through, or near the same, and for making and maintaining drains and sewers therein, and altering and improving the existing drains; and for establishing, maintaining, and regulating a proper and effective police within the same; and for removing and preventing encroachments, nuisances, and obstructions therein.

And it is also intended to apply for power to purchase and to take and use lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the town and parishes aforesaid, for effecting the several purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to levy rates or duties on the occupiers or owners of houses, buildings, lands, and tenements within the town and limits aforesaid, for raising monies for paying the expences of obtaining the Act, and of carrying into execution and effecting all and every the several and respective purposes aforesaid.

Benjamin Aislabie Greene, } Solicitors.
John Lawrence, }

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open fields, commons, commonable lands, and waste grounds, in the parishes of Freethorpe, Limpenhoe, and Reedham, in the county of Norfolk; in which Bill provision will be made for defraying the expenses of the same inclosure, by a sale of land, or by a rate upon the proprietors, or by such other means as may be agreed upon.—Dated this thirtieth day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to continue the term, and to alter and amend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and maintaining the road from Banbury, in the county of Oxford, through Daventry and Cottesbach, to Lutterworth, in the county of Leicester;" or to repeal the said Act, and to grant further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to make and maintain a branch, or new line of road, from the said turnpike road, commencing at or near a certain place called Badby Bridge, to join the Stratford and Dunchurch turnpike road, at or near a certain place called Dodford Lane; which said branch or new line of road will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes of Badby and Newnham, in the county of Northampton; duplicate plans and sections of which said branch or new line of road, and books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northampton, at his office at Northampton, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans and sections, so far as the same relate to each of the parishes of Badby and Newnham, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said last-mentioned parishes, at their respective places of abode.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon, or in respect of the said branch or new line of road, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties authorized to be taken by the Act hereinbefore mentioned.—Dated this twenty-eighth day of October 1839.

E. S. Burton, Clerk to the Trustees,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for making a turnpike road, to commence in a certain field called Redland, belonging to, and now occupied by, John Tripp, near to a cottage and garden in the parish of Worle, in the county of Somerset, belonging to Mary Harris, and now in the occupation of John Puddy, and nearly opposite to the now dwelling-house and out-houses of the said John Tripp, at Woyle aforesaid; and to pass from thence over certain lands in the said parish of Worle, through lands in the parish of Kewstoke, in the said county; and from thence into, over, and along a certain roadway or lane, called Hayes Lane, and thence into a certain roadway in the said parish of Kewstoke, leading from Milton to Locking; and Weston-super-Mare, to terminate at or near to the said road so as aforesaid, leading from Milton to Locking, and the town or village of Weston-super-Mare, all in the county of Somerset. And it is further intended to apply for power in such Bill to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of such road.

And notice is hereby further given, that the several plans and sections, and books of reference thereto, required by the standing orders of Parliament, will be deposited, in pursuance of such standing orders, at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Somerset, situate at Taunton, in the said county of Somerset, on or before the thirtieth day of November next. And that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relate to each parish in or through which the said turnpike road is intended to be made as aforesaid, together with the books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerks of each of such parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, for the inspection of all parties concerned; and also that copies of the plans and sections, and books of reference of the said undertaking, will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the Commons House of Parliament, and in the office of the Clerk of Parliaments of the House of Lords; on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this twelfth day of October 1839.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Charles Henry Lowe, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Lace-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 29th day of November instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. W. and S. Parsons, jun. in Nottingham, in order to take into consideration and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees indemnifying Thomas Vyse, of the city of London, and William Vyse, of New York, in the United States of America, or either of them, from any costs, damages, or expences incurred, or to be incurred, by them, or either of them, in defending a certain action or suit between the creditors or assignees of H. E. Wilson, of New York aforesaid, and the said William Vyse, relating to a certain bill or bills of exchange, and to authorise the said Charles Henry Lowe's assignees to pay over any sum or sums of money to the said Thomas Vyse and William Vyse, or either of them, on account of the costs already or hereafter to be incurred by them in defending such action, or otherwise, or any other action or actions now or hereafter to be commenced by the said H. E. Wilson, or his assignees, or any other person or persons whomsoever, against the said Thomas Vyse and William Vyse, or either of them, or against the assignees of the said Charles Henry Lowe, or either of them, relating to such bill or bills of exchange, or any other account whatsoever; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt, in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 6th day of June 1800, awarded and issued forth against Richard Owen, of Fareham, in the county of Hants, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 26th day of November instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Mr. James Hoskins, Attorney at Law, on the Parade, Portsmouth, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee allowing and paying a certain per centage, then to be named, or such other per centage as shall be then fixed and agreed to, upon the amount of interest due and now payable to the said bankrupt's estate, and to his late partners, in respect of a debt admitted and allowed by the Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration, and Award, upon the Claims of British Subjects against the French Government, such per centage to be in lieu of all demands on the estate of the said bankrupt, in respect of costs and other expences incurred in prosecuting a certain suit instituted by or on behalf of the several admitted claimants, in order to obtain the payment of the said interest upon the amount of their respective debts so admitted and allowed.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Willis, of Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Carpet Warehouseman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 27th day of November instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any actions at law, or suits in equity, against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of certain debts due from them to the said Henry Willis before he became bankrupt, and which are alleged to have been assigned by the said Henry Willis, before he became bankrupt, by indenture, dated the 21st day of February 1835, to the person in such indenture named, in consideration of the sum of £615 17s. 6d. stated to be due and owing to him by the said Henry Willis, which said debts are now claimed as well by the executor of the person in such indenture mentioned as by the assignees of the said Henry Willis, as part of his estate and effects; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting with such executor the claim so made by him in respect of the said debts so alleged to be assigned as aforesaid, and to enter into such terms of compromise for that purpose, as the said assignees shall, in their discretion, think fit; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 2d day of November 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JOHN STEVENS, of No. 13, Dean-street, Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Carpenter and Joiner, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 5th day of November 1839, by WILLIAM HILL, of No. 1, Bridge-street, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Ironmonger, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
