Jno. and Jno. T. B. Tinley, Solicitors to the Company.

Maidstone and Biddenden Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for extending the term and altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from the Maidstone turnpike gate, on the Loose-road, near Sutton-lane, in the parish of Maidstone, to the King's Head Inn, in Sutton-Valence, in the county of Kent, and for making and repairing other roads therein mentioned, in the said county," or for repealing the said Act, and granting further and other powers in lieu thereof; and also for making and maintaining the several new lines, branches, or deviations of road following, that is to say, a new line or deviation of road to lead from and out of the turnpike road from Maidstone to Cranbrook, near the turnpike-gate or side-bar, called Shernold-gate, through land on the north-east side of the said road from Maidstone to Biddenden, and into the said road at the distance of about two hundred yards; a new line or deviation of road to lead from and out of the said road from Maidstone to Biddenden, at the top of Sutton-hill, in the town of Sutton-Valence, and to pass through lands on the west side of the said road, into the said road, at the distance of eighty rods, or thereabouts; and a new line or deviation road to lead from and out of the said road near a barn belonging to, and in the occupation of, Mrs. Mercer, and to pass through lands on the south and west sides of the said road, and into the said road at or near the new bridge, and being of the length of one hundred and sixty rods, or thereabouts; all which new lines or deviations of road, are to be made in, or pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Maidstone, Sutton-Valence, and Headcorn, in the said county of Kent; duplicate plans and sections whereof, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Kent: at his office, at Maidstone, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode: and in the said Bill an alteration of the existing tolls, authorised by the said Act to be taken on the said road, is intended to be proposed, with power to levy tolls upon or in respect of the said new lines, branches, or deviations of road so intended to be made as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill provision is intended to be made for altering and reducing the tolls authorised to be taken at the said gate or bar, at or near Shernold-gate, in the said parish of Maidstone, in the said county, under or by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of King George the Second, and two Acts of His present Majesty for amending the road from Maidstone, in the county of Kent, to Tubb's Lake, in the parish of Cranbrook, in the said county;" and for altering and amending the said last-mentioned Act so far as may be necessary for effecting that object.—Dated the twelfth day of October 1839.

By order,

H. A. Wildes, Clerk to the Trustees of the said Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing certain open and common fields, commons and waste grounds, in the parish of Wicken, in the county of Cambridge; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made for defraying the expences of the inclosure by means of a rate on the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed.—Dated this nineteenth day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for taking down the parish churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Peter, in the borough of Shaftesbury, in the county of Dorset; and for building one new church, in the parish of the Holy Trinity, in lieu of the two churches to be so taken down; and for uniting the two parishes of the Holy Trinity and Saint Peter for all ecclesiastical purposes.

And in the said Bill provision is intended to be made for the repair and maintenance of the said proposed new church, and for levying rates, and for altering the existing rates payable in respect of the said churches respectively.—Dated this tenth day of October 1839:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making turnpike certain roads, with proper deviations, works, and conveniences, and new pieces of road connected therewith and approaches thereto, commencing by a junction with the turnpike road leading from Spath to Hanging-bridge, both in the county of Stafford, in or near the village of Rocester, in the parish of Rocester, in the county of Stafford, to the western extremity of a new bridge now erecting over the river Dove, in or near the village of Rocester aforesaid, which said line of road is wholly situate in the said parish of Rocester; and also to make turnpike and complete the line of road which commences at the eastern extremity of the said new bridge, and terminating by a junction with the turnpike road leading from Derby to Ashbourne otherwise Ashborn, in the county of Derby, at a point between the village of Mackworth, in the said county of Derby, and Bow-bridge, in the same county, near to the village of Mackworth aforesaid, at a point where a public road or highway there, leading from Longford to Mackworth, joins the said turnpike road leading from Derby to Ashbourne otherwise Ashborn aforesaid; and also to make and maintain turnpike a certain branch road from and out of the said intended turnpike road, with all proper works, deviations, and conveniences, and new pieces of road connected therewith, commencing in the parish of Marston Montgomery, in the county of Derby, near to a certain dwelling-house there in the occupation of Stephen Watson, and belonging to Benjamin Frear, Esq. at a point where the said intended new road crosses the present public road or highway leading from Marston Montgomery aforesaid said to Roston, in the county of Derby, and terminating by a junction with the turnpike road leading from Ashbourne otherwise Ashborn, in the county of Derby, to Sudbury, in the same county, near to a place, in the parish of Sudbury aforesaid, called Oaks-green; and also for making and maintaining turnpike a branch road from and out of the said intended new turnpike road, with all proper deviations, works, and conveniences, and new piece of road connected therewith, commencing in the said parish of Marston Montgomery, near to the said dwelling-house there, now or late in the occupation of Stephen Watson, and belonging to Benjamin Frear, Esq. at a point where the said first-mentioned intended turnpike road crosses the present public road or highway leading from Marston Montgomery aforesaid, and terminating in the parish of Norbury, in the county of Derby, by a junction there, with the turnpike road leading from Darley-moor, in the county of Derby, to Ellaston, in the county of Stafford, near to a certain bridge over the river Dove, called Ellaston-bridge; which said turnpike road, or turnpike roads and branches, or some or one of them, is or are intended to be made in, and to pass through or into, the several parishes, townships, extra parochial, and other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Rocester, in the county of Stafford; Marston Montgomery, Cubley, Hungry Bentley, Alkmanton otherwise Aulkmonton, Longford, Upper Thurvaston, Lower Thurvaston, Trusley, Sutton on the Hill, Dalbury Lees, Dalbury, Kirk Langley, Mackworth, Doveridge, Sommershall, Sommershall Herbert, Hill Sommershall, Oaks-green, Sudbury, Roston, Norbury, and Snelston, in the county of Derby.

And notice is hereby also given, that powers will be taken in the said intended Act to deviate from the said intended line or lines of turnpike road, respectively, to an extent not exceeding, in any case, one hundred yards on either side thereof, as the same will be defined on the plan or plans herein-after mentioned, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said intended road or roads, and the works and conveniences connected therewith.

And that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended new road or roads, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Stafford and Derby respectively; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relate to each of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next; and copies of the said plans and sections of the said intended new turnpike road or roads hereinbefore respectively mentioned, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited in the Parliament-office, and also in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this fourteenth day of October 1839.

William Arnold, Solicitor,

Great Level of the Wash.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to introduce a Bill or Bills, for reclaiming from the sea, and draining, inclosing, and improving certain tracts of land within the great Estuary, called the Wash, beginning at the outlet of the creek called Burnham Deepdale Creek, in the parish of Burnham Deepdale, in the county of Norfolk, and extending thence, in a westerly direction, across the said Estuary, to a place called Gibraltar Point, in or near the parish of Croft, in the county of Lincoln, thence in a south-west direction along the coast of Lincolnshire, by the sides or within the precincts or boundaries of the several parishes or places of Croft, Wainfleet, Friskney, Wrangle, Leake, Leyerton, Bennington, Butterwick, Freeston, Fishtoft, Skirbeck and Boston, in the said county of Lincoln, to the town of Boston, in the said county of Lincoln; and thence crossing the river Witham, and proceeding in south-east and south directions, by the side of the parishes or places of Wyberton, Frampton, Kirton, Sandholme, Skeldyke, Bucklegate, Algerkirk, and Fosdyke, in the said county of Lincoln, to Fosdyke Bridge, in the same county; thence crossing the river Welland, and in north-east, east and south-east directions, by the side of the parishes or places of Fosdyke aforesaid, and Holbeach, Fleet, Gedney, Lutton, and Sutton Saint Mary's, in the said county of Lincoln, to a place called Skate's Corner, in the said parish of Sutton Saint Mary's; thence crossing the river Nene, in an east direction, and along the northern boundary of the sands or land belonging to the Commissioners under the Nene Outfall Improvement Act; and thence in east and south-east directions, along the coast of Norfolk, by the sides, or within the precincts or boundaries of the several parishes or places of Terrington Saint Clement's, Clenchwarton, and North Lynn Saint Edmund's, in the said county of Norfolk, to the town of West Lynn, in the said county of Norfolk; thence crossing the river Ouze, in an east direction, to a certain Fleet called Fisher Fleet, in the borough of King's Lynn, in the said county of Norfolk; thence in a north direction, along, or by the sides or within the precincts or boundaries of the several parishes or places of Gaywood, South Wootton, North Wootton, Castle Rising, Babingley, Woolverton, Dersingham, Ingoldeshorpe, Snettisham, Heacham, Ringstead, Hunstanton, Holme next the Sea, Thornham, Titchwell and Brancaster, in the said county of Norfolk, and Burnham Deepdale aforesaid, where the said boundary begins as hereinbefore mentioned.

And in the said Bill or Bills, provision is intended to be made, to restrain the promoters of such Bill or Bills from doing any act which may prejudice or endanger the navigation of the rivers Ouze, Nene, Welland, and Witham, or any other river or rivers which now discharge their waters into the said Estuary called the Wash, or to prejudice the drainage of the lands which now drain into the said rivers respectively, or to impose any toll or tax thereon.

And also a provision to restrain the said promoters from interfering with any vested rights of, or belonging to, owners of lands bordering on the said Estuary, or the shores thereof, without compensation.

And also a provision for incorporating and establishing a Company of Proprietors to carry the said undertaking into execution, in whom shall be vested the said tracts or parcels of land and grounds, or certain parts thereof, and the management and drainage thereof, with all usual and necessary provisions for giving effect to the same.—Dated this first day of November 1839.

Frederic Lane, Solicitor to the Company of Proprietors.

Warminster Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for extending the term, and altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the more effectually repairing the roads in, and leading through, and from the town of Warminster, in the county of Wilts;" or for repealing the said Act, and granting further and other powers in lieu thereof; and also for making and maintaining the several new lines of road following (that is to say), a new road to branch from the present turnpike road, at the junction of the Old Bruton turnpike road, with the Heytesbury road, to diverge south-westwardly, until it joins the present turnpike road at the west end of the town of Heytesbury; also another new road to branch from the present turnpike road, at Sambourn Hill, on the north side of the Union Workhouse, through certain pastures called the Old Workhouse Grounds, until it enters the present turnpike road in Pound street, in the town of Warminster; which new lines of road are to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, extra-parochial, or other places of Norton Bavant, Heytesbury, and Warminster, in the county of Wilts; and also for making turnpike, and repairing the following highways, or public carriage roads (that is to say), the present road leading from Rehobath, through Warminster Common, to the cross roads at Henfords Marsh; also for making turnpike the present highway from the Market-place of Warminster to Saubourn, where it joins the present turnpike road to Deverill; which highways or public carriage roads so intended to be made turnpike as aforesaid, are situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places of Warminster and Bishopstrow, in the said county of Wilts.

And in which said Bill an increase or alteration of the existing tolls, authorised by the said Act to be collected, is intended to be proposed, with power to levy tolls upon, or in respect of, the said new lines of road so proposed to be made, and upon the said highways so proposed to be made turnpike as aforesaid.

Duplicate plans and sections of which several new lines of road, and of the said highways so proposed to be made turnpike, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Wilts, at his office at Wilton, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode.—Dated this twenty-eighth day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act, for making and maintaining a wet dock or docks, with all proper and necessary depots, basins, sluices, drains, channels, reservoirs, feeders, locks, inlets, outlets, embankments, wharfs, piers, jetties, quays, vaults, warehouses, bridges, inclined and other planes, railways, engines, cranes, paths, roads, approaches, avenues, buildings, and other works, to be situated, lying, and being on the south side of the river Thames, bounded on the north by the said river Thames, on the north east by the Deptford Creek, on the east by the river Ravensbourne, south by the Greenwich railway and the south side of Union-street, and west on the following streets or places, or portions thereof, namely, the west side of Church-street, the west side of High-street from the corner of Union-street, the west side of New King-street from Broomfields, to the Royal Dock Yard gate, and Her Majesty's Dock Yard, situate in the several parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent, both or either of them, for the purposes of the reception, departure, loading and unloading of steam-ships or vessels, and other vessels, and craft, and the embarking and landing of passengers, goods, and merchandizes therefrom and thereat; and for the reception, warehousing, stowing, and housing of goods and merchandizes therein, with two or more entrances and communications with the river Thames, in the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul, Deptford, both or either of them; and also for lighting the said dock or docks, and the entrances thereof, and other works and premises, with gas, or otherwise; and for constructing, building, and maintaining one or more swivel or other bridges across a certain public road, highway, street, or way, called or known as the Deptford Creek Bridge-road; and, for the purposes of feeding, cleansing, and scouring the said dock or docks, basins, reservoirs, and channels, and other works, to make, construct, and maintain all proper and necessary sluices, reservoirs, or other works, for the letting, using, and taking in of the water from the river Ravensbourne.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill, to enlarge, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a pier and other works at Deptford, in the county of Kent."

And also an Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the powers and provisions of an Act of the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, for making and maintaining a pier and other works at Deptford, in the county of Kent."

And also an Act, passed in the sixth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from the London and Greenwich Railway to the Deptford Pier, to be called the Deptford Pier Junction Railway."

And also an Act to alter and amend the powers and provisions of an Act, for making a Railway from the London and Greenwich railway, to be called "the Deptford Pier Junction Railway;" and to enable the said companies to treat for, sell, and convey their respective rights, properties, and interest, both or either of them; and for powers in, and by the said intended Bill, to purchase, hold, and take the same, both or either of them; or to consolidate or incorporate the said two companies together, or both or either of them, with the said intended Bill; and in that case to alter, enlarge, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts, any or either of them.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, to take power to levy, collect, and take certain tolls, rates, and duties, for the purposes of the said Act; and to alter the tolls, rates, or duties now authorized to be taken by the before-mentioned Acts, any or either of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said dock or docks, and other works, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken, for the purposes thereof, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone, in the said county of Kent; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, in the office of the Clerk of the Parliament, in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul, Deptford, will also be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the said thirty-first day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated the second day of November 1839.

G. P. F. Gregory, 28, Poultry, London,
Agent and Solicitor for the said Bill:

NOTICE is hereby given, that a renewed application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, with proper warehouses, wharfs, landing places, tunnels, bridges, works, and other conveniences adjoining thereto, or connected therewith, for the passage of waggons, carts and other carriages, properly constructed and adapted for the conveyance of persons, horses, cattle, goats, goods, wares and merchandize.

commencing at the termination of the railway from the town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne to North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, in the township of Chirton, in the parish of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, and immediately adjoining a street called Little Bedford-street, in the township of Tynemouth, in the said parish of Tynemouth, and extending to, or passing through or into the township of Tynemouth aforesaid, in the said parish of Tynemouth and county of Northumberland, and terminating at or near to the west end of a certain haven called Prior's Haven, in the township and parish of Tynemouth aforesaid, in which said Act provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs or landing places, works and other conveniences; and also to obtain power to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act; all which said powers are intended to be carried into effect by a company (already incorporated by an Act of Parliament), called "The Newcastle upon Tyne and North Shields Railway Company;" and the money raised by the creation of new shares in the said company, or by some other mode to be authorised and provided for in and by such intended Act. A duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, on or before the first day of March 1837; and a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were again deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Northumberland, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1837; and, on or before the first day of April 1837, a duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Tynemouth, in the said county of Northumberland, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were again deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Tynemouth, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the thirty-first day of December 1837. Duplicate plans and sections of the line of railway, and books of reference thereto, were again deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Northumberland, situate in the town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1838; and a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, were again deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Tynemouth, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the said thirtieth day of November 1838. And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the line of such railway, and books of reference thereto, will be again deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Northumberland, situate in the town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, will be again deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Tynemouth, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the thirtieth day of November next.

Power will also be obtained to deviate from the line of the said railway to the extent of ten yards on either side of the said railway, or to such other extent as Parliament shall allow.—Dated this sixteenth day of October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, or to introduce into any Bill which may be brought into Parliament in that session, at the instance of the Hull Dock Company, clauses to repeal so much of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and also for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works."

And of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs; and, for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port; and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty; and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port for those purposes; and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull; and also for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works.'"

And of another Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull," as directs, authorizes, or imposes any tolls, rates, or duties to be paid to the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull, by, or on account of, or for any ships or vessels entering or leaving the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for the purposes of trade; but not entering or making use of any of the docks, basins, or quays belonging to the said Dock Company. And also to appoint Commissioners, for maintaining, preserving, regulating, cleansing, widening, deepening, and improving the navigation of the river Hull, and of the estuary or branch of the sea, called the Humber, on each side of the entrance to the said river Hull, extending as far westward as the eastern boundary of the pre-misses belonging to the said Dock Company; and as far eastward as the eastern boundary of the land belonging to Her Majesty, and now occupied by the Honourable the Board of Ordnance as a citadel, and other military works; and as far southward as the mid stream of the Humber; and to grant to the said Commissioners the power to levy tolls, rates, or duties, in the nature of dock dues, upon all ships or vessels loading or unloading any part of their cargoes in any part of the river Hull, or on the shores of the Humber, within the above-named limits, to be applied to the preserving, cleansing, widening, deepening, and improving the navigation of the said river Hull, and of the said estuary or branch of the sea called the Humber, within the above-named limits; and to confer upon the said Commissioners all such rights, powers, and privileges, as may be necessary for effectually maintaining, preserving, regulating, cleansing, widening, deepening, and improving the navigation of the said river Hull, and of the said estuary or branch of the sea called the Humber, within the above-named limits.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed new works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley: and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office at Kingston-upon-Hull, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the parishes of Drypool and Holy Trinity, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this sixth day of November 1839.

Vizard and Leman, Solicitors, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a turnpike road or roads, partly by diverting, widening, altering, and making turnpike certain existing highways, and partly by making a new road or roads, together with all necessary bridges, fences, and other conveniences to be connected therewith, to commence at or near a certain place called the King's Arms Inn, in the parish of Piddletown, in the county of Dorset, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, tithings, towns, and villages of Piddletown, Athelhampston otherwise Admiston, Burleston, Tollpiddle otherwise Tollpiddle, Affpiddle otherwise Affpiddle, Bere Regis, Turnerpiddle otherwise Turnerspiddle otherwise Tonerspiddle, Winterborne Kingston, Bloxworth, Anderson, Tompson otherwise Winterborne Tompson, Winterborne Zelston, Morden, Charborough, Mapperton, Almer, Sturminster Marshall, Shapwick, Wimborne Minster, Great Canford, Corfe Mullen, and Lytchett Matravers, or some of them, in the said county, and terminating by a junction with a certain street in the town and parish of Wimborne Minster, called the 'Straight Boro', at or near a certain house in the occupation of Mrs. Charlotte Miles, or otherwise terminating by a junction with a certain street called West-street, in the said parish of Wimborne Minster, at or near a certain house in the occupation of John Chant, or by a junction with a certain street called King's street, in the said last mentioned town and parish, at or near a certain house in the occupation of James Lawrence; and also to make and maintain a branch turnpike road, to commence at or near a field in the said parish of Almer, belonging to and in the occupation of John Samuel Wanley Sawbridge Erle Drax, Esq. passing in or through the said parishes of Almer and Morden, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Wareham and Blandford turnpike road; at or near a certain place called the World's End Turnpike-gate, in the said parish of Morden; and also to make and maintain another branch turnpike road, to commence at or near the western fence of a certain place called Newton Marsh, in the said parish of Sturminster Marshall, passing thence in or through the said last mentioned parish, and thence along an ancient highway called Creeper's-lane, in the said parishes of Sturminster Marshall and of Lytchett Matravers, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Blandford and Poole Turnpike-road at or near a certain place called Bailey-corner, in the said parishes of Sturminster Marshall and Lytchett Matravers, or one of them; and also to make and maintain another turnpike-road, to commence at or near to a certain gate over the road leading to the Manor House Farm, in the occupation of Mr. William Bound, in the parish of Corte Mullen, in the said county of Dorset, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes of Corte Mullen, Great Canford, and Wimborne Minster, or some of them, in the said county of Dorset, and terminating at a certain place called Eye-corner, in the town of Wimborne Minster aforesaid, at or near to a house in the occupation of Richard Carter. And it is intended to apply for powers, in and by the said Act, to enable the trustees acting under the provisions of an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for effectually repairing and improving several roads leading from the Market Cross in the town of Wareham, and in Parbeck in the county of Dorset," to abandon and surrender to the trustees to be appointed under the said Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, so much of the present Blandford and Wareham Turnpike-road, made under the provisions of the said recited Act as lies within the several parishes, townships, hamlets, tithings, towns, and villages of Morden, Almer, Maperton, Winterborne Zelston, Winterborne Tompson, Sturminster Marshall, and of Spettisbury, or some of them, in the said county of Dorset, between a certain place called the World's End Gate, in the said parish of Morden, in the said county of Dorset, and the place where the said road joins the Blandford and Poole Turnpike-road, in the parish of Spettisbury, in the same county; and to alter or repeal so much of the said recited Act as relates to the said portion of road; and also for powers to stop up and discontinue so much of the said last mentioned turnpike road, situate within the parishes of Morden and Sturminster Marshall, in the said county of Dorset, or one of them, as lies between the said point called the World's End Gate, in the parish of Morden, and a place called Almer Pond, in the parish of Sturminster Marshall aforesaid, and to sell the same and also to shut up, discontinue, and sell such highways, or portions thereof, as shall, by reason of the said intended Act, become useless and unnecessary; and also for power to widen a certain bridge called White Mill Bridge, in the said parishes of Shapwick and Sturminster Marshall, and a certain bridge called Julian Bridge, in the parishes of Wimborne Minster and Great Canford, and the approaches thereto; and also to take down and rebuild or widen and improve all or any of the bridges at present erected on the line of the said intended turnpike road or roads, and branches respectively: and it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls and rates upon and in respect of the use of the said intended turnpike road or roads, and branches, or any part thereof respectively.

And further notice is hereby given, that plans and sections describing the line or lines and levels of the said intended turnpike road or roads and branches, respectively, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Dorset, at his office, in Sherborne, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to the several parishes through which the proposed turnpike road or roads, and branches, respectively, are intended to pass, will be deposited with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively, on or before the 31st day of December next.—Dated this 5th day of November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually making and repairing the roads between Newton Abbott and Brixham, Kingswear and Dartmouth, Shaldon and Torquay, and also between Torquay and Saint Mary Church, and the bridge to be built over the river Teign at Shaldon, and for making and repairing several other roads communicating therewith, all in the county of Devon;" which said several roads pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Woolborough, Abbotskerswell, Coombeinteignhead, Stokeignteignhead, Haccombe, Saint Nicholas, Coffinswell, Kingskerswell, Saint Mary Church, Tormoham, Cockington, Paignton, Churston, Ferrers, Brixham, and Kingswear, in the county of Devon, or some of them; and that it is intended by the said Bill to take powers for making the several new lines or branches of road hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say) a new line or branch of road to commence at or near the Green in Torquay, and passing by or near to the Sea Waldon-hill and Tor Abbey Sands, to terminate at or near Livermead, in the present turnpike road leading from Torquay to Paignton, in the said parishes of Tormoham and Cockington; another new line or branch of road to commence at or near the house of John Lear, in the village of Saint Mary Church, and passing by or near to Peritoe-common, to terminate at or near Whatcombe, in the present turnpike road leading from Torquay to Shaldon, in the said parish of Saint Mary Church; and another new line or branch of road to commence at or near the Gerstons, in the present turnpike road near the town of Paignton, and passing over or along the highway leading to Paignton-pier, a certain field called Path park, and the highway between the town of Paignton and Goodrington Sands, to terminate at a certain field called Brimbill, in the said parish of Paignton; and that it is also intended by the said Bill to make turnpike the said highways lying on the said last-mentioned intended new line or branch of road in the said parish of Paignton; and that it is also intended by the said Bill to take powers to widen and improve the present turnpike road near the turnpike gate at Torquay; by taking down and removing the turnpike house, and part of certain buildings in the occupation of William Prowse, in the said parish of Tormoham, and to widen and improve the present turnpike road near the Shoot, in the town of Upper Brixham, by taking down and removing certain houses and buildings in the occupation of John Treby and Samuel Goodman, in the said parish of Brixham.

In which said Bill provision is intended to be made for levying tolls on the said roads, and also for altering the existing tolls authorised to be taken in and by the said recited Act.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, a map or plan and section of the said intended new lines or branches of road and improvements, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands through which the same are intended to be made, and a copy of so much of the Standing Orders of the House of Lords in this case made and provided, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Devon, at his office at the Castle of Exeter; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan and section as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the Standing Orders of the House of Lords in this case made and provided, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan and section, and of the book of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons. Dated this first day of November 1839.

Margate Improvement Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, explain, and amend so much of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts relative to the paving, lighting, watching, and improving the town of Margate, in the parish of Saint John the Baptist, in the county of Kent; for erecting certain defences against the sea for the protection of the said town; and for making further improvements in and about the said town and parish," as refers to the qualification and appointment of the commissioners acting in execution of the said Act, and for enabling the inhabitants, charged to the paving and lighting rates, to fill up the vacancies which have arisen amongst the said commissioners since the passing of the said Act, for regulating their future election in annual rotation; and for other purposes mentioned in the said Bill.—Dated this fifth day of November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, for the purpose of amending, altering, and extending, and of more effectually carrying into execution the powers and provisions of the Acts hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from London to Norwich and Yarmouth, by Romford, Chelmsford, Colchester, and Ipswich, to be called the Eastern Counties Railway;" and a certain other Act, passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the Eastern Counties Railway;" by the first of which said Acts certain persons, therein mentioned, were united into a Company, for the purpose of making the said railway, by the name and style of "The Eastern Counties Railway Company."

And that it is more particularly intended by the said Bill or Bills, to repeal so much of the two before recited Acts as relates to the appointment, election, and succession of the directors of the said Eastern Counties Railway Company, and to substitute certain other provisions in lieu thereof; and also to provide for appropriating to the execution of the portion of the said railway, extending from Colchester, in the county of Essex, to Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, as much of the total sum or sums which have been heretofore, or may hereafter, be raised under the powers and provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, for the purposes of the whole line of the said railway as may be found or deemed to correspond with the estimated expense of the said portion of the said railway at and from Colchester to Yarmouth as aforesaid.

And also to take power to raise a certain additional sum or sums for the purposes of the said railway, by the creation of new shares, or by way of loan, debenture, or otherwise, or by all or any of such means.—Dated this sixth day of November 1839.

White and Borrett, 35, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a pier or landing place, or piers or landing places, with good and efficient roads and approaches thereto, and all requisite buildings, works, and conveniences connected therewith, at or near Portishead Bay, in the several parishes of Portishead otherwise Possett, and Portbury, or one of them, in the county of Somerset, and in the city and county of Bristol, or one of them; one of such roads and approaches to lead from the said piers or landing places, into the present highway, communicating with Bristol, at or near the church in the parish of Saint George otherwise Saint George's otherwise Easton, in Gordano, in the said county of Somerset; and to pass from, in, through, or into the said parishes of Portishead otherwise Possett, Portbury, and Saint George otherwise Saint George's otherwise Easton, in Gordano aforesaid, or some of them, in the said county of Somerset.

And it is intended to apply for power by the said Act to levy tolls, rates, and duties, in and for the use of the said piers, landing places, roads, and works, and to purchase and take lands for the purposes thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans, and sections, describing the line and levels of, and the lands to be taken for the purposes of, the said works, together with books of reference to the said plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Somerset, at his office in Taunton; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said city and county of Bristol, at his office in Bristol, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November; and also, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, copies of so much of the said maps or plans, and sections, as relates to each of the said parishes, in or through which the said works are intended to be made or maintained, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each of such parishes, at their respective residences.—Dated this second day of November 1839.

William Lewis, Solicitor to the Bill.

Bridgend, fifteenth October 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, to authorise and empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to form and make a new street from or near to the east end of Piccadilly, in, or nearly in, a direct line therewith eastwards to the west end of Long-acre; which street is intended to run in, or nearly in, a line with and along Coventry-street, across the north ends of Coventry-court and Oxenden-street, into Princes-street, and then across Princes-street into the north western corner of Leicester-square, then along the north side of the said square to the north eastern angle thereof, and from thence in a direct line over the ground now occupied by Cranbourne-street, across Castle-street, and thence south of Newport-street to the junction of Long-acre with Saint Martin's-lane.

Also to divert, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets, courts, alleys, and ways, as will form entrances into the said intended new street; which said new street is proposed to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint James Westminster, Saint Martin in the Fields, and Saint Ann Soho, in the county of Middlesex.

And also to form and make a new street from the north side of Long-acre, opposite Bow-street, in, or nearly in, a north west direction to Charlotte-street, Bloomsbury; which street is intended to run in, or nearly in, a line with and along Hanover-street, across Castle-street, at or near its junction with Hanover-street, into Belton-street, then in, or nearly in, a line with and along Belton-street, crossing the western end of Brownlow-street into Shortsgardens, and from thence continuing in, or nearly in, a line with and along Belton-street and Mountain-yard, across Vinegar-yard, Bowl-yard, Salutation-court, and Lascelles-court, into Broad-street Saint Giles', at or near Middle-row, then crossing Middle-row and Broad-street into George-street and Plumtree-street, and continuing in, or nearly in, a line with and along George-street and Plumtree-street, across the ends of Thorney-street and Phoenix-street, into Charlotte-street Bloomsbury; at or near to Bedford Chapel.

Also, to widen and improve the north east corner of King-street Seven-dials, and also to divert, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets, courts, alleys, and ways, as will form entrances into the said last before-mentioned intended new street; which said new street is proposed to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields, Saint Giles' in the Fields, and Saint George's Bloomsbury, in the said county of Middlesex.

And also to form and make a new street from the east end of Oxford-street, in, or nearly in, a direct line therewith eastwards into Holborn, at or near to the south end of Southampton-street Bloomsbury-square; which street is intended to run across the south ends of Boziers-court and Tottenham-court-road, the north end of Crown-street, and the north-west end of High-street Saint Giles', passing through Bainbridge-street, and crossing Maynard-street, Church-street, Jones-court, Richard's-court, Carrier-street Buckbridge-court, Buckbridge-street, Ivy-street, George-street, Charlotte-street Bloomsbury, Charlotte-mews, Duke-street, Castle-street, Museum-street, Hyde-street, Dunns-alley, Lyon street, Bloomsbury-market, Bloomsbury-court, and King's Arms-yard, into Holborn.

Also to divert, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets, courts, alleys, and ways as will form entrances into the said last before-mentioned new street; which said new street is proposed to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Ann Soho, Saint Marylebone, Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George's Bloomsbury, in the said county of Middlesex.

And also to form and make a new street from or near to the London Docks, into Leman-street, and from thence in a north west direction, nearly in a direct line with Leman-street to the west front of Spitalfields Church; which street is intended to commence at the east end of Upper East Smithfield and west end of Parsons-street, and to run from thence in, or nearly in, a line with and along Wells-street, across the west end of Graces-alley into Cable-street, then across Cable-street, and from thence into and through Mill-yard and White Lion-street, and passing under the London and Blackwall Railway into Leman-street, nearly opposite to Chamber-street, and then running along Leman-street to the north end thereof, and then running in a line with and along Red Lion-street, crossing the ends of Great and Little Alie-street, Duncan-street, Buckle-street, Nelson-street, and Colchester-street, into Whitechapel; then across Whitechapel into Essex-street, and then running in, or nearly in, a line with and along Essex-street, crossing the ends of Sugar Loaf-court, Catherine Wheel-court, Rose and Crown-court, Martin-street, Moors-court, Cobleys-court, Essex-court, Gregs-alley, Elger-square, Elger's-place, and Dark-alley, into Wentworth-street, then across Wentworth-street, Magpie-court, Factory-court, Rose-lane, the west end of Flower and Dean-street, the north end of Shepherd-street, the east end of Butler-street, the east end of White's-row, the west end of Fashion-street, and then in, or nearly in, a line with and along Red Lion-street, crossing the east ends of Dorset-street, Ireland-court, and Union-street East, and the west end of Church-street, to or near to the west front of Spitalfields Church.

Also to divert, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets, courts, alleys, and ways, as will form entrances into the said last before-mentioned intended new street; which said new street is proposed to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint George in the East, Saint Mary Whitechapel, and Christ Church Spitalfields, in the said county of Middlesex.

And in the said Bill powers will be contained for taking, purchasing, and making use of all such houses, buildings, lands, and hereditaments as may be necessary for carrying the several purposes aforesaid into execution.—Dated this twenty-eighth day of October 1839.

By order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, Pemberton, Crawley, and Gardiner, 20, Whitehall-place, Westminster.

DELIA HARBUT, Widow of William Harbut, deceased,

IF the Next of Kin of Delia Harbut, late of Bourn, in the county of Lincoln, Widow (who died on the 12th day of June 1838), will apply at the office of Messrs. Hopkinson and French, Solicitors, Stamford, Lincolnshire, they may hear of something to their advantage.

ANN HALE, Widow, deceased.

THE Next of Kin (if any) of the late Mrs. Ann Hale, Widow, who formerly resided at Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, but for several years last past, resided at Paris, and who died there on or about the 15th day of July last, are requested to apply to Messrs. Whiteside and Smith, Solicitors, 63, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London.

The Reverend GEORGE CLULOW, deceased.

THE creditors (if any) of the Reverend George Clulow, late of Saint Buryan, near Penzance, in the county of Cornwall, and formerly of Eichlingham, in the county of Sussex, deceased, are requested to send an account of their respective demands to Mr. Charles A. Dodd, No. 5, Billiter-street, London, the Executor, in order that the same may be immediately discharged.

WHEREAS by indenture of lease, bearing date on or about the 20th day of March 1711, John Lyons demised to Benjamin Bennett all that and those two small tenements and gardens, situate, lying, and being in the manor of Saint John's, in the town of Athy, and county of Kildare, containing in front to the street, thirty-eight feet, being formerly part of John Wilcock's holding for three lives, with a covenant for the perpetual renewal of the same, subject to the yearly rent of £3 10. and a renewal fine of £1 18s. on the fall of each life:—and whereas the term of said lease was last renewed on or about the 19th day of October, in the year 1752;—and whereas all the right, title, and interest of the said John Lyons is now vested in his Grace Augustus Frederick Duke of Leinster:—and whereas the lives named in the last renewal of said premises are long since dead, and no renewal has been obtained thereof, and there is now a large sum of money due for renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest on said premises:—and whereas the said Duke of Leinster has not been able to discover the assignee or owner of the interest of the said Benjamin Bennett in the said demised premises, and has, under the provisions of the 19th and 20th George Third, chap. 30. made, or caused to be made on the 11th day of June last, a demand of the said fines and interest upon James Wright, of Athy, upon the said tenements and premises, he being then the principal occupier of the same. Now I, as the lawfully authorised agent of the said Duke of Leinster, and on his behalf, do hereby, in pursuance of the provisions of the said statute, give notice to all such persons as it may concern, that unless the person or persons entitled to the interest in the said premises, under the said lease, shall come forward and renew the interest therein, and pay the said fines and interest within a reasonable time after the making of the said demand, they and every of them will forfeit all right and benefit of renewal under the said lease, and the covenant for perpetual renewal contained therein.

JOHN HAMILTON, 13, Dominick-street, Dublin.

VALUABLE INVESTMENT.

TO be sold by auction, on Wednesday the 27th day of November instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Clarendon-rooms, South John-street, Liverpool, subject to the conditions of sale then to be produced;

All those works known by the name of the Great Wheel Prosper Tin Mining and China Clay Works, situated in the approved tin and china clay district between Saint Austell and Roche, in the county of Cornwall, together with the right of digging, delving, searching for, and getting, tin and tin ore, china clay, and all other ores, metals, and minerals, extending over between six and seven hundred acres, in the neighbourhood of the well known profitable mine called Beam, and several others.

The china clay works and grounds are held under leases from Lord Falmouth and Francis Polkinghorne, Esq. at small reserved rents and moderate dues; the one from Lord Falmouth for seventeen years, from the 25th March 1833; and the other from Mr. Polkinghorne for twenty-one years, from the 24th June 1833.

The leases of the mineral property are for twenty-one years, from the 16th November 1835, and the 6th August 1836, respectively; and the dues are moderate.

The china clay works are in full operation, and are capable of raising and making almost any quantity of clay, 1500 tons have been produced this season with very little exertion.

A considerable sum has been expended in the necessary erections and formation of pits, sheds, linways, levels, &c., and there is a good stone-house on the premises, with all necessary erections for carrying on the works.

The mines are within a short distance of Bodmin.

For further particulars apply to Mr. William Cock, jun. the Captain on the mine; Mr. Whinnerah, Accountant, Lord-street, or Messrs. Miller and Peel, Solicitors, Harrington-street, Liverpool; and at which places a map may be seen.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, intituled Dowse versus King, and Jones versus May, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in the month of December 1839;

A freehold brick dwelling-house, together with a greenhouse, stable, cow-house, and other convenient out-buildings; and also a cottaze tenement adjacent to the said dwelling-house, and six acres of freehold land thereto adjoining and belonging, all situate at Noah-hill, in the parish of Romford, in the county of Essex, in the occupation of Mr. Cocke, as yearly tenant, at the annual rent of £36.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Martineau, Malton and Trollope, Solicitors, No. 60, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields; of Mr. May, Solicitor, No. 2, Prince's-street, Spitalfields; of Mr. Curling, Solicitor, Fenning's Wharf, London bridge; of Mr. Murray, Solicitor, London-street, Fenchurch-street; of Mr. Dean, Auctioneer, No. 6, Surinam-terrace, Stratford; and at the White Hart Inn, Romford, Essex.

The premises may be viewed upon application to the tenant, Mr. Cocke.

WHEREAS by a Decretal Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Brown versus Eastley, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who are the persons in whom the estates in a certain indenture, dated the 3d day of May 1733, in the pleadings in the said cause set forth, mentioned to have been purchased by and conveyed to Mark Row, Thomas Rowe, William Ball, and Stephen Hayward, therein named, and the residue of the lands of George Cheeke the elder, therein also named, or any of them, are now vested; and whereas the estates in the said indenture mentioned to have been purchased by and conveyed to the said Mark Row, Thomas Rowe, William Ball, and Stephen Hayward, were formerly parcels of the manor of Dacombe, in the parish of Saint Mary Church, in the county of Devon, and are in the same indenture described as follows, that is to say, as to the said Mark Row, a message and tenement and plot of ground

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indentures of lease and appointment, release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 3d and 4th days of November instant, William Clark, of Cinderford Iron-works, in the county of Gloucester, Blacksmith, hath conveyed and assigned all and every his freehold messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, where-soever situate, and all and singular his debts, sum and sums of money, stock in trade, household goods, and other his personal estate and effects whatsoever, unto Samuel Wilson, of Little-dean, in the said county, Maltster, and Benjamin Hutchings, of White-croft, in the hundred of Saint Briavels, and county aforesaid, Shopkeeper, upon the trusts therein expressed, for the benefit of themselves and all other the creditors of the said William Clark who shall execute the said indenture of appointment, release and assignment, within two calendar months from the date thereof; and the said indentures were severally executed by the said William Clark on the said 4th day of November; and the said indenture of appointment, release and assignment, was executed by the said Samuel Wilson and Benjamin Hutchings on the same 4th day of November; and such executions were severally attested by Benjamin Peach, of Coleford, in the said county of Gloucester, Solicitor; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of appointment, release and assignment, is lying at the offices of the said Benjamin Peach, in Coleford aforesaid, for the signatures of such of the creditors of the said William Clark who may feel disposed to execute the same; and that such of the creditors who shall refuse or otherwise neglect to sign the same, within the time aforesaid, will be excluded all benefit and advantage arising therefrom; and all persons indebted to the said William Clark, are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts forthwith to the said Samuel Wilson or Benjamin Hutchings.—Coleford, 4th November 1839.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Peter Taylor, of Chorley, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 29th day of November instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. Bray, Solicitor, Preston, in the said county, in order to ratify and confirm the acts and proceedings of the said assignees in the sale, by private treaty, to Messrs. Neville, Eccles, and Ainsworth, Solicitors, Blackburn, in the said county, of all the cotton spinning machinery, and other necessary preparation for carrying on the business of a Cotton-Spinner, now or late in the factory, situate in Water-street, Chorley aforesaid, late in the occupation of the said Peter Taylor; and also to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery of any part of the bankrupt's property; and also to the prosecuting of certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for secreting certain effects of the said bankrupt; and also to prosecute some other persons, to be named at such meeting, for illegally and forcibly taking possession of the factory and machinery belonging to the assignees of the said Peter Taylor; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration any action or suit, or otherwise settling, agreeing, and adjusting any accounts, debts, or disputes of the said bankrupt, or other matters relating to the said bankrupt; and also, to the assignees employing an accountant, or other person or persons, to assist in the investigation of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or otherwise in relation thereto, and paying such accountant, or other person or persons, a fair and reasonable sum of money by way of compensation for his or their trouble; and generally to authorise the said assignees to adopt all such measures as they may deem most proper for the investigating and winding up the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and on other special business.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded, and issued forth against Thomas Spowler, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Bookseller and Stationer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 30th day of December next, at the offices of Messrs. Seddon, Mawson, and Lycett, Solicitors, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to testify and declare their consent to, and to ratify and confirm the proceedings of, the provisional assignees in the management and carrying on the business of the said bankrupt, for the benefit of his creditors, until the appointment of assignees, and to sanction and allow all and every the payments made by the said provisional assignees in and about the carrying on the said business; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to carry on the said business, at the expense or risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, for such time and so long as it shall be deemed advisable and expedient by the said assignees, or for any definite period, to be named at the said meeting; and if the said assignees shall be authorised to continue the said business, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, from time to time, purchasing, by and with the moneys arising from the said bankrupt's estate and effects, such materials and goods as shall by the said assignees be deemed requisite or necessary for that purpose; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing and carrying on the printing or publishing of the Manchester Courier newspaper, heretofore printed and published by the said bankrupt, until the same shall be disposed of, and to the said assignees purchasing such materials and goods as shall by the said assignees be deemed requisite or necessary, in conducting and carrying on the same; and also to the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or such other person or persons, in conducting the said business, and in printing and publishing of the said newspaper, as they shall think expedient and necessary, and to their paying and allowing to the said bankrupt, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, such sums for their respective services as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, and disposing of the said newspaper and the copyright thereof, and the printing apparatus and materials connected therewith, and the stock, furniture, goods, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, and either to the said bankrupt or to any other person, and either for ready money or on credit, and for such sum or sums of money as they in their judgment shall think fit, and to their buying in the same, or any part thereof, at such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction or by private contract, at such price or prices, and in such manner as the said assignees shall deem expedient, and to their taking such security or securities for the same as they may think proper, without being liable to answer for or bear any loss which may happen upon such resale or security; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or any accountant or accountants, or other person or persons, for the purpose of making out the accounts of and relating to, and collecting and getting in the debts due to, the estate of the said bankrupt, and otherwise winding up his affairs, and to their paying and allowing to the said bankrupt, and to the said accountant or accountants, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, such sums for their respective services as the said assignees shall think proper; and to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done, previous to the said meeting, in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt either by the said assignees or by the said provisional assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and filing and answering any petition or petitions in relation to the said estate and effects; and also to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any debts, matters, or things whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate in such way as they shall, from time to time, think proper; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 7th day of November 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

WILLIAM KILLICK, the younger, of Nos. 2 and 3, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Hosiery and Tailor, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

HENRY HALL, of No. 78, Lamb's Conduit-street, in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Queen-square, in the county of Middlesex, Ironmonger, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
