Downing-street, November 12, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to make and maintain a navigable cut or canal, with proper towing paths, basins, side ponds, dams, embankments, weirs, locks, sluices, culverts, drains, arches, piers, bridges, wharfs, toll houses, and other buildings, works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Warwick and Birmingham Canal Navigation, at or near the lowest lock of the said Warwick and Birmingham Canal Navigation, situate in the hamlet of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and terminating by a junction with the Birmingham Canal Navigations, at or near a certain bridge called Salford Bridge, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick; which said intended cut or canal is intended to be made in and pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, liberties, and extra parochial or other places following, or some or one of them, that is to say, Bordesly, Deritend, Deritend and Bordesley, Duddeston, Duddeston and Nechells, Nechells, Saltley, Washwood, Saltley and Washwood, Erdington, and Aston juxta Birmingham, all in the county of Warwick: and also to make and construct all reservoirs, feeders, leaders, headings, steam-engines, tunnels, and other works and buildings as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said intended cut or canal, and the boats and other vessels as shall navigate the same, and to purchase and hold lands and buildings for the purposes thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to obtain powers to take for the use of the said intended cut or canal, directly or derivatively, the water from the said Warwick and Birmingham Canal Navigation, and from the reservoir of the Company of Proprietors of the said Warwick and Birmingham Canal Navigation, called Olton Reservoir, situate in the parishes of Solihull and Bickenhill otherwise Church Bickenhill, in the county of Warwick, which supplies the said Warwick and Birmingham Canal with water; and also to take, derivatively, the water from the said Birmingham Canal Navigations, and from the reservoir of the Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations, called Rotton Park Reservoir, situate in the parishes of Edgbaston and Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, which supplies the said Birmingham Canal Navigations with water, and which flows or proceeds into the said Warwick and Birmingham Canal.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is also intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls, or duties for or in respect of all goods, wares, merchandize, coal, iron, articles, matters, and things, navigated or passing upon or along the said intended cut or canal, or branches connected therewith.

And notice is also hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, plans and sections of the said intended cut or canal, and also duplicates of such plans and sections, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office, in Stratford-upon-Avon, in the said county of Warwick; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Birmingham, at his office, in Birmingham; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill-office of the Honourable the House of Commons, and another copy thereof in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and also that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, respectively, as relates to each of the several and respective parishes in or through which the said proposed cut or canal, and works, is or are intended to be made, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of those parishes, at the respective residences of such parish clerks.

Thomas Heath, Solicitor for the Bill.

Warwick, November 5, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for lighting with gas the streets, roads, ways, and other passages and places, and houses, shops, manufactories, mills, buildings, tenements, and premises, in the township of Mold, in the parish of Mold, in the county of Flint, and also for more effectually supplying the said township with water from a certain spring, brook, or stream, called or known by the name of Ffynou-wen, situate in a field belonging to Philip Davies Cooke, Esq., in the township of Gwsaney, in the parish of Mold aforesaid, and for making, constructing, erecting, placing, laying, carrying, providing, repairing, and maintaining waterworks, reservoirs, feeders, aqueducts, conduits, pipes, cuts, channels, drains, dams, goits, engines, buildings, and other erections, works, and conveniences for the purpose of collecting, impounding, conveying, supplying, and distributing such water as aforesaid; and which said waterworks, reservoirs, feeders, aqueducts, conduits, pipes, cuts, channels, drains, dams, goits, engines, buildings, and other erections, works, and conveniences are intended to be made, constructed, erected, placed, laid, provided, and carried from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, and places of Mold, Broncoed, and Gwsaney, all in the said county of Flint, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively.

And it is also intended to take power by the said Act for levying or collecting tolls, rates, duties, rents, and assessments for lighting the said township, and upon and from all parties deriving a supply of gas or water from the proposed works.

And it is also proposed to apply for powers in the said Act to deviate in the construction of the said waterworks from the line thereof, as the same will be laid down on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of such line where the same is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line in all other parts thereof, save and except where the property situate within the said respective distances of ten yards and one hundred yards, or either of them, shall not be numbered upon the said plans, or, if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the said books of reference, or where it shall be denoted on the said plans that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended waterworks, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Flint, at his office at Mold; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to the said parish of Mold, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish at the place of abode of such parish clerk.— Dated this eighth day of November 1839.

C. H. Ingleby, Solicitor.

Midland Grand Union Railway.

Mr. Holmes's Line.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, constructing, and maintaining a railway, with all suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Midland Counties' Railway, between the King's Meadows and the carriage road which crosses west of, and near, the King's Meadows, in the parish of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham; and which said railway, with the warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, archways, viaducts, culverts, embankments, bridges, stations, erections, water-works, gas-works, lime-works, and other works, communications, approaches, and conveniences material or necessary to be attached thereto or connected therewith, or for the more complete use and enjoyment thereof, will pass or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, Lenton, Radford, Wollaton, Basford, Billborough, Nuttall, Greasley, Bulwell, Hucknall-torkard, Linby, Newstead, Annesley, Kirkby-in-Ashfield, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Skegby, and Teversal, all in the county of Nottingham.

And it is also intended to apply for power to authorise the deviating from the line of the said intended railway, as laid down in the plans intended to be deposited in pursuance of the Standing Orders of Parliament, to the extent of one hundred yards on either side of the said line, where the plans and books of reference comprise, include, or relate to such extent.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, showing or describing the line or situation of the intended railway, and other-works, and the lands, parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places; in, to, or through which the same is intended to be made, with duplicate sections, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and describing the situation of such lands, was, on or before the 1st day of March 1839, deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Nottingham, at his office at Newark, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, was deposited, on or before the 1st day of April 1839, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon, or in respect of, passengers and goods, and also upon, and in respect of, carriages passing along, through, or over the same railway, and other works. And in the said Bill powers will also be inserted to alter, vary, and divert certain highways, roads, railways, paths passages, rivers, streams, brooks, drains, canals, and water courses, within the said several parishes, townships, extra parochial, and other places aforesaid, or some of them.—Dated this 17th of October 1839.

Bradford Waterworks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for better supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford, within the several townships of Bradford, Horton, Bowling, and Manningham, all in the parish of Bradford, in the west riding of the county of York, and for that purpose to incorporate a company with powers to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs at or near to Hedge side Farm, in the townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, and a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, within the said townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, from and out of the present stream or watercourse which flows down Chellow Dean at a point above the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along or near to the side or sides of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the said present stream or watercourse below the same intended reservoir or reservoirs; and also to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs at or near to Whetley Hill, in the said township of Manningham, and to make, lay, and maintain proper cuts, channels, conduits, aqueducts, drains, sluices, weirs, shafts, mains, pipes and other works and conveniences within the several parishes, townships and places of Thornton, Wilsden, Harden, Cullingworth, Cottingley, Bingley, Allerton, Heaton, Manningham, Horton, Bowling and Bradford, or some of them, in the said west riding of the county of York, for supplying the said reservoirs with water, and for conveying and distributing the same to the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers for the purposes aforesaid, to take and use the waters of certain springs and streams called Many Wells, atising in Trooper or Many Wells Farm, in the township of Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid; which springs or streams now flow into a certain stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck or Harden Beck which supplies with water the several mills, engines and other works situated upon or near to the same stream or rivulet, and thence flows to and into the river Aire; and it is further intended to empower the company to be incorporated by the said intended Act to make and maintain a compensating reservoir or reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences, upon or near to the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck or Harden Beck, in the townships of Thornton and Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid, for the purpose of collecting, penning up, and impounding water for the use of the several mills, engines and other works, situated upon or near to the said last mentioned stream or rivulet between such reservoir or reservoirs and the river Aire, in lieu of the water to be taken and used for supplying the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and also to make and maintain a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, from and out of the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck or Harden Beck, at a point above the last mentioned intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along or near to the side or sides of the same intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the same Beck, below such intended reservoir or reservoirs; which said last mentioned reservoir or reservoirs, and new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, works and conveniences, are intended to be made within, or to pass from, through, or into the several townships of Thornton and Wilsden, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid. And it is further intended to empower the said intended company to levy rates, and to charge and take rents or sums of money, for the supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and it is further intended by the said intended Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, incorporated by an Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, to sell and dispose of all or part of the waterworks, lands and premises now belonging to, or vested in, them under such Act, to the company intended to be incorporated by the said intended Act; and to enable such last mentioned company to purchase and take such waterworks, lands and premises, and also to alter, amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act of the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and to alter or increase the water rents or rates and charges thereby authorized to be taken or made, and to vest all powers, rights and privileges now held or enjoyed by the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, or so to be amended and enlarged as aforesaid, in the said intended company, or otherwise to repeal the said last mentioned Act, and dissolve the said Company of Proprietors, and to enable the said intended company to hold and maintain the waterworks, lands and premises so to be purchased by them as aforesaid, and to supply the town and neighbourhood of Bradford with water therefrom, and to levy and take rates and charges in respect thereof under the powers of the Act so intended to be applied for; and it is further intended to enable the company to be incorporated by the said intended Act, to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs in the townships of North Bierley and Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, near to or upon the line of the present conduit belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the situation and levels of the intended reservoirs, watercourses and other works connected therewith, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to the several parishes in which such reservoirs, watercourses, and other works connected therewith, are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the clerks of those parishes respectively, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for discretionary power for the council of the borough of Liverpool, to apply surplus revenue of the borough, after defraying obligatory expenditure in or towards payment of any amount of watch expenses of the borough that may be incurred, and which may exceed the amount authorized to be levied under the provisions of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," and to make it discretionary only in the said council under an Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for more equally assessing and levying watch rates in certain boroughs," to levy a watch rate to the additional extent thereby provided, or any part thereof, and also for power for the council to raise, upon security of the bonds of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the said borough, the sum of twenty-seven thousand eight hundred pounds to be applied by the council in or towards payment or satisfaction for the site of the old fort in the said borough and land surrounding or adjoining the same; and also for power for the council to raise, on bond or bonds of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, such sum or sums of money as may from time to time be required by the council, subject to limitations, and to restrictions and regulations to be provided; and also for power for the council in their discretion to make any grants or releases of or out of any escheats, forfeitures, fines, or penalties which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue, to the corporation in favour of any person or persons who may be deemed by the council proper objects of such grants or releases.

Dated this ninth day of November 1839.

R. Radcliffe,
Town Clerk of Liverpool, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a turnpike road or roads, partly by diverting, widening, altering, and making turnpike certain existing highways, and partly by making a new road or roads, together with all necessary bridges, fences, and other conveniences to be connected therewith, to commence at or near a certain place called the King's Arms Inn, in the parish of Piddletown, in the county of Dorset, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, tithings, towns, and villages of Piddletown, Athelhampton otherwise Admiston, Burleston, Tollpiddle otherwise Tollpiddle, Affpiddle otherwise Affpiddle, Bere Regis, Turnerspiddle otherwise Turnerspiddle otherwise Tonerspiddle, Winterborne Kingston, Bloxworth, Anderson, Thompson St. Andrew, otherwise Winterborne Thompson, Winterborne Zelston, Morden, Charborough, Mapperton, Almer, Sturminster Marshall, Shapwick, Wimborne Minster, Great Canford, Corfe Mullen, and Lytchett Matravers, or some of them, all in the said county of Dorset, and terminating by a junction with a certain street in the town and parish of Wimborne Minster, called the Straight Boro', at or near a certain house in the occupation of Mrs. Charlotte Miles, or otherwise terminating by a junction with a certain street called West-street, in the said parish of Wimborne Minster, at or near a certain house in the occupation of John Chant, or by a junction with a certain street called King's street, in the said last mentioned town and parish, at or near a certain house in the occupation of James Lawrence; and also to make and maintain a branch turnpike road, to commence at or near a field in the said parish of Morden, belonging to and in the occupation of John Samuel Wanley Sawbridge Erle Drax, Esq. passing in or through the said parish of Morden, and terminating by a junction with the Warcham and Blandford turnpike road, at or near a certain place called the World's End Turnpike-gate, in the said parish of Morden; and also to make and maintain another branch turnpike road, to commence at or near the western fence of a certain place called Newton Marsh, in the said parish of Sturminster Marshall, passing thence in or through the said last mentioned parish, and thence along an ancient highway called Creeper's-lane, in the said parishes of Sturminster Marshall and of Lytchett Matravers, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Blandford and Poole Turnpike-road at or near a certain place called Bailey-corner, in the said parishes of Sturminster Marshall and Lytchett Matravers, or one of them; and also to make and maintain another turnpike-road, to commence at or near to a certain gate over the road leading to the Manor House Farm, in the occupation of Mr. William Bound, in the parish of Corfe Mullen, in the said county of Dorset, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes of Corfe Mullen, Great Canford, and Wimborne Minster, or some of them, in the said county of Dorset, and terminating at a certain place called Pye-corner, in the town of Wimborne Minster aforesaid, at or near to a house in the occupation of Richard Carter. And it is intended to apply for powers, in and by the said Act, to enable the trustees

acting under the provisions of an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for effectually repairing and improving several roads leading from the Market Cross in the town of Wareham, and in Purbeck in the county of Dorset," to abandon and surrender to the trustees to be appointed under the Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, so much of the present Blandford and Wareham Turnpike-road, as lies within the several parishes, townships, hamlets, tithings, towns, and villages of Morden, Almer, Mapperton, Winterborne Zelston, Winterborne Thompson, Sturminster Marshall, and of Spettisbury, or some of them, in the said county of Dorset; between a certain place called the World's End Gate, in the said parish of Morden, in the said county of Dorset, and the place where the said road joins the Blandford and Poole Turnpike-road, in the parish of Spettisbury, in the same county; and to alter or repeal so much of the said recited Act as relates to the said portion of road; and also for powers to stop up and discontinue so much of the said last mentioned turnpike road, situate within the parishes of Morden, Almer, and Sturminster Marshall, in the said county of Dorset, or one of them, as lies between the said point called the World's End Gate, in the parish of Morden, and a place called Almer Pond, in the parish of Sturminster Marshall aforesaid, and to sell the same; and also to shut up, discontinue, and sell such highways, or portions thereof, as shall, by reason of the said intended Act, become useless and unnecessary; and also for power to widen a certain bridge called White Mill Bridge, in the said parishes of Shapwick and Sturminster Marshall, and a certain bridge called Julian Bridge, in the parishes of Wimborne Minster and Great Canford, and the approaches thereto; and also to take down and rebuild or widen and improve all or any of the bridges at present erected on the line of the said intended turnpike road or roads, and branches respectively: and it is intended to obtain power to levy tolls and rates upon and in respect of the use of the said intended turnpike road or roads, and branches, or any part thereof respectively.

And farther notice is hereby given, that plans and sections describing the line or lines and levels of the said intended turnpike road or roads and branches, respectively, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Dorset, at his office, in Sherborne, on or before the 30th day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to the several parishes through which the proposed turnpike road or roads, and branches, respectively, are intended to pass, will be deposited with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively, on or before the 31st day of December next.—Dated this 5th day of November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining a turnpike-road from the village of Conwill, in the county of Carmarthen, to the town of Cardigan, in the county of Cardigan, with certain branches leading therefrom, as hereinafter mentioned; such road to commence at a certain place called Picton's Shop otherwise New Shop, in the said village of Conwill, and to be continued from thence through the several parishes of Conwill otherwise Conwill Elvet, in the county of Carmarthen and that part of the parish of Kiltrhedin which is situate in the county of Carmarthen, and through that part of the parish of Kiltrhedin which is situate in the county of Pembroke, and from thence through the parish of Kenarth, in the county of Carmarthen aforesaid, and through the several parishes of Clydey and Manerdivy, in the county of Pembroke aforesaid, to a certain place called Pontarselly, in the parish of Manerdivy aforesaid, and from thence along the present parish road to Abercych, and from thence through Nantyrerid, both in the said parish of Manerdivy, over the River Tivy, by means of a bridge to be erected; and from thence through the farm of Ddol, in the parish of Llandugwydd, in the county of Cardigan, to enter and communicate with the turnpike-road leading from Cardigan to Newcastle Emlyn, at or near Ddol mansion, with a branch of the said proposed road from Nantyrerid aforesaid, through the several farms of Foesyvicar, Fynnonoer, Cwmshedan, Vaynor, Penparkyreithin, and the Parsonage, all situate in the parish of Manerdivy, in the said county of Pembroke, across the River Tivy, at or near Manerdivy Church, by means of a bridge hereafter to be erected; and from thence through certain lands in the parish of Llandugwydd, in the county of Cardigan, to the turnpike-road leading from Cardigan to Newcastle Emlyn, at or near Abereived, with another branch from Manerdivy Church, along the present parish road to Llechryd Bridge, through the parish of Manerdivy aforesaid, together also with another branch from the said proposed road from the common or waste land called Rhos Kiltrhedin, in that part of the parish of Kiltrhedin which is situate in the county of Carmarthen aforesaid, through and across the common and waste land called Rhos Pemboyr, in the parish of Pemboyr, in the county of Carmarthen, across a certain road leading from Cwmmorgan to Carmarthen, to enter into and communicate with the turnpike-road leading from Newcastle Emlyn to Carmarthen, at or near a place called Pentreally; and it is also intended by the said Act, to obtain power to borrow and raise money for making such new roads, as above described, and to make provisions for demanding and collecting tolls on the said new roads, and such other provisions as may be necessary for effecting the several objects aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that all plans, sections, and books of reference relating to the said proposed roads, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Carmarthen, at his office at the Guildhall, Carmarthen, with the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Pembroke, at his office, in High-street, in the town and county of Haverfordwest, with the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Cardigan, at his office, at Adpar, in the county of Cardigan, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to each of the said parishes of Conwill otherwise Conwill Elvet, Kiltrhedin, Kenarth, Clydey, Manerdivy, Llandugwydd, and Pemboyr, will be deposited with the parish clerks of each of the said parishes respectively, on or before the thirty first day of December next.—Dated this 4th day of November 1839.

Richard David Jenkins, Solicitor for the said Bill.

WHEREAS application was made to Parliament in the last session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for maintaining an existing public railway, from the summit of the hill above Churchway Engine, in the Forest of Dean, to Cinderford Bridge, and for making public a private railway from thence to the river Severn, at or near Bullo Pill, all in the county of Gloucester, and for amending an Act of His late Majesty relating to the said railways;" and also to enable the Forest of Dean Railway Company, incorporated by the said Act, to make a branch or diversion from their present railway, to commence at or near a certain place in the Forest of Dean, called Cinderford Bridge, and to terminate at or near the River Severn, at a place called Brimspill, in the parish of Awre, in the said county of Gloucester, with all such wharfs, quays, locks, embankments, and other works as might be thought necessary or proper, which branch or diversion, and other works were intended to be made in and to pass from, through and into parts of the extra-parochial lands of Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, and the parishes of Newnham and Awre, in the said county of Gloucester.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is the intention of the said Forest of Dean Railway Company in the next ensuing session, to renew the before-mentioned application to Parliament for amending the said Act, and for making a branch or diversion from their present railway, or a new line of railway from, or from near to Cinderford Bridge aforesaid, to or near to the said River Severn from, in, through, or into the parishes and extra-parochial lands before-mentioned, together with all necessary wharfs, quays, locks, embankments, and other works as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed branch or diversion, or new line of railway, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands from, in, through, or into which the same is to be made will be deposited on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in the city of Gloucester, and that on or before the said thirtieth day of November, a plan and section so far as relates to each of the said parishes of Newnham and Awre, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes at their respective places of abode, and a plan and section so far as relates to the extra-parochial lands of Her Majesty in the said Forest of Dean, together with a book of reference thereto will be deposited at the Speech House in the said Forest.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to insert in the said Bill, power to deviate in the construction of the proposed railway, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, save and except where the property situate within the said distance of one hundred yards shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the said books of reference, and save and except where it shall be expressly denoted on the said plans that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, and also powers to levy tolls, rates, or duties on and in respect of the proposed railway and new works, and to alter the tolls, rates, or duties authorized by the before-mentioned Act to be levied and collected, and to raise an additional sum of money for the purposes of the said company; and to alter and divert such turnpike-roads, highways, railways, or tramroads within the parishes and extra-parochial lands aforesaid, as may be necessary for the purpose of making and completing the proposed railway and works.

Dated this ninth day of November, 1839.

James and Son, Newnham, Solicitors,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the improvement of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, and for forming, opening, and widening certain roads, streets and passages within the same, and for authorizing the purchase of houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, for such purposes; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made, if necessary, for paying the expenses to be incurred in carrying into effect the powers intended to be contained in the said Bill, by and out of the borough fund of the said town and county, or by a separate rate upon the inhabitants of the said town, or by such other means as may be provided or specified in the said Bill.—

Dated this ninth day of November 1839.

Enfield and Son, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made during the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, for maintaining and repairing as turnpike roads, a certain road lying and being in the extra parochial place or township of Toxteth Park, in the county of Lancaster, called "the Park Road," commencing at the northern boundary, between the said extra parochial place or township, and the parish of Liverpool, in the said county, at or near Saint James church, and running thence to the southern boundary between the said extra parochial place or township, and the township of Garston, in the parish of Childwall, in the said county, at or near a certain gate there, called "the Aigburth Gate." And also a certain other road lying and being in the said extra parochial place or township of Toxteth Park, called "Smeathom", otherwise "Smithdown Lane," commencing at the point where the boundaries of the said extra parochial place or township of Toxteth Park, and of the townships of West Derby, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the said county, and of Wavertree, in the parish of Childwall aforesaid, meet near a certain messuage called Woodcroft Cottage, late in the occupation of Mrs. Hannah Mary Rathbone, deceased, and running thence in a south-easterly direction to the eastern boundary, between the said extra parochial place or township, and the township of Wavertree aforesaid, at or near a certain dwelling-house there, now in the occupation of John Montgomery Esq. And also a certain other road, lying and being in the said extra parochial place or township of Toxteth Park, called "Lodge Lane," commencing at the northern boundary, between the said extra parochial place or township, and the township of West Derby aforesaid, at the point where the same road joins that part of Smeathom, otherwise Smithdown Lane aforesaid, which lies in the said township of West Derby, and running thence in a southerly direction, along the Parliamentary boundary of the borough of Liverpool, to the point where the said road joins a certain lane in the said extra parochial place, called Ullett Lane, near a certain dwelling-house there, called the Higher Lodge, in the occupation of Samuel Lafone Esq.; and it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to take powers for the raising money by tolls or duties, and also by way of loan on the security of such tolls or duties, for maintaining and repairing such roads; and also for the purchase of lands and hereditaments within the said extra parochial place or township, for the erection of toll houses, and for widening, diverting and improving certain parts of the said roads; a plan of which said roads will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, at his office in Preston, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and copies of such plan will be deposited with the clerk of the parish church of Walton-on-the-Hill, at Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid; and with the clerks of Saint James's church, Saint John's church, and the Park church in Toxteth Park aforesaid, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

And application will also be made for leave to take powers, by the said Bill or Bills, for the sewerage of the several streets and highways in the said extra parochial place or township of Toxteth Park, and for the appointment of Commissioners for the purpose of carrying the powers and authorities of the said Bill or Bills into execution, so far as relates to such sewerage. And for authorising the raising of money for the purposes of such sewerage, by rates, duties or assessments, and also by way of loan on the security of the property of the said Commissioners, and of such rates, duties or assessments.—Dated this ninth day of November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to extend the term, and to alter, amend, explain, repeal, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving and maintaining in repair divers roads in the county of Stafford, leading from Newcastle-under-Lyme to Blyth Marsh—from Cliff Bank to Snape Marsh, from Lower Lane to Hem Heath, and from Shelton to Newcastle-under-Lyme," and which said roads lie in, or pass from, through, or into the several parishes or townships of Newcastle-under-Lyme, Stoke-upon-Trent, Stone, Caverswall, Dillhorn, Trentham, Penkhull, Fenton Vivian, Fenton Culvert, Lane End, Longton, Normacot, Caverswall, Forsbrook, Shelton, and Blurton, in the said county of Stafford; And by which Bill and Act it is intended, amongst other things, to obtain powers to widen, shorten, straighten, vary, divert, and otherwise improve certain parts of the roads comprised in the aforesaid Act, and lying in the several parishes or townships of Stoke-upon-Trent, Penkhull, Shelton, Fenton Vivian, and Fenton Culvert, in the said county: And it is also intended to obtain powers for making and maintaining a new branch line of road, to commence in one of the roads comprised in the aforesaid Act, at a place adjoining the church yard of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, and lying within the township of Penkhull in the last named parish, and to pass in or through the several parishes or townships of Stoke-upon-Trent, Burslem, Norton-on-the Moors, Leek, Penkhull, Shelton, Hanley, Bucknall, Abbey Hulton, Bagnall, Norton, and Endon, or some of them in the said county, and to terminate in the township of Endon and parish of Leek aforesaid, at or near a toll gate, called Endon toll gate, standing across the turnpike road, leading from Newcastle-under-Lyme to Leek; and which said new branch line of road will be carried across the navigable canal from the Trent to the Mersey, in the township of Shelton and parish of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, by means either of the bridge already existing, or of some other bridge to be constructed over the said navigable canal, and will also be carried under the intended viaduct of the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, at or near Glebe-street, in the township of Shelton and parish of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, and will in a further part of such line be carried across the Caldon branch of the said navigable canal, at or near Stockton Brook, in the townships of Bagnall, Norton, and Endon aforesaid, or some or one of them, by means either of the bridge already existing, or of some other bridge hereafter to be constructed over the said Caldon branch canal; and it is also intended to obtain powers by the said Bill and Act for making and maintaining another new branch line of road, to lead out of the first mentioned branch at or near a certain point in the township of Shelton aforesaid, at which the same will intersect the road now making or about to be made from Shelton to Fenton, and to pass wholly in or through part of the township of Shelton aforesaid, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and to terminate in the road from Cliff Bank to Snape Marsh, being one of the roads comprised in the aforesaid

Act, at a place within the said township of Shelton, lying opposite to the newly opened road, intended to be called Chatterley-street, and which lastly described new branch line of road will be carried across the said Caldon Branch Canal by means of a bridge intended to be constructed over the same; and it is also intended to obtain powers by the said Bill and Act, for making and maintaining another new branch line of road, to lead out of the new road from Shelton to Newcastle-under-Lyme, being one of the roads comprised in the aforesaid Act, at a point in the township of Shelton aforesaid, a little to the eastward of Fowley Brook, and to pass wholly in or through part of the township of Shelton aforesaid, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and to terminate in the said road from Cliff Bank to Snape Marsh, at a point in the said township of Shelton a little to the westward of the Trent and Mersey canal bridge, at Shelton wharf.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended to obtain powers in the said Bill and Act, to enable the trustees of the before mentioned roads to contract and agree with the trustees acting for the second district of the roads comprised in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the road from Tunstall in the county of Stafford to Bosley in the county of Chester, and from Great Chell to Shelton in the said county of Stafford, and for making a new line and diversion of road to communicate therewith," for the transfer to the trustees of the roads comprised in the said Act of the fourth year of King George the Fourth, of the completion, repair and management of the new line of road, authorized by the said Act of the third year of King William the Fourth to be made, from or near the Albion Inn in Shelton aforesaid, to or near the manufactory of Messrs. Mason, at Fenton Culvert aforesaid; and also to provide by the said Bill and Act, that from and after a time, and upon conditions to be therein specified, the liability of the trustees of the second district of roads comprised in the said Act of the third year of King William the Fourth, to make maintain and repair the new line of road lastly before mentioned, shall cease and determine, and that such new line of road shall thenceforth become parcel of the roads comprised in the said Bill and Act; and it is intended further to obtain powers to enable the trustees of the roads comprised in the said Bill and Act, to make or complete, and to widen, vary, divert and otherwise improve the said lastly before mentioned new line of road, and also to extend the same at its northern end to the aforesaid road leading from Cliff Bank to Snape Marsh; and to pay the expences thereof out of the monies to arise from the tolls of the roads comprised in the said Bill and Act; and which new line of road including the intended variations and extension thereof, lies in or is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes or townships of Stoke-upon-Trent, Shelton, Hanley, Bottleslow, Fenton Vivian, and Fenton Culvert, or some of them, in the said county of Stafford; and the same is intended to be carried across the before mentioned Caldon branch of the said navigable canal from the Trent to the Mersey, in the townships of Hanley and Shelton aforesaid, or one of them, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, by means of a bridge, intended to be constructed over the said Caldon branch canal, and is likewise intended to be carried over or across the iron railway or tram road of the Trent and Mersey Canal Company, leading from Stoke-upon-Trent to Lane End, in the townships of Fenton Vivian and Fenton Culyert aforesaid, or one of them, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent; and in the course of such variations of such last mentioned new line of road it will be necessary to divert and shorten part of the course of the river Trent in the townships of Shelton and Botteslow and parish of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, immediately adjacent to such new line of road; and for effecting the purposes aforesaid, it is also intended to amend or alter the powers and provisions of the said Act, of the third year of King William the Fourth, so far as the same relates to the said new line of road lastly before mentioned, and to repeal so much of the said last mentioned Act as authorizes the trustees of the second district of the roads therein comprised to make the same new line of road; and also to effect a composition between such trustees, and the trustees to be appointed for executing the said intended Bill and Act, in respect of the monies already laid out in the progress of making the said new line of road, and likewise to alter or vary the tolls granted by the said Act of the third year of King William the Fourth, so far as regards the tolls which might be taken on the last mentioned new line of road.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Bill and Act, to obtain powers to levy tolls on all the said new branches and lines of road, and to alter the existing tolls on all the said present lines of road.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended new roads, shewing also the variations proposed to be made in the said present roads, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of lands, through which the said new roads and variations are intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, in the said county; and that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended new roads and variations are proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode, for the inspection of all persons concerned.—Dated this sixth day of November 1839.

D. J. & D. Russell, Solicitors, York.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for supplying, with water, the several parishes, hamlets, and places of Christchurch, Saint George the Martyr, Saint John Horselydown, Saint Olave, Saint Saviour, Saint Thomas, the Manor of Hatcham, and the Liberty of the Clink, in the borough of Southwark, and county of Surrey; Barnes, Battersea, Nine Elms, Saint John Bermondsey, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, Saint Giles Camberwell, Stockwell, Peckham, Peckham Rye, Dulwich, and Norwood, Carshalton otherwise Casehorton, Clapham, Deptford Saint Paul, Kew, Kingston-upon-Thames, New Kingston, Surbiton, Ham, Lambeth Saint Mary, South Lambeth, Saint John Waterloo, Kennington and Brixton, Mortlake, Sheen and East Sheen, Merton, Mitcham, Morden, Saint Mary Newington, Newington Butts, and Walworth, Petersham, Putney, Richmond, Coombe, Roehampton, Saint Mary Rotherhithe, Streatham, Tooting Graveney, Wimbledon, and Wandsworth, in the said county of Surrey; and Blackheath, Deptford Saint Nicholas, Deptford Saint Paul, Greenwich, Hatcham, Lee, Lewisham, East Peckham, and West Peckham, in the county of Kent, with all necessary powers and authorities for conveying and distributing such water into, and through the said several parishes and places; and in which Bill it is intended to insert powers to take and convey water from the River Thames, in the parish of Kingston-upon-Thames aforesaid; and for that purpose to lay down pipes, and to make, construct, and maintain all proper cuts, canals, conduits, drains, reservoirs, sluices, and other works and conveniences; such works to commence in the said parish of Kingston-upon-Thames, and to terminate in the said parish of Battersea; and to be made in, and to pass from, through, or into the said several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Kingston-upon-Thames, New Kingston, Surbiton, Merton, Wimbledon, Wandsworth, Lambeth Saint Mary, South Lambeth, Nine Elms, and Battersea, or some or one of them.

And by which Bill, provision will be made for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of such supply of water on the respective owners or occupiers of all messuages, mills, factories, dwelling-houses, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments using the same.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the before-mentioned works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey, at his office in North-street, Bridge-road, Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes of Kingston-upon-Thames, Merton, Wimbledon, Wandsworth, Lambeth Saint Mary, and Battersea, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at their respective places of abode.

And by the said Bill it is also intended to incorporate the subscribers to the said undertaking, with power for such corporate body to hold land for the purposes thereof, and with all proper regulations and restrictions for managing and carrying the said undertaking into effect.—Dated this seventh day of November 1839.

Francis T. Bircham, No. 15, Bedford-row,
London, Solicitor to the said Undertaking.

NOTICE is hereby given; that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making Wet Docks, and other works, on the south side of the River Thames, at or near Rotherhithe and Deptford, in the counties of Surrey and Kent, to be called the Grand Collier Docks;" and to extend the period thereby limited for the purchase of lands for the purposes of the said undertaking; and for the purchase of the Grand Surrey Canal and Docks, and the works and conveniences connected therewith; and also the period thereby limited for the purchase of lands under the powers to be vested in the Grand Collier Dock Company, by virtue of the purchase of the said Grand Surrey Canal and Docks, and the easements, privileges, and rights vested in the company of proprietors of the said Grand Surrey Canal.

And it is intended by the Act so to be applied for, to increase or alter the tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be levied and taken by the said recited Act, and to levy and raise new tolls, rates, and duties; and also to compel all vessels laden with coals, which shall enter the port of London, to discharge their cargoes within such docks as shall be appointed by the said intended Act, or otherwise to impose a rate, toll, or duty, upon all such vessels as shall discharge their cargoes within the stream of the River Thames, and to apply the proceeds of such last-mentioned rates, tolls, or duties to such purposes as Parliament shall direct.

And it is further intended, by the Act so to be applied for, to enable the Grand Collier Dock Company, the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Surrey Canal, the Commercial Dock Company, and the East Country Dock Company, or some of them respectively, to enter into such agreements or arrangements as they may think fit, or as to Parliament may seem expedient, either for the amalgamation of the said companies, or any of them, or for a reciprocation of the rights and powers vested in them respectively, and, for the purposes aforesaid, or some or one of them, to vary, alter, or repeal the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the said East Country Dock, passed respectively in the fifty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the Grand Surrey Canal and Docks, passed in the forty-first, forty-seventh, forty-eighth, and fifty-first years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, respectively; and the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the Commercial Docks, passed in the fiftieth, fifty-first, and fifty-seventh years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, respectively; and to alter or increase the rates, tolls, and duties now authorised to be taken under the said recited Acts, or any or either of them.

} Joint Solicitors.

2d November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, or to introduce into any Bill which may be brought into Parliament in that session, at the instance of the Dock Company, at Kingston-upon-Hull, clauses to repeal so much of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull."

And of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs; and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port; and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty; and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port for those purposes; and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and also for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works."

And of another Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull," as directs, authorizes, or imposes any tolls, rates, or duties to be paid to the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull, by, or on account of, or for any ships or vessels entering or leaving the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for the purposes of trade; but not entering or making use of any of the docks, basins, or quays belonging to the said Dock Company. And also to appoint Commissioners for maintaining, preserving, regulating, cleansing, and improving the navigation of the river Hull, and of the estuary or branch of the sea, called the Humber, on each side of the entrance to the said river Hull, extending as far westward as the eastern boundary of the premises belonging to the said Dock Company; and as far eastward as the eastern boundary of the land belonging to Her Majesty, and now occupied by the Honourable the Board of Ordnance as a citadel, and other military works; and as far southward as the mid stream of the Humber; and to grant to the said Commissioners the power to levy tolls, rates, or duties, in the nature of dock dues, upon all ships or vessels loading or unloading any part of their cargoes in any part of the river Hull, or on the shores of the Humber, within the limits of the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, to be applied to the maintaining, preserving, regulating, cleansing, and improving the navigation of the said river Hull, and of the said estuary or branch of the sea called the Humber, within the limits first above-named; and to confer upon the said Commissioners all such rights, powers, and privileges, as may be necessary for effectually maintaining, preserving, regulating, cleansing, and improving the navigation of the said river Hull, and of the said estuary or branch of the sea called the Humber, within the limits first above-named.

WHEREAS notices were published in the months of February and March last, in the London Gazette, and in the newspapers of the counties of Warwick, Worcester, Stafford, and Derby, as required by the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament, of the intention to apply to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter or divert so much of the main line of the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway as lies between the commencement thereof at the Junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Yardley and county of Worcester, and a certain field on the line of the said Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, in the parish of Shustoke and county of Warwick, numbered 13 on the plan thereof referred to in the said Notices, and to make a new or altered line of railway in lieu thereof, commencing on the eastern side of Lawley-street, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, near to the point where the said street is intersected by the London and Birmingham Railway, and terminating at or near the said field numbered 13, in the said parish of Shustoke; and plans and sections of such intended new or altered line of railway mentioned in the said notices, and books of reference thereto, have been deposited with the Clerks of the Peace of the counties of Warwick, Worcester, Stafford, Derby, and the borough of Derby, and with the clerks of the parishes in or through which such intended new or altered line would pass, as mentioned in the said Notices.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended to make a deviation, not exceeding one mile in length, from the line of the said intended new, or altered line of railway laid down on the said plans, namely, within the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, and the townships of Duddleston, Duddleston and Nechells, Nechells, Saltley, Washwood, and Saltley and Washwood, or some of them, all in the said county of Warwick; such deviation commencing in or near a field in the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, numbered 43 on the said plans, to a field in the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, numbered 103 on the same plans. And further, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line and levels of such last mentioned intended deviation, and the lauds proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed-lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at his office in Chesterfield; with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Derby, at his office in Derby; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office in Stafford; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon; with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Birmingham, at his office in Birmingham; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester, at his office in Worcester; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to the said parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerk of that parish, at his place of abode.

And further that it is intended to apply for power to deviate in the construction of the said proposed deviation (save as aftermentioned) to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans to be deposited, as aforesaid, where such line is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and (save also as aftermentioned) in all other parts of the line, to an extent on either side thereof not exceeding one hundred yards, save and except where the property situated within the said distances of ten yards, and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be delineated upon the said plans, or if delineated upon the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the books of reference thereto, or where it shall be denoted on the same plans that the power of deviation in respect thereof is not intended to be applied for.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers by the Act of the intention to apply to Parliament, for which notices were published in the months of February and March last as aforesaid, to make the deviation lastly hereinbefore mentioned in the line referred to in the said notices, and to levy and raise tolls and duties upon and in respect of the use of the same.—Dated this eleventh day of November 1839.

Philip Mules,
Clerk to the Trustees acting under the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act, for dividing, allotting, exchanging, and enclosing the commons, commonable lands, and open and common fields, meadows, pastures, moors, marshes, heaths, wastes, and waste grounds, in the parish of Walton-upon-the-Hill, in the county of Surrey; and that it is also intended to include in the said Bill, provisions for the enfranchisement of the copyhold or customary hereditaments within the manor of Walton-upon-the-Hill, and the parish aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for defraying the expences of the said Bill and Act, and of dividing, allotting, exchanging, and enclosing the said lands and grounds, and of enfranchising the said copyhold and customary hereditaments, by a rate or rates on the proprietors of the lands, grounds, and hereditaments to be inclosed and enfranchised, or by some other means to be provided by the same Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, and otherwise improving the city of Norwich; and also of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging an Act of His late Majesty, for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, and otherwise improving the city of Norwich."

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to insert in the proposed Bill power to extend the provisions of the said Bill to the several parishes, hamlets, liberties, precincts, and places within the county of the said city, or to such parts thereof as it may seem advisable so to do; and to remove all or any of the toll gates or bars now standing within the said city and county of the said city, and to prevent any other toll gates or bars being erected within the said city and county of the said city without the consent of the commissioners to be appointed in and by the said Bill.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to take powers for raising money, for the purposes thereof, by rates on the owners and occupiers of houses, lands, and hereditaments within the said city and county of the said city.—Dated this eighth day of November 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act for more effectually supplying with water the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the town or borough of Gateshead, in the county of Durham; and the several parishes, townships, and places adjacent thereto, and for granting power to levy rates for such supply of water; and, for effecting the purposes aforesaid, power will be applied for, to make and maintain reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works, which will be situate in, or pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or other places next aftermentioned, or some of them (that is to say) Mason Dinnington, Ponteland, Dinnington, Mason, Brenkley, Horton Grange, Berwick Hill Prestwick, Newburn, Woollington, Gosforth, Kenton, Coxlodge, East Brunton, West Brunton, and Fawdon, all in the county of Northumberland; St. Andrew, Fenham, Jesmond, St. John, Elswick, Westgate Benwell, All Saints, Byker, Kenton, and St. Nicholas, all in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, and the said town or borough and parish of Gateshead, in the county of Durham aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, situate at Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid; at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, situate also at Newcastle aforesaid; and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, situate in the city of Durham; on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relate to each of the parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of such parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this eighth day of November 1839.

John H. Preston, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for incorporating a certain company by the name of the "Edinburgh Silk Yarn Company," or to enable the said company to sue and be sued by that name, or in the name of any member or officer thereof, and to grant other powers for the general regulation of the said company; and particularly a power to enable them to purchase certain letters patent granted for an improved method of preparing and spinning silk, waste wool, flax and other fibrous substances, and for discharging gum from silk, raw or manufactured.

Dated this fifteenth day of November, 1839.

Crowder and Maynard, Mansionhouse-place.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to consolidate and extend the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Birmingham Canal Navigations;" and of an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations to make a new cut, and for extending and altering some of the provisions of their present Act; and also to alter, vary, and extend the line of the cut or canal authorized by the said last mentioned Act to be made from and out of the Danks Branch of the said Company's existing Canal Navigations, such alteration or variation to commence in or near to a field belonging to the Earl of Dartmouth, in the parish of West Bromwich, in the county of Stafford, numbered 52 on the Parliamentary plan of such cut or canal, and to terminate in or near to a field belonging to Wyrley Birch, Esquire, in the township of Witton, in the parish of Aston-juxta-Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and numbered 50 on the said plan, and to be made in, and to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following, that is to say, West Bromwich, Ball's Hill, Friar Park, Bustleholme, Wednesbury, the Delves, Delves Green, Walsall, Foreign of Walsall, borough of Walsall, Aldridge, Great Barr, Newton, Handsworth, Tower Hill and Perry Barr, in the county of Stafford and Aston-juxta-Birmingham aforesaid, and Witton in the county of Warwick, or some of them; and such extension to commence at the said Danks Branch near Gold's Hill, in the parish of West Bromwich aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction with the Walsall Level of the Birmingham Canal Navigations, near the Toll End Furnaces, in the parish of Tipton otherwise Tibbington, in the said county of Stafford, and to be made in, and to pass from, through or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following, that is to say, Tipton otherwise Tibbington, Toll End, Gold's Hill and West Bromwich, in the said county of Stafford, or some of them.

And further notice is hereby given, that it is intended to obtain power to take for the use of, and to divert into such intended cut or canal, alteration, variation, and extension directly or derivatively, the water from the said Birmingham Canal Navigations, and from the reservoir of the said Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations called "Rotton Park Reservoir," situate in the parishes of Edgbaston and Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, and also to make and maintain certain railways or tramroads, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto; that is to say, one of such railways or tramroads to commence in a piece of land belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations situate at the tail of Titford Pool, in the township of Oldbury, in that part of the parish of Halesowen, which is in the county of Salop, and to terminate in a piece of land called the Further Leasow, belonging to Sarah Dunn Jones, widow, in the occupation of Daniel Hadley, situate near Longlane, in the township of Cakemore, in the county of Salop aforesaid, which said intended railway or tramroad is intended to be made in and pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following, that is to say, Halesowen and Warley Wigorn, in the county of Worcester, Rowley Regis, in the county of Stafford, Halesowen, Oldbury, Walloxall, otherwise Langley Walloxall, otherwise Langley and Walloxall Cakemore, the Hill and Warley Salop, in the county of Salop, or some of them; another railway or tramroad to commence at or near the last mentioned railway in a meadow called Big Meadow, belonging to John Beet, situate in the township of Warley Wigorn aforesaid, and to terminate in a piece of land called the Rough or House Meadow, being part of the Hag Farm, in the said township of Warley Wigorn, belonging to John White, and occupied by Jonathan Farmer, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following, that is to say, Halesowen, Oldbury, Langley, Cakemore, Lower Holt, Upper or Over Holt, Hurst Green, Warley Salop, the Hill and Ridgacre, in the said county of Salop, and the said township of Warley Wigorn, in the said county of Worcester, or some of them. Another railway or tramroad to commence at or near the last mentioned railway, in a piece of land called the Earthen Leasow, belonging to the trustees of Smethwich Chapel, occupied by John Whitehouse, situate in the township of Warley Wigorn aforesaid, and to terminate in a field, called the Innage, belonging to the heirs or devisees of the late Edmund Wigley, Esquire, and occupied by Thomas Tomlinson, situate in the said township of Warley Salop, and passing, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following, that is to say, Halesowen and Warley Wigorn, in the said county of Worcester and Halesowen, Oldbury, Langley, Cakemore, Warley Salop, Ridgacre, and the Hill, in the said county of Salop, or some of them.

And further notice is hereby given, that it is also intended to obtain power to levy rates, tolls or duties for, or in respect of all articles, matters and things navigated or passing upon, or along the said intended cut or canal, alteration, variation, extension, or branches, connected therewith, and on or along the said railways or tramroads, and to alter some of the existing tolls payable to the said company.

And further notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Stafford, at his office in Stafford, in the said county of Stafford; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough and foreign of Walsall, at his office in Walsall aforesaid; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon, in the said county of Warwick; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Salop, at his office in Shrewsbury, in the said county of Salop; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Worcester, at his office in the city of Worcester; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes of Westbromwich, Tipton otherwise Tibbington, Wednesbury, Walsall, Aldridge, Handsworth, Aston-juxta-Birmingham, Halesowen and Rowley Regis, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the respective residences of such parish clerks.—Birmingham, November 5th, 1839.

Ingleby and Wragge,

Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving and rendering more commodious the port and harbour of Bristol;" also of an Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for improving and rendering more commodious the port and harbour of Bristol, and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act;" and also of an Act passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for completing the improvement of the port of Bristol;" and also of an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Bristol Dock Company to borrow a further sum of money for completing the improvement of the port and harbour of Bristol;" and also of an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend and explain the several Acts passed for improving and rendering more commodious the port and harbour of Bristol;" and also of another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the employment, maintenance and regulation of the poor of the city of Bristol, and for altering the mode of assessing the rates for the relief of the poor, and certain rates authorised to be raised and levied within the said city by certain Acts for improving the harbour there, and for paving, pitching, cleansing and lighting the same city, and for the relief of the churchwardens and overseers from the collecting of such rates, and for amending the Act for paving, pitching, cleansing and lighting the said city;" and also of an Act, passed in the first year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better assessing and collecting certain parochial and other rates within the city and county of Bristol;" or to repeal the provisions of the said several Acts, or some of them, and to grant more effectual powers instead thereof; and in which Bill or Bills provision is intended to be made to transfer the powers, authorities, privileges, property, rights and interests possessed by the Bristol Dock Company, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts to the mayor, aldermen and burgesses of the city of Bristol, and to enable the said mayor, aldermen and burgesses, to reduce, alter, or abolish the rates, tolls and duties, or any of them, by the said recited Acts, or any of them, empowered to be collected, and to levy, raise and collect other rates, tolls, and duties in lieu thereof, or in addition thereto, and to apply the same in aid of the borough fund and rate of the said city and county, or of such other rate or fund as may be provided by the said Bill or Bills, to be raised for carrying into effect the purposes thereof, and to charge upon the said borough fund and rate, or such other rate or fund to be provided as aforesaid, the payment of the principal, interest, and other moneys raised and made payable under and by virtue of the said several Acts, or any or either of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power to alter, amend, and enlarge certain parts of the works by the said several Acts, or any of them, authorized to be made; and also to make and maintain a wharf or wharfs, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, by the side of the river Avon, adjoining or near to the entrance locks into Cumberland Basin; and also to make and maintain a new lock or locks, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, between the said river Avon and the floating harbour or Cumberland Basin, at or near the Overfall Dam, and also between Cumberland Basin and the said floating harbour; which said alterations and other works are intended to be made in or through the parishes of Bedminster and Clifton, or one of them, in the city and county of Bristol; and also to alter and improve the navigation of the said river Avon, by deepening and widening the bed and sides thereof, and by widening and enlarging the roads and towing paths by the sides of the said river, in the parishes of Bedminster and Clifton aforesaid, and of Ashton otherwise Long Ashton, and Abbotts Leigh, in the county of Somerset, and Westbury-upon-Trym, in the said city and county of Bristol, and in the county of Gloucester, or some or one of them; and also to make and maintain a dock or docks, with all necessary locks, quays, wharfs, dams, works, and conveniences connected therewith, by the side of the said river Avon, at or near Sea Mills, in the said parish of Westbury-upon-Trym, in the said county of Gloucester.

And in which said Bill or Bills provision is also intended to be made for the payment of the expences of carrying into effect the powers and provisions to be contained in the said Bill or Bills, or which may be incident thereto, by and out of the said borough fund and rate, or such other fund or rate as may be provided in and by the said intended Bill or Bills for that purpose; and also to make and provide such other fund or rate as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes of the said Bill or Bills; and also to levy rates, tolls, and duties for the use of the said intended wharf or wharfs, dock or docks, and other works, or any of them, and to apply such rates, tolls, and duties in aid of the said borough fund and rate, or such other fund or rate to be provided as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the city and county of Bristol, at Bristol; and for the counties of Gloucester, at Gloucester; and of Somerset, at Taunton; on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relate to the said parishes of Clifton, Bedminster, Ashton otherwise Long Ashton, Abbotts Leigh, and Westbury-upon-Trym, will be deposited with the parish clerks of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1839.

CONTRACT FOR PLASTERER'S WORKS AT PORTSMOUTH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 9, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice that on Thursday the 12th December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Performing for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three calendar months warning, all such

Plasterer's Works,

as shall, from time to time, be required at the Royal Marine Barracks and Infirmary
at Portsmouth.

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office, or on application to the Barrack Master at Portsmouth.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Plasterer's Works,"
and must also be delivered at Somerset-place,
accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BLACK IRONMONGERY.

Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, October 25, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice,
that on Thursday the 5th December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards (under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of six months warning) with Black Ironmongery.

Patterns of the various articles may be seen at Her Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford, and the conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Black Ironmongery,"

and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2000, for the due
performance of the contract.

of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice,
that on Thursday the 12th December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Supplying and delivering into the Royal Marine Barracks at Plymouth, all such quantities of

Tallow Candles,

as shall, from time to time, be demanded for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months warning.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at the said Office; and also (together with samples) at the Office of the Barrack Master at Plymouth.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Candles,"
and must also be delivered at Somerset-place,
accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible
person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of the contract.
