THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the division of the parish of Walcot St. Swithin, in the city of Bath and county of Somerset, into three distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the 58th Geo. 3, cap. 45:

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of September 1839, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, your Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Walcot St. Swithin, in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, contained a population of 26,061 persons, which has since considerably increased:

"That there are in the said parish, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1300 persons, three chapels, viz.: Trinity Chapel, which affords, accommodation to 2,016 persons, including 1,810 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; St. Saviour's Chapel, which affords accommodation to 1,096 persons, including 534 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor; and Christ Church Chapel, which affords accommodation to 1,500 persons, including 1,000 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said three chapels have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"That there are also four chapels, called Proprietary Chapels, in the said parish, which together afford accommodation to 2,560 persons;

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into three distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that the said parishes should be respectively named the parish of Walcot St. Swithin; the Parish of St. Saviour; and Trinity Parish; and that the boundaries of the said new parishes of St. Saviour and Trinity should be as follows:

"Boundaries of Saint Saviour's Parish,

"Commencing from the river Avon, at Weymouth-street, running in a north-western line through Dover-street, Upper Dover-street, and Bennet's-lane, to the last house in Prospect-place, from thence following a footpath leading through Beacon Hill Plantation, known as Jacob's Ladder, still following the line of same footpath in front of Summerleaze Buildings, across a piece of pasture land known by the name of the Hind Park, and belonging to John Deverell, which ends the direct line of boundary between Saint Saviour and Walcot Saint Swithin's parishes; the parish of Saint Saviour will be bounded on the north by the parish of Charcombe, on the east by the parish of Swainswick, and on the south by the river Avon, which forms the boundary between the parishes of Walcot Saint Swithin and Bathwick, and on the west by the parish of Walcot Saint Swithin, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured green."

"Boundaries of Trinity Parish,

"Commencing at Edgar House, at the west end of Edgar Buildings, proceeding in a line northward to the top of Miles's Buildings and gardens, and from thence, in a westerly direction, to the Circus end of Gay-street, taking in the houses and gardens in that street on both sides thereof, then along the footway, known as the Gravel Walk, to the bottom of Marlborough Buildings, taking in such footway, thence running in a north western direction at the back of Marlborough Buildings and gardens, thence in a western direction along the road at the top of the Victoria Park, called Weston Lane, leading to the parish of Weston, taking in such road, and then following on the western side in a southerly direction the boundary between the parish of Weston and Trinity parish, along the Bristol road in an easterly direction, and from thence in a southerly direction to the river Avon, and thence along the centre of the said river (which forms the boundary between the parishes of Walcot Saint Swithin and Lyncombe and Widcombe), and thence in a north direction bounded by the parish of Saint James's, and the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, and the parish of Saint Michael, ending at No. 4 in George-street, nearly opposite Edgar House aforesaid, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured red.

"That the glebe land which lies within the said parish of Walcot St. Swithin is of the estimated annual value of twenty-five pounds ten shillings, and that which lies within the parish of St. Saviour is of the estimated annual value of ten pounds ten shillings; that there is no glebe land within Trinity parish; that the whole of the tithes should remain with and belong to the said parish of Walcot Saint Swithin, but that the same will be charged with the payment of the sum of ten pounds annually to the incumbent of the said parish of Saint Saviour, and with the further payment of ten pounds annually to the incumbent of the said Trinity parish, which, together, have heretofore amounted to about one-third part of the value or produce of the whole; that it is estimated that the annual amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues (including pew-rents to the incumbents of Saint Saviour's and Trinity parishes), which will accrue to the incumbents of the said three parishes, will be in the following proportions, viz., to the incumbent of the parish of Walcot Saint Swithin four hundred and ninety-eight pounds, to the incumbent of the parish of Saint Saviour four hundred and thirty pounds, and to the incumbent of Trinity parish three hundred and ninety-eight pounds."

"That the consents of the Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells, and of Thomas Woodham, Esq. of Winchester, the patron of the said parish church of Walcot St. Swithin, have been obtained as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of His Majesty King George the Third; and in testimony of such consent the said Lord Bishop and the said Thomas Woodham have signed and sealed this present instrument.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and to pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty's royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
