

Edge insisted to have the Depotation from the Empire joyed to the Emperors Commissioners, which was opposed by the Princes, who were for leaving this affair wholly to his Imperial Majesty.

Hamburg, November 3. We are told from Zell, that the two Officers which the Duke of Luxemburg sent to Vienna to treat about their putting part of their Troops into the Emperors Service, were come back, with this Answer; That his Imperial Majesty could not at present provide Winter-quarters for the said Troops, but that they should immediately enter into his Pay, and that he would give a Regiment of 2000 Men to the Prince Augustus, second Son to the Duke of Hanover, who is now at the Siege of Buda. There are Letters from Leopold of the 20th of the last Month, which say, that the King of Poland after having spent several days in the Neighborhood of Caminiec, decamped the 13th, and marching towards the Niesler, had passed that River on the 16th between Godeckz and Czirowitz; That the Garilon of Caminiec, assisted with a Body of Tartars who swam over the Niesler, had fallen upon the Rear of the Polish Army in their march, but had been repulsed, the Turks and Tartars having lost several of their chief Officers and a great many Soldiers, who were killed or taken Prisoners by the Poles; but the Advices from those Parts have been of late so uncertain, that it's necessary we expect a confirmation of this.

Brussels, November 10. Our Letters from Vienna of the 29th past tell us, they had an account by an Express arrived from the Camp before Buda, that the Besieged had on the 24th received a relief of Men and Provisions, which the Bassa of Agria, having first forced the Retrenchments the Christians had made on the side of Pest, sent into the Town in Boats, which passed the River several times; That the Serasquier's Army was reinforced to 40000 Men, and lay very near the Town; That the Mines of the Bavarians were spoiled by the Rains, and that the principal Mines of the Imperialists, having been long ready, had been discovered by the Enemy, who had taken the Powder out of them; So that it is believed the Christians will be forced to raise the Siege.

Brussels, November 14. The Marquis de Grana had signed Orders for a Months pay to the Troops in their Countries, but the last Ordinary from Spain notwithstanding the Supply that was expected, the said Orders are stopped. Most of the Cavalry are dismounted, their Horses being sold by his Excellency's order, because of the difficulty to provide Forage for them. Our Letters from Vienna of the second Instant tell us, that it had been resolved to raise the Siege of Buda, and that the great care was to bring off the Army and the Artillery.

Hague, November 14. The States of Holland and West Frizeland re-assembled the 8th Instant; And the next day they Adjourned again till the 10th of this Month. A general Collection hath been made at Amsterdam for the Redemption of the Dutch Slaves at Tunis and Tripoli. The 12th Instant a Vessel of about 100 Tuns bound for London from Norway, was cast away off of Scovelingue, but the Men were saved; the Count d'Avaux who happened to be there, having given a sum of Money to some Fishermen to go off and help them, the Weather being very bad. We have Letters from Vienna of the second, and from Ratisbonne of the 6th Instant, which say, that the Siege of Buda is raised.

London, November 6. This Day a Tryal was had at the Guild-Hall before my Lord Chief Justice Jeffreys, upon an Action brought by Sir

William Pritchard, formerly Lord Mayor of this City, against Mr. Papillon and Mr. Dubois (the latter of which is lately Dead) for maliciously causing him to be Arrested, and falsely imprisoned during his Mayoralty; Which being very plainly proved, and it farther appearing upon a full examination of the Witnesses on both sides to have been a very evil design and malicious practice, contrived with several of the Traitors that are lately fled from Justice, as well against His Majesties Government and the Magistracy of this City, as against the said Sir William Pritchard; The Jury brought in their Verdict for Sir William, and gave him 10000 l. damages.

Mr. William Russell living at the Sign of the Four Coffins in Fleet-Street, having been employed by the Right Honourable the Earl of Carlisle, to fetch over the Body of Frederick Howard Esq; who was slain in the Siege of Luxemburg, he performed the same to his Lordships great satisfaction, having taken up the said Body after it had been Buried 3 Months, and so well preserved it, that he brought it over in a Coffin he had purposely prepared, to his House in Fleet-Street, where it lay in State, and was Buried the 11th of the last Month in Westminster-Abby.
