FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1839.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December 1839,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first and second year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws of the Customs," after reciting that, by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a convention of commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable, and the bounties and allowances to be granted, upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandize, into or from the United Kingdom, in vessels of the United States, and in Portuguese vessels, and respecting the repayment to certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act; and it was thereby enacted, that the said Act should continue in force so long as the convention, therein recited, between His said Majesty and the United States of America, and the treaty, therein recited, between His said Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any treaty to be made with any foreign power, with the similar provisions therein, before recited, should respectively continue in force; and also reciting, that, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers foreign powers, treaties, containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act; and doubts have arisen whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other foreign powers; and it is expedient that such doubts be removed; it is thereby enacted and declared that, from and after the ratification of any treaty heretofore made by Her Majesty, or any of Her Royal Predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said Act, or of any treaty which may hereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, with any such foreign power, in which treaty has been, or shall be, contained provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said recited Act contained, do and shall apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such foreign powers respectively, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as to the trade and shipping of the said United States, and of the said kingdom of Portugal:

And, for the prevention of uncertainty therein, it is thereby enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or them made, with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid, is or are subsisting; and that such Act, and the said recited Act, shall apply, and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid, in the first and second year of Her reign, declare, that the foreign powers with which any such treaties as aforesaid are subsisting, are the several powers hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the United States of America, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty the King of Hanover, His Majesty the King of Denmark, the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Colombia, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen, and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, His Majesty the King of the French, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, the United States of Mexico, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, the Free City of Frankfort, the State of Venezuela, the Peru Bolivian Confederation, His Majesty the King of Greece, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a representation from the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, dated the twenty-ninth day of November last, in the words following, viz.

THE Lords of the Committee have this day met, and agreed humbly to recommend to your Majesty, that the Reverend John Allen, M. A. and Seymour Tremenheere, Esq. Barrister at Law, and Fellow of New College, Oxford, should be appointed Inspectors of Schools to be aided by Public Grants, and their Lordships further recommend that the services of each of the said Inspectors should, for the present, be remunerated as follows, viz. at the rate of three guineas per day for every day employed in the duties of their Office, pursuant to the directions of this Committee, out of town, and two guineas per day for every day so employed, in town, and the travelling expences of every day that the said Inspectors shall be respectively engaged in the duty of Inspection, pursuant to the directions of this Committee."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof.

C. C. Greville.

CONTRACT FOR POLICE CLOTHING.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 12, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such articles of

Police Clothing,

For the use of the Police Force employed in Her Majesty's several Dock and Victualling-yards, as shall, from time to time, be demanded for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months warning.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Police Clothing," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

SAILING AND STEAM VESSELS WANTED FOR PERFORMING THE MAIL SERVICE BETWEEN ABERDEEN, OR PETERHEAD, AND LERWICK, IN THE SHETLAND ISLANDS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 10, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 31st of December instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to receive tenders, under conditions, which may be seen at the above Office, or upon application to the Collector of Customs at Aberdeen or Lerwick, or to Lieutenant Pitt, R.N., at Leith.

For the Conveyance of Mails between Aberdeen, or Peterhead, and Lerwick, in the Shetland Islands.

All tenders are to be made upon the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be had upon application as above, and they are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," and "Comptroller of Victualling," in the left hand corner of the envelope.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and, if by an agent, be accompanied by the written authority of the parties tendering; and it must also express when the vessels will be ready for survey, and when they will be ready to commence the performance of the service required, and also state the address of the party tendering.

East India-House, December 11, 1839.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall street, on Wednesday the 18th instant at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, is made special, for the purpose of laying before the Proprietors documents relative to the late military operations in Afghanistan, and resolutions of thanks adopted in consequence by the Court of Directors.

The above-mentioned documents and resolutions are now open for the inspection of the Proprietors, at this House.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

East India-House, December 11, 1839.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the Special Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 18th instant, is further made special, for the purpose of taking into consideration the draft of a petition to Parliament, praying for relief in regard to such Customs' duties, levied in Great Britain and its colonies, as press unequally upon the productions and industry of India, as compared with other parts of the dominions of the British Crown, and from restrictions operating prejudicially to the interests of the natives of India; which draft of a petition has been prepared by the Court of Directors, in pursuance of the resolution of the Special General Court of the 3d July last, and now lies open, at this House, for the perusal of the Proprietors.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

East India-House, December 11, 1839.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Proprietor of East India Stock has given notice of his intention to submit the following motion at the Quarterly General Court of the said Company appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 18th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, viz.

"That advertising to the dispatches of the Court of Directors of the 20th February 1833, the 22d February 1837, and the 8th of August 1838, it does not appear that the professed object of the first mentioned dispatch (viz. the withdrawal of the encouragement afforded by England to the idolatrous worship of India, and the relinquishment of the revenue derived therefrom), has yet been accomplished; and therefore, that it be recommended to the Court of Directors to take effectual measures for carrying out their original orders of the 20th February 1833."

The said Court of Directors do likewise give notice,

That another Proprietor postponed, until the said Quarterly General Court to be held on Wednesday the 18th instant, the motion, of which he had previously given notice,

"To take into consideration the case of Captain Haviside, a claimant for the compensation awarded to Commanders in the Maritime service of the East India Company."

The said Court of Directors do likewise further give notice,

That another Proprietor has intimated his intention to submit a motion, at the said Quarterly General Court to be held on Wednesday the 18th instant, viz.

"For an enquiry regarding an entry in the Home accounts of the East India Company, from 1st May 1838 to 30th April 1839, under the head of disbursements under orders of the Select Committee of the Court of Directors."

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

London Docks.

London Dock-House, New Bank-Buildings, December 9, 1839.

THE Court of Directors of the London Dock Company hereby give notice, that a Half-yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors will be held at this House, on Friday the 3d of January next, at one o'clock, for the purpose of declaring a dividend on the Company's stock for the half year ending the 31st instant; and on other affairs.

J. D. Powles, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

Merchants' Seamen's-Office, December 12, 1839.

William Watson, Secretary.

Imperial Fire-Office, Sun-Court, Cornhill, December 13, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Court of Proprietors will be held at this House, on Saturday the 4th January next, between the hours of one and three o'clock in the afternoon, to elect three Directors and one Auditor, in the room of the Directors and Auditor who will then go out of office, in pursuance of the deed of settlement.

By order of the Board,
P. Milner, Accountant.

Alliance Marine Assurance-Office, Capel-Court, Bartholomew-Lane.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Court of the Members of the Alliance Marine Assurance Company will be holden on the 8th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon for one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at this Office, pursuant to Act of Parliament.—Dated this 11th day of December 1839.

Frederick Secretan, Superintendent.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Thompson, of Ambleside, in the county of Westmorland, Bobbin-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 4th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Golden Rule Inn, in Ambleside aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing a certain suit in Chancery against the mortgagee of part of the said bankrupt's estate, to recover certain sums of money, for which he claims to hold the mortgage and title deeds as a lien, having no other security; and for other special purposes.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Marston, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Yarn-Merchant, Cork-Merchant, and Cork-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 4th day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, precisely, at the office of Messrs. Kay, Barlow, and Aston, Solicitors, No. 1, Town-hall-buildings, Cross-street, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling to the bankrupt his household furniture and other articles of domestic use, and also the whole or any part of his stock and implements of trade, at a valuation, and to the assignees giving such time or credit for the payment, with or without security, for the price thereof, as to the assignees shall appear proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the freehold estates of the bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in one or more lots, as to the assignees shall appear most beneficial and advantageous; and also to the assignees buying in the said freehold estates, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable for any loss or diminution in price on such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain sums of money required to be paid on certain shares allotted to the said bankrupt in the Gosport Branch of the London and South Western, heretofore London and Southampton, Railway, or otherwise disposing of the same shares, subject to the calls made thereupon; and to the assignees selling and disposing of other shares of the said bankrupt in public companies and joint stock undertakings, by public auction or private contract, or retaining the same, at the risk of the bankrupt's estate, for such period as the creditors shall determine at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees paying any brokerage, commission, or sums of money, which to them shall seem proper, for or upon the sale of any such shares; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees entering into such arrangements, by way of compounding or otherwise, with certain persons indebted to the bankrupt's estate, or any of them, for the settlement, release, and discharge of the debts owing to the bankrupt's estate by such persons, or any of them, as the assignees may think judicious; and also to empower the said assignees to give consent to the holders of bills of exchange on which the bankrupt is liable, either solely or jointly with others, to compound, release, or discharge any of the other parties also liable on the same bills, on such terms as may appear to the assignees most advantageous to the bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees employing the bankrupt and any accountant, or other assistant, to manage the said bankrupt's property, and to investigate his books, papers, accounts, and affairs under the said Fiat, and to make up and adjust, and to collect and get in, the debts due and owing to the bankrupt's estate; and to the assignees making to the said bankrupt, accountant, or other person, such allowance or remuneration for his or their time and trouble therein and thereabouts, as the assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any measure or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the assignees to act for the benefit of the said bankrupt's creditors in such manner as shall seem to the assignees most beneficial.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas William Barker, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Plater, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 8th day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the New Royal Hotel, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to, ratify, and confirm, or to dissent from, all and every the acts, transactions, payments, sales, matters, and things already done, made, and affected by the said assignees, or any of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, if they deem it expedient, entering into and making an agreement or arrangement, if any such can be effected, with a certain person, whose name will be stated at such meeting, and who claims to have a lien on certain parts of the effects of the said bankrupt, and certain deeds and papers relating thereto, for the paying or discharging, wholly or in part, the claim of such person, and redeeming such effects, deeds, and papers, or any of them, or getting the same into the hands of the said assignees, or to allow such person to retain the same, or any part thereof, or sell the same to him in part or wholly in discharge of his claim against the said bankrupt, or to make any other arrangement or agreement with the said person as to the said assignees may seem advisable; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees to make and execute any instrument or instruments for carrying the said arrangement into effect; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and carrying on, or afterwards compounding, a suit in equity, or in the Court of Review, against the said person, or any other person or persons, in relation to the several matters before expressed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to the said bankrupt, or any other person or persons on his behalf, any part or parts of the said bankrupt's stock and effects, and to give time for the payment of the purchase money, and to take such security for the same as the said assignees may deem expedient, without being accountable for any loss which may happen to the estate thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of any other part of the stock in trade, furniture goods, fixtures, and the whole or any part of the bankrupt's estate and effects, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors, or the equity or right of redemption of the said assignees or of any of the said bankrupt's estate or effects, to any person or persons whomsoever who shall be willing to purchase the same; and, in case of such sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, all or any part of the premises which shall be put up to sale, at such price or prices as they may think proper, and again to offer for sale, and resell the same without being liable or answerable for any loss or deficiency which may arise in price or value upon such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, if they may deem it expedient, joining or concurring with any equitable or legal mortgagee or mortgagees of any part of the said bankrupt's estate or effects, in a sale or sales thereof, by auction or private contract, with like powers to buy in and resell the same, without any responsibility for loss or diminution upon such resale, and either for money or upon credit or security, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said assignees may think proper; and to allow the mortgagee, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, to receive payment of their principal, interest, and expenses out of the purchase moneys, if sufficient for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing, at the expense of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, or such other person or persons as they shall deem proper, to collect in the debts, and take and value the stock and effects of the said bankrupt; and to ratify and confirm the appointment of an accountant, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, which shall have been made by the said assignees prior to the said meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making such compensation to such accountant and other person for their time and trouble in the matters aforesaid as to the said assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees appointing and employing the said bankrupt or any other person to conduct or manage the business late of the said bankrupt, for the benefit of the said estate, and to employ a porter or porters, or other person or persons under him, until the stock in trade of the said bankrupt shall have been sold and disposed of, or during all such further period, and at such salary or recompence for their respective services, as the assignees in their discretion shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment or allowance by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of the expenses of a conveyance and assignment of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for the benefit of creditors, prior to the issuing of the said Fiat, and of all journeys already taken, or hereafter to be taken, by the said assignees, or either of them, for the purpose of attending any meeting under the said Fiat, or of selling the said bankrupt's effects, or making any agreement relating thereto, or any other expences which they, or either of them, may incur in attending to the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts without security; and for confirming and agreeing to any composition or other arrangement which the said assignees shall, previously to the said meeting, have made with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already adopted and taken by the said assignees in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to authorise them to act in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Banks Nicklin, of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate, on Tuesday the 7th day of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Swan Hotel, in Wolverhampton aforesaid, in order to sanction, allow, and confirm all sale or sales made, previous to the said intended meeting, by the assignees of the horses, gig, and other carriages, stock in trade, goods, and effects of the said bankrupt, or of any part or portion thereof; and to assent to the said assignees selling and disposing of such part of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, and effects of the said bankrupt as at the time of this meeting remain unsold, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or partly by private or public tender, and either for ready money or on credit; and to their buying in the same, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, for ready money or on credit, with like powers again to buy in, and resell the same, in manner aforesaid, as to the said assignees shall seem expedient, and to their taking a bill or bills of exchange, or other security or securities, for the purchase money as they shall deem proper, without being liable to account for or bear any loss which may happen by reason of the selling on credit, taking any such security or securities, or such resale or resales as aforesaid; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees joining or concurring in the transfer to any person, who shall be willing to pay off the same, any mortgage debt or debts affecting any hereditaments and premises belonging to the said bankrupt, and to the payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences attending and incident to the transferring of any such mortgage or mortgages, or any of them; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees joining and concurring with any mortgagee or mortgagees, or any equitable mortgagee or mortgagees, in a sale or sales of any hereditaments and premises belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, to be conducted in such manner as the said assignees shall think proper, and either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and either to such mortgagees, or any of them, or any other person or persons whomsoever, and in one lot or several lots, at one or several times, and either wholly or partly for ready money, at a future day or days, with or without taking security for the purchase money, or any part thereof, with power to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable or liable for any deficiency or diminution in value or price which may occur by such resale or resales; and to the said assignees making and entering into any arrangement or settlement with such mortgagee or mortgagees, and any other person or persons claiming any lien, interest, or charge upon any hereditament and premises, or any part thereof, as they may be advised or think most beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees filing a bill or bills in equity, presenting a petition or petitions in bankruptcy to the Court of Review, bringing any action or actions or suits at law, and taking such other proceedings, at law or in equity, as they may be advised or think fit against a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of certain property occupied by the bankrupt, and situate in the said town of Wolverhampton, or elsewhere, or for recovering the title deeds relating to the property of the said bankrupt, and lately conveyed, or alleged to have been conveyed, to the said certain person by the said bankrupt, or by any person or persons, by his direction, or on which he, the said certain person, has, or may claim to have, a lien by way of equitable mortgage or otherwise, or to the said assignees settling and agreeing with the said certain person, in respect of the said alleged conveyance, mortgage, or other lien, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees shall think proper; and to the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, what may appear to them to be due to the said certain person in respect of his alleged conveyance, or any alleged mortgage or lien; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred, previous and subsequent to the issuing of the said Fiat, respecting the said bankrupt's estate, and for the protection thereof, and the costs, charges, and expences of journeys taken by the Solicitor to the said assignees, and by Mr. Richard Hopkins, and any other person, previous to the choice of assignees, in taking and keeping possession of the said bankrupt's property, and for the maintenance of his family to investigate the affairs of the said bankrupt, he the said bankrupt having left his residence, and to make inquiries after the bankrupt's estate and effects, and in, about, and concerning the choice of assignees under the said bankrupt's estate; and to sanction, allow, and confirm the employment and payment by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of an accountant to investigate the dealings and transactions of the said bankrupt, and to make up and adjust his books and accounts, and to make out the same, also the costs, charges, and expences of collecting in the debts due to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent or dissent to all proper and necessary steps and proceedings being adopted to investigate a certain alleged debt, to a large amount, claimed to be owing from the said bankrupt to the said certain person, so to be named as aforesaid, and to the said assignees filing a bill or bills in equity, or taking proceedings at law or in equity, or in bankruptcy, as the said assignees may be advised, against the said certain person, for the purpose of having the said debt set aside and disallowed, in case the said certain person shall prove the same under the said Fiat, and also to have the deeds and writings belonging to the said bankrupt's property delivered up by the said certain person, and other persons, to the said assignees; and to the said assignees paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences of and incident to such investigation and proceedings, out of the bankrupt's estate; and to the said assignees settling, arranging, and agreeing with the party claiming the said alleged debt, by paying the said certain person the said debt, or a portion of such alleged debt, and receiving a release or other discharge for the remainder of such alleged debt, or by referring or submitting to arbitration all disputes and differences touching or concerning the said alleged debt, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees filing, commencing, and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, or bill or bills in equity, or presenting a petition or petitions to the Court of Review, or taking other proceedings in bankruptcy, or to such other proceedings as they may be advised against any carrier or any other person or persons whomsoever, for the recovery of certain property in their or any of their possession or custody, part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees, at the risk and expence of the said estate, contracting and agreeing with any person or persons whomsoever, for the finishing and completing any goods of the said bankrupt in process of manufacture or may be unfinished at the issuing of the said Fiat; and also to assent or dissent to the said assignees taking, commencing and prosecuting, defending and opposing any proceedings at law, in equity, or in bankruptcy, in respect of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and for the protection, recovering, and getting in of the same, or any part thereof, and to refer to arbitration or compromise any dispute, claim, or demand whatsoever, which now or may exist between the said assignees and any person or persons whomsoever, in respect of the same, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking any step or steps for enforcing the attendance before the Commissioners acting under the said Fiat of the said bankrupt, and for recovering any sum or sums of money, or of any goods, securities for money, or other property in the said bankrupt's possession or power; and also to consider the propriety of taking any proceedings against the said bankrupt, and for paying and discharging all and every of the costs and charges that may be incurred and occasioned in and about the taking such step or steps and proceedings against the said bankrupt as aforesaid; and generally to do every lawful act and acts as they shall think necessary or beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate, as they shall be advised in and about the premises.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Preedy, of Corn Market-street, Oxford, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 3d day of January next, at nine of the clock in the forenoon, at the Mitre Inn, in the city of Oxford aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compromising, compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and particularly to consider certain proposals made to the said assignees by or on behalf of certain persons, to be named at the meeting for compounding or compromising certain debts or liabilities due by such persons to certain creditors who have proved, or may hereafter prove, under the said Fiat, and to and empower the assignees giving their consent thereto; also to confirm the terms on which the said assignees have employed a person to collect the outstanding debts of the estate; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London; or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 12th day of December 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

JOHN FOTHERGILL, of Queen-street, Cheapside, in the city of London, Slop-Seller and Out-Fitter, that he is in

And on the 13th day of December 1839, by JOHN WILSON GREEN, of Dartmouth, in the county of Devon, Ship-Builder, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WILLIAM BANKS SILK, of No. 23, Jewin-street, in the parish of Cripplegate, in the city of London, Builder, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order of Her Majesty's Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for Henry Nicholl, of Greetland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, Worstel-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects and finish his Examination, until Tuesday the 14th day of January next, at three in the afternoon; this is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the Fiat named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 13th day of January next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, at the Magistrates'-office, in Halifax, in the county of York, when and where the said bankrupt is required to surrender himself, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against John William Llewellyn, of Cowcross-street, West Smithfield, in the county of Middlesex, Iron-founder, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Sir Charles Frederick Williams, a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy on the 6th of January next, at ten in the forenoon precisely, and on the 24th of the same month, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts; and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt; or that have any of his effects, not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. James Clark, No. 5, New Broad-street-court, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Mr. William Williams, Solicitor, 31, Alfred-place, Bedford-square.

a prisoner in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex.

Whereas the said prisoner was brought up to be dealt with according to the provisions of the said Act before the Court on the 11th day of December instant, in pursuance of an order of the Court made in that behalf, and the said hearing was then adjourned by the Court.

It is ordered and appointed, that the matters of the petition and schedule herein shall be further heard by the Court, at the Court-house, in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields, on the 6th day of January next, at the hour of ten in the morning precisely: of which such advertisement shall be published, and such notice shall be given, and to such persons, as is prescribed by the rule of Court in that behalf, and as the Court may have directed on making the said adjournment.

BY THE COURT.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose the said Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and columns of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office, in Portugal-street.

2. But where notice for the original hearing has been defective, and a short notice is given for the adjourned hearing, under the rule of Court XX. 8, such short notice will only be valid, upon condition that the Prisoner waives his right to notice of opposition.

3. Also Creditors, whose opposition was commenced at the former hearing, are not required to give further notice of the same.

4. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on the day previous to the said day of hearing.

5. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive, on this notice being exhibited:—and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer according to the Act 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

6. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
