

the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid, is or are subsisting; and that such Act, and the said recited Act, shall apply, and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid, in the first and second year of Her reign, declare, that the foreign powers with which any such treaties as aforesaid are subsisting, are the several powers hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the United States of America, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty the King of Hanover, His Majesty the King of Denmark, the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Colombia, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen, and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, His Majesty the King of the French, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, the United States of Mexico, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, the Free City of Frankfort, the State of Venezuela, the Peru Bolivian Confederation, His Majesty the King of Greece, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a representation from the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, dated the twenty-ninth day of November last, in the words following, viz.

THE Lords of the Committee have this day met, and agreed humbly to recommend to your Majesty, that the Reverend John Allen, M. A. and Seymour Tremenheere, Esq. Barrister at Law, and Fellow of New College, Oxford, should be appointed Inspectors of Schools to be aided by Public Grants, and their Lordships further recommend that the services of each of the said Inspectors should, for the present, be remunerated as follows, viz. at the rate of three guineas per day for every day employed in the duties of their Office, pursuant to the directions of this Committee, out of town, and two guineas per day for every day so employed, in town, and the travelling expences of every day that the said Inspectors shall be respectively engaged in the duty of Inspection, pursuant to the directions of this Committee."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof.

C. C. Greville.
