

with any foreign power, with the similar provisions therein before recited, should respectively continue in force; and also reciting, that, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers foreign powers, treaties, containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act; and doubts have arisen, whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other foreign powers, and it is expedient that such doubts be removed; it is thereby enacted and declared that, from and after the ratification of any treaty heretofore made by Her Majesty, or any of Her Royal Predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said Act, or of any treaty which may hereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, with any such foreign power, in which treaty has been, or shall be, contained provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said recited Act contained, do and shall apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such foreign powers respectively, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as to the trade and shipping of the said United States, and of the said kingdom of Portugal:

And, for the prevention of uncertainty therein, it is thereby enacted that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or them made, with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid, is or are subsisting; and that such Act, and the said recited Act, shall apply, and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid; so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid, in the first and second year of Her reign, declare, that the foreign powers with which any such treaties as aforesaid, are subsisting, are the several powers:

hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the United States of America, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty the King of Hanover, His Majesty the King of Denmark, the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata; the State of Colombia, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen, and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, His Majesty the King of the French, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, the United States of Mexico, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, the Free City of Frankfort, the State of Venezuela, the Peru Bolivian Confederation, His Majesty the King of Greece, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions hereinafter accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December 1839.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled,
