TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1840.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of January 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable George Earl of Clarendon was, by command of Her Majesty, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Downing-Street, January 7, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-General Sir Lionel Smith, Bart. and K. C. B. to be Governor and Commander in Chief of the Island of Mauritius and its dependencies.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, sec. 1, that the actual expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland exceeded the actual revenue thereof, for the year ended the 10th day of October 1839, by the sum of eight hundred and three thousand four hundred and sixty-three pounds, seventeen shillings, and four pence;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that no sum will be applied by them on account of the Sinking Fund, under the provisions of the said Act, between the 7th day of January 1840 and the 5th day of April 1840.

S. Higham, Comptroller General.

National Debt-Office, January 6, 1840.

FELONY,—£50 REWARD.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
January 1, 1840.

WHEREAS John Byron, lately master and part owner of the ship John Renwick, of London, which was engaged, in the year 1838, to carry out female convicts to New South Wales, was, on the 14th of November last, charged before the Sitting Magistrate at the Thames Police Court at Wapping, with having stolen and embezzled divers large quantities of Her Majesty's stores and provisions, put on board the said ship for the subsistence and use of the convicts and passengers; and, on the 21st of November, stood committed to take his trial, but was subsequently admitted to bail for his appearance at the Central Criminal Court, at the Old Bailey, at the then next session, which commenced on the 25th of November last; at which session two bills of indictment for felony, grounded on the said charge, were found against him; and whereas the said John Byron did not make his appearance at the said session, in consequence of which the recognizances of himself and his bail were ordered by the Court to be estreated, and the said John Byron hath ever since been at large;

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of £50, to any person who shall give such information as shall be the means of causing the said John Byron to be apprehended, so that he may be brought to justice.

The said reward to be paid (on his being committed to prison) by Mr. Jones, Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, near Waterloo-bridge, London.

By command of their Lordships,

John Barrow.

RIVER HUMBER BUOYAGE AND BEACONAGE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. HEBBLES FLOATING LIGHT.

Trinity-House, Kingston-upon-Hull, December 26, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in conformity with the intension expressed in the advertisement from this House, of the 12th day of December instant, a floating light vessel is now moored, in about four fathoms water, on the Sand Side of the Hebbles Channel, in the River Humber, between the Hook and Anson Buoys, with the following compass bearings:

St. James's Church—its own breadth open of the west pier of the Humber Dock Basin.

Thwart Mark—Sutton Church midway between the two easternmost Mills on the Holderness Road.

And that, on and after Saturday the 28th instant, a fixed red light, raised about twenty feet high, will be exhibited on board the said vessel every night, from sun-set to sun-rise; and, during the day-time, a red flag will be shewn.

By order,
Wm. Bunney, Secretary.

Certain Improvements in the Machinery for Cleaning, Carding, Drawing, Roving, and Spinning of Cotton and Wool.

WHEREAS John George Bodmer, of Mayfield-terrace, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Civil Engineer, did cause to be inserted four times in the London Gazette, bearing date respectively the 15th day of May, the 18th day of May, the 22d day of May, and the 25th day of May 1838, the following notice:

"John George Bodmer, formerly of No. 50, Oxford-street, Chorlton-row, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Civil Engineer, but now of Mayfield-terrace, in Chorlton-row aforesaid (now called Chorlton-upon-Medlock), Civil Engineer, hereby gives notice, that he intends forthwith to apply to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation for the further term of seven years, or such other term, not exceeding seven years, as Her Majesty shall please of the term, of sole using and vending his, the said John George Bodmer's, invention of certain improvements in the machinery for cleaning, carding, drawing, roving, and spinning of cotton and wool, granted to him, the said John George Bodmer, by certain letters patent, bearing date the 18th day of August 1824, in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland; also by letters patent, dated the 7th day of October, in the fifth year of His said late Majesty's reign, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland; and also by certain letters patent, dated the 14th day of October, in the fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed. And the said John George Bodmer hereby gives further notice, that he intends to apply, on the 26th day of June next, to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his petition for such prolongation of the said terms as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 26th day of June next.

John George Bodmer."

And whereas, in pursuance of the above notice, the said John George Bodmer, on the 29th day of November 1838, brought the matters of such notice and petition before the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, who dismissed the same:

And whereas I presented another petition, since the passing of the Act of Parliament, 2d and 3d Victoria, cap. 67, which was heard before the Lords of the said Judicial Committee, on the 5th December 1839, when their Lordships were pleased to represent to Her Majesty, and Her Majesty was graciously pleased to order, that the said Order in Council of the 12th December 1838 be, and the same was thereby, rescinded, and that the said petition (so dismissed as aforesaid), be, and the same was thereby, restored; and that when the proper notices should have been given by me, the Lords of the Judicial Committee were to hear the same, and report their opinion thereon to Her Majesty, whereof all persons whom it might concern were to take notice and govern themselves accordingly:

Now therefore, I, the said John George Bodmer, in pursuance of the said Order of Her Gracious Majesty, do hereby give further notice, that I intend to apply, on Tuesday the 11th day of February 1840, to the Right Honourable the Lords of the said Judicial Committee, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of my said first petition, so restored as aforesaid, for such prolongation of the said terms as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 11th day of February 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 12th day of November 1839, and made between Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, both of Brasted, in the county of Kent (lately in copartnership together), of the first part; Charles Borham Warner, of the Crescent, Jewin-street, Cripplegate, London, Brass Founder, trustee for the creditors of the said Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, and each of them, of the second part; and the several other persons whose names are mentioned in the schedule thereunder written, creditors of the said Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, or one of them, of the third part; they, the said Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, did, and each of them did, for the considerations therein mentioned, bargain, sell, assign, transfer, and set over unto the said trustee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, all the stock in trade, goods, wares, merchandizes, chattels, plate, household stuff and implements of furniture, debts, and all other the personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, of them, the said Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, as well joint as separate, and all bonds, bills, notes, securities for money, books, papers, and writings, whatsoever, in any manner concerning the same, upon the trusts in the said indenture expressed and declared; and that the said indenture of assignment was executed by the said Edwin Marten and Robert Marten, respectively, on the said 12th day of November 1839, in the presence of, and attested by, James Illingworth Hindmarsh, of the Crescent, Jewin-street, Cripplegate, London, Solicitor, and by the said Charles Borham Warner on the 13th day of the same month of November, in the presence of, and attested by, the said James Illingworth Hindmarsh.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture, bearing date the 7th day of November 1839, and made between John Dempsey the elder and John Dempsey the younger, of Somers'-place, New-road, St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Paper-Stainers, of the first part; James Norris, of Queenhithe, Upper Thames street, London, Wholesale Stationer, and James Murray, of Upper Thames-street aforesaid, Wholesale Stationer, two of the creditors of the said John Dempsey the elder and John Dempsey the younger, of the second part; and the several other persons, creditors also of the said John Dempsey the elder and John Dempsey the younger who should execute the said indenture, of the third part; the said John Dempsey the elder, and John Dempsey the younger, have, and each of them hath, assigned and transferred unto the said James Norris and James Murray all and singular the household furniture, goods, fixtures, stock in trade, debts that are due and owing to them, as also all ready money, bills, bonds, notes, and other securities for money, and all other the personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, of them the said John Dempsey the elder and John Dempsey the younger, upon certain trusts therein mentioned for the benefit of their said creditors, parties to the aforesaid indenture of the second and third parts; which said indenture was executed by the said John Dempsey the elder and John Dempsey the younger, James Norris, and James Murray, in the presence of, and was attested by, Edward Bliss, of Symond's inn, Chancery lane, London, Solicitor, on the day on which the said indenture bears date; and the same indenture now remains at the office of the said Edward Bliss, situate at No. 6. Symond's-inn, Chancery-lane aforesaid, for execution by such of the said creditors as shall not have already executed the same.—Dated this 2d day of January 1840.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Hugh Massey, of the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, Surgeon, Apothecary, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 30th day of January instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Castle and Ball, Inn, in the said city of Bath, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action at law, or suit in equity, against a certain person: then and there to be named, to compel the performance of a certain agreement made and entered into by the said bankrupt with such person, or for the sale of part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or to recover damages from such person for the non-performance of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making any and such reduction in the sum agreed to be paid by such person for such purchase as aforesaid, as to them, the said assignees, shall seem reasonable and proper; or to the said assignees rescinding the said agreement and entering into another agreement with such person, or with any other person or persons, for the sale of all or any part of the estate and effects named in such agreement; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edwin Hodson, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Linen Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 28th day of January instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the New Royal Hotel, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain expences incurred in and about obtaining and retaining possession of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, both at Birmingham and at Evesham, prior to opening the said Fiat, and in and about taking a full and particular account of such stocks respectively, and making lists and inventories thereof, and generally in securing and protecting the property of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain expences incurred by and attending upon a meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupt touching his affairs, prior to opening the said Fiat, and the expences incurred by various creditors in attending such meeting from a distance, and also certain expences incurred in reference to a compromise proposed to the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing such action or actions, suit or suits, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, as they shall be advised, against such person as will be named at the meeting, for the recovery of the value of certain property intrusted to him by the said bankrupt, for such purposes and under such circumstances as will be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, or disposing of all or any part of the said bankrupt's stock in trade or other effects, either by public auction or private contract, valuation, appraisement, or by way of tender, or otherwise as the said assignees shall think proper, and in such lots or parcels, at such times or places, upon such terms and conditions, either for ready money or upon credit, and, if upon credit, with or without such security as the said assignees shall think proper, with full liberty to and for the said assignees at any auction to buy in and afterwards to resell the same, or any part thereof, in such manner as they shall think proper, without being answerable for any loss or diminution in price at any such resale, or for any expences occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying such sum, or sums of money to the person or persons employed, or hereafter to be employed, in taking charge of, and in showing and disposing of, the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, and in collecting and receiving the debts due to and in winding up the said bankrupt's estate, as the said assignees shall think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors of the said bankrupt's estate, for any debt or debts due from them, and taking any part of such debts in discharge of the whole, and also to their giving such time and taking such security for payment of the same, or any part thereof, as to the said assignees shall seem proper, and to and from their submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing any dispute or differences now existing, or which may at any time hereafter arise, respecting or in any wise concerning the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or to their settling and arranging the same, on such terms as the said assignees shall think expedient; and to authorise the said assignees generally to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt as they, from time to time, shall think necessary, reasonable, just, and beneficial for the estate and creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Fox, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Corn-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 28th day of January instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Mr. James Barriatt, junr

Solicitor, Town-hall buildings, Manchester, in order to sanction and adopt the purchases and sales made by and generally the acts of the provisional assignee under the said fiat, in respect of the said bankrupt's trade, and also to confirm and adopt the sale, by private contract, made by the said provisional assignee, of the whole of the stock in trade, and of the household furniture and effects of the said bankrupt, and also to pass and adopt the accounts of the said provisional assignee, and also to sanction and confirm the sale, letting, and disposition, made, either before or after the said 28th day of January instant, by the assignees elect, of the whole or any part of the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estates, and also of the said bankrupt's shares or other interest in certain public undertakings and joint stock companies, and other personal effects, by public auction and private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots, and upon such terms, as to the said assignees shall appear expedient; and also to authorise and confirm any contract or arrangement with the persons having, or claiming to have, any mortgage, lien, or security, upon the said estates and effects, and the payment by the said assignees, out of the bankrupt's estate, of any sum or sum of money in full discharge of such mortgages, liens, or securities; also to assent to the said assignees relinquishing or repudiating any leases or interest in public undertakings or joint stock companies of the said bankrupt, and also paying up any calls, or other moneys, payable in respect of the said shares, or any of them, and also to sanction and confirm the proceedings at law, in equity, and bankruptcy, already adopted or defended, or which may, previously to the said 28th day of January instant, be adopted or defended by the said assignees, in order to recover moneys due to, and otherwise to protect, the said bankrupt's estate; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees and bankrupt to convey certain hereditaments, vested in the said bankrupt as trustee for the Temperance Burial Society, to such persons, and in such manner, as they may be advised; and also to authorise and consent to the payment or retention by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, or the dividends payable thereout, such sum of money as shall appear to be a reasonable compensation, to the said assignees, or one of them, for their or his labour as accountants or accountant, or otherwise, and for the services of their or his clerks, and for their or his expenses in relation to the management of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits, at law or in equity, or proceedings in bankruptcy, or the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects, real or personal, of the said bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto, or allowing time for payment of any debts due to the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in the conduct and management of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt as they, the said assignees, may think most advisable; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 4th day of January 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

AUSTIN FUSSELL, carrying on the trade or business of an Ironmonger, in the parish of All Saints, in the city of Oxford, that he is insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
