THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin John, of the town of Narberth, in the county of Pembroke, General Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 31st day of January instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Clowes and Wedlake, Solicitors, No. 10, King's Bench Walk, Temple, London, to consider and determine the propriety of the said assignees employing an accountant in adjusting the accounts, and in ascertaining the state of the debts and credits of the said bankrupt; and to consider and determine the time, place, and manner of disposing of the stock in trade and effects of the said bankrupt, and as to the propriety of offering the same for sale by tender or otherwise, as may be most for the benefit of the parties interested in the produce thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits, either at law or in equity, to recover and get in all such part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as may remain outstanding, and all such debts as may be due and owing to his estate, and still unreceived; and as to the said assignees compounding for any of the same; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Jacob Richardson, of Hyde, in the county of Chester, Shopkeeper and Beer-Seller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 4th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the White Bear Inn, Piccadilly, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the payment of certain expences incurred previously to the bankruptcy, for the protection of the property of the bankrupt, and which will be stated at such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract, and at a valuation or otherwise, and either together or in parcels, and at different times, or for ready money or on credit, and without being answerable for any loss if sold on credit; and, in case of any sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in all or any part of the property aforesaid, and again offering the same for sale, with the like powers and authorities; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or proceedings in bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and compounding any debt or debts, or submitting to arbitration any matter, claim, or dispute relating thereto; and to ratify, confirm, and allow all and whatsoever the said assignee shall have done previous to the said meeting; and generally to authorise and empower him to act for the benefit and protection of the estate, and to wind up the affairs of the same, as the said assignee may deem most advantageous to the creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Spence, of Dewsbury, in the county of York, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 3d day of February next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Royal Hotel, in Dewsbury aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt; and to the assignees making to such person or persons compensation for his or their trouble, as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and to assent to or dissent from the payment or allowance, by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of certain costs and charges incurred in and about the management and taking care of collecting and protecting the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, previous and up to the choice of assignees; and also any charges and expences which the assignees under the said fiat, or either of them, shall or may have incurred, or which shall arise in attending to the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and to make such allowance and allowances to the said assignees for their trouble therein, as may be thought proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to any person or persons who may be willing to purchase the same, any part or parts of the said bankrupt's stock and implements of trade, goods, fixtures, and all other his estate and effects.

whatsoever, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors, either upon credit or for ready money, or partly upon credit, and partly for ready money, with power to buy in and again, in like manner, sell the same, without being accountable for any loss which may happen to the estate thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or in the Court of Review, or any other proceedings which may, at any time hereafter, become necessary, for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration any questions or controversies which have arisen, or may arise, touching the nondelivery of any goods bought by the said bankrupt, or to the said assignees agreeing to abide by the opinion of counsel on an agreed state of facts, respecting the nondelivery of any such goods; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to such debtor or debtors for payment of his, her, or their debts, without security; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting and taking from certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, a lease of a certain shop lately occupied by the said bankrupt, for such term, and upon such conditions, as shall be then mentioned, at the risk and for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, without the said assignees, or either of them, being liable for any loss which may happen to the said bankrupt's estate, by the sale of their interest in the said lease, when obtained; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with any legal or equitable mortgagee or mortgagees, or any other person or persons interested therein, in selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, together or in parcels, and upon such terms as the assignees shall think proper, and with such like powers of buying in and reselling as hereinbefore mentioned, all and every the real estate in or to which the said bankrupt is interested or entitled; or to assent to or dissent from the assignees releasing, conveying, surrendering, or assuring the said real estate to such mortgagee or mortgagees, in satisfaction, or part satisfaction, of the principal moneys and interest, costs and charges due thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any other debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs, without the said assignees being liable or answerable for any loss or deficiency which may arise to the said bankrupt's estate in consequence thereof; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already adopted and taken by the assignees under the said Fiat, in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to authorise them to act in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate, as to them shall seem most expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such

"Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 10th day of January 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

JOSEPH SIMONS, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, Victualler, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
