Wincanton Union.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated in the parish of Henstridge, in the county of Somerset and union of Wincanton, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of December 1839, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 20th day of January 1840, Robert Clarke, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and enclosing the open and common fields, carr lands, furze leas, waste grounds, and other lands, in the parishes of Saint Mary, South Kelsey, and Saint Nicholas, South Kelsey, within the manor or lordship of South Kelsey, in the county of Lincoln; and for extinguishing all rights of common and sheep walks in and over the same," that application is intended to be made by me, the undersigned, George Skipworth, of Moorton-hill, in the said parish of Saint Mary, South Kelsey, Esquire, one of the owners and proprietors of lands and estates subjected to the payment of the corn rents hereinafter referred to, who am assessed to the poors' rate at the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held in and for the division of Lindsey, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the 31st day of March now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for inquiring into, and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall have been, or shall be published therein; and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in order to the re-ascertainment of the yearly corn rents payable to the Rector of the Rectory of Saint Mary, South Kelsey, with Saint Nicholas, South Kelsey, annexed, in lieu of the great and small tithes, and other ecclesiastical dues, duties, and payments arising, renewing, increasing, or happening within the said parishes, under the provisions of the said Act of Parliament.

Dated this 18th day of January 1840.

George Skipworth.

I The undersigned William Jones, Rector of Scartho, in the county of Lincoln, Clerk, do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden at Kirton, in and for the parts of Lindsey, in the said county of Lincoln, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and elected by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for inquiring into or ascertaining, by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, if the returns of the average prices of corn and grain be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways and means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the term of twenty-one years then last past, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for dividing and enclosing the open common fields, meadows, pastures, and other commonable lands and waste grounds in the lordship of Scartho, in the county of Lincoln."—

Dated this 17th day of January 1840.

EXEMPT FROM DUTY.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Capes, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Fiat in Bankruptcy against William Yates, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Commission Agent, Cotton Spinner, and Manufacturer by Power, Dealer and Chapman, at the Clarence Hotel, in Spring-gardens, Manchester, on Wednesday the 7th day of February 1840, at six o'clock in the evening, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

The fee-simple and inheritance of and in all that commodious and substantial messuage or dwelling-house, with the offices, garden, two stalled stable, and coach-house thereunto belonging, situate and being No. 77, in Plymouth-grove, in Chorlton upon Medlock, in the parish of Manchester aforesaid, now in the occupation of William Gibb, Esq. under a lease made to him thereof by the said bankrupt, of which four years have yet to run.

The house and buildings have been erected about five years, and are in excellent repair; and on the vacant land, now used as a garden, another respectable dwelling-house, with suitable out-buildings, might be conveniently erected.

The dwelling-house contains three excellent entertaining rooms on the ground floor, and seven good bed-rooms, and is fitted up with bath-room, water-closet, and other requisite and suitable conveniences.

The site of the above premises contains 2826 square yards and six-ninths of a square yard of land, or thereabouts, and is subject to the payment of the low yearly chief rent of £29 8s. 10½d.

The property will be sold subject to certain mortgage securities granted to the trustees of the Middleton Building Club, and to the payments thereunder, and the covenants, conditions, and agreements therein respectively contained.

To view the premises apply at the dwelling house, between the hours of eleven o'clock in the forenoon and one o'clock in the afternoon, or between three and five o'clock in the afternoon; and for further particulars apply to Mr. William Casson, Brown street, Solicitor to the assignees of the said William Yates; or to Mr. J. A. Petty, Solicitor, No. 2, Town-hall-buildings, Cross-street, Manchester.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Waddell, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant and Ship-Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 14th day of February next, at one of the clock in the afternoon, at the Clarendon-rooms, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation or otherwise, as to them may seem best, the remaining estate and effects of the said bankrupt which are of a saleable nature, or any part or parts thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from, and in case of assent then to ratify, confirm, and allow, the sales, receipts, and payments made by, and to all other the acts and proceedings of, the provisional assignee, and also of the creditors' assignees, under the said Fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing such person or persons as they may think proper to manage and arrange the affairs and accounts of the said bankrupt, and collect and dispose of his estate and effects, and pay him or them thereout such remuneration for his or their services as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions at law, or suits in equity, in respect of the said bankrupt's estate as they may think proper or be advised, for the recovery, protection, or getting in the same, or any part thereof; and to the said assignees compounding any doubtful or bad debt owing to the said bankrupt's estate, referring or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling or arranging any such action or actions, suit or suits, or any dispute or difference arising between the said assignees and any person or persons respecting any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or any claim upon the same; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wilks, of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Tailor and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate, on Thursday the 13th day of February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Mr. George Price Hill, Solicitor, No. 22, Cannon-street, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in order to sanction, allow, ratify, and confirm all sale or sales made, previous to the said intended meeting, by the assignee, of the stock in trade and effects of the said bankrupt, and of all and every the acts, transactions, payments, matters, and things already done, made, and effected by the said assignee; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing, either by public auction or by private contract, or upon a valuation and appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignee, for such price as to him shall seem beneficial for the creditors, the equity or right of redemption of the said assignee of or in any of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, to any person or persons whomsoever, who shall be willing to purchase the same; and, in case of such sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, all or any-part of the premises which shall be put up for sale, at such price or prices as he may think proper, and again to offer for sale, and to resell the same, without being liable or answerable for any loss or deficiency which may arise in price or value upon such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, if he may deem it expedient, joining and concurring with any equitable or legal mortgagee or mortgagees, of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, in a sale or sales thereof, by auction or private contract, with like powers to buy in and resell the same, without any responsibility for loss or diminution upon such resale, and either for money or upon credit, or security, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said assignee may think proper; and to allow the mortgagee, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, to receive payment of their principal, interest, and expences out of the purchase moneys, if sufficient for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing, at the expence of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, or such other person or persons as he may deem proper, and from his accepting such appointment and employment himself, to collect in the debts, and take and value the estate and effects of the said bankrupt and to ratify and confirm the appointment of an accountant, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, which shall have been made by the said assignee prior to the said meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee receiving such compensation for his time and trouble in the matters aforesaid, as if he had not been appointed or accepted the office of assignee to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to make such compensation to such accountant and other person, for his or their time and trouble in the matters aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment or allowance by the said assignee, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of the expences of a conveyance and assignment of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for the benefit of creditors prior to the issuing of the said fiat, and the costs, charges, and expences incurred previous to, and subsequent to, the issuing of the said fiat, respecting the said bankrupt's estate, and for the protection thereof, by the Solicitor to the said fiat; and of all journeys taken by the Solicitor to the assignee and petitioning creditor to London, and other places, previous to the choice of assignees; and of all journeys taken, or to be hereafter taken, by the said assignee, for the purpose of attending any meeting under the said fiat, or of selling the said bankrupt's effects, or making any agreement thereto, or any other expences which he may incur in attending to the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may, at any time hereafter, become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same; or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debt or debts without security, and for conforming and agreeing to any composition or other arrangement which the said assignee shall, previously to the said meeting, have made with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's estate and affairs; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already adopted and taken by the said assignee, in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to authorise him to act in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate, as to him shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Shuttleworth, of Market Harborough, in the county of Leicester, and of the Light Pool Mills, in the parishes of Rodburgh and King's Stanley, in the county of Gloucester, Pin-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, carrying on business at Crown-court, Cheapside, in the city of London, under the firm of D. F. Taylor and Co. are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 12th day of February next, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and on Saturday the 15th day of February next, at the Angel Inn, in Market Harborough aforesaid, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely on each of the said days, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to carry on the trade and business of the said bankrupt, at both or either of the mills lately occupied by him, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate; and to buy such goods requisite for that purpose, and for such a length of time, as to the said assignees shall appear advisable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons as agent, superintendent, clerk, workmen, or servants, for disposing of the said bankrupt's stock in trade, and conducting or carrying on such business, and paying the salaries, commission, and wages of such agent, superintendent, and servants, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to occupy, or giving up to the landlord or landlords, any and what part of the said leasehold mills and estate, lately held by the said bankrupt, or to the said assignees coming to such terms respecting the same, as to them shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees putting up to sale, or concurring with the respective mortgagee or mortgagees thereof in putting up to sale, the whole or any part of the freehold, leasehold, and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, now under mortgage or pledge, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to the said assignees shall seem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking such proceedings to set aside the award of the arbitrator, made in a certain action brought by Daniel Foot Taylor against the said bankrupt (and which action, and all measures in difference between the said bankrupt and the said D. F. Taylor, were referred to William Fisher, Esq.); or otherwise in relation to the said reference and award, as the said assignees may be advised and consider expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration, compounding, compromising, or settling any accounts, debts, demands, or other measures whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, carrying on, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, against the said D. F. Taylor, or any other person or persons, for the recovery or defence of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or for prosecuting, defending, opposing, or answering any petition or petitions to the Judges of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, or to the Lord High Chancellor, touching or concerning the estate, or any mortgage, lien, or incumbrance thereon, or otherwise agreeing any matter, cause, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's property and estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who shall then have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Robert Derham, of Leeds, in the county of York, and Walter Alan Hine and James Derham, of Dolphinholme, in the county of Lancaster, Worsled-Spinners, Partners in trade, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 21st day of February next, at three o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court-House in Leeds aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the joint and separate freehold, leasehold, and other estates, or any parts or shares of any such estates, of the said bankrupts, or any of them, or any interest, or equity of redemption or interest, in any such estates, either by public auction or private contract, and in such lots or parcels, for such sum or sums of money as the said assignees shall or may think proper; and in case such real estates, or any of them, shall be offered for sale by public auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees putting up the same at such times and places, and in such manner, and if necessary buying in the same, at such price or prices as the said assignee shall determine upon, and afterwards reselling such estates, or any part thereof, or, if necessary, rescinding any contract or contracts made on any such sale or sales, without being answerable for any diminution in price or expence to be occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees confirming or disputing, in such manner or to such extent as counsel may advise, any alleged equitable mortgage or lien upon any part or parts of the said bankrupts' joint and several, real or personal, estate and effects, and, if necessary, paying off and discharging the amount or amounts due on any such equitable mortgage or lien, or otherwise compounding the same; or to the said assignees joining and concurring with any legal or equitable mortgagees or mortgagee in the sale or sales of any such last mentioned estates, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade, machinery, engines, utensils, household furniture, personal estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or any of them, either by public auction or private contract, and either for ready money or on credit, and taking such security or securities for the purchase-money thereof as they the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing, surrendering, and giving up any lease or leases, or agreement or agreements for any lease or leases, of any part of the estates and premises now held or occupied by the said bankrupts or their under-tenants, upon such terms or conditions as the said assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees obtaining such valuation or valuations of the said several freehold, leasehold, and other estates, and the improvements made upon the said leasehold estates and premises, and also of the stock in trade, machinery, engines, utensils, household furniture, and effects of the said bankrupts, or any of them, as the said assignees may think necessary and proper for their government in the sale and disposition of such estates and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees redeeming or abandoning any of the stock in trade, goods, chattels, personal estate or effects of the said bankrupts, pledged or deposited by them, or by their order, with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, on such terms or conditions as the said assignees may think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving such authority or authorities to, or making such arrangements with, creditors of the said bankrupts who are holders of certain bills of exchange or other securities to which the said bankrupts are parties, and which are drawn, accepted, or indorsed or entered into by any other person or persons, either for a valuable consideration or otherwise, for the acceptance of any dividend or composition from any of the parties to such bills of exchange or other securities, or otherwise giving time for the payment thereof without prejudice to the claims of the holders of such bills of exchange or other securities for the residue of their debts upon the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on and continuing the business of the said bankrupts, or any parts thereof, and for that purpose to employ the mills, machinery, moneys, and effects of the estate of the said bankrupts, or any part or parts thereof, as also such clerks, servants, and workmen, for such time or times as the said assignees may think proper; or to the said assignees letting any such mills or machinery, or any part thereof, for any term or terms of years, or otherwise; and also to assent to the said assignees employing an accountant, or other person or persons, as well to investigate the affairs of the said bankrupts as to assist in the disposal of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, and to the paying such accountant, or other persons, such compensation for his or their services as the said assignees may think proper; and also to assent to the payment of any salaries or wages due to any of the clerks or servants of the said bankrupts at the time of opening the said Fiat; and also to ratify and confirm, as well all such acts, matters, and things as have already been done or transacted by a provisional committee, consisting of certain of the said bankrupts' creditors appointed previously to the issuing of the said Fiat, as also to ratify, confirm, and approve of all such acts, deeds, matters, contracts, receipts, and payments as may have been done, entered into, given, or made previously to such intended meeting, either by the provisional assignees already appointed or the assignees to be chosen by the creditors under the said Fiat; and also to assent to the said last mentioned assignees paying all such costs, charges, and expences as may have been incurred by such provisional committee, or any of the said assignees, either in the calling any meeting of the creditors of, or investigating the affairs of, the said bankrupts, or for the protection of their property and carrying on their said business with a view to the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or proceedings in bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the said bankrupts' estate; or to the compounding any debt or debts, or to the submitting to arbitration any matter, claim, or dispute relative thereto, or to the resisting any proof or proofs of any debt or debts intended to be made upon the said bankrupts' estate; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said bankrupts' estates in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Abel Wilson, of Heaton-Norris, within the borough of Stockport, and in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinner and Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 11th day of February next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon of the same day, at the office of Mr. John Norris, Solicitor, No. 3, Marsden-street, Manchester, in the said county, in order to assent to, ratify, allow, and confirm, or dissent from, all and every the acts, sales, payments, arrangements, and proceedings of the said assignees under the said Fiat, for the benefit and protection, and in the disposal, of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred in, about, and preparatory to several meetings of the said bankrupt's creditors, previous and subsequent to the issuing of the said Fiat, in order to consider the best mode of arranging his affairs, or effecting a compromise without a bankruptcy, and relating to the security and preservation of his estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the reasonable charges and expences of the accountants employed by the said assignees in examining the books and affairs of the said bankrupt, and which have been, or may be, incurred or payable by or to such accountants in or by virtue of their past or future employment by the said assignees relative to and in winding up and disposing of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving their consent to any creditor or creditors of the said bankrupt who may hold bills of exchange or promissory notes upon which other persons than the said bankrupt are liable, accepting compositions from such other persons so liable, and executing any deeds of assignment, composition, release, or letters of licence between them and their creditors, or giving them time for payment of any such bills by instalments or otherwise, and either with or without security, or to any such creditors of the said bankrupt entering into any other arrangement with such other persons so liable as aforesaid, respecting the payment of the bills or notes upon which they are liable, as they the said assignees shall think fit, without prejudice to the rights of proof of the said several creditors under the said Fiat in any manner whatsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions, suits, or other proceedings at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, for or concerning the recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Mac Lintock, of Barnsley, in the county of York, Linen-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 12th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Shepherd, Solicitor, in Barnsley aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred in and about an assignment prepared for the benefit of creditors, which the said bankrupt refused to execute, and also certain proceedings instituted and adopted against him by several of his creditors for compelling him to surrender his estate and effects for the benefit of his creditors, and also the expences incurred by several of the creditors of the said bankrupt in journeys, and otherwise, in and about the discovery and protection of the bankrupt's effects, and touching his affairs, prior to the opening of the said Fiat; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing such action or actions, suit or suits, at the expence and risk of the said estate, as they shall be advised, against such persons as will be named at such meeting, for the recovery of certain parts of the said bankrupt's estate in the possession or custody of such persons; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, book debts, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, valuation, appraisement, or by way of tender, or otherwise as the said assignees shall think proper, and in such lots or parcels, at such times and places, upon such terms and conditions, either for ready money or on credit, and, if upon credit, with or without security, as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying such sum or sums of money to the person or persons employed, or hereafter to be employed, in taking charge and managing, and in showing and disposing, of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, and in collecting and getting in and receiving the debts due to and in winding up the bankrupt's estate, as the said assignees shall think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees treating and agreeing with the persons having, or claiming to have, any mortgage, lien, or other security upon the bankrupt's real estate, and to the payment of any sum of money, out of the bankrupt's estate and effects, in discharge of such mortgage, lien, or other security as they shall think fit; and also to contract and agree with any person or persons having any claim or lien upon any part of the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and the payment by the said assignees, out of the bankrupt's personal estate and effects, of any sum or sums of money in full discharge of such claims or liens; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors of the said bankrupt's estate for any debt or debts due from them, and taking any part of such debt in discharge of the whole; and also to their giving such time, and taking such security, for payment of the same, or any part thereof, as to the said assignees shall seem proper; and for the submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute or difference now existing, or which may at any time hereafter arise, respecting, or in anywise concerning, the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the bankrupt's estate or effects, or to settling and arranging the same, on such terms as the said assignees shall think expedient; and to authorise the said assignees, generally, to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt, as they from time to time shall think necessary, reasonable, just, and beneficial for the estate and creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4. c. 57. sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
