front the policy of insurance effected on the life of the said bankrupt; and to the said assignee disposing thereof by public auction, private contract, or tender, as he may think fit; and also to the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's estate; or to the compounding, or submitting to arbitration, any such action or suit, or otherwise settling and adjusting any accounts, debts, or disputes of the said bankrupt, or other matter or thing relating to his bankruptcy; and to the said assignee allowing and paying to the said bankrupt for his services since the said fiat, or to any accountant or other person employed by the assignee in the assorting, arranging, and getting up the said bankrupt's stock in trade, &c. for sale, and in collecting and getting in the debts due to the said bankrupt, such compensation commission or other reasonable charges for his and their trouble, as the said assignee may think fit; and generally to authorise the said assignee to adopt such measures as he may deem most proper for investigating and winding up the affairs of the said bankrupt; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Thomas Barker, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Plater, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 19th day of February next, at the offices of Messrs. Arnold and Haines, in Cannon-street, in Birmingham aforesaid, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, in order to assent to ratify and confirm, or to dissent from, all and every the acts, transactions, payments, sales, matters and things already done, made and effected by the said assignees, or any of them, whether in the character of assignees or trustees, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees (if they deem it expedient) entering into and making an agreement or arrangement, if such can be effected, with a certain person, whose name will be stated at such meeting, and who claims to have a lien on certain parts of the effects of the said bankrupt, and certain deeds and papers relating thereto, for the paying, or discharging, wholly or in part, the claim of such person, and redeeming such effects, deeds, and papers, or any of them, or getting the same into the hands of the said assignees, or to allow such person to retain the same, or any part thereof, or sell the same to him, in part or wholly, in discharge of his claim against the said bankrupt, or to make any other arrangement or agreement with the said person, as to the said assignees may seem advisable; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees to make and execute any instrument or instruments for carrying the said arrangement into effect; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or carrying on, or afterwards compounding, a suit in equity, or in the Court of Review, against the said person, or any other person or persons, in relation to the several matters before expressed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to the said bankrupt, or any person or persons on his behalf, any part or parts of the said bankrupt's stock and effects, and to give time for the payment of the purchase money, and to take such security for the same, as the said assignees may deem expedient, without being accountable for any loss which may happen to the estate thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of any other part of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, fixtures, and the whole or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors, or the equity or right of redemption of the said assignees or in any of the said bankrupt's estate or effects, to any person or persons whomsoever who shall be willing to purchase the same; and, in case of such sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, all or any part of the premises which shall be put up to sale, at such price or prices as they may think proper, and again to offer for sale, and resell the same, without being liable or answerable for any loss or deficiency which may arise in price or value upon such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees (if they deem it expedient) joining or concurring with any equitable or legal mortgagee or mortgagees of any part of the said bankrupt's estate or effects, in a sale or sales thereof by auction, or private contract, with like powers to buy in and resell the same, without any responsibility for loss or diminution upon such resale, and either for money or upon credit or security, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said assignees may think proper; and to allow the mortgagee, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, to receive payment of their principal, interest, and expenses out of the purchase moneys (if sufficient for that purpose); and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing, at the expence of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, and such other person or persons as they shall deem proper, to collect in the debts, and take and value the stock and effects of the said bankrupt, and to ratify and confirm the appointment of an accountant, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, which shall have been made by the said assignees prior to the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making such compensation to such accountant, and other persons, for their time and trouble in the matters aforesaid, as to the said assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees appointing and employing the said bankrupt, or any other person, to conduct and manage the business late of the said bankrupt, for the benefit of the said estate, and to employ a porter or porters, or other person or persons under him, until the stock in trade of the said bankrupt shall have been sold and disposed of, or during all such further period, and at such salary and recompence for their respective services, as the assignees in their discretion shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment or allowance by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of the expences of a conveyance and assignment of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, for the benefit of creditors prior to the issuing of the said fiat, and of all journeys already taken, or hereafter to be taken, by the said assignees, or either of them, for the purpose of attending and meeting under the said fiat, or of selling the said bankrupt's effects, or making any agreement relating thereto, or any other expences which they, or either of them, may incur in attending to the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary for, or concerning, the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts, without security, and for confirming and agreeing to any composition, or other arrangement, which the said assignees shall, previously to the said meeting, have made with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt, claim, matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already adopted and taken by the said assignees, in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to authorise them to act in or about the management of the said bankrupt's estate, as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Daniel Hodgson and Jonathan Wright, of Glossop, in the county of Derby, Cotton-Spinners and Manufacturers, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 19th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Mr. Robert Henry Wilson, Solicitor, Mosley-street, Manchester, in order to ratify, confirm, and allow the several acts and proceedings of the trustees or inspectors appointed by the creditors of the said Daniel Hodgson and Jonathan Wright present at a meeting held on the 16th of July last, in or about the carrying on the trade or business of the said Daniel Hodgson and Jonathan Wright, for the benefit of their creditors, pursuant to the resolutions entered into at such meeting previous and down to the time of their bankruptcy; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing and paying, out of the estate of the said bankrupts, the costs and expences of preparing and getting executed a certain deed of inspection and letter of licence pursuant to the resolutions of the creditors present at such last mentioned meeting, and also the costs and expences of, or incident to, that and certain other meetings of the creditors of the said Daniel Hodgson and Jonathan Wright, relative to their affairs; and also the costs and charges of defending an action commenced by a person, who will be named at the said intended meeting, against the said

Daniel Hodgson and Jonathan Wright, subject to the execution of the said deed of inspection and letter of licence, and certain other charges and expences, the particulars of all which said costs, charges, and expences will be laid before the said meeting intended to be held on the said 19th day of February next; also to ratify and confirm the several acts and proceedings of the provisional assignee, and also of the assignees elect or the estate and effects of the said bankrupts respecting their estate since their bankruptcy, all of which acts and proceedings will be stated and explained to the creditors present at such intended meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to carry on, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts, the trade or business of the said bankrupts as Cotton-Spinners and Manufacturers at Glossop aforesaid, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupts' estate, for such specific period, or otherwise, as the said assignees may think proper, or as the creditors present at such intended meeting shall fix or determine upon; also in case it shall be determined upon at such intended meeting to continue to carry on the business of the said bankrupts, then to authorise and empower the said assignees to engage or agree with the said bankrupts, or either of them, and also with such managers, workpeople, servants, clerks, and other persons, for their services in carrying on the said trade or business, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees shall in their discretion think proper; also to authorise and empower the said assignees to make all such purchases, sales, and payments, and to do, transact, and perform all such other acts, matters, and things for the carrying on the said trade or business as the said assignees may think requisite and proper, at the risk, and for the benefit, of the said bankrupts' estate, or of the creditors seeking relief under the said Fiat, without the said assignees, or either of them, being personally liable to or for any loss which may be incurred, or happen on account thereof, or otherwise, at the like risk and expence, to wind up the estate of the said bankrupts, at such time or times and in such manner as the said assignees may think most advantageous to the creditors of the said bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the real, leasehold, or personal estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, either by auction or private contract, or partly by auction, and partly by private contract, and either in one lot, or in several lots, or upon a valuation or appraisement, at such time and place, or times and places, and either to the said bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may deem most advantageous, and either for ready money or on credit, or partly for ready money, and partly on credit; and if on credit, with or without such security for payment, as to the said assignees may think proper, and without their being answerable or accountable for any loss which may happen to the estate of the said bankrupts thereby; and in case all or any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts shall be put up for sale by auction, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in, at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate, all or any part of such estate and effects as shall be so put up for sale, at such price or prices as they may think proper, and again to offer the same for sale in manner aforesaid, and to resell the same, without being answerable or liable for any loss or deficiency which may arise or be occasioned thereby; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupts; and to the said assignees making to such person or persons such compensation for his or their trouble, as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovering, protecting, or defending any part of the said bankrupts' estate or effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt, claim, or demand, or other matter or thing relative thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord

“Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country.”—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 25th day of January 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
