The domestic happiness of your Majesty is so entirely bound up with this important event, and the welfare of the empire is so powerfully affected by it, that we cannot but regard it with feelings of the deepest interest. And it is our fervent prayer to the great Author of all good, that the hopes and anticipations which it has raised in the minds of your Majesty's faithful subjects, may, by His gracious providence, be abundantly fulfilled.

When we look, indeed, to the rich inheritance of virtues which your Majesty derives from the illustrious examples of your Royal House, to the many amiable qualities of His Royal Highness, your Majesty's Consort, and to the circumstance of his being descended from a line of Princes zealous in their attachment to the Protestant faith, we have the best grounds for trusting that this union may be accompanied with the fulness of the Divine blessing.

May it tend to secure the stability of the Throne, and to perpetuate in these realms the sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick; to confirm and strengthen our best institutions in Church and State, to inspire an universal reverence for the holy ordinances of religion, and to conciliate and unite the affections of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

So may your Majesty long reign over us, blessed with the Divine favour, and cheered, amidst the anxious cares of a Sovereign, by domestic happiness, and the dutiful attachment of a devoted people.

"I fully appreciate the value of such assurances of attachment from a body which has long been so eminently distinguished for the successful exercise of its high functions in the diffusion of learning, and in the promotion of religion.

"It is matter of satisfaction to me, that you should do justice to the claims on your favour, both personal and hereditary, which are united in the Prince; and I trust that the solemn engagement into which I have entered, hailed as it has been by the cordial approval of my people, may ever continue to be blessed with the Divine favour and protection."

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the general body of Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the three denominations, residing in and about the cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal presence, to offer our congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious marriage with His Royal Highness Prince Albert of Saxe Coburg and Gotha.

We regard this happy event with patriotic joy as amongst those special occurrences of a wise and gracious Providence, by which the Divine favour is evinced both towards our revered Sovereign and our beloved country.

In our public and domestic devotions we shall not cease to invoke the All-merciful God, through the Divine Redeemer, to confer upon your Majesty, and your Majesty's Royal Consort, the richest gifts of Heaven, that the conjugal relation, with its holy charities, may be a solace to your Majesty amidst the duties and high responsibilities inseparable from a Throne, and that to your Majesty's faithful people this auspicious union may be the source of numerous blessings, and the security of national greatness.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I am much gratified that you should see in the event which is the subject of your congratulations, not only the prospect of domestic comfort to myself, but an additional mark of the Divine favour towards this country; and I earnestly assure you that, fully impressed with the responsibility of my station, I feel that my own happiness must always be inseparably connected with the welfare of my people."

Buckingham-Palace, March 3, 1840.

THIS day the following Address to the Queen<sup>7</sup> from the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Presbyterian Denomination, was presented to Her Majesty; which Address Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the QUEEN's Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Presbyterian Denomination, in and about the cities of London and Westminster, rejoice in the high privilege of being permitted humbly to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, upon this auspicious occasion, to express our cordial congratulations upon the alliance which your Majesty has formed in marriage with His Royal Highness Prince Albert of Saxe Coburg and Gotha.

We hailed, with heartfelt delight, your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these kingdoms, the rightful and undisputed heir of our illustrious line of ancestors, by whom the liberties of the people, and especially the liberties of Protestant Dissenters, were greatly extended and secured by law.

Our experience of your Majesty's reign makes it our bounden duty to offer to your Majesty our warmest gratitude for the wise, beneficent, and healing measures of your Majesty's government.

And we recognize a new and signal proof of your Majesty's regard for your people, in your uniting yourself in the sacred band of marriage with a Prince illustrious by his descent from a race of ancestors identified with the glorious event of the Reformation, and eminently qualified, as we hope and believe, by his personal character, to adorn his exalted station, to promote your Majesty's domestic happiness, and thereby to endear himself to your Majesty's dutiful and affectionate people.

As Ministers of the gospel of truth, and peace, and love, our supplications shall continually ascend to the King of kings, that He would vouchsafe to your Majesty his Almighty protection and favour, and, in the course of his providence, cause this most happy union to be a growing blessing to your country throughout many generations; and that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may be prepared, by earthly felicity, for the blissful communion of the world to come.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you for this dutiful and affectionate Address.

"It is gratifying to me that the course of my reign should enable you, on this occasion, to state that experience has justified the loyal anticipations with which you hailed my accession.

"I have heard, with sincere pleasure, the terms in which you have conveyed your approbation of my choice, and I feel that, with the blessing of Providence, which you so earnestly invoke, this event will continue to be a subject of satisfaction to my people."
