We fervently pray that an union, founded upon mutual affection, with a Prince illustrious by his descent from a long line of Ancestors, distinguished in the annals of Europe, and by those mental and personal accomplishments which ennoble the object of your Majesty's choice, will ensure the confidence and love of your subjects, and will conduce no less to the domestic felicity of your Majesty, than to the permanent interests of the British empire.

We renew our assurances of devotion and loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, firmly hoping that, by the blessing of the Almighty, the Throne of these realms may be inherited by your descendants through many ages, to the welfare and prosperity of the present and future generations.

Henley Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

It is the rare felicity of your Royal Highness that, following the impulse of a pure and refined affection, your Royal Highness has formed an alliance, the splendour of which would confer additional lustre and distinction upon the greatest Monarch.

In common with all classes of Her Majesty's subjects, we dwell upon this event with unalloyed satisfaction and delight, convinced that the many excellent and amiable qualities which adorn the character of your Royal Highness, afford to our beloved Sovereign the surest pledge of continued and increasing happiness. Hence also do we confidently anticipate that if, at any time, cares and anxieties should approach the Throne, Her Majesty will experience from your Royal Highness (the chosen and rightful guardian of her domestic peace and comfort), that affectionate attention and support which will sweeten the toils of government, and best alleviate Her Majesty's unceasing solicitude for the public good.
