

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Derby.

Matthew Gisborne, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.

Whitehall, March 17, 1840.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John George William Bonsall, of Machynlleth, in the county of Montgomery, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Ebenezer Chapel, situated at St. David's, in the parish of St. David's, in the county of Pembroke, in the district of Haverfordwest, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of February 1840, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 5th day of March 1840,

Richard James, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to a resolution of the Honourable House of Commons, that application has been made to Parliament in the present session, and leave given, to bring in a Bill, to authorise the appointment of additional Coroners for the county palatine of Chester; in which Bill provision will be made for authorizing the Magistrates of the said county to define, vary, and alter the several districts within which the present, and any such additional Coroners shall act.—Dated this tenth day of March 1840:

Pott's and Brown, Chester.

Royal Naval School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Parliament in the present session, and leave given, to bring in a Bill for the establishment and government of the institution, called the Royal Naval School, and for incorporating the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, and members thereof, and for other purposes connected therewith.

Dated this twelfth day of March 1840.

Ferdinand Brand, Guildhall-buildings, Solicitor for the Bill.

Port Talbot Harbour.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Parliament, and leave given, to bring in a Bill, to alter, explain, amend, enlarge, and partially repeal the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the port and harbour of Aberavon, in the county of Glamorgan."

And also of another Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act, to alter and amend an Act of His present Majesty, for improving the port and harbour of Aberavon, in the county of Glamorgan, to further improve the said harbour, and to change its name;" and to authorise the Port Talbot Company to borrow and take up at interest, any sums of money for completing and perfecting the works by the said Acts authorised to be made, and to defray all necessary charges and expences relating thereto; and also to repeal such parts of the said last-mentioned Act, as direct that the navigable cut and canal from the dock, in the said last-mentioned Act mentioned, to the works late belonging to, the Governor and Company of Copper Mines in England, shall rise gradually and uniformly from the clapping sill of the entrance gates of the said dock to the quay at the said works, and shall be in depth at the termination of the rise thereof at the said quay, not less than twenty-three feet below the high water mark line at spring tides, and to make other provision in lieu thereof.—Dated this tenth day of March 1840.

William Llewellyn, Neath, Solicitor to the said Company.

The Thames Tunnel.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and extend some of the powers and provisions contained in an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of George the Fourth (24th June 1824,) intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a Tunnel under the river Thames, from some place in the parish of Saint John, of Wapping, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore of the said river, in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, with sufficient approaches thereto;" and another Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of George the Fourth (23d May 1828,) intituled "An Act for enabling the Thames Tunnel Company to raise a further sum of money, and for amending the Act relating to the said Tunnel;" and another, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of William the Fourth (28th August 1833,) intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Thames Tunnel Company, and to extend the powers thereby given for raising money for the completion of the said Tunnel;" and that it is proposed by the said intended Act to revive the powers contained in the said recited Acts, or any of them, for the compulsory purchase of certain lands and premises in the parish of Saint John, of Wapping, in the county of Middlesex, and Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, for the purposes of the said undertaking, and to extend the period limited by the said Act of the third and fourth William the Fourth for that purpose.
