

the solicitations which the relations of the Burgh-masters that were put out of the Magistracy and banished the City, are making at that Court on their behalf. The Elector of Cologne is expected back at Bonne the beginning of the next Month.

Hamburg, November 21. They write from Cracow that the King of Poland was returned from the Army to Ruffenberg; That the Troops were ordered to go into their Winter Quarters; and that a Dyet was summoned to meet at Ruffenberg the beginning of January.

Hague, November 24. The States of Holland and West-Friesland re-assembled this Day; and its believed they will at this meeting examine the differences arisen at Dort about the Election of their Magistrates. The 22d Instant Count Waldecke (who still keeps his Command of Veldt-Marschal in the Service of this State, though he be General of the Forces of the Empire) arrived here from Culenburg; and the next Day the Count de Nassau returned hither from Bolduc, whereof he is Governor. Yesterday likewise arrived here the Heer Geede Vice-Admiral of Denmark; but we do not hear that he comes with any publick Commission. The same Day a Conference was held at the House of the Baron Foel Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark between the said Envoy and some of the Members of the States General, deputed by them for that purpose. Lieutenant Admiral Tromp who has had a long fit of Sickness, is pretty well re-established in his Health. The Envoy from the Emperor of Morocco is gone from hence to Amsterdam, where he is to embark in order to his return home. The Sieur Diest Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg parted from hence the last Week, with an intention to go and pass some time at Cleves.

A General Rule made in the Court of Kings-Bench, Thursday next after Eight days of St. Martin, Anno 36. Car. Second. Reg.

This Court taking notice that the Clerks of the Peace, and the Common Clerks of several Cities, Towns and Boroughs within this Kingdom, have neglected the Duties of their several Offices, in extracting into the Court of Exchequer the Names of such persons who have been Indicted for absenting themselves from Church, having neglected to cause Proclamation to be made according to the form of the Statute for Convicting of such Offenders, but for their private advantage issue forth Process of Capias, and so continue the same Ad infinitum. It is ordered that at every General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held within this Kingdom, Proclamation be made for such Offenders rendering their Bodies, as hath been antiently accustomed, and in default of rendering of their Bodies, that the said Clerks of the Peace, and Common Clerks do duly at the next Sessions following, extract their Names into the Exchequer: And the said Clerks of the Peace and Common Clerks are hereby required at their peril to perform the same. And it is ordered that the Justices of the Peace take care that the Law in this case provided be duly put in execution.

By the Court.

Canterbury, Nov. 12. This day His Majesties Gracious Charter lately Granted to this City, was met upon Boughton-Hill, about five miles from hence, by between five and six hundred Horsemen, and forty Coaches of the principal Gentry of the Country, and the most eminent persons of the Corporation, and so conducted to the West Gate of the Town, where they were received by six Companies of Foot, who made a Guard for them to the Town Hall; where His Majesties Charter being read, the Mayor and Aldermen were Sworn, with the Ceremonies usual in the like cases, and the Mayor entertained the whole company with a Collation in the Afternoon, and all manner of demonstrations were shewed, of a Dutiful and Loyal acknowledgment of His Majesties most Gracious Favour to the said City.

Nottingham, Novemb. 20. Our Bridge over the River Trent, whereof six Stone Arches were broken down by the great Frost the last Winter, is by an extraordinary Charge of this Town perfectly repaired, so that Coaches and all sort of Carriage may now pass over it with security.

Westminster, November 20. Elias Best, who was some time since convicted upon an Information for speaking very Scandalous and Seditious words against the Government, and fled thereupon, having been lately apprehended, was this Day brought to the Kings Bench Bar, to receive the Judgment of the Court, which was, That he should pay a Fine of 1000 l. should stand thrice in the Pillory, and be bound with Sureties to the good Behavior during his Life, and be committed till the same be performed.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant unto the Burrough of Macklesfield in the County of Cheller, by their new Charter, two new Fairs, for the buying and selling of all manner of Goods, Cattel, Wares, and Merchandizes, one to be kept on the 25th of April, and the other on the 23d of September Yearly, within the said Burrough.

Advertisements.

☞ The Songs of Moses and Deborah Paraphrased, with Poems on several occasions, never before Published; To which is added a Pindarick on Mr. L'Estrange, by C. Cleeve Gent. Printed for Luke Merdith at the Kings Head at the West End of St. Pauls Church-yard.

☞ A Guide to the Practical Physician: Shewing, from the most Approved Authors, both Ancient and Modern, the truest and safest way of Curing all Diseases. Late-ly Published in Latin by Theoph. Bonet, M. D. And now Rendered into English. With an Addition of many considerable Cases, Rules and Means of Cure, that were omitted by the aforesaid Author. To which is added an Appendix concerning the Office of a Physician, by the same Author. Printed for Thomas Fleisher at the Angel and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

☞ The History and Antiquities of the County of Rutland, Collected from Records, ancient Manuscripts, Monuments on the Place and other Authorities. Illustrated with Sculptures, By James Wright of the Middle-Temple Barrister of Law. And are to be sold by Bennet Griffin, at the Griffin in the Old-Baily, and Christopher Wilkinson and Samuel Keble in Fleetstreet.

☞ The new Youths Behavior, containing. I. His Duty to God; in Meditations and Prayers for Morning and Evening: II. Decency in his Conversation, with a Collection of useful Proverbs for the use of all Scholars. Printed for Sam. Keble at the Turks-Head in Fleetstreet.

The Annual Feast for all Gentlemen Charterhouse Scholars, will be kept on the 12th of December next, Tickets may be had at Mr. Mans, the Royal Coffee-House at Charing-Cross, Mr. Jacob Tonsons, at the Judges-Head in Chancery-Lane, Farrs Coffee-House, near the Temple Gate, Mr. Ralph Smiths, Bookseller at the Bible under the Exchange Cornhill.

The Annual Feast for the Sons of the Clergy, will be kept this Year at Merchant Taylors Hall, on Thursday the 4th day of December next. Tickets may be had at Mr. Hazards at the Rose Tavern without Temple Bar, Mr. Foisters a Draper at the Blue Boar within Ludgate, and Mr. Furnishes at the Great James Tavern in Bishopsgate-Street.

The Buckinghamshire Feast, which was appointed the Second of December next, (in respect the Artillery Feast is to be kept on that Day,) will be on Munday the First Day of December next, at Stationers-Hall the place before appointed.

These are to give Notice, that the Gloucestershire Feast is put off until the Ninth of December, Tickets are to be had at the Royal Coffee-House at Charing-Cross, at Mr. Dawsons at the Hand and Shears in Cloth-Fair, at Mr. Smiths, Cheesemonger near the Marshalsea in Southwark, at Mr. Foords, Cheesemonger at the Angel and Trumpets in White-Chapple, and at Townsends Coffee-House, against the Bell-Inn in Fridaystreet.

A Parchment being lost, a Lease for three Lives, made by the Bishop of Lincoln, in 1661 or 1662, unto Robert Sanderlon, &c. Whoever can give notice of this Lease to Captain Clark, at his House next Door to the Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard London, or to Mr. George Allison, at his House at the Angel in Lincoln, so that it may be restored to the Owner, shall have Five Pounds reward.

Lost out of Somerfet-House, a little Spaniel Dog, with a brass Collar, with the Lords Name, Count Cattelmors Dog, a little white Dog with redish Spots, let them bring it to the Porter of the Gate in Somerfet-House, and they shall be well rewarded.