

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1840.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 28, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 6th of May next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 28, 1840.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 30, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 14th of May next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty :

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room; in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Guildhall, April 27, 1840.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £352, a further part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 14th of April 1831, and numbered 8; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £8800, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £352, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city; the said annual sum of £352 will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sum of £8800, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £352, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sum of £352 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 13th day of April 1840, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to enable the Monmouthshire Iron and Coal Company to sue, and be sued, in the name of any one of their Directors or their Secretary, and to raise money for carrying on their works.—Dated this 14th day of April 1840.

Jones and Walmisley, Parliamentary Agents.

Birmingham and Warwick Junction (Bordesley) Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, since the introduction into Parliament of a Bill, intituled "A Bill for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal, commencing by a junction with the Warwick and Birmingham Canal, in the hamlet of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and terminating by a junction with the Birmingham Canal Navigations, near Salford Bridge, in the same parish," certain alterations have been desired to be made by the promoters of the said Bill (and the same are intended to be applied for by them) of the line laid down in the map or plan referred to in the said Bill; which alterations commence at New Dartmouth street, in the township of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, numbered 61—61a on the plan of such alteration, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, and terminate at a field in the township of Saltley otherwise Sallley and Washwood, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the same county, in the occupation of John Chattaway, and belonging to Charles Bowyer Adderley, and numbered 147 on the said plan, and pass through or into the said townships of Bordesley, Sallley otherwise Sallley and Washwood, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, or part thereof; and notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of such proposed alterations on the same scale, and containing the same particulars as the original Parliamentary plan and section deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, together with a book of reference thereto, has this day been deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Birmingham, at his office in Birmingham; and will be forthwith deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and a copy of the said plan and section, so far as the same relates to each parish or township in which such alteration is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, has been also this day deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish or township.—Dated this sixth day of April 1840.

East India-House, April 29, 1840.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 6th of May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of nine Proprietors of East India Stock, agreeably to the following letter, viz.

"To William Butterworth Bayley, Esq. Chairman of the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

"Sir,

"We, the undersigned, Proprietors of East India Stock, request that a Special General Court of Proprietors may be convened at the earliest period, to take into consideration the following resolutions proposed to be submitted to them:

"1st. That the Proprietors cannot but express their surprise and regret, that, notwithstanding the deep interest taken by them in the case of His Highness the Rajah of Sattara, the Court of Directors and the Board of Control should have proceeded with such unnecessary haste to confirm the deposal and banishment of that Prince, not only without ordering a full and fair investigation of the charges, if any there be against him; but without having afforded the Proprietors an opportunity of considering the grounds on which the Directors have sanctioned a measure of such extreme degradation and punishment.

" 2d. That the Proprietors, therefore, call upon the Court of Directors to lay before them their proceedings in the case of His Highness the Rajah of Sattara, together with the dissents of such of their Colleagues as may have declined to concur in their decision.

" 3d. That there be laid before the Proprietors, copies of such dispatches as may have been received by the Court of Directors from the Bombay Government, on the subject of the sudden death of Balla Sahib Seenapiytee, Commander in Chief of the Forces of His Highness the Rajah of Sattara.

" 4. That there be also laid before the Proprietors, copies of such information as may have been received by the Court of Directors from the Bombay Government, on the subject of the appropriation of the money and jewels claimed as the private property of His Highness the Rajah of Sattara, and said to have been delivered over to Appa Sehiv, the Rajah's brother.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of Ursula Baker (otherwise Murray), late of Cantshill, in the county of Bucks, Widow of the Honourable Alexander Murray, deceased, will apply, either personally or by letter, to George Maule, Esq., Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, at the Treasury-chambers, Whitehall, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

The said Ursula Baker (otherwise Murray) died some time in the year 1780.

Reverend JAMES SHAW, deceased.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate of the late Reverend James Shaw, deceased, are requested to forward the same immediately to the Reverend Thomas Costigan, Margate, the executor of the will, in order that the same may be examined and discharged, as the residue of the property will be paid over to the several persons entitled thereto, in one month from the date hereof.—Margate, May 1, 1840.

THE creditors under the deed of trust of William White, late of the island of Jamaica, Esq., deceased, and of John White and John Edwards, late of Fen-court, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Merchants, deceased, may receive a further dividend, equal to one half year's interest, or the amount of their respective debts, under the trust deed, on Thursday the 4th of June 1840, between the hours of twelve and three, and on every subsequent Thursday, between the hours of twelve and two, by applying on those days at the chambers of Messrs. John and William Lowe, No. 2, Tanfield-court, Temple, to sign a receipt for the same.

WHEREAS by indenture, dated the 26th day of January 1771, Robert Birch, late of the city of Dublin, demised and released to John Doolan, late of Shurone, in the King's County, his heirs and assigns, all that and those the towns and lands of Garrafin, otherwise Garrafyn, otherwise Garrafna, containing, by common estimation, 175 acres, rough and smooth, were the same more or less, being part of the manor of Villiers, in the Queen's County; to hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said John Doolan, his heirs and assigns, for the life of James Stephens, late of Borris, in the Queen's County, and for and during the life and lives of such other person and persons as, by virtue of the covenant for renewal therein contained, should, from time to time, successively for ever thereafter be added to the term of the said demise, at the yearly rent of £126, late currency, payable half yearly, as therein mentioned; and in which said indenture is contained a covenant by the said Robert Birch, that upon the death of the said James Stephens, or upon the deaths or failure of the other, cestui que vies, whose lives should be added to the said lease, pursuant to the provisions thereof, or either or any of them, which should first happen, and upon the said John Doolan, his heirs or assigns, nominating the life of some other person to be inserted in the place and stead of the person so happening first to die within six months after the death of such person, then the said Robert Birch, his heirs and assigns, should, within the said six months, add and insert to the term of the said lease, the life of such person so to be nominated, he the said John Doolan, his heirs and assigns, first paying to the said Robert Birch, his heirs and assigns, the sum of £10, late currency, as a fine for renewal, over and above the said yearly rent, and in like manner, from time to time, successively for ever, upon failure of any other life in the said lease then nominated, and for ever thereafter to be nominated successively, upon the payment of £10, late currency, above the yearly rent thereby reserved, and all arrears thereof; and whereas the fee and inheritance of the said manor of Villiers, including the said lands of Garrafyn, with the appurtenances comprised in the said lease, have come to, and are now vested in, the Most Noble Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos; and whereas the rent and the reversion immediately expectant on the said lease so granted to the said John Doolan, and all the estate and interest of the said Robert Birch therein, and all estates in the said manor prior to the said lease so made to the said John Doolan, have come to, and are now vested in, the said Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos; and whereas the said James Stephens is long since dead, and all the cestui que vies inserted in any lease or renewal under which the said Robert Birch, or those deriving under him held the said lands are long since dead: now, I, the said Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, hereby give notice to all persons entitled to the benefit of the said lease, and of the covenant of renewal therein, that I require them, and each of them, to renew the said lease, by naming three lives to be inserted in a renewal thereof, and to prepare and tender to me for execution a renewal of the said lease, and to pay such rent and fines as are or shall become due and owing to me; and in case such person or persons as are entitled to the benefit of such covenant for renewal shall neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I shall take proceedings for the recovery of the possession of said premises discharged of such lease, and the benefit of such covenant for renewal.

Given under my hand this 13th day of December 1839,
BUCKINGHAM and CHANDOS.

To the representatives and assignees of the said John Doolan, and all others concerned.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Griffith, of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, Printer, Stationer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 23d day of May instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Lord and Ackerley, Solicitors, in Wigan aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing, from and out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by some of the said bankrupt's creditors in preparing an assignment, which was executed by the said bankrupt, before the issuing of the said fiat, and incident thereto, the particulars whereof will be explained at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any agents, accountants, or assistants to investigate the bankrupt's transactions and dealings, books, papers, writings, and affairs, and to make up, adjust, and settle the same, and to collect and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and making to such person or persons such remuneration for his and their travelling expences, loss of time, and other charges as they shall think fit; and also to the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the said bankrupt's estate; or submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences that may arise between the said assignees and any person or persons connected with the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, action or actions, for the recovery or protection of the said bankbankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the risk and expence and for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, continuing, carrying on, and working the business of the said bankrupt as a Printer and Stationer, and Publisher of the Wigan Gazette newspaper, from the time of the issuing of the said fiat, for such period as they shall think proper, or as shall then be fixed on by the said creditors, and, for such purpose, from time to time, to purchase paper, books, stationery, and other matters and things necessary for the carrying on such business, and to engage persons as printers, workmen, and servants at such wages as they shall think fit, and to make arrangements for the hire, use, and occupation of the printing-office and shop, in the possession of the said bankrupt, with the owners thereof respectively as they may see fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, and his printing-presses, types, and fixtures, and other like personal estate, or any part thereof respectively, by public auction or private treaty, or partly by one and partly by the other mode, and either together or in parcels, for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security for payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disposing of a certain freehold cottage, which will be particularly described at the said meeting, either by public auction or private contract, or, if deemed more advantageous to the said estate, to release and convey the said cottage to the mortgagee, or to the person claiming to be mortgagee thereof, in liquidation of the debt due thereon; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the creditors of the said bankrupt as to the said assignees shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Bradbury, late of Islington-row, in Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, and of Newhall-street, in Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, Druggist and Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 23d day of May instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Benjamin Bull, the White Hart Inn, in Digbeth, in Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, paying out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred, paid, and sustained prior to the issuing of the said fiat, in drawing and preparing a deed of assignment of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, to trustees, in trust, for the creditors of the said bankrupt, and in endeavouring to effect a compromise thereby with such creditors, with a view of saving the expences of working a fiat against the said bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees ratifying and confirming, and in completing any sale made by the trustees under the said assignment, of any of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or petition or petitions to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for the recovery or defence of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking all and every such measures, or make such arrangements touching the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as they shall consider most advantageous and beneficial for the creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Sill and William Watson, late of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants, Copartners, Brokers, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 26th day of May instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Clay and Swift, in Union-court, Castle-street, Liverpool, to assent to and confirm, or allow of and authorise, the said assignees making and carrying into effect certain propositions or arrangements made or entered into, and which will be stated at the said meeting, for compounding for the debt or several sums of money and demands due or owing or belonging to the said assignees of the said bankrupts from the estate and effects of William Rowe, late of Jamaica, Esq. deceased, and secured by certain mortgages of his estates and slaves in Jamaica, and for compromising and ending certain disputes and differences and conflicting claims regarding the said estates and slaves, and the proceeds thereof, and the compensation moneys awarded in respect thereof under the Act for the abolition of slavery, and for compromising, ending, and discharging certain suits concerning the premises, or some of them, depending in the Court of Chancery in Jamaica; and to assent to and authorise, or dissent from, the said assignees releasing, relinquishing, giving up, or transferring the said debt, claims, or demands, and the mortgages or securities for the same, or otherwise selling or disposing thereof, upon certain terms and conditions which will be stated at the meeting, or upon any other terms; or to the said assignees making or entering into, and carrying into effect, any other compositions or compromises, or arrangements, touching the said debts, securities, estates, compensation, moneys, suits, and premises; and to the said assignees making and executing all or any such contracts, releases, deeds, conveyances, acts, matters, and things as may be requisite or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid, or such other purposes or arrangements as may be approved of, or authorised at, by such meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Weatherby, of Newmarket, in the county of Cambridge, James Hilton Ford, of Bodlondet, in the county of Carnarvon, William Legh Hilton, of Holywell, in the county of Flint, Richard Addison, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, and Robert Gibson, of Bolton-le-Sands, in the said county of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners, Bankers, Dealers and Chapman (carrying on business in partnership together, as surviving partners of John Douglas, deceased, and as Cotton-Spinners, at Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and at Holywell, in the county of Flint, under the style or firm of the Holywell Company, and as Bankers, at Holywell aforesaid, under the style or firm of Douglas, Smalley, and Co.) are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 26th day of May instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the office of Messrs. Kay, Barlow, and Aston, Solicitors, No. 1, Townhall buildings, Cross street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to sanction the carrying on of the trades or businesses of the said bankrupts, by the provisional assignee under the said fiat, from the time of his appointment until the choice of the said assignees; and to confirm and adopt the purchases and sales made by the provisional assignee during that period, and the payments made, and other matters and things done or transacted by him, in or about, or in relation to the said trades or businesses; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to work the several Cotton-Mills of the said bankrupts at Holywell aforesaid, and also the Cotton-Mills at Pendleton, in the county of Lancaster, and at Annan, in North Britain, heretofore carried on under the firm of William Douglas and Co.; and also the Iron-Foundry of the said bankrupts at Greenfield, near Holywell aforesaid; and to carry on the several trades of Cotton-Spinners and Iron-Founders, as heretofore carried on by the said bankrupts, and at the risk or for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, for such time as may be deemed necessary, or until sale of the several mills, foundry, fixtures, machinery, and implements in trade of the said bankrupts, with power for the said assignees to buy raw cottons, oil, iron, and all other articles and things, and to employ, at the expence of the estate of the said bankrupts, such clerks, workpeople, agents, and others, as shall be necessary during the continuance of the said trades; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to carry on, at the risk or for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts, the business of Bankers, at Holywell aforesaid, and also at Mold, in the county of Flint, in the banks heretofore used and occupied by the said bankrupts, in those towns respectively, until the same banking concerns can be sold or wound up; and to draw bills of exchange on the customers of, or debtors to, the said bankrupts; and to indorse and pay away all bills or notes paid into the said banks, or either of them, without rendering themselves liable or answerable for the amount of such bills or notes, in order that the accounts owing by the customers of the said bankrupts may be collected or secured with as little loss as practicable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, by private contract, and transferring to each bankrupt, his household furniture, plate, linen, books, pictures, farming stock, implements of husbandry, and growing crops, at a valuation, and giving such time or credit for the payment of the price thereof respectively, with or without security, as to the said assignees shall in each instance appear proper, and at the risk of the creditors entitled to the produce of any such household furniture and other effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the whole, or any part, of the freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates of the said bankrupts, or any of them; and of the machinery, implements of trade, and stock of the said bankrupts respectively, and of the produce of the said mills and foundry whilst carried on and worked by the said assignees; either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in lots, and subject to such special or other conditions of sale as the said assignees may think fit, and either for money or upon credit, and with or without security for the price or purchase money thereof, with liberty to take bills of exchange, or promissory notes, in payment; as to the said assignees shall appear proper and expedient, and at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate; and to indorse and pay away the same bills and notes, without rendering themselves answerable for the amount thereof, and with power to buy in all, or any part, or parts, of the said estates and effects, at any auction, or to rescind or vary the terms of any contract for sale thereof, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable for any loss occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing and giving up, or abandoning any leases, or agreements for leases, or purchases granted, or agreed to be granted to, or made with the said bankrupts, or any of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing, and continuing to employ, such clerks, agents, assistants, and workpeople in England, Scotland, and Wales, as the said assignees shall think it expedient to employ; in continuing to work the said mills and foundry, and in carrying on the said banking concerns; or such of the same mills, foundry, and banking concerns as the said assignees may be empowered to work or carry on as aforesaid, and in selling the said bankrupts' stock and effects, and the produce of the said mills and foundry; and such accountants, clerks, and other assistants as the said assignees shall think it necessary to employ to arrange and adjust the books and accounts, and collect, get in, and receive the outstanding debts due, or to become due, to the estate or respective estates of the said bankrupts, or to the said assignees whilst carrying on the said trades; and to the said assignees allowing and paying to the said bankrupts, or any one or more of them, and such accountants, agents, clerks, and other assistants such commission, allowance, compensation, or salary for their time, trouble, attention, and services as to the said assignees shall appear reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the joint or several estates of the said bankrupts, the salaries and wages due to any clerks, workmen, servants, and others employed, or to be employed, by the said bankrupts or by the provisional assignee, or by the said assignees, during the continuance of the said trades hereinbefore referred to, and also all rents, taxes, rates, and outgoings whatsoever, now due, and to become due and payable, by reason of the continuance of the same trades and businesses; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange or promissory notes on which the bankrupts, or any of them, are liable to compound, release, or discharge any other party also liable on the same bills or notes, on such terms and for such sums, by way of composition or otherwise, as may appear to the assignees most advantageous to the bankrupts' estates; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estates and effects of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting compositions from or giving time for payment of their respective debts to the several debtors to the said bankrupts, or any of them, whose names will be stated at the meeting; or to their compounding; submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and particularly to their arranging certain outstanding and unsettled accounts subsisting between the said bankrupts and certain parties or firms to be named at the meeting, in such mode as to the said assignees shall seem most for the advantage of the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the costs, charges, and expences of the solicitors employed by the said bankrupts, or any of them, in endeavouring to effect arrangements for winding up the affairs of the said bankrupts previous to the issuing of the said fiat, the nature, particulars, and amount of which will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred and sustained by several creditors, who will be named at the meeting, in legal proceedings against the said bankrupts previous to the issuing of the said fiat, and for their travelling charges, and which proceedings were taken with a view to the general benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts; and have terminated in the issuing of the said fiat, and the particulars and amount of which costs, charges, and expences will also be stated at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment, by the said assignees, out of the said bankrupts' estate, of the costs, charges, and expences incurred and sustained by Mr. Edmund Burdakin, one of the said assignees, in presenting to, and prosecuting before the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, a petition to supersede three separate fiats in bankruptcy, issued, by Samuel Savage Kenrick, of Ragit, in the county of Flint, against the said James Hilton Ford, William Leigh Hilton, and Robert Gibson, respectively, the particulars and amount of which costs, charges, and expences will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, to the North and South Wales Banking Company, the sum and sums advanced and paid by that banking company, on account of the said bankrupts, previous to the issuing of the said fiat, and withdrawing, or obtaining a transfer, of the securities delivered to the same banking company, when they engaged to make such advances and payments; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting such proceedings, at law or in equity, against, or making such arrangements with the party or parties legally or beneficially interested under the will of the late Thomas Douglas, in relation to the trade heretofore carried on under the firm of William Douglas and Company, and the property, estates, and effects employed therein, as the said assignees shall think advisable, and for the interest of the said bankrupts' creditors; and generally to declare, direct, and agree that the assignees, or either of them, shall not be answerable or accountable for any loss which may arise in carrying on or winding up the said concerns or trades hereinbefore mentioned, of any of them, or for any loss which may arise by or through any banker, solicitor, broker, accountant, agent, servant, or clerk employed, or trusted by them, or either of them, during the carrying on, or winding up of the same trades or businesses, or any of them; or for any loss which may arise, or be sustained by or through any debtor to the said bankrupts, or on any bills of exchange, or promissory notes, drawn or indorsed by the said assignees, or either of them, with the view of facilitating the settlement, and getting in of any debt due to the said bankrupts jointly; or any of them separately, or the contrary; and to confirm, ratify, and allow, or to dissent from and disallow, any other acts, proceedings, matters and things of any sort, kind, or nature which may heretofore have been done, transacted, or performed by the provisional assignee, or by the said assignees, or either of them.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4. c. 57. sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
