NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Trinity Chapel, situated in Tarrant-street, in the town of Arundel, in the county of Sussex, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 28th day of April 1840, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 29th day of April 1840,
Rich. Edmunds, Superintendent Registrar.

Guildhall, April 27, 1840.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £352, a further part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 14th of April 1831, and numbered 8; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £8800, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £352, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city; the said annual sum of £352 will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sum of £8800, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £352, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sum of £352 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 13th day of April 1840, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to enable the Monmouthshire Iron and Coal Company to sue, and be sued, in the name of any one of their Directors or their Secretary, and to raise money for carrying on their works.—Dated this 14th day of April 1840.

Jones and Walmisley, Parliamentary Agents.

Birmingham and Warwick Junction (Bordesley) Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, since the introduction into Parliament of a Bill, intituled "A Bill for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal, commencing by a junction with the Warwick and Birmingham Canal, in the hamlet of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and terminating by a junction with the Birmingham Canal Navigations, near Salford Bridge, in the same parish," certain alterations have been desired to be made by the promoters of the said Bill (and the same are intended to be applied for by them) of the line laid down in the map or plan referred to in the said Bill; which alterations commence at New Dartmouth street, in the township of Bordesley, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, numbered 61—61a on the plan of such alteration, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, and terminate at a field in the township of Saltley otherwise Saltley and Washwood, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the same county, in the occupation of John Chattaway, and belonging to Charles Bowyer Adderley, and numbered 147 on the said plan, and pass through or into the said townships of Bordesley, Saltley otherwise Saltley and Washwood, in the parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, or part thereof; and notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of such proposed alterations on the same scale, and containing the same particulars as the original Parliamentary plan and section deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, together with a book of reference thereto, has this day been deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Birmingham, at his office in Birmingham; and will be forthwith deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and a copy of the said plan and section, so far as the same relates to each parish or township in which such alteration is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, has been also this day deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish or township.—Dated this sixth day of April 1840.
