TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1840.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 8, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 1st of July next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of April 1840.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty, having taken into consideration the late injurious proceedings of certain Officers of the Emperor of China towards Officers and subjects of Her Majesty, and Her Majesty having given orders that satisfaction and reparation for the same shall be demanded from the Chinese Government; and it being expedient that, with a view to obtain such satisfaction and reparation ships and vessels and cargoes belonging to the Emperor of China, and to his subjects, shall be detained and held in custody, and that if such reparation and satisfaction be refused by the Chinese Government, the ships and vessels and cargoes so detained, and others to be thereafter detained, shall be confiscated and sold; and that the proceeds thereof shall be applied in such manner as Her Majesty shall be pleased to direct:

Her Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Commanders of Her Majesty's ships of war do detain and bring into port all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to the Emperor of China, or his subjects, or other persons inhabiting within any of the countries, territories, or dominions of China; and, in the event of such reparation and satisfaction as aforesaid having been refused by the Chinese Government, to bring the same to judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within Her Majesty's dominions; and, to that end, Her Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the draft of a Commission, and present the same to Her Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within Her Majesty's dominions, to take cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon, all and all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships, vessels, and goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same according to the course of admiralty and the laws of nations, to adjudge and condemn all such ships, vessels, and goods as shall belong to China, or subjects of the Emperor of China, or to any others inhabiting within any of his countries, territories, or dominions; and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former precedents. They are likewise to prepare and lay before Her Majesty, at this Board, a draft of such instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in Her Majesty's foreign governments and plantations for their guidance herein; and the said Commissioners are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

WHEREAS Ann Rochell (late Ann Hodgkinson), of Ashted, in the parish of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, but late of Water Orton, in the said county, Widow, deceased, by her last will and testament in writing, bearing date the 13th day of May 1830, after giving several specific legacies, gave and bequeathed all the rest and residue of her property unto, and equally to be divided amongst, all and every her first cousins following, per capita and not per stirpes (viz.), unto and amongst all and every the sons and daughters of Edward and Elizabeth Peat, then or theretofore residing at or near Hinckley, in Leicestershire, which should be living at her decease; also unto and amongst all and every the child and children of William and Mary Peat, late of Little Sutton, which should be living at the time of her decease; also unto and amongst all and every the child and children of George and Hannah Dorner, late of Coleshill-lodge, which should be living at the time of her decease; also unto and amongst all and every the child and children of Thomas and Penelope Dutton, late of Water Orton, which should be living at the time of her decease, the same residue and remainder to be equally divided amongst all and every such child and children, share and share alike. Notice is hereby given, that all parties claiming to be entitled as children of the parties before-named are requested to send a particular (pre-paid) of their claim, and evidence in support thereof, to Mr. Welley, Solicitor, Uttoxeter, immediately, in order that a division of the property may take place.—Uttoxeter, June 18, 1840.

VICE CHANCELLOR.—Wednesday the 17th day of June, in the third year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen-Victoria, 1840, between Henry Oliver Hunt, on behalf of himself and all other the creditors of Sir John Joseph Dillon, deceased, Plaintiff; Henrietta Sophia Isabella Dillon, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Mr. Tennant, of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged that the plaintiff, on the 21st day of August 1839, filed his bill in this Court against the defendant (as by the Six Clerks' certificate now read appears), and took out process of subpoena requiring her to appear to and answer the same, but the said defendant has not appeared thereto; that upon inquiry at the defendant's usual place of abode she cannot be found so as to be served with such process, and there is just ground to believe that the said defendant is gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconds, to avoid being served with the process of this Court, as by affidavit appears; that the said defendant has been in England within two years next before issuing the said subpoena, as by affidavit also appears:—It is thereupon ordered, that the defendant, Henrietta Sophia Isabella Dillon, do appear to the said bill on or before the 8th day of July next.

E. D.—Eud. E. R.

The Woodman Tavern, in Easy-row, Birmingham.

TO be sold by auction, by E. and C. Robins and Co. at the New-Royal Hotel, in New-street, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, on Tuesday the 4th day of July next, at twelve for one, before the Commissioners acting under the Fiat issued against William Welch, a bankrupt, and under an order of the Court of Bankruptcy, and with the consent of the assignees, free from auction duty, and subject to conditions then and there to be produced;

The lease and possession of all that old established and well accustomed house, situate in Easy-row, Birmingham, called the Woodman Tavern, with the liquor shop adjoining, and stables and outbuildings at the back.

The above premises are extensive, in a first rate situation, and are held under lease for an unexpired term of eight years, from the 25th day of March last, at the low rental of £70 per annum.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Robson, Clifford's inn, London, Solicitor to the mortgagee; to Mr. Harpur, of Kennington-cross, Surrey, Solicitor to the Fiat; or to the Auctioneers, New-street, Birmingham.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Waddell, of No. 1, Lime-street, and of Leadenhall-street, in the city of London, Ship and Insurance Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 22d day of July next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against the assignees of William Waddell, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Ship Broker, a bankrupt, and the South Australian Colonization Commissioners, for obtaining payment of certain sums of money due to the assignees of the said James Waddell, under contracts entered into by him with the South Australian Colonization Commissioners; and to compound, adjust, and settle the same claims; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Brown, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Ironmaster, Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 23d day of July next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Palmer and Son, in Paradise-street, Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from a certain conditional agreement entered into by the said assignees for the sale of the leasehold premises, situate in Paradise-street, Birmingham aforesaid, now occupied by the said bankrupt, and the household furniture of the said bankrupt, together with the stock in trade, book debts, tools and fixtures of and belonging to the trade of a Britannia metal manufacturer, lately carried on by the said bankrupt on the said premises; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy, awarded and issued against Charles Scott, of Constantine, in the county of Cornwall, Scrivener, Draler and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 24th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at Andrews' Hotel, Redruth, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from a certain provisional agreement, bearing date the 24th day of June instant, and made between the Reverend Richard Geveys Grylls, of Helstone, in the said county, Clerk, of the first part; Mary Ann Scott, the wife of the said bankrupt, of the second part; the said assignee of the third part; and the said bankrupt of the fourth part; which said provisional agreement, contains, among other matters relating and incident thereto, an arrangement for effecting or completing, and confirming the sale of, a certain policy of assurance on the life of the said bankrupt for £2000, granted by the Equitable Assurance Society on the 9th day of May 1802, and of certain shares in the tithes of the parish of Wendron, in the said county, and the more particular contents of which said provisional agreement will be made known to the creditors at the meeting hereby convened.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Waller, Samuel Waller, Thomas Waller the younger, William Waller, and Ralph Knowles Waller, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners, Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapman; and Co-partners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts under the said Fiat, at the Commissioners Rooms, in Manchester aforesaid, on Monday the 27th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, in order to sanction, allow of, ratify and confirm the acts and proceedings of the assignees made, done, and executed since their appointment, in the investigation of the bankrupts' affairs, and the sale of the machinery, implements, fixtures and utensils, to a certain person who will be named at the meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving such time for payment, with or without security, at the risk and expense of the estate, as they may think fit, without being answerable for any loss which may be incurred in consequence thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees accepting a certain proposal made to them by or on behalf of the bankrupts, or some of them, for the purchase of the equity of redemption and the interest of the said assignees of and in the factories, mills, cottages, dye houses, warehouses, lands, buildings, and hereditaments, situate at Mellor, in the county of Derby, and in Manchester aforesaid, and which hereditaments have lately been offered for sale by auction, the particulars of which proposal will be stated at the meeting; and to the assignees entering into any contract or contracts for the sale of the same, to give such time for the payment of the purchase-money, with or without security, and at the risk and expense of the estate, as they may think fit, and to execute any deed or deeds, and do all acts necessary for carrying the same into effect, and

In case such proposal shall not be accepted, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation, either together or in parcels, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without security for the purchase-money, or any part thereof, and at the risk and expense of the estate, and to such sale or sales being made, either to the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, upon such terms and conditions, and with such restrictions as to the said assignees shall seem proper; and in the event of any future sale or sales by auction, then to the said assignees, from time to time, and as often as they think fit, buying in the property offered by auction, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, or any part thereof, at any future auction, or by private contract, in such manner as they shall think fit, at the entire risk and loss (if any), of the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying to the said bankrupts, or to some of them, and to or for the service of a person who will be named at the meeting, such a sum of money as the assignees shall deem reasonable for collecting and getting in the outstanding debts owing to the estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain accountants and agents, and other persons, such allowance for their time and trouble in managing the said bankrupts' estate, investigating their books and accounts, and collecting and getting in the effects of the said bankrupts, and otherwise relating to their affairs as to the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable; and to the said assignees continuing the services of such person or persons, or to their employing others for the purposes aforesaid if they shall think fit, for such time or times, and with such allowance and remuneration for their services as to the said assignees shall seem proper, and to one of the said assignees receiving such allowance and remuneration, for his time, trouble, and services in or to the said bankrupts' affairs, as shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making any arrangement they may think proper with the mortgagees of the real and leasehold estates of the said bankrupts, and to concur with such mortgagees in selling and disposing thereof, in such way and manner as the said assignees should think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting, defending and opposing any action or actions, suit or suits, at law, in equity, or in bankruptcy, for the recovery and protection of any part of the estate and effects, real or personal, of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising or compounding and accepting part in discharge of the whole of any debt or debts, claim or demand, due or owing to the said bankrupts' estate, and to their executing any letter of licence, deed of composition and release, or deed of assignment, or other instrument whatsoever made by and between any debtor to the estate of the said bankrupts and his creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration or otherwise determining and agreeing any dispute or difference, matter or thing whatsoever now depending and existing, or which may hereafter arise or exist, relating to the said bankrupts' estate, or any part thereof, or any matter connected therewith; and to empower the said assignees to give consent to the holders of bills of exchange, on which the said bankrupts are liable, either severally or jointly with others, to compound, release, and discharge any of the other parties also liable on the same bills, on such terms as may appear to the said assignees most advantageous to the said bankrupts' estate; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act in and about the affairs of the said bankrupts, for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, as the said assignees may, from time to time, think proper and expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Job Freeth, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate, on Wednesday the 22d day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Ebenezer Sargent, in Smithfield, Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expenses incurred and sustained previous to the awarding and issuing forth of the said fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement between the said bankrupt and his creditors, relative to the payment of their debts, and in endeavouring to procure for the creditors, and to obtain their acceptance of a composition, of a certain sum in the pound in lieu and discharge of their full debts; and to obtain security for such composition, and the costs and charges of convening and holding a meeting of creditors relative to the said bankrupt's affairs, and of preparing a deed of assignment from the said bankrupt to trustees for the general benefit of his creditors, and of endeavouring to induce certain of his creditors to forego their securities, and to come in under such deed rateably with the other creditors; and also to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts, dealings, receipts, payments, purchases, disbursements, transactions, and proceedings of the provisional assignee appointed under the said fiat, and the continuing and carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt at Birmingham, up to the day of the choice of assignee, and to reimburse the said provisional assignee all moneys advanced and disbursed by him in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt, and to indemnify him out of the estate for what he has done in the matters aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee at his discretion, but at the risk and expense of the estate, continuing and carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt at Birmingham aforesaid, for such period, and in such manner, as the assignee shall deem fit; and to or from the assignee employing the bankrupt, and any other person or persons at such salaries and wages, and to pay the said bankrupt and other person or persons for their services, as the said assignee shall think fit; and to make all purchases and payments necessary for carrying on the same trade which may be requisite, and to indemnify the assignee from all loss by reason of such trade being carried on; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of such part of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, and effects of the said bankrupt, as at the time of the meeting shall remain unsold, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private tender, and either for ready money or on credit, and to his buying the same, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, for ready money or on credit, with like powers again to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem expedient; and to his taking a bill or bills of exchange, or other security or securities for the purchase money, as he shall deem proper, without being liable to account for, or bear any loss which may happen, by reason of the selling on credit, and taking any such security or securities, or which may happen by any such resale or resales as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling to the said bankrupt the household furniture and other articles of domestic use; and also the whole or any part of his stock of goods at his shop in Birmingham aforesaid, at a valuation; and to the assignee giving such time or credit for the payment, with or without security for the price thereof, as to the said assignee shall appear proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing, at the expense of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, or such other person or persons as he shall deem proper, to collect in the debts, and take and value the stock and effects of the said bankrupt, and to ratify and confirm the appointment of an accountant, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, which shall have been made by the said assignee prior to the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee making such compensation to such accountant and other person, for their time and trouble in the matters aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the leases, goodwill, and possession of any house or houses, shop or shops occupied by the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary, for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting an action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against a person to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of a balance of account due from him to the said bankrupt; and also an action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against another person also to be named at the said meeting, to recover certain moneys due to the said bankrupt on behalf of his children; and also an action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against another person also to be named at the said meeting, to recover certain other moneys due to the said bankrupt under or by virtue of the will of his late father; and also an action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against another person, also to be named at the said meeting, to recover a book debt due to the said bankrupt; and also an action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against another person, also to be named at the said meeting, to recover a certain sum due to the said bankrupt, for services performed for his late mother; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with the said debtors, or any one or more of them, and with any other debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for the payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts, without security, and for confirming and agreeing to any composition or other arrangement which the said assignee shall, previously to the said meeting, have made with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already, or which shall have been, adopted and taken by the said assignee in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to authorise him to act in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as to him shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against George Frederick Bloxam, of Broad-street, in the city of London, Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 8th day of July next, and on the 11th day of August following, at eleven in the forenoon precisely on each day, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. Wm. Turquand, Copthall-buildings, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Messrs. Venning, Naylor, and Robius, Solicitors, 9, Tokenhouse-yard.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Anthony Joseph Michael La Beaume, of Argyle-street, Regent street, in the county of Middlesex, Medical Galvanist, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to John Herman Merivale, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 9th day of July next, at one of the clock in the afternoon precisely, and on the 11th day of August following, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. G. Green, No. 18, Aldermanbury, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed.
